

QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMMING REPORT

4TH Quarter 2011

1 October 2011 – 31 December 2011

ISSUES COVERED: Wild dog packs in the City Limits

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 9 mins

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/01 @ 11:30am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Dr. John Lauby, veterinarian and director of County Animal Control, provided an update on this public danger affecting several neighborhoods. Small pets had already been injured or killed in recent months.

After tentatively hiring, then dismissing an out-of-state company (due to questionable experience) to round up these packs, a local expert, Sims Wildlife, was recruited to resolve the issue. At this time, many dogs had already been captured. Their subsequent adoption or euthanasia would then depend on their disposition while under observation at the Animal Control center.

ISSUES COVERED: Golf View Baptist Church

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 7 mins

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/01 @ 11:39am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Pastor Bill Hume spoke about the merging of Golf View and Stone Harbor Church. Hume discussed his mission statement of "Reach, Teach, Send". The newly merged churches will have services each Sunday at 11am, with Bible study from 10-11am. The facility also features children's church

ISSUES COVERED: Best of Fayetteville

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 11 mins

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/01 @ 11:46am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Bill Bowman, publisher of Up and Coming magazine spoke about the popular "Reader's Choice Awards." Listeners were invited to go the Up and Coming website to vote for their favorites in a wide range of categories. Example: Best Italian Restaurant, Best Dog Groomer, etc.

ISSUES COVERED: Breast Cancer Awareness Month

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 7 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/08 @ 11:30am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Businesswoman Molly Hayden, of Sew & Sews Place, is using her fabric shop to display "Artful Bras"---an idea she borrowed from another city---in an effort to fundraise money for the Cancer Center of Cape Fear Valley Medical Center. Creative women have designed and decorated 30 bras of all different colors and in different themes to compete for the votes of customers. The One Dollar vote will go to the Cancer Center. After the contest ends on Oct 19th, the bras will be auctioned off at a special open house at the shop.

ISSUES COVERED: Republican candidates for city and state office

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 7 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/08 @ 11:37am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Secretary Linda McAlister of the Fayetteville Republican Women's Club described the picnic event that would be held in two weekends at one of the local city parks, Mazarick Park One. This fundraiser, entitled Politics in the Park, would feature as the emcee: Dave Taylor, aka "Dr.Dave," the popular Sunday radio host on Cumulus' newstalkradio WFNC. All of the municipal candidates registered republican were invited to attend and promote their individual platforms. On the state level, candidates vying for the Lt.Governor spot and the 7th congressional district were also invited.

ISSUES COVERED: Chamber of Commerce

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 7 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/08 @ 11:44am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: President/CEO of the Chamber, Doug Peters, announced the upcoming Oyster Roast, a popular event among local businesses, to be held at Paradise Acres. The on-air time also allowed him to comment on the general condition of the local economy.

ISSUES COVERED: Local JOBS

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 7 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/08 @ 11:51am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Bill Kiser of the Cumberland County Department of Social Services, announced that a Job FAIR would take place the coming week, on Wednesday, the 12th, at the Crown EXPO Center. He reviewed the strategy for prospective job-seekers, and described the array of representative companies.

ISSUES COVERED: The Heroes Homecoming Event

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 15 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/15 @ 11:30am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: The Mayor of Fayetteville, Tony Chavonne, described the extensive schedule that would comprise the 11 day event, the climax of one year in the planning, the result of a brainstorm session between himself and a local Vietnam veteran. Day by day, he listed the places and times where Vietnam vets would be commemorated and acknowledged for their unselfish service for which they did not receive a thank-you on their original return stateside in the 1970's. Such an array of activities would blend into the Veterans' Day ceremony at the new NC Veterans Park alongside the Airborne Museum.

ISSUES COVERED: Diabetes Awareness

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 10 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/15 @ 11:30am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Melissa Brady, Diabetes educator, discussed the symptoms and diagnosis of diabetes, as well as sensible dietary advice. She is on the staff of Better Health of Cumberland County, a valuable community resource for both newly identified and longstanding diabetics. Medication review/supplies and dietary/exercise classes are offered as well as foot/eye exams. BHCC, funded by grants and donations, has been offering its free services for 50 years.

