AFTER AIRING OF BROADCASTS:

Attach invoices or Schedule Run Summary to this Form showing:

- (1) actual air time and charges for each spot;
- (2) the date(s), exact time(s) and reason(s) for Make-Good(s), if any; and
- (3) the amount of rebates given (identify exact date, time, class of broadcast and dollar amount for each rebate), if any.

Note: Because the FCC requires that the political file contain the actual time the rate for spots “communicating a political matter of national importance” air, that information should be included in the file as soon as possible. If that information is only generated monthly, the file should include the name of a contact person who can provide the times that and rates for specific spots aired. The FCC’s online political files include a folder for “Terms and Disclosures.” NAB suggests that, for stations subject to the online public file rule, the names of contact person(s) be placed in that folder.

THE VOICE OF NASCAR

Dear Radio Partner;

Motor Racing Network is impartially accepting political advertising leading up to the election. We want to make sure that we properly notify you ahead of time with the details of the political commercials we are carrying, along with when they will run in our programming should you need the information for your public file.

MRN is providing you with this political advertising documentation for informational purposes only. As a radio network, MRN is not governed by the political rules as outlined for local stations by the FCC. The information is provided as a courtesy.

We have communicated directly with the FCC in relation to network political advertising and how it impacts your political file. The FCC has reviewed our documents and found MRN in compliance with the FCC Political Guidelines for a radio network. The FCC has also relayed to us that networks do not need to supply an order or the network rate to the local affiliate because those items do not apply on a local market basis.

If you have any questions, our FCC contact would be glad to answer them directly. His contact information is:
