There follows a list of some of the significant issues responded to by station WAND-TV, Decatur, Illinois, along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period July 1, 1998 to Sept. 30, 1998. The listing is by no means exhaustive. The order in which the issues appear does not reflect any priority or significance.

Description of Issues	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Seniors	sixtysomething +	Aug. 16	Noon	30 Min.	"Home Health Care." Host Marjorie Sangster examines home health care and charges that changes in the industry are hurting elderly agencies. The problem - Congress can do many things to balance the budget. In their haste to cap the fast-rising amount of Medicare funds flowing to agencies that deliver medical care to the elderly in their home, Congress slapped on a crude formula so that agencies are reimbursed based on how much they had been charging in the past. As a result, industry officials say these agencies are going out of business at an alarming rate. Guests - Lloyd Evan, Administrator, Logan County Health Department, and Karen Adell, Executive Director of the Visiting Nurse Association of Macon County.
Seniors	sixtysomething +	Sept. 20	Noon.	30 Min.	"Elder Law." Host Marjorie Sangster examines the area of Elder Law with the expert, attorney Dan Moore.
Seniors	20/20	Sept. 30	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Elderly Drivers." Chief Correspondent Chris Wallace reports on the dangerous driving habits of some of the elderly, and the politics surrounding age-based testing.
Minority Concerns	20/20	July 6	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Roy Smith's America." In the racially charged era of the 1950s, brutality against blacks was an unfortunate but frequent occurrence. Incredibly, as Connie Chung reports, almost five decades later, incidents of terror and injustice against African-Americans, motivated by racial prejudice, still occur.
Minority Concerns	PrimeTime Live	Aug. 19	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Death Behind Bars." On the morning of August 21, 1997, Jamel Radcliff was arrested for a minor marijuana charge and brought to a detention center in Greenville, South Carolina, where he died while in police custody. Correspondent Jay Shadler examines the mysterious death of the 21-year-old African-American man, unearthing an avalanche of disturbing evidence including five other suspicious deaths within the last two years.
Youth Problems & Promise	20/20	July 27	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Growing Up With Tourettes." Jhn Stossel speaks with teens living with Tourette's syndrome. He reports that their condition often is misdiagnosed as nervous ticking and can provoke the scorn and exasperation of their peers and parents.
Youth Problems & Promise	Digest	Aug. 22	12:30 p.m.	30 Min.	Host Zenobia Gerald examines LW's Place and the work they're doing with kids with substance problems. Guests - Michael King, Adolescent Program Coordinator, Donna Wolf-Keagle, Community Outreach Coordinator, and "Brandon," Recovering Addict.

Description of Issues	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Youth Problems & Promise	20/20	Sept. 4	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"A Sea of Alcohol." Heavy drinking and hazing by college fraternity brothers is nothing new. Yet last year, there was a rash of alcohol related student fatalities, many involving fratrnlty members. Are some students being forced to drink themselves to death? Elizabeth Vargas offers this disturbing report.
Youth Problems & Promise	Digest	Sept. 6	Noon	30 Min.	"Scouting." Sports anchor Ron Rector takes a look at the Boy Scouts of America in Central Illinois and its affect on the lives of young boys.