ISSUES COVERED: Act for America

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 14 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/22 @ 11:30am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Fayetteville Act For American Director Maureen Yearby discussed Sharia Law and the threat it poses to the American judicial system. Yearby spoke of the Koran, and two periods of history in the life of Mohammad. She invited listeners to attend their monthly meetings. Act For America is a lobby group with a mission of preventing Sharia from infiltrating the U.S. judicial system.

ISSUES COVERED: Cape Fear Botanical Garden

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 12 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/22 @ 11:44am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: George Quigley spoke about the Botanical Garden's "Big Bug Fest". Citizens can look at a large exhibit of bugs native to or area, and interesting species from across America. Quigley spoke of the upcoming Holiday season, and of plans to have Christmas lights illuminating the Garden.

ISSUES COVERED: Restore Warehouse

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 12 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/29 @ 11:30am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Bill McMillan, Executive Director of the Restore Warehouse announced their Veteran's Day Sal, November 10-12. All money raised goes to Fayetteville charities, including Fayetteville Urban Ministry and Habitat For Humanity. The Restore Warehouse takes donations of used appliances, furniture, windows,, doors, etc. for resale to the public.

ISSUES COVERED: Consumer Credit Counseling

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 13 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 10/29 @ 11:42am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Esther Aker talked about the First-time Homeowner classes held monthly at Consumer Credit Counseling. First time homeowners learn about credit, and how to qualify for a mortgage. Budgeting classes are also available. The classes are free.

ISSUES COVERED: Fundraiser for Fayetteville Urban Ministries

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 16 minutes

DATE/TIME AIRED: 11/05 @ 11:00am

Guests/Topic Description: Jeff Thompson from Bell's Seed Store and Snyder Memorial Baptist Church promoted a fundraising play to benefit Fayetteville Urban Ministry. The play will be next weekend on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Most performances are nearly sold out.

ISSUES COVERED: Pet Adoptions

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 9 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 11/05 @ 11:46am

Guests/Topic Description: Katherine Gable, President of "Thundering Paws" pet adoption services talked about responsible pet ownership, and adoptions. Thundering Paws is holding two pet adoptions next weekend. A Saturday adoption will be held at Naturally Unleashed, and a Sunday adoption will be held at Pet Smart. Both events begin at 10am.

ISSUES COVERED: Diabetes Awareness Month

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 14 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 11/12 @ 11:40am

Guests/Topic Description: Ava Johnson is a nutritionist with Cumberland County Health Department. Ava talked about controlling type 2 diabetes through proper nutrition and exercise. She also talked about warning signs such as constant thirst, slow healing wounds and frequent urination.

ISSUES COVERED: Local crafts / Historic district of city / Entrepreneurship

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 10 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 11/12 @ 11:44am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Dr. Hank Parfitt talked about the Dickens Holiday Celebration in downtown Fayetteville. The event will be held the day after Thanksgiving, and will include people in Victorian costumes, Victorian Carriage Rides, a candlelight parade with Queen Elizabeth, costume contests and Christmas caroling.

ISSUES COVERED: Local crafts / Historic district of city / Entrepreneurship

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 4 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 11/19 @ 11:40am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Lisa Bellamy, a Fayetteville native, has opened a crafts store in the historic Haymount section of town, with her business partner, Kay Bowles, a military wife. Merely four weeks from opening her doors, many customers are arriving to eye her wall of colorful beads and semi-precious stones and yarn. Talented since childhood, she will be hosting classes in jewelry-making and in knitting/ crocheting. A formal Open House and ribbon-cutting will occur on Saturday, December 3rd.

ISSUES COVERED: 2nd Annual Christmas Show and Wine Tasting Event

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 10 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 11/19 @ 11:30am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Don Hudson, talked about this event at Dennis A. Wicker Civic Center in Sanford. Particular attention was paid to Military Appreciation Day. Military members are admitted free with a military ID. The event will extend to Fayetteville next year.

