

Issues and Programs: Quarterly Topics: October – December 2022

During the period October 1, 2022 to December 31 2022, WYSU-FM's programming treated the following issues of public concern:

ARTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

A Tribute to Barbara Ehrenreich

Sunday, October 2, 2022, 6:00 am, 1 hour

Barbara Ehrenreich was a renowned social critic, journalist, feminist and author. She wrote many books. Her articles appeared in Ms., Mother Jones, and The Progressive. She wrote incisively and with compassion about working people and the hardships they endure. She passed away on September 1, 2022.

Should We Separate the Art from the Artist?

Sunday, October 2, 2023, 7:00 am, 1 hour

An Intelligence Squared Debate. For some, a work of art is an entity in itself. It should be appreciated and revered without regard to the life of its creator. But for others, the act of supporting a work of art translates directly affirming its creator's evil acts.

Lit Youngstown's Fall Literary Festival

Wednesday, October 24th, 2022, 06:45 & 08:45 am, 5 minutes

Tim Francisco talked with Karen Schubert of Lit Youngstown about their upcoming Fall Literary Festival.

Leaving a Mark

Saturday, October 29th, 2022, 11:00 am, 1 hour

For millennia, humans have created artifacts of their lives — from art, to books, to music. This hour, we explore ideas about capturing the ephemeral human experience for future generations to find.

Talking Poetry, & Revamping Holiday Song Classics

Saturday, December 24, 2022, 2:00 pm, 1 hour

Kirk Douglas Revamps the Holiday Classics - the singer and lead guitarist for the Roots talks with David Remnick and revamps holiday classics. Also; Tracy K. Smith Takes A Road Trip - As U.S. Poet Laureate (2017-2019), Tracy K. Smith with The New Yorker's poetry editor, Kevin Young, about bringing literature to community centers, senior centers, and prisons across the U.S. New Yorker Radio Hour.

BUSINESS, ECONOMICS, FINANCE AND WORK

Are M.B.A.s to Blame for Wage Stagnation?

Saturday, October 9, 2023, noon, 1 hour

New research finds that bosses who went to business school pay their workers less. So what are M.B.A. programs teaching — and should they stop? Freakonomics Radio.

Are Personal Finance Gurus Giving You Bad Advice?

Saturday, October 16, 2023, noon, 1 hour

One Yale economist certainly thinks so. But even if he's right, are economists any better? Freakonomics Radio.

Has Globalization Failed?

Saturday, October 23, 2023, noon, 1 hour

It was supposed to boost prosperity and democracy at the same time. What really happened? According to the legal scholar Anthea Roberts, it depends which story you believe. Freakonomics Radio.

The Unintended Consequences of Working from Home

Saturday, October 23, 2023, noon, 1 hour

The last two years have radically changed the way we work — producing winners, losers, and a lot of surprises. Freakonomics Radio.

Gig Economics

Sunday, November 6, 2023, 6:00 am, 1 hour

A lecture by Juliet Schor, an award-winning economist and sociologist at Boston College. She is the author of many books including The Overworked American, True Wealth and After the Gig: How the Sharing Economy Got Hijacked and How to Win It Back.

In Search of the Real Adam Smith

Saturday, December 10, 2023, noon, 1 hour

How did an affable 18th-century “moral philosopher” become the patron saint of cutthroat capitalism? Does “the invisible hand” mean what everyone thinks it does? We travel to Smith's hometown in Scotland to uncover the man behind the myth. (Part 1 of a series.) Freakonomics Radio.

Does America Need a Digital Dollar?

Sunday, December 11, 2023, 7:00 am, 1 hour

An Intelligence Squared debate. Those who argue “yes” say it is a fundamental step to remain competitive; to ensure the dollar remains in its preferred global standing. Those who argue “no” point to the risks of failure, hackings, and privacy breaches, which includes widespread government tracking of transactions, and could allow for unprecedented federal access to personal banks accounts.

Was Adam Smith Really a Right-Winger?

Saturday, December 17, 2023, noon, 1 hour

Economists and politicians have turned him into a mascot for free-market ideology. Some on the left say the right has badly misread him. Prepare for a very Smithy tug of war. (Part 2 of “In Search of the Real Adam Smith.”) Freakonomics Radio.

Can Adam Smith Fix Our Economy?