Youth Problems & Promise	20/20	Sept. 25	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Youth Sports." Tom Jarriel reports on rising incidence of violence in youth sports matches, often directed at referees. In some instances, overzealous parents were so unruly, police had to be called.
Consumer	20/20	July 3	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"A Bad Move." They're a familiar part of the American landscape, the almost 200,000 trucks and trailers from U-Haul. But a three-month 20/20 investigation raised serious questions about the safety and maintenance of some of the trucks in the country's largest fleet of "do-it yourself" moving equipment. Correspondent Arnold Diaz.
Consumer	Digest	July 5	Noon	30 Min.	"Realizing the American Dream." It's the title of a workshop presented by Consumer Credit Counseling Service. Topics cover everything from "Are You Ready to Buy a Home," to "Getting a Mortgage," to "Keeping Your Home and Managing Your Finances." Host Zenobia Gerald and guest Sharon Law, education coordinator and counselor for CCCS, take viewers through the steps of buying a house.
Consumer	20/20	July 10	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Give Me a Break." Do you think a million dollars sounds like a lot for an outhouse? That's how much taxpayers are shelling out for some fancy new johns in our national parks. John Stossel takes a look at these pricey outhouses.
Consumer	News Extra	Aug. 9	Noon	30 Min.	"Deregulation." Reporter-anchor Reed O'brien examines deregulation of the utility industry and its affect on Central Illinois consumers.
Consumer	20/20	Aug. 28	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Super Highway Robbery." Today's robber doesn't need a gun to hold up a bank---just a computer and modem. ABC's News' Sam Donaldson reports for 20/20 on how cyber-bandits, with the use of cutting edge technology, break highly classified codes of some of the world's major banking institutions and possibly cause financial chaos.
Consumer	20/20	Sept. 16	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"The Art of the Car Deal." "Car packing" is a deceptive practice in which car dealers quote bogus figures to entice buyers to accept financing and payment terms they might otherwise reject.

Description of Issues	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment
Consumer	20/20	Sept. 20	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Surviving a Pile-up." What do you need to know about avoiding highway pile-ups? Science reporter Michael Guillen examines how bad weather; optical illusions and misjudgments can lead to fatal multi-car crashes.
Consumer	Digest	Sept. 27	Noon	30 Min.	"Operation Warm Winter." A look at the coat drive for needy kids. This is the seventh year of the project, which has collected more than 12,000 coats. Organizers are gearing up for another successful year, hoping to collect more than 4,000 coats.

Part one begins with a look at the maximum-security prison in Raleigh, North Carolina. It examines the aftermath of one murder through the eyes of the convicted murderer, now serving time in Central Prison, and the victim's family. Part 2 - explores the consequences of long-tem warehousing of dangerous men. Part 3 moves to Huntsville, Texas and takes a look at the newest generation of prisons, which have redefined maximum security. Part 4 examines how inmates circumvent the rules of even a high-tech prison. The final episode focuses on the ultimate punishment: the death penalty.
Crime	20/20	Sept. 18	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Mandatory Sentencing." When 19-year-old Jeff Berryhill barged into his rival suitor's house and angrily punched him, he had clearly broken the law. But did his crime merit a 25-year prison sentence? Terry Moran reports that according to an Iowa State law establishing mandatory sentences, despite the fact that Berryhill had no prior record and was a model student and citizen, the answer is yes.
Crime	20/20	Sept. 25	9 p.m.	60 Min.	"Hate Crimes." Hate crimes in American have provoked outpouring of sympathy for the victims and outraged cries to bring the perpetrators to justice. But what if the victims and the perpetrators are one and the same? Deborah Roberts reports on people accused of faking hate crimes to collect insurance proceeds.

Description of Issues	Program/Segment	Date	Time	Duration	Narration of Type and Description of Program/Segment

PRIMETIME LIVE - Third Quarter, 1998

Wednesday, July 1, 1998

"Rerun: Blood Money" — (Producer: Rhonda Schwartz) — Chief Investigative Correspondent Brian Ross in a Primetime hidden camera investigation into the sale of human organs. These organs, which are sold in the United States and other parts of the world, come from executed Chinese prisoners. According to the report, the Chinese army not only has knowledge of this practice, but also has been benefiting from it for years.

"Rerun: Girls In The Hood" — (Producers: Michael Bicks and Anna Sims-Phillips) — 3 parts — Two girl gang members take us inside the dangerous and deadly world in which they live — a world rarely seen on camera. Correspondent Cynthia McFadden travels to the streets of east L.A. and learns about the lives of Jokie and Mara, as they share their hopes, dreams, and brutal realities.

"Girls In The Hood Update" — (Producers: Michael Bicks and Anna Sims-Phillips) — Correspondent Cynthia McFadden revisits Jokie and Mara reporting the changes they have made in their lives in the time that has passed.

