

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Diversity	Race & Equity	4-Jan-17	8 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Racism and #journalismsowhite: A personal story from KUOW's general manager	Journalism is so white. That's a criticism of newsrooms in America, and the numbers show that it's true: In radio, just 9.4 percent of journalists are people of color.	Caryn G. Mathes
Diversity	Race & Equity	6-Jan-17	5 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Why white liberals need to figure out how to talk about race	Why is race so hard to discuss? Ralina Joseph, founding director of the University of Washington's Center for Communication, Difference, and Equity, talked about coded racial language, from Seattle liberals to Trump.	Jamala Henderson
Diversity	Race & Equity	9-Jan-17	7 mins. 12:00 Noon	Colorblind doesn't cut it. Be brave and talk to your kids about race	Many white parents have difficulty finding the right words to use when talking to their kids about racism. Preschool director Jasen Frelot runs...	Bill Radke
Diversity	Race & Equity	12-Jan-17	5 mins 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	The government engineered Seattle's racial segregation, says researcher	Seattle's neighborhoods and suburbs have long been segregated by race.	Paige Browning
Diversity	Race & Equity	16-Jan-17	7 mins. 12Mins. Noon	Princeton prof: Racial equity has to consider poor white people, too	If you're a person of color in this country, every day you might encounter oppression that remains from systems set in motion hundreds of years ago....	Patricia Murphy
Diversity	Race & Equity	17-Jan-17	7 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Jacob Lawrence's art touched the world. His teaching changed Seattle	I first met the artist Jacob Lawrence in his attic. That was more than 30 years ago, on a gray day, not so unusual for Seattle.	Marcie Sillman
Diversity	Women's Rights	23-Jan-17	19 mins. 12:00 Noon	How to turn marching into action	Bill Radke talks to Aneelah Afzali , executive director of MAPS-AMEN (American Muslim Empowerment Program), about how marchers at Saturday's Womxn's March.	Bill Radke
Diversity	Race & Equity	24-Jan-17	7 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Has Seattle always been so progressive?	The results of the recent presidential election revealed stark divisions in this country. This is especially clear in Seattle, where we're notorious for being one of the most progressive cities in the country.	Caroline Chamberlain

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Diversity	Race & Equity	25-Jan-17	11 mins. 12:00 Noon	Reflections on Japanese internment, 75 years later	Bill Radke talks with writer and Humanities Washington speaker Mayumi Tsutakawa about the 75th anniversary of the World War II order that led to Japanese internment in America.	Bill Radke
Diversity	