Saturday, December 23, 2023, noon, 1 hour

Labor exploitation! Corporate profiteering! Government corruption! The 21st century can look a lot like the 18th. In the final episode of a series, we turn to “the father of economics” for solutions. (Part 3 of “In Search of the Real Adam Smith.”) Freakonomics Radio.

Why Is the Live-Event Ticket Market So Screwed Up?

Saturday, December 24, 2022, noon, 1 hour

The public has almost no chance to buy good tickets to the best events. Ticket brokers, meanwhile, make huge profits on the secondary markets. Here's the story of how this market got so dysfunctional, how it can be fixed - and why it probably won't be. Freakonomics Radio.

COMMUNITY AND PERSONAL GROWTH

Finding Another Way

Saturday, October 8th, 2022, 11:00 am, 1 hour

Conflict is a part of life. But in a polarized world, reaching resolution is harder than ever. This hour, TED speakers explore creative and extraordinary ways of approaching conflict.

CRIME & LAW ENFORCEMENT

Crimes in The Wild

Saturday, October 15th, 2022, 11:00 am, 1 hour

True crime mysteries can be dark and thrilling. But what if humans can't crack the case? What if the suspect ... isn't human? This hour, TED Radio Hour investigates crimes with a wild twist.

Is It Time to End Qualified Immunity for Cops?

Sunday, October 30, 2023, 7:00 am, 1 hour

An Intelligence Squared debate. How does one balance two important, though at times competing, public interests? In this case, it's the need to hold public officials accountable versus the need to shield those officials from harassment and legal liability.

Null and Void

Saturday, December 3, 2022, 1:00 pm, 1 hour

Should a juror be able to ignore the law? From a Quaker prayer meeting in the streets of London, to riots in the streets of LA, we trace the history of a quiet act of rebellion and struggle with how much power "we the people" should really have. Radiolab.

EDUCATION

History Lessons, Part 1

Sunday, November 20, 2023, 6:00 am, 1 hour

A lecture by Vijay Prashad, an internationally renowned historian and journalist. He is the director of Tricontinental: Institute for Social Research and chief correspondent for Globetrotter. He is the author of many books including The Darker Nations: A People's History of the Third World and Washington Bullets: CIA, Coups, and Assassinations.

History Lessons, Part 2

Sunday, November 27, 2023, 6:00 am, 1 hour

A lecture by Vijay Prashad, an internationally renowned historian and journalist. He is the director of Tricontinental: Institute for Social Research and chief correspondent for Globetrotter. He is the author of many books including The Darker Nations: A People's History of the Third World and Washington Bullets: CIA, Coups, and Assassinations.

Is Affirmative Action Unfair to Asian Americans?

Sunday, December 4, 2023, 7:00 am, 1 hour

An affirmative action battle is again playing out at the highest levels, only this time with Asian Americans at the center of the controversy. At the heart of the matter is the question of whether the Supreme Court should reconsider race in college admissions. In this timely debate, Intelligence Squared asks the question of whether affirmative action is indeed unfair to Asian Americans.

ENVIRONMENT, NATURE AND AGRICULTURE

The Most Interesting Fruit in the World (Update)

Saturday, November 12, 2023, noon, 1 hour

The banana, once a luxury good, rose to become America's favorite fruit. Now a deadly fungus threatens to wipe it out. Can it be saved? Freakonomics Radio.

Animal Welfare League

Tuesday, October 25th, 2022, 06:45 & 08:45 am, 5 minutes

Gina Marinelli talked with Lorilyn Shandor, Executive Director of the Animal Welfare League of Trumbull County about animals that have been surrendered to the organization since the beginning of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Mahoning River Series: Changing the Course of a River, Episode 1

Friday, November 4, 2022, 7:50 am, 7:30 minutes

If you grew up in Youngstown in the 20th century, you probably never went near the Mahoning River. For nearly 100 years, it was the dumping ground for the steel mills. The mills closed decades ago, and now some folks are trying to reconnect the river to the communities through which it flows. For the Ohio Newsroom, Jacqueline Marino takes you along for her own reintroduction to the Mahoning.