"Clinton Villa" — (Producer: Josh Gerstein) — Co-Anchor Sam Donaldson give us an inside look at the President's accommodations during his stay in China.

Wednesday, July 8, 1998

"Rerun: Side Story" - (Producer: Stew Harris) -- Chief Correspondent Chris Wallace examines the safety of various cars when they are tested for side impact stability.

"Doublecross" - (2 Parts) - (Producer: Jude Dratt) -- A six month Primetime investigation reveals how the US customs service turned a marijuana smuggler into a big-time cocaine importer and looked the other way while he drowned America in billions of dollars worth of cocaine. Correspondent Forrest Sawyer talks to Rodney Matthews a drug smuggler turned informant.

"Good Housekeeping: Bug Spray" - (Producer: Valerie Parker) -- Correspondent Sylvia Chase visits the Good Housekeeping Institute to put insect repellents to the test.

Wednesday, July 15, 1998

"Rerun: Sex, Lies & Videotape" - (Producer: Allison Sesnan) -- Correspondent John Quinones investigates a scandalous life that one husband leads and finds that behind his adulterous behavior lies a very powerful drug known as the date rape drug.

"Rerun: Buried Alive" - (2 Parts) - (Producer: Jon Meyersohn) -- In an incredible story of human endurance, Correspondent Elizabeth Vargas interviews Stuart Diver who survived a massive landslide in Australia which killed 19 people including his wife Sally. For three days, Diver strained to breathe as he was trapped under the remains of his crushed home.

NIGHTLINE IN PRIMETIME: CRIME & PUNISHMENT (Five-Part Series)

Thursday, August 6, 1998

This first broadcast of a five-part series, anchored and reported by Ted Koppel, begins with a look at the maximum-security prison in Raleigh, North Carolina. It examines the aftermath of one murder through the eyes of the convicted murderer, now serving time in Central Prison, and the victim's family.

Thursday, August 13, 1998

This second program, anchored and reported by Ted Koppel, explores the consequences of long-term warehousing of dangerous men, not only for the prisoners, but also for the prison wardens, guards and the society to which many will return.

Thursday, August 20, 1998

Part III of this program moves to Huntsville, Texas and takes a look at the newest generation of prisons, which have redefined maximum security. This broadcast examines life inside the facility, and whether society is prepared for the consequences of prisoners who may return to society after years inside a super maximum prison.

Thursday, August 27, 1998

Continuing its report on super maximum prisons, Nightline In Primetime, examines how inmates circumvent the rules of even a high-tech prison, where video-cameras monitor inmates in their cells, and computers control water and electrically in each cell.

Thursday, September 3, 1998

By an overwhelming margin, Americans favor the death penalty. And in ever-increasing numbers, prisoners are being executed. This final episode focuses on the ultimate punishment: the death penalty. Koppel examines the circumstances of two condemned to die by lethal injection, the pastors who counseled them, and the families of their victims.

20/20 - Third Quarter, 1998

Friday, July 3, 1998

↳ "A Bad Move?" - They're a familiar part of the American landscape, the almost 200,000 trucks and trailers from U-Haul. But a three-month "20/20" investigation raised serious questions about the safety and maintenance of some of the trucks in the country's largest fleet of "do-it yourself" moving equipment. Correspondent Arnold Diaz updates his report on ABC News "20/20 Friday." UHAUL [O.A.D.-11/7/97] (Producer - Mary Van Horn, PA - Joel Engardio)

"The Way They Are" - In light of Barbara Streisand and James Brolin's wedding this week, Barbara Walters updates her exclusive interview with the couple. STREISAND [O.A.D.-11/14/97] (Producer - Rob Wallace, AP - Patricia Arico, PA - Minda Allarde)

"Into The Wild" - Tom Jarriel updates his report on how a young man's journey of self-discovery led to his death in the Alaskan wilderness. INTO THE WILD [O.A.D.-5/30/97] (Producer - Rob Wallace, AP - Joan Lefosse)

Monday, July 6, 1998

↳ "Roy Smith's America" - In the racially charged era of the 1950s, brutality against blacks was an unfortunate but frequent occurrence. Incredibly, as Connie Chung reports, almost five decades later, incidents of terror and injustice against African-Americans, motivated by racial prejudice, still occur. Ms. Chung updates her report on ABC News "20/20 Monday." ROY SMITH [2 PARTS] [O.A.D.-3/20/98] (Producer - Alan Goldberg, AP - Danielle Parker)

"Happily Ever After" - John Stossel updates a report which challenged the popular belief that women have a more vested interest in getting and staying married. As Mr. Stossel discovered, many divorcees are finding the end of their marriages to be the start of more fulfilling lives. DIVORCED WOMEN [O.A.D.-9/11/97] (Producer - Joanna Breen, AP - Nancy Gammerman)

"Give Me A Break" - Arnold Diaz updates his "Give Me a Break" report which dispensed some "poetic justice" on the National Library of Poetry's competition for would-be poets. POETRY CONTEST [O.A.D.-1/5/98] (Producer - Glenn Ruppel)

Friday, July 10, 1998

"A Healing Journey" - Waris Dirie, a Somalian-born model, fled her nomadic family in East Africa to eventually reach the heights of fame in the fashion industry. In an interview with Barbara Walters, Ms. Dirie reveals how she survived a horrific childhood experience and explains why she has dedicated her life to ending the barbaric tradition of female genitalia mutilation which affects millions of women throughout the world. WARIS [O.A.D.-6/20/97] (Producer - Ethel Bass, AP - Frank Mastropolo, PA - Brian Hale)

"Sneaker Secret" - Arnold Diaz examines the claims of the makers of high priced sneakers: do the designer athletic shoes really enable people to run faster or jump higher? SNEAKERS [O.A.D.-2/6/98] (Producer - Bonnie VanGilder, PA - Joel Engardio)

"Killing Them With Kindness" - Bob Brown examines a growing problem in household pet health; pet obesity. He reports that an estimated 14 million dogs and 16 million cats are overweight. Mr. Brown speaks to veterinarians who say owners of fat pets should work out nutrition plans with their animal doctors, avoid feeding table scraps, limit treats and encourage exercise. FAT PETS [O.A.D.-3/2/98] (Producer - Ethel Bass, PA - Brian Hale)

"Give Me A Break" - Do you think a million dollars sounds like a lot for an outhouse? That's how much taxpayers are shelling out for some fancy new johns in our national parks. John Stossel takes a look at these pricey outhouses in this week's, "Give Me A Break!" OUTHOUSES [O.A.D.-1/19/98] (Producer - Frank Mastopolo)

Monday, July 13, 1998

Pre-empted

Friday, July 17, 1998

"Missing Millionaire" - John Miller reports on the mysterious disappearance of Irene Silverman, a wealthy 82-year-old Manhattan widow who vanished on July 5th. THE MISSING MILLIONAIRE (Producer - Michael Bicks, Michelle Smawley, PA'S - Deborah Runcie, Kate Sheekey)

"A Silent Invader" - When Mike Snyder was hit by a car 13 years ago, doctors treated his injuries and gave the Houston resident two pints of blood. Two years after the accident, Snyder discovered that the blood which helped him survive was tainted with the virus that causes Hepatitis C, a disease which cripples - and eventually destroys - the liver. ABC News medical correspondent Dr. Timothy Johnson reports on a little-known but deadly health threat which scientists believe may have infected four million Americans. HEPATITIS C (Producer - Callie Crossley, PA - Ani Mozian)

"Barbie's Revenge" - Bob Brown updates his profile of Cindy Jackson, an Ohio native who moved to London and achieved notoriety for her quest to remake herself through plastic surgery into the image of her childhood model of glamour - a Barbie doll. CINDY'S CLONE [O.A.D.-1/5/98] (Producer - Joe Pifferling, AP - Joan LeFosse)

"Give Me A Break" - John Stossel updates his "Give Me a Break!" report on some laws which enforce nothing more than common sense. Do we need laws regulating bird feeders? [O.A.D.-11/20/97] (Producer - Frank Mastropolo)