ISSUES COVERED: Anti-Inflammation Diet

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 11 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 11/19 @ 11:44am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Dr. Asa Andrew discussed his book "Empowering Your Health." Dr. Andrew is a syndicated talk show host. We discussed preventing disease by preventing inflammation in the digestive system .

ISSUES COVERED: Gilbert Theater

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 11 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 11/26 @ 11:30am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Gilbert Theater Artistic Director Lynn Pryor talked about an upcoming reading of "Christmas Memory" by Truman Capote. Unlike other Gilbert performances, Pryor will be the only actor. Pryor also discussed his upcoming retirement plans, and a search for a new artistic director.

ISSUES COVERED: Anti-Inflammation Diet

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 11 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 12/3 @ 11:30am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Dr. Asa Andrew discussed his book "Empowering Your Health." Dr. Andrew is a syndicated talk show host. We discussed preventing disease by preventing inflammation in the digestive system. Repeat of 11/19.

ISSUES COVERED: Child Hunger

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 14 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 12/3 @ 11:41am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Director Linda Zima of Hungry Angelz talked about her current Christmas project to help feed local needy children. Around 600 school aged children are homeless in the Fayetteville area, according to school records. Linda is seeking donations and volunteers for this annual project. She also spoke about her activities through Armed Forces Wingz. This is a non-profit that provides military families with linen, care packages and family supplies.

ISSUES COVERED: Local Christmas celebrations

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 6 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 12/10 @ 11:30am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Erica Brady, event coordinator for Arnette Park, under the Parks & Recreation Department, described the holiday musical lights decorating the park this month, to end on Wednesday, December 21st. The local setting and the bargain $2 per car should save residents from having to go out of town to see such a beautiful display. Marshmallow roast and movies also present.

ISSUES COVERED: Assisting at-risk Families during Christmas

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 8 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 12/10 @ 11:36am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Sylvia Cook, Faith Community Coordinator for the Department of Social Services, had the opportunity to describe the Faith in Action program, first established in 1998 by DSS, to involve local churches in assisting Work First families transitioning out of the welfare system. According to her correspondence, Cumberland County's DSS is dedicated to promoting self-sufficiency and enabling families to believe in their own abilities and become self-reliant. However, the Christmas season is especially difficult for financially struggling families. In the past, she has had a waiting list of one hundred families seeking assistance.

ISSUES COVERED: DWI rehabilitation

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 8 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 12/10 @ 11:44am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Janet Cardassi, PhD, clinical psychologist, is the director of The DWI Center, situated in the historic Taylor-Utley house on HaySt. She addressed the court requirements that must be fulfilled by drivers who lose their DMV license because of a DUI or a DWI (driving under the influence of drugs or driving while impaired). She offers counselling and self-assessment. Her hours are flexible, meant to accommodate her clients' schedule. Given her military background, she is most concerned about female vets who have dependency issues.

ISSUES COVERED: Avoiding the DWI

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 9 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 12/17 @ 11:30am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Owner Todd, who preferred to not reveal his last name, described the purpose of his creative company, appropriately named Designated Driver, Inc. With business cards and posters displayed at all the local bars, he waits for clients to call him for a ride home. He employs a two-man crew. Upon arriving at the client's location, one member drives the client home in their own car, then returns with the fellow member in the company car. Todd states that he has made himself known to all the bartenders in town. An additional worthy service he offers is the drive home after outpatient surgery. He is bonded and insured and recognized by several medical offices, including the V.A.Hospital and the Ambulatory Surgical Center.

ISSUES COVERED: Local theatre / traditional holiday event

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 10 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 12/17 @ 11:40am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Tom Quaintance has become the new artistic director of the longest-running live theatre in the area---the Cape Fear Regional Theatre. Celebrating its 50th anniversary, it has been under the helm of co-founder Bo Thorp, now retiring to a parttime role. Tom described his theatre background, his introduction to Bo and the CFRT and his eventual hiring this past summer. His first debut as director is for the "Best Christmas Pageant Ever," completing its seasonal run this weekend, with three rotating casts of children, a play that has been a tradition here for over 20 years.