Mahoning River Series: Changing the Course of a River, Episode 2

Friday, November 11, 2022, 7:50 am, 7:30 minutes

Parts of the Mahoning River were once considered unsafe for human contact. But in the five decades since most of the industry left, the water quality has improved. The fish are back, and it's even safe to eat them. For the Ohio Newsroom, Ideastream Public Media's Jacqueline Marino talks to some of the people who are watching the river's recovery.

Mahoning River Series: Changing the Course of a River, Episode 3

Friday, November 18, 2022, 7:50 am, 7:30 minutes

Parts of the Mahoning River were once considered unsafe for human contact. But in the five decades since most of the industry left, the water quality has improved. The fish are back, and it's even safe to eat them. For the Ohio Newsroom, Ideastream Public Media's Jacqueline Marino talks to some of the people who are watching the river's recovery.

A Love Letter to the Ocean

Saturday, November 19th, 2022, 11:00 am, 1 hour

Oceans cover nearly 75% of the Earth. While they seem vast and frightening, they're also enchanting and whimsical. This hour, TED speakers dive into stories of connection — and even love — in the sea.

Mahoning River Series: Changing the Course of a River, Episode 4

Friday, November 25, 2022, 7:50 am, 7:30 minutes

The waters of the Mahoning River have recovered somewhat since the steel mills that dotted the banks shut down in the 1970s and '80s. Now there's an effort to take down the dams that provided a water source for the mills because they endanger paddlers. However, upriver, in rural Trumbull County, residents don't want to lose their dam. For the Ohio Newsroom, Ideastream Public Media's Jacqueline Marino takes a look at the conflict among those who call this stretch of the Mahoning home.

Mahoning River Series: Changing the Course of a River, Episode 5

Friday, December 2, 2022, 7:50 am, 7:30 minutes

One Saturday this past July, about two dozen people participated in the third annual tire-cleanup on the Mahoning River. Removing tires from the river doesn't just help the river; it helps build community among groups who have often been in conflict in the Mahoning Valley. For the Ohio Newsroom, Ideastream Public Media's Jacqueline Marino shares their story.

An SOS from The Ocean

Saturday, December 3rd, 2022, 11:00 am, 1 hour

For centuries, humans have relied on the oceans for resources and food... but even the deepest sea has its limits. This hour, TED speakers discuss how we can save our seas to save our planet

Racing to the Precipice

Sunday, December 11, 2023, 6:00 am, 1 hour

A conversation about the climate crisis with Noam Chomsky, Professor Emeritus in the Department of Linguistics and Philosophy at MIT and Laureate Professor of Linguistics and Haury Chair in the Program in Environment and Social Justice at the University of Arizona. He is the author of scores of books, his latest are Consequences of Capitalism, Chronicles of Dissent and Notes on Resistance.

FAMILY & RELATIONSHIPS

Late Bloomers

Saturday, November 12th, 2022, 11:00 am, 1 hour

Many of us feel pressure to hit big life milestones on a timeline. But what if age is an asset, not a liability? This hour, TED speakers examine the benefits and drawbacks of being a late bloomer.

How Important Is Breastfeeding, Really?

Saturday, December 3, 2023, noon, 1 hour

In this special episode of Freakonomics, M.D., host Babu Jena looks at a clever new study that could help answer one of parenting's most contentious questions.

GENDER

Interview with the Director of the Local Chapter of Altrusa International

Tuesday, October 18th, 2022, 06:45 & 08:45 am, 5 minutes

Gina Marinelli talked with Angela Mudrack, Director of the local chapter of Altrusa International about community service opportunities for area women.

Iran: Zan, Zendegi, Azadi / Woman, Life, Freedom

Sunday, December 4, 2023, 6:00 am, 1 hour

A lecture by Marie Ranjbar, an Assistant Professor in the Department of Women's and Gender Studies at the University of Colorado–Boulder. Her research examines social movements in Iran and integrates feminist political geography with critical human rights and decolonial feminist theory.

HOLIDAY SPECIALS

Giving Thanks

Thursday, November 24, 2022, 9:00 am, 2 hours

Giving Thanks provides the perfect atmosphere for Thanksgiving: the warmth of great music, and truly memorable words.

Welcome Christmas

Thursday, December 22, 2022, 9:00 am, 1 hour

Welcome Christmas presents traditional carols and new discoveries featuring VocalEssence, one of the world's premiere choral groups.