Monday, July 20, 1998

"Where Is Baby Sabrina?" - It has been eight months since little Sabrina Aisenberg vanished without a trace. Her parents say they tucked her in for the night and never saw her again. What happened to baby Sabrina? Do her parents know more than they're telling? The police seem to think so. Deborah Roberts with the crime, the clues and the controversy. WITHOUT A TRACE [O.A.D.-3/6/98] (Producer - Nancy Kramer, PA'S - Stephanie Hirsh, Hillary Tullin)

"Men, Biking, Impotence" - Dr. Timothy Johnson speaks to Boston University Medical Center's Dr. Irwin Goldstein, who says that a number of men may have become impotent from damage inflicted by bike seats. BICYCLES [O.A.D.-9/18/97] (Producer - Susan Wagner, PA - Brian Hale)

"It's Never Too Early" - Lynn Sherr interviews California Obstetrician Rene Van Carr, who believes expectant parents can teach their babies while they're still in the womb. PRE-NATAL PSYCH [O.A.D.-12/12/97] (Producer - Penny Fleming, AP - Nancy Gamerman)

Friday, July 24, 1998

"Shooting At The Capitol" - Late Friday afternoon, alone gunman entered the capitol building and opened fire. Two Capital police officers were killed and a tourist was seriously wounded. The gunman himself was hit multiple times in the exchange of gunfire. Sam Donaldson covers this first violent attack on the Capitol in 15 years. SHOOTING AT THE CAPITOL (DC/Producers - Howard Rosenberg, John Bilotta, John Martelli, David Shapinsky, NY/Producer - Andrea Amiel, DC/AP - Yaro Velez, NY/AP - Danielle Parker, DC/PA - Phoung Nguyen, NY-PA'S - Jean Alter, James Wang)

"Our for Blood" - How are you coping with what some believe could be the worst mosquito season in years? Following tests, which literally used human beings as "insect bait," Arnold Diaz reports on which mosquito products worked well and which ones researchers scratched off their lists. BUG ZAPPERS (Producer - Greg Fisher, PA - Tom Goldstone)

"Standing By Roberto" - For a few weeks each year, Dr. John Chases of Orlando, Fla., brings health care to remote neighborhoods and city hospitals in the Dominican Republic. During one of his trips, he volunteered to help Roberto, a boy whose lower legs had grown bent forward from his knees at a 90-degree angle. Bob Brown reports on this orthopedic surgeon who helped Roberto in his quest to walk upright. ROBERTO (Producer - Joe Pfiffering, AP - Jimmy Altman)

"The People's Queen" - Following the death of Princess Diana, the head of the Royal Family was criticized for her seemingly icy condolences to the people of England. Can Queen Elizabeth ever drop her royal mystique and become the "people's queen?" Barbara Walters reports on new efforts by the Royal Family to reach out to a wider range of the queen's subjects. THE PEOPLE'S QUEEN (Producer - Katie Thomson)

Monday, July 27, 1998

"The Man of Her Nightmares" - Jennifer Thompson of Burlington, North Carolina was absolutely certain when she testified thirteen years ago that Ronald Cotton was the man who broke into her home and raped her. Now, two trials and years later, she knows what he has always known—she was wrong. Elizabeth Vargas reports the surprising story of how the two have made peace and even begun a friendship. MISTAKEN IDENTITY [O.A.D.-2/2/98] (Producer - Shari Finkelstein, AP - Gwen Gowen)

"Growing Up With Tourettes" - John Stossel speaks with teens living with Tourette's syndrome. He reports that their condition often is misdiagnosed as nervous ticking and can provoke the scorn and exasperation of their peers and parents. TOURETTE TEENS [O.A.D.-1/9/98] (Producer - Karen Saunders, PA - Michelle Spahn)

"Poison for Wrinkles" - Deborah Roberts reports on Botox, a strange but effective new treatment for wrinkles: minute amounts of the bacteria which cause botulism, or food poisoning, are injected into the face. BOTOX [O.A.D.-5/5/97] (Producers - Carole Radziwill, AP - Angela Chambers)

