Seniors	sixtysomething +	March 21	Noon	30 Min.	"Depression & the Older Adult." One of the myths in our society is that with advancing age, depression is to be expected. Therefore, many people don't seek treatment for what is a very treatable illness. But, the fact is that depression is no more common among older adults that it is among younger adults. But sometimes the symptoms of depression are slightly different in the older adult than in younger people. Host Margerie Sangster and counselor Marcia Stoll discuss what depression is, what causes it, how to recognize it and what can be done about it.
Minority Concerns	Digest	Jan. 30	12:30 p.m.	30 Min.	"Diversity." Host Zenobia Gerald reports on one woman's efforts to make a difference. Teresa Ruffini's ancestors were slave owners. She says they'd probably turn in their graves if they knew what she does for a living. She's a diversity workshop trainer/facilitator. Teresa tackles sensitive issues head on and doesn't back down when the going gets tough.
Consumer	Digest	Jan. 3	Noon	30 Min.	"Recycling." Most people are interested in recycling, and many are already sorting from their garbage everything that will be accepted by recyclers. Host Zenobia Gerald and guests discuss the importance of recycling; what items can be recycled; items we don't always think of as recyclable that can be diverted from the landfill and either be re-used or recycled; examples of clothes made out of recycled products. Guests - Kelly Neal/ Macon Co. Environmental Educator, and Sherri Ludlam/Macon Co. Recycling Coordinator.

Consumer	20/20	Feb. 3	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Danger on Wheels." Arnold Diaz investigates a danger to your children you might not suspect when you go shopping. More and more young children are being injured in shopping cart-related accidents - and it can happen even when the child is wearing a seat belt. Arnold Diaz shows you what to look for.
Consumer	Digest	Feb. 7	Noon	30 Min.	"Severe Weather Safety Tips." Sgt. Flynn Hanners/Illinois State Police, discusses how being prepared during those sudden winter storms can save your life. He suggests every motorist should have a plan and that includes having a gym bag packed with essential items that stays in the car at all times.
Consumer	20/20	Feb. 7	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Is Your Child Safe." Experts say 4 out of 5 car seats are incorrectly installed by parents. Bill Ritter takes us through the dangers and shows you step-by-step what you can do to help your child survive in a crash.
Consumer	20/20	March 8	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"The Check's in the Mail." They're so hard to resist, those sweepstakes that come in the mail, but are they really proclaiming you the big winner, promising you a fortune? Or is it a clever come on, putting money in their pockets, taking from yours. Arnold Diaz with a warning for anyone who's ever been tempted by the lure of the sweepstakes.
Consumer	20/20	March 22	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Playing with Danger." As any parent knows, a new child comes with all kinds of accessories: playpens, strollers, car seats, etc. They're all designed to make parenting a little easier and to keep your child safe. But a 20/20 consumer investigation has turned up an alarming fact. Too many parents may be using potentially hazardous products without knowing it.
Youth Problems & Promise	20/20	Jan. 17	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Why Did Scott Die?/MIT Drinking" Scott Krueger was a brilliant student with a promising future. But just weeks after he left for college, he fell victim to too much alcohol. Was his fraternity alone to blame, pressuring a student who wanted to belong? Or did this renowned school fail to protect him from dangerous drinking?
Youth Problems & Promise	20/20	Jan. 20	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"The Serpents and the Children." Five children left alone in this world - orphaned after their mother and father died practicing their religion. Their parents were snake handlers. But what should happen now to their children? Should they be raised as their parents would have raised them, in the church of their belief, or should they be taken somewhere else for safe-keeping?