All is Bright

Thursday, December 22, 2022, 11:00 am, 1 hour

All Is Bright is an hour of contemplative music related to the Christmas season and its symbolism, featuring the Cambridge Singers, Cantus, and Chanticleer.

Classical Guitar Alive

Thursday, December 22, 2022, noon, 1 hour

Host Tony Morris presents an hour of classical guitar music for the holidays, including featuring Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite.

Holiday Special with Cantus

Thursday, December 22, 2022, 2:00 pm, 1 hour

Center Stage from Wolf Trap presents a holiday concert by the vocal group Cantus.

A Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols

Saturday, December 24, 2022, 9:00 am, 2 hours

A Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols presents the popular, live world-wide Christmas Eve broadcast performed in the 500-year-old Chapel of King's College, Cambridge, England.

Jazz Night In America: A Holiday Celebration

Saturday, December 24, 2022, 7:00 pm, 1 hour

This year's Jazz Night in America holiday special will feature drummer Matt Wilson's Christmas Tree-O; a ruckus band recorded at Jazz at Lincoln Center. Christian McBride hosts.

Jazz Piano Christmas from NPR

Saturday, December 24, 2022, 8:00 pm, 1 hour

This year's program spotlights ferociously talented Japanese musical phenome Hiromi, Mountain Stage's Bob Thompson, and Bolivian prodigy José André Montaña.

IMMIGRATION AND REFUGEES

Death by Policy: Crisis in the Arizona Desert

Sunday, December 4, 2022, noon, 1 hour

In this year-long investigation from Futuro Investigates, Latino USA dig into how the U.S. government and Border Patrol's decades-long "prevention through deterrence" policies have knowingly created a deadly funnel, pushing migrants attempting to cross from Mexico to the U.S. into the deadliest terrain in the country, including the Sonoran Desert in southern Arizona.

MEDIA AND COMMUNICATIONS

Is Public Radio Still Relevant?

Sunday, November 24, 2023, 7:00 am, 1 hour

Public radio was a key means of getting information. But between podcasts, satellite radio, and on-demand streaming, some argue that signal is fading. What does this mean for the future of public radio? Intelligence Squared host and moderator John Donvan moderates a debate between two media luminaries, who zero in on this existential question: Is public radio still relevant?

MEDICINE AND HEALTH

Parkinson's Disease

Tuesday, December 6th, 2022, 06:45 & 08:45 am, 5 minutes

Gina Marinelli talked with Annie Tapp from the YSU Physical Therapy Department about new exercise programs for those with Parkinson's disease.

Eye Health

Tuesday, December 13th, 2022, 06:45 & 08:45 am, 5 minutes

Gina Marinelli talked with Dominic Mancini about their organization Site for All and its efforts to provide free eye exams for children.

Walking Exercise

Tuesday, December 20th, 2022, 06:45 & 08:45 am, 5 minutes

Gina Marinelli talked with Dr. Nancy Langraf, Director for the Physical Therapy program at YSU about its “Walk with a Doc” program that encourages walking exercise with a local physician.

MILITARY, WAR, AND VETERANS

War: The Greatest Evil

Sunday, November 13, 2023, 6:00 am, 1 hour

A lecture by Chris Hedges, an award-winning journalist who has reported from war zones around the world. He is the author of many books including War Is a Force that Gives Us Meaning, Empire of Illusion, Death of the Liberal Class, Wages of Rebellion, Our Class, and The Greatest Evil is War.

Surviving the Bataan Death March

Friday, November 18, 2022, 6 pm, 1 hour

Veteran Ken Porwoll’s story recounts his inhumane treatment & riveting story of survival as one of 10,000 American & roughly 50,000 Filipino soldiers on the Bataan Death March of WW II and his ensuing 3+ years as a Japanese prisoner of war Surviving the Bataan Death March is an encore presentation dedicated as a tribute to all American prisoners of war.

PHILANTHROPY AND ASSISTANCE

Trumbull County United Way

Tuesday, October 11th, 2022, 06:45 & 08:45 am, 5 minutes

Gina Marinelli talks with Christine Cope, President of the Trumbull County United Way about their recent move to downtown Warren, Ohio.

Golden String Incorporated

Tuesday, November 15th, 2022, 06:45 & 08:45 am, 5 minutes

Gina Marinelli talks with Jimmy Suttman, Director of Golden String Incorporated about the services they provide to adults and children with special needs.