ISSUES COVERED: The HOMELESS

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 8 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 12/17 @ 11:50am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Joe Waters, affiliated with Southview Baptist Church, described his "Face to Faith" ministry which reaches out to the Homeless every Friday night on Person St. Wintergear/supplies/$$$ donations needed.

ISSUES COVERED: Diabetes Awareness

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 10 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 12/31 @ 11:30am

Melissa Brady, Diabetes educator, discussed the symptoms and diagnosis of diabetes, as well as sensible dietary advice. She is on the staff of Better Health of Cumberland County, a valuable community resource for both newly identified and longstanding diabetics. Medication review/supplies and dietary/exercise classes are offered as well as foot/eye exams. BHCC, funded by grants and donations, has been offering its free services for 50 years.

ISSUES COVERED: New Fayetteville City Council Member

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 10 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 12/31 @ 11:40am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Wade Fowler was the only non-incumbent to be elected to the Fayetteville City Council. Fowler discussed his vision for the city, including a day of public volunteer work. Fowler also talked about not being in favor of annexation, which is a hot-button issue in this community. He also is opposed to consent searches, another local hot-button issue, especially among the African-American community in Fayetteville.

ISSUES COVERED: Arthritis Foundation

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 7 min

DATE/TIME AIRED: 12/31 @ 11:50am

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Alexis Scott, a local organizer spoke about the debilitating effects of arthritis. She spoke of the medical gains over the years in treating arthritis, and has a fundraiser planned for March of 2012.

ISSUES COVERED: CRIME in the city

PROGRAM: "Fayetteville Focus"

LENGTH: 3 – 5 minutes @ the :55 or :57 mark of the hour

DATE/TIME AIRED:

OCTOBER 8 - 15 - 22 - 29

NOVEMBER 5 - 12 - 19 - 26

DECEMBER 3 - 10 - 17 - 24 - 31

GUESTS / TOPIC DESCRIPTION: Officers Sanford and Wauford alternate each weekend in describing the latest robbery or assault where suspects are still at large and the investigation is needing the assistance of the public. The date, time and place are specified, as well as whatever identifying features the suspects displayed. This partnership with the public through its hotline called Crimestoppers is well known in the community. Citizens are rewarded if their information leads to a successful arrest. 910 483-TIPS is the phone number for Crimestoppers.

FINI

CRIME
of
Fayetteville / Cumberland County, NC

483-TIPS

Crime of the Week
October 9, 2011

Officers with the Fayetteville Police Department need your help with the following cases.

On October 3, 2011 at approximately 9:39A.M. a suspect entered the back door of the Taco Bell located at 2819 Raeford Road. The suspect had a towel wrapped around his right hand and threaten to shoot employees if the safe was not opened. The suspect ordered the two employees into the bathroom and removed their car keys and cell phones. After taking the money from the safe the suspect fled in an employee's vehicle which was recovered in the Prestonwood Condos on Marlborough Road. The suspect was wearing a gray hooded sweatshirt, blue baseball hat with a large bill, red bandana around his face and dark colored pants. Suspect is described as being about 5'8 to 5'10. (Det Culver)

Anyone having any information on this investigation, witnesses or any persons or circumstances surrounding it should call the Fayetteville / Cumberland Crime Stoppers at 483-TIPS or 1-866-542-8477.

If your information leads to an arrest you may receive a reward of up to $1,000.00.

CRIME

of
Fayetteville / Cumberland County, NC

483 - TIPS

Crime of the Week October 16, 2011

Officers with the Fayetteville Police Department need your help with the following cases.

On Thursday, October 6, 2011 at about 5:00 pm the victim was walking on Kincross Ave. near Strickland Bridge Rd when he was approached by a Hispanic male asking for a cigarette or a lighter. As the victim was checking his pockets for a lighter, the suspect pulled out a handgun and demanded the victim's property. The victim and suspect struggled with the handgun until the victim was shot in the finger and the suspect ran away. The suspect was a Hispanic male with a southern accent. He was wearing a black short sleeve shirt and light colored jeans. The suspect was about 5'9" and weighed about 170 pounds.