Friday, July 31, 1998

"Crisis in the White House" - Sam Donaldson covers the latest developments in special prosecutor Kenneth Starr's investigation involving President Clinton. How will Starr's decision to grant immunity to Monica Lewinsky affect the President's case? CLINTON (Producer - Howard Rosenberg, AP - Yaro Velez, PA'S - David Byrd, Phoung Nguyen)

"Donald Gets Trumped" - John Stossel updates his report on Vera Coking, an elderly widow who refused to give up her Atlantic City home despite the efforts of casino developers. A Superior Court judge ruled this week that the state of New Jersey was not allowed to seize the house, which stood in the way of an expansion of the Trump Plaza Hotel and Casino. TRUMP [O.A.D.-6/1/98] (Producer - Frank Mastropolo)

"Getting Even with the Law" - As the nation mourns the tragic deaths of two Capitol Hill policemen, there is renewed awareness of the life-threatening dangers police officers routinely encounter on the job. Tom Jarriel reports that the threat to police safety now extends beyond the workplace as more and more criminals target police officers' private lives. How can society effectively protect the men and women who protect us? COP REVENGE (Producer - Martin Clancy, PA - James Wang)

"Cheering for Amanda" - When teenager Amanda Arthur was rendered comatose in a car crash, the entire community of Newport, California rallied around the unconscious teen, raising money for her rehabilitation and decorating the walls of the hospital with pictures and personal notes. To the amazement of her doctors, she emerged from the coma and is slowly regaining brain function. Bob Brown reports on Amanda's inspiring story. COMA GIRL [O.A.D.-1/12/98] (Producer - Ethel Bass, AP - Claudette Caravaggi)

Monday, August 3, 1998

"What Went Wrong with Vince?" - On November 26, 1997, 15-year-old former honor student Vince Greer took his father's rifle and opened fire on his family, wounding his father Stan and killing his mother Donna. Although the Saint Louis County prosecutor wants him tried as an adult and given the maximum possible sentence, the family Vince once attacked has rallied behind him, claiming he suffers from schizophrenia and deserves leniency. Connie Chung reports the tragic story of a teen-aged boy who some say is sick and others claim is faking mental illness to get away with a heinous crime. TROUBLED CHILD (2 PARTS) [O.A.D.-3/27/98] (Producer-Lynn Redmond, PA-Kate Sheekey)

"The Millionaire Next Door" - Judy Muller reports that surprisingly, 80% of millionaires in this country are self-made and lead rather inconspicuous lives, shopping at discount stores and living in modest homes. MILLIONAIRES [O.A.D.-10/10/97] (Producer - Gwen Gowen)

"A Day at the Office" - John Stossel reports that more and more, men are conducting business in strip bars, and their female co-workers are expected to go along. STRIP BARS [O.A.D.-9/26/97] (Producer-Mark Golden, AP - Diane Petzke)

Friday, August 7, 1998

Correspondent Elizabeth Vargas reports on a new law, which denies visitation rights to imprisoned parents, convicted of murdering their spouses. LIZZIE'S LAW [O.A.D.-11/20/97] (Producer-Janet Tobias, AP-Joan LeFosse)

"Mayan Ruins" Hugh Downs ventures deep into the remote north of Guatemala and takes part in an archeological dig at one of the world's least known but most fascinating sites—the ancient Mayan city of Nakbe. (MAYAN RUINS) (Producer - Rob Wallace, PA - Brian Hale)

"Keeping Women In Line" - Women are used to facing long lines for restrooms in theatres, stadiums and other public places. But Lynn Sherr reports that in some cases, the lack of adequate facilities for women can be more serious than merely inconvenient. POTTY PARADY [O.A.D.-7/21/95] Producer - Carla De Landri, PA - Patricia Cullum)

Monday, August 10, 1998

"Making the Rounds" - For the past 12 years, John Stossel has followed Dr. Michael Swango, a doctor who is suspected of having a hand in 11 patient deaths. While no one has been able to prove Swango's involvement in these deaths, many which have known him over the years fear him and talk to John Stossel about their encounters with Swango. SWANGO (2 PARTS) [O.A.D.-3/9/98] (Producer - Judy Tygard, PA - Hillary Tullin)

