Name of Program	Date (s) Aired	Time (s) Aired	Duration	Brief Description of Program
OUT Cast	06/28/21	13:00	30:00	The OUT Cast collective wrap up Pride Month with their own memories of Pride and community activism covering 50 years of our history. Dal, Dick, Sive, Alex, Stan and Steve have a far ranging conversation that takes up an early Christopher Street Liberation Day march in NYC to the Maine community's response to the tragic murder of Charlie Howard in Bangor in 1984 to the recent "rogue" Dyke March in Portland reported on by Dal. Don't miss Alex's story of a new Pride tradition in Kentucky and Dick's tale from Boston Pride in the 1970's.
OUT Cast	06/21/21	13:00	30:00	An interview with Will Green and Ophelia Hu Kinney, two queer faith leaders whose congregations have recently voted to leave the United Methodist Church because of that denomination's continued opposition to marriage equality and the ordination of LGBTQ clergy. This interview is hosted by OUT Cast collective members Marvin Ellison and Tamara Torres McGovern.
OUT Cast	06/14/21	13:00	30:00	OUT Cast hosts Sive and Steve interview Ophelia Hu Kinney and Rich Waitzkin about the plans for the new Equality Community Center in Portland. Our Pride month shows continue with the exciting possibilities this newly purchased space will bring to the queer community in Portland as well as to the community at large. Ophelia Hu Kinney is Director of Communications for the Reconciling Ministries Network, which promotes LGBTQ justice and inclusion in The United Methodist Church. She is also the Worship Coordinator at Hope Gateway in Portland. Describing herself as a garden-variety queer woman who lives with her wife in Scarborough, she blogs about leaving Christian evangelicalism for the spiritual wilderness at QueeringTheKindom.com . Ophelia's story "Honeysuckle" recently won NYC Midnight's 100-word Micro-fiction Challenge.

OUT Cast	06/7/21	13:00	30:00	OUT Cast's June shows will highlight different aspects of Pride. Lawrence Jackson, Artistic Director Larry has a bachelor's degree in Music Education from the University of Massachusetts in Amherst majoring in trumpet and minoring in voice. He also holds a master's degree in Music from the University of Southern Oregon in Ashland, Oregon. He has been teaching instrumental music in the public schools for 31 years working with students from grades 5 through 12 as a conductor of concert bands and jazz bands. Larry currently teaches instrumental music grades 5-8. He is the director of three 5th and 6th grade concert and jazz bands in Falmouth where he has over 200 band students. He founded the 6th grade band and choral festival in Maine district I. He has also been the guest band conductor at the district music festivals in Districts I, III and IV. Larry also has extensive choral training. He sang with the Portland Choral Art Society for 13 years where he performed with the Masterworks chorus, the Choral Art Singers and the Camerata singers. Larry also sang with Renaissance Voices for 10 years, as well as the St. Mary Schola. He served as one of the choir directors at Unity church in Windham for several years. Larry has served as artistic director for the Maine Gay Men's Chorus since they re-formed in 2015. Steve Floyd, President of the Maine Gay Men's Chorus Board of Directors He is also Larry's husband and they have been together for 29 years. He is a retired Special Education Director and worked in the field for 33 years. He has been the president of MGMC since it was reformed in 2015 and was a past president. He sings bass in the chorus as well as a number of other "duties" each concert period. You may have seen him as "Pixie Beaver" as he called Bingo for one of the MGMC fundraisers.
OUT Cast	05/31/21	13:00	30:00	An interview about Women in Harmony with guests Kitty Beller-McKenna and Monica Fischbach, hosted by OUT Cast collective member Marvin Ellison. Founded in 1993 and based in southern Maine, Women in Harmony is a chorus of 60 women singers who perform in concert and promote social justice through music. "Our vision," the WIH website reads, is "a world where every voice is equal and valued." Catherine Beller-McKenna – better known as Kitty -- became the second music director of Women in Harmony in 1999, bringing to the group extensive experience in conducting both women's and mixed choruses in

				community and collegiate settings. A believer in the potential of music and language to effect social change, Kitty is strongly committed to Women in Harmony's tradition of singing out for equality and social justice. Monica Fischbach has been a member of Women in Harmony for over ten years, starting with a concert called "Sister, Carry On." A longtime lesbian feminist, she has been involved in many community causes. One of the things Monica enjoys most about Women in Harmony is the community of women, united in creating social justice and peace through the connection that shared music provides. In her words, "There is nothing like the moment when our voices blend to express what is in our hearts. Nothing like it."
OUT Cast	05/24/21	13:00	30:00	Latest LGBTQ+ news from around the world. Hosted by our own Daralyn (Dal) Maxwell.
OUT Cast	05/17/21	13:00	30:00	Guest commentator Alex Thompson joins OUT Cast hosts, Sive Neilan and Steve Bull to discuss the current racist assault on voting rights spearheaded by Republican led state legislatures across the country with a focus on Georgia. First and foremost, this offensive primarily targets black and brown voters as well as youth of all races. The queer community has a vested interest in beating back any attempts at dismantling democratic rights; an injury to one is an injury to all! OUT Cast stands in defense of all members of our diverse community in giving voice to efforts against this attempt to abridge this most fundamental right.
OUT Cast	05/10/21	13:00	30:00	Part 2 of a two-part conversation with guest-host Franklin Brooks and his guest Dan Crewe. Dan discusses his military career during the 1950's and 1960's-an extremely dangerous and homophobic era. Dan also discusses his current interests in supporting arts and music education in public schools and higher education as well as promoting LGBTQ-and HIV educational programming in Maine. Dan has been a prolific social justice and political activist in Maine over the past forty years. He is also a community-engaged philanthropist who has founded two foundations that support LGBTQ civil rights, arts organizations and children's medical services. Dan is a United States Naval Academy graduate and a retired captain of the United States Air Force. He is a passionate humanitarian and philanthropist; his leadership in the arts, education, and human rights, including LGBTQ support, has had an enormous impact on the lives of countless Mainers.

OUT Cast	04/26/21	13:00	30:00	Interview with Marpheen Chann, Cambodian queer activist and educator for justice, on “Queer Spirit”. Queer Spirit is a series of conversations exploring queer life and the power of the Sacred hosted by OUT Cast collective members, Rev. Marvin Ellison and Rev. Tamara Torres McGovern. Marpheen Chann is a Portland-based thinker, writer, educator, and speaker on social justice, equity, and inclusion. He holds a bachelor’s degree in political science from the University of Southern Maine and a law degree from the University of Maine School of Law. Currently, he’s on staff at Maine’s Holocaust and Human Rights Center. He also serves as co-president of the Cambodian Community Association of Maine. Marpheen has an intriguing personal journey as a gay man and first-generation Asian American, who was born in California to a Cambodian refugee family and later adopted by an evangelical, white working-class family in Maine. He uses a mix of storytelling and humor to help people view topics such as racism, xenophobia, and homophobia through an intersectional lens.
OUT Cast	04/19/21	13:00	30:00	Interview Elissa Miller, SAGE Program Assistant / Equality Maine. Elissa Miller (she/her/hers) "Elissa Miller is serving with Equality Maine as the SAGE Program Assistant through AmeriCorps VISTA. Originally from North Carolina, she graduated from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte with a Bachelor’s Degree in Communications and Political Science. While at UNC Charlotte, Elissa was the Head of Speaker Coordination and one of the founding members of Sex Week UNC Charlotte, a student organization that creates programming related to sexual education.