Anyone having any information on this investigation, witnesses or any persons or circumstances surrounding it should call the Fayetteville / Cumberland Crime Stoppers at 483-TIPS or 1-866-542-8477.

If your information leads to an arrest you may receive a reward of up to $1,000.00.

CRIME

of

Fayetteville / Cumberland County, NC

483-TIPS

Crime of the Week October 23, 2011

Officers with the Fayetteville Police Department need your help with the following cases.

On Thursday, October 20, 2011 at about 4:00 am, officers were dispatched to a residence on Southport Rd in response to a motor vehicle break in. Officers on scene broadcasted a description of the suspect. The suspect was located a short distance away by Officer McCaffrey. While Officer McCaffrey was taking him into custody, he assaulted her by repeatedly punching her in the face and then fleeing the area. The suspect is described as a black male about 6' tall and weighing about 215 pounds. He was 18-22 years old, wearing a black jacket with red writing, a dark toboggan with yellow writing and wearing a pair of stainless steel handcuffs.

Anyone having any information on this investigation, witnesses or any persons or circumstances surrounding it should call the Fayetteville / Cumberland Crime Stoppers at 483-TIPS or 1-866-542-8477.

If your information leads to an arrest you may receive a reward of up to $1,000.00.

CRIME

of

Fayetteville / Cumberland County, NC

483-TIPS

Crime of the Week

October 30, 2011

Officers with the Fayetteville Police Department need your help with the following cases.

On Thursday, October 27, at about 8:10 PM, a suspect entered the Sunoco store at 6022 Raeford Rd. The suspect went to the counter and robbed the clerk at gunpoint. The suspect was described as a black male wearing a long white T-shirt, black jacket, jeans and black shoes. The suspect had teardrops or a star tattooed on the corner of his right eye. The suspect fled on foot across Raeford Rd. toward Wildwood Dr.

Anyone having any information on this investigation, witnesses or any persons or circumstances surrounding it should call the Fayetteville / Cumberland Crime Stoppers at 483-TIPS or 1-866-542-8477.

If your information leads to an arrest you may receive a reward of up to $1,000.00.

CRIME

of
Fayetteville / Cumberland County, NC

483-TIPS

Crime of the Week November 13, 2011

Officers with the Fayetteville Police Department need your help with the following cases.

On Tuesday, November 8 at about 10:15 pm, a female victim was robbed on Barcelona Dr. The victim was approached by 2 young black males that asked if she could make change. The suspects kept asking her questions and getting closer to her until they were close enough to grab her wallet. The suspects fled on foot across McPherson Church Rd. One suspect was described as being light skinned, wearing a yellow shirt and black denim pants. The second suspect was dark skinned, wearing a black hooded sweat shirt and black denim pants. The suspect with the yellow shirt was chased into the Olive Garden by a witness but was not located.

Anyone having any information on this investigation, witnesses or any persons or circumstances surrounding it should call the Fayetteville / Cumberland Crime Stoppers at 483-TIPS or 1-866-542-8477.

If your information leads to an arrest you may receive a reward of up to $1,000.00.

CRIME

of
Fayetteville / Cumberland County, NC

483 - TIPS

Crime of the Week November 20, 2011

Officers with the Fayetteville Police Department need your help with the following cases.

On Wednesday, November 16 at about 10:00 pm, two victims were walking on Alleghany Rd. near Scotland Dr. when they were approached and robbed by three suspects that got out of a dark colored van. One suspect was described as a black male about 16-17 years old with a "fade" haircut and armed with a shotgun. This suspect demanded that the victims empty their pockets and fired a shot into the air. The second suspect was described as a black male, also 16-17 years old with a "fade" haircut and was armed with a golf club. This suspect struck one of the victims in the face with the golf club. The third suspect was described as a black male 16-17 years old with "twists" in his hair. All three suspects fled the area in the van after robbing the victims.

Anyone having any information on this investigation, witnesses or any persons or circumstances surrounding it should call the Fayetteville / Cumberland Crime Stoppers at 483-TIPS or 1-866-542-8477.