"Who Needs the Sun?" - Arnold Diaz warns consumers about sun lotions that have the appearance of a sunscreen, but offer no protection from the sun's dangerous rays. Then, Diaz visits the cast of "Baywatch" to show that there is such a thing as a healthy tan—it's a tan in the bottle, or sunless tanners. SUNLESS TANNERS [O.A.D.-8/8/97] (Producer - Frank Mastropolo, AP - Sara Holmberg)

"Your Shrinking Brain" - Hugh Downs reports on short-term memory loss associated with aging and how it can be prevented. ABC News colleagues Mr. Downs, 76, Peter Bull, 44 and Joel Engardio, 25 all submit to short-term memory testing and MRIs to compare how brain size and function can change with age. MEMORY LOSS [O.A.D.-1/9/98] (Producer - Alice Pifer, PA - Joel Engardio)

Friday, August 14, 1998

"Switched At Birth" - In an exclusive interview, Paula Johnson speaks to Barbara Walters about her recent discovery that the daughter she's known and reared for three years is not her child. Johnson's biological daughter may have been brought-up by another couple who tragically died in a car crash July 4th, and now she faces the difficult task deciding the toddler's fates. Presumed father Carlton Conley also speaks for the first time. SWITCHED AT BIRTH (2 Parts) (Producer - Karen Burnes, AP - Trish Arico, PA - Minda Allarde)

"Get Off Our Backs" - It seems to be a complaint heard everywhere: sometimes talking to the wall. But don't be too quick to assign blame. Deborah Roberts reports on research showing that men and women listen differently. Apparently, you can love someone dearly and still tune him or her out. LISTENING [O.A.D. - 1/12/98] (Producer - Caron Shapiro, PA - Mary Healy, Minda Allarde)

Friday, August 21, 1998

"America Strikes Back" - Perhaps the most dangerous man in the world, Bin Laden is on the run. After he reportedly survived an U.S. attack on his terrorist university in Afghanistan, the terrorist leader may be plotting revenge. "20/20" reports the latest in the story. US INVASION (Producers: Rick Nelson, John Bilotta, AP's - Yaro Velez, Robin Brown, PA's - David Byrd, Phoung Nguyen)

"To Bring Lena Home" - In 1993, Kathy Smith's ex-husband Hassan abducted their nine-year-old daughter Lena and brought her to his native country of Lebanon. After years of fruitless appeals to both the U.S. and Lebanese governments for help, Kathy, decided to take matters into her own hands. In an exclusive report, Tom Jarriel tells the incredible story of Kathy's journey across international borders to reclaim Lena, and updates his report to include Lena's new life in the United States. BRING LENA HOME (3 Parts) (Producer: Nancy Kramer, PA - Kate Sheekey)

Friday, August 28, 1998

"Exposing Private Yandle" - Joseph Yandle, who was arrested in Vermont today, speaks for the first time to Jay Schadler about how he lied about this military service during the Vietnam War to get a commuted sentence from the Massachusetts governor in 1995. FAKE PTSD (Producer: Michael Bicks, PA - Gail Rosenberg)

"Computer Bandits" - Today's robber doesn't need a gun to hold up a bank -- just a computer and modem. ABC News' Sam Donaldson reports for "20/20" on how cyber-bandits, with the use of cutting edge technology, can break highly classified codes of some of the world's major banking institutions and possibly cause financial chaos. SUPER HIGHWAY ROBBERY (Producer: Joan Martelli, PA - Phoung Nguyen)

"Truth & Consequences" - John Stossel reports on an unusual new therapy technique; radical honesty. Psychologist Brad Blanton advises his patients to always tell the important people in their lives exactly what they think, even when it is unkind or critical. RADICAL HONESTY [O.A.D. - 1/16/98] (Producer: Barbara Baylor, AP - Danielle Parker)