St. Vincent De Paul Society of Trumbull County

Tuesday, November 22nd, 2022, 06:45 & 08:45 am, 5 minutes

Gina Marinelli talked with Darleen Jones, CEO of St. Vincent De Paul Society of Trumbull County about their programs to feed the hungry.

POLITICS AND GOVERNMENT

Notes on Resistance

Sunday, October 9, 2023, 6:00 am, 1 hour

A talk with Noam Chomsky, who, in addition to his pioneering work in modern linguistics, has been a leading voice for peace and social justice for many decades. He is Professor Emeritus in the Department of Linguistics and Philosophy at MIT and Laureate Professor of Linguistics and Haury Chair in the Program in Environment and Social Justice at the University of Arizona. At 94, he is still active; writing and giving interviews to the media all over the world.

Arizona's Midterm Battle

Sunday, October 9, 2023, noon, 1 hour

Ahead of the midterm elections this upcoming November, Latino USA follows three Latinos who are part of a powerful grassroots movement that transformed Arizona into a battleground state in 2020.

How to Be a Citizen

Saturday, October 22nd, 2022, 11:00 am, 1 hour

The 2020 election saw historic voter turnout. But in a divided democracy, how else can we commit to our civic duties? This hour, Baratunde Thurston joins Manoush with ideas on how to citizen.

Sports & Resistance to Fascism

Sunday, October 23, 2023, 6:00 am, 1 hour

A lecture by Dave Zirin, the award-winning sports editor of The Nation magazine. He is the author of many books including A People's History of Sports in the United States and The Kaepernick Effect: Taking a Knee, Changing the World.

I'm Your Biggest Fan!

Saturday, October 5, 2023, noon, 1 hour

It's fun to obsess over pop stars and racecar drivers — but is fandom making our politics even more toxic? Freakonomics Radio.

National Midterm Election Night Coverage

Tuesday, November, 8, 2023, 7:00 pm, 4 hours

NPR 2022 Election Night Special Coverage hosted live from Washington D.C.

Midterm Election Results

Wednesday, November 17th, 2022, 06:45 & 08:45 am, 5 minutes

Tim Francisco talked with YSU Political Science professor Paul Sracic about the 2022 midterm election results.

How Democracy Dies

Saturday, December 3, 2022, 2:00 pm, 1 hour

J. Michael Luttig on Moore v. Harper: A case before the Supreme Court could allow state legislatures - not the voters - final word over their state's presidential electors. David Remnick talks with Luttig, one of the most conservative Republican judges in the country, who has joined the fight against this legal theory. Also, How Democrats Die - David Remnick talks with authors Steven Levitsky and Daniel Ziblatt (How Democracies Die) about ongoing threats to the health of the U.S. democracy. The New Yorker Radio Hour.

Arab Autocracies & U.S. Policy

Sunday, December 25, 2023, 6:00 am, 1 hour

A lecture by Rami Khouri, who has reported on the Arab region for decades. He has reported on the Arab region for decades. He is a senior fellow with the Middle East Initiative at the Belfer Center at Harvard's Kennedy School..

RACE, IDENTITY AND CULTURE

Hispanic Heritage Awareness Month

Tuesday, October 4th, 2022 06:45 & 08:45 am, 5 minutes

Gina Marinelli talks with Ana Torres, Chairperson of the YSU Hispanic Heritage Planning Committee about their upcoming events for Hispanic Heritage Awareness Month.

Ever Since the Oil, Part 1 & Part 2

Sunday, October 16 and 23, 2023, noon, 1 hour

North Dakota saw the biggest growth rate of Latinos and Latinas in the United States between 2010 and 2020, according to the U.S. Census. Jobs, mostly in the oil and gas industry, drew many people to the state within the last decade. However, with oil and gas often comes controversy, especially for the environment and Indigenous communities directly impacted by the industry. Latino USA.

REGIONAL, NATIONAL, & INTERNATIONAL NEWS

National News Headlines

Monday – Friday, 5 minutes at the top of every hour

Hourly from National Public Radio.

Business Journal Report

Monday – Friday, 4:35 pm & 5:35 pm, 5 minutes

Local business news.