If your information leads to an arrest you may receive a reward of up to $1,000.00.

CRIME

of

Fayetteville / Cumberland County, NC

483-TIPS

Crime of the Week November 27, 2011

Officers with the Fayetteville Police Department need your help with the following case.

On Tuesday, November 22, the victim was walking across Boone Trail when he was approached by two suspects. The two suspects demanded money from the victim and began going through his pockets and clothing looking for money and property. When the suspects discovered that the victim had nothing of value, one of the suspects hit him in the face and they both ran down Boone Trail towards Cumberland Rd. One suspect was described as a light skinned black male about 5'7" with a thin build, wearing a black toboggan, black T-shirt and blue jeans. The second suspect was a black male with a medium complexion, about 6' tall with a muscular build, wearing all black clothing. The second suspect was the one that assaulted the victim.

Anyone having any information on this investigation, witnesses or any persons or circumstances surrounding it should call the Fayetteville / Cumberland Crime Stoppers at 483-TIPS or 1-866-542-8477.

If your information leads to an arrest you may receive a reward of up to $1,000.00.

CRIME

of

Fayetteville / Cumberland County, NC

483-TIPS

Crime of the Week December 4, 2011

Officers with the Fayetteville Police Department need your help with the following case.

On Monday November 28th, at about 1:40 am, Barry's Performance at 4400 Murchison Rd. was severely damaged by a fire that was determined to have been intentionally set. Several vehicles at the business were also damaged by the fire. The business was also burglarized during the incident and several items were stolen.

Anyone having any information on this investigation, witnesses or any persons or circumstances surrounding it should call the Fayetteville / Cumberland Crime Stoppers at 483-TIPS or 1-866-542-8477.

If your information leads to an arrest you may receive a reward of up to $1,000.00.

CRIME

of

Fayetteville / Cumberland County, NC

483-TIPS

Crime of the Week December 11, 2011

Officers with the Fayetteville Police Department need your help with the following case.

On December 3, 2011, at approximately 0115 hours the Fayetteville Police Department was called to 6238 Yadkin Road (The Pearl Necklace) in reference to a homicide. The victim, Stacy Allen Bradford, was located near the back parking area and was pronounced dead by Emergency Medical Personnel who had responded.

Witnesses advised seeing a silver in color vehicle fleeing the parking area with two black male occupants. The vehicle has damage to the right front quarter panel and has an unknown registration plate.

Witnesses also reported seeing a white pickup truck, possibly an extended cab, fleeing the parking area with 4 black male occupants in the vehicle. The pickup truck was seen fleeing towards Fort Bragg and the silver vehicle was seen heading in bound on Yadkin Road towards Skibo Road.

Anyone having any information on this investigation, witnesses or any persons or circumstances surrounding it should call the Fayetteville / Cumberland Crime Stoppers at 483-TIPS or 1-866-542-8477.

If your information leads to an arrest you may receive a reward of up to $1,000.00.

CRIME

of
Fayetteville / Cumberland County, NC

483-TIPS

Crime of the Week
December 13, 2011

Detectives with the Cumberland County Sheriff's Department need your help with the following case.

On Monday, June 20, 2011, at approximately 10:05 p.m., 3 unknown black male suspects robbed at gunpoint the Short Stop convenience store located at 920 Lillington Highway in Spring Lake, North Carolina. The suspects in this case were described as follows: Suspect 1 was a black male, height 5'06" to 5'09" stocky build wearing a mask and all black clothing with a black in color handgun.

Suspect 2: black male, height 5'03" to 5'04", small build wearing a loose fitting black mask and all black clothing. No weapon visible.

Suspect 3: black male, height 6'0" slender build wearing all black clothing with a blue in color shirt underneath, red in color shirt used as a mask with a black in color handgun.

Anyone having any information on this investigation, witnesses or any persons or circumstances surrounding it should call the Fayetteville / Cumberland Crime Stoppers at 483-TIPS or 1-866-542-8477.

If your information leads to an arrest you may receive a reward of up to $1,000.00.