Friday, September 4, 1998

Wednesday, September 16, 1998

"Harassed to Death" - To her family and friends, Terri Lohr had an ideal life. But her private journals reveal that she was tortured by repeated sexual advances from her male co-workers and bosses. John Quiones examines how a sexual harassment case allegedly unraveled the life of a vibrant 38-year-old who ultimately committed suicide. TERRI LOHR (Producer - John Sicheloff, PA - Sylvia Johnson)

"Caught in the Middle" - For year's she's served as Bill Clinton's private secretary and gatekeeper, the woman who ushered Monica Lewinsky into the Oval Office, relayed messages and retrieved some of those potentially incriminating gifts. Now Betty Currie finds herself at the center of a monumental scandal. BETTY CURRY (Producer - Stewart Harris)

"The Art of the Car Deal" - "Car packing" is a deceptive practice in which car dealers quote bogus figures to entice buyers to accept financing and payment terms they might otherwise reject. Sam Donaldson's hidden camera investigation. CAR PACKING (Producer - Ann Sorkowitz, PA - Susan Kriskey, Phoung Nguyen)

"Home Alone" - It's dog-owner's nightmare: coming home to find the house trashed. Cynthia McFadden reports that your dog may love you so much, they suffer from separation anxiety when you're away. DOG'S AWAY (Producer - Brian Hyland)

Friday, September 18, 1998

"No Second Chances" - When 19-year-old Jeff Berryhill barged into his rival suitor's house and angrily punched him, he had clearly broken the law. But did his crime merit a 25-year prison sentence? Terry Moran reports that according to an Iowa State law establishing mandatory sentences, despite the fact that Berryhill had no prior record and was a model student and citizen, the answer is yes. MANDATORY SENTENCING (Producer - Marc Dorian, AP - Danielle Parker)

"A Taste of Living" - Barbara Walters speaks with financier Michael Milken about his battle with prostate cancer and the unusual diet he credits with his survival. Milken, who served two years in prison on six felony charges, says he noticed that death rates from hormone-driven cancers were markedly lower in cultures where people were eating "a plant-based diet, soy and tofu." MILKEN COOKBOOK (Producer - Martin Clancy, PA - Jennifer Fukui)

"Beware of the Fine Print" - Arnold Diaz advises consumers to read the fine print in advertising. Looking closely at several print and television spots, he shows how some offers that seem too good to be true often are. FINE PRINT (Producer - Glenn Ruppel, PA - James Wang)

"Locks of Love" - They came by the dozens. Young girls prepared to surrender a very personal and prized possession—their hair. Their sacrifice was a remarkable gift that would help a little girl they had never met. Bob Brown weaves a wonderful tale about giving and receiving. LOCKS OF LOVE (Producer - Christina Romano)

Sunday, September 20, 1998

"Sad Children of the NBA" - NBA superstars such as Antoine Walker, Vernon Maxwell and Larry Bird have more in common than multimillion-dollar contracts: They've also fathered children out of wedlock. Lynn Sherr reports that some NBA stars have shirked their parental duties, often neglecting the financial and emotional needs of their kids. WEDLOCK (Producer - Chris Whipple, AP - Jimmy Altman, PA - Tom Goldstone)

"Surviving a Pile-up" - What do you need to know about avoiding highway pile-ups? Science reporter Michael Guillen examines how bad weather; optical illusions and misjudgments can lead to fatal multi-car crashes. PILE-UPS (Producer - Caron Shapiro, AP - Angela Chambers)

"Life's Temptations" - Do you find it hard resisting the desire to indulge yourself, stick with a diet or maintain an exercise routine? John Stossel reports that a person's capacity for self-control may be one of the keys to success in life. TEMPTATION (Producer - Gabriella Messina, Patricia Arico)

Wednesday, September 23, 1998

"Father's Agonizing Choice" - A special agent with the FBI for nearly 30 years lives life by his motto of "fidelity, bravery and integrity." Connie Chung explores a father's painful journey in his gut-wrenching decision of turning in his son to the authorities on a double murder charge.