The Takeaway

Monday – Friday, 6:00 pm, 1 hour

A daily news alternative featuring critical conversations, live reports, and listener participation, from PRI.

Regional News Headlines

Monday – Friday, 6:06 am, 7:06 am & 8:06 am, 3 minutes

News report consisting of stories from the local newspaper The Vindicator, from the newsoutlet.org and from the Ohio Statehouse News Bureau.

Morning Edition from NPR

Monday – Friday, 6:00 am – 9:00 am, 3 Hours

All Things Considered from NPR

Monday – Friday, 4:00 pm – 6:00 pm, 2 Hours

Fresh Air

Monday – Friday, 3:00 – 4:00 pm, 1 hour

In-depth interviews with prominent cultural individuals.

Weekend Edition

Saturday – Sunday, 8:00 – 10:00 am, 2 hours

RELIGION AND SPIRITUALITY

Ursuline Sisters Mission

Tuesday, November 29th, 2022, 06:45 & 08:45 am, 5 minutes

Gina Marinelli talked with Michele Ristich Gatts about the Ursuline Sisters Mission and their plans for the future.

The Gratitude Chain

Saturday, December 17th, 2022, 11:00 am, 1 hour

When A.J. Jacobs set out to thank everyone who made his morning cup of coffee, he realized the chain of thank-you's was endless. This hour, Jacobs shares ideas on gratitude — and how to make it count.

Yuval Noah Harari Thinks Life is Meaningless and Amazing
Saturday, December 31, 2023, noon, 1 hour

In this special episode of People I (Mostly) Admire, Steve Levitt talks to the best-selling author of Sapiens and Homo Deus about finding the profound in the obvious. Freakonomics Radio.

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

Life Stages of Our Brain
Saturday, November 5th, 2022, 11:00 am, 1 hour

In each stage of life, our brains morph and change. This hour, TED speakers explore pivotal chapters where the brain can either flourish or decline — and what control we might have over brain health.

Is Google Getting Worse?
Saturday, November 19, 2023, noon, 1 hour

It used to feel like magic. Now it can feel like a set of cheap tricks. Is the problem with Google — or with us? Freakonomics Radio.

What's in a Face?
Saturday, December 10th, 2022, 11:00 am, 1 hour

We think our faces are our own. But technology can use them to identify, influence and mimic us. This week, TED speakers explore the promise and peril of turning the human face into a digital tool.

The Average Show
Saturday, December 24, 2022, 1:00 pm, 1 hour

In this episode, we soar through the universe and into the tiniest particles of all things, to see if we can reach a guesstimate of what is the middle size of Everything. Then, we travel through history to a moment when the world tried to find the "average" human body. Radiolab.

WORLD AFFAIRS

Afghanistan: Past & Future
Sunday, October 16, 2023, 6:00 am, 1 hour

A lecture by Rangina Hamidi, who served as Minister of Education of Afghanistan until August 15, 2021. She is co-author of the book Embroidering within Boundaries: Afghan Women Creating a Future.

Azadi! Freedom!

Sunday, October 30, 2023, 6:00 am, 1 hour

A lecture by Sanjay Kak, a New Delhi-based, award-winning independent documentary filmmaker and journalist. His films include How We Celebrate Freedom, Words on Water and Red Ant Dream. He is editor of the books Until My Freedom Has Come: The New Intifada in Kashmir and Witness. “Azadi!”—Urdu for “Freedom!”—is the slogan of the freedom struggle in Kashmir against Indian occupation.

Human Rights & Democracy in the Middle East

Sunday, December 18, 2023, 6:00 am, 1 hour

A lecture by, Sarah Leah Whitson, the Executive Director of DAWN, Democracy for the Arab World Now. Previously, she was executive director of Human Rights Watch’s Middle East and North Africa Division from 2004 – 2020. She has published widely on human rights and foreign policy in the Middle East.

NPR Programs Subject List (Detailed story list available upon request)

Aging and Retirement

Agriculture and Environment

Arts and Entertainment

Business, Economics and Finance

Crime and Law Enforcement

Education

Immigration and Refugees

Medicine and Health

Military, War and Veterans

Politics and Government

Race, Identity and Culture

Religion

Science and Technology

Completed on January 6, 2023 – Gary Sexton, Director, WYSU-FM