

SEPTEMBER 2011 WYMC PROBLEMS AND PROCEDURES

September 1, 2011- Guest on the Breakfast Show, 8:05am-8:15am, was Shane Gregory with the Ice House. He talked about the upcoming Gourd Patch Festival to be held 9am to 4pm on Saturday September 20. The gourd car race will take place around 1pm. This year there will be a silent auction and a bake sale. He talked about the different events that will be held and the different type of art made from gourds. These art exhibits will be for sale. He stated gourds that mature now would have to dry out and not be used until next year. There will be hay rides for the children and they will also have art booths for the children. For more information you can go to their web page, icehousearts.org or call 247-6975. Excerpts from the interview were aired on the local news. PSA aired for Mr. And Mrs. Gourd Festival.

September 2, 2011- Guests on the Breakfast Show, 8:05am-8:15am, were Laura Butler with Mid Continent University and Farris Schawneh. Mr. Schawneh will be conducting a Creation Seminar at on September 18 and 19. This conference is funded by Mid Continent University and hosted by Trace Creek Baptist Church in Mayfield. Their goal is to inform people of the Biblical account of creation. There is no cost for attending the seminar and all ages are welcomed and childcare will be provided. For more information contact Erica at 247-8521, ext 231 or go to the Mid Continent web site. Excerpts from the interview were aired on the local News.

September 15, 2011- Guest on the Breakfast Show, 8:05am-8:15am, was Mary Lynn Hawkins. She talked about a fund raising project . They will be selling "Secret Recipe" cookbooks. This is a cookbook from area businesses and also will have some historic facts about Mayfield. The funds will go toward the Mayfield band, cheerleaders and restoring War Memorial stadium. There will be presales only. The cost of the cookbook is $20.00. Make check out to Mayfield Secret Recipe Cookbook and send to 312 Indiana Ave, Mayfield Ky 42066. The last day to preorder will be September 30 so the cookbooks will be here by December 14 and ready for Christmas gifts! For more information people can go to Mayfield Secret Recipe on Facebook. Excerpts from the interview were aired on the local News.

September 19, 2011- Guests on the Breakfast Show, 8:05am-8:15am, were a couple of the cast with Purchase Players. They talked about the upcoming dinner theater production of Medium Rare. This is their annual fundraiser. Tickets must be purchased in advance and they are $30.00 for the performances for Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, September 22, 23 and 24. They have now added a performance on Sunday at 2pm which will be performance only and those tickets are $8.00 and $10.00.

September 22, 2011- Guests on the Breakfast show, 8:05am-8:15am, were Donna Gream and Mike Glover. They talked about the upcoming gospel concert to be held this Saturday at the Graves County High School Performing Arts Center. There will be 5 groups to perform. PSA also aired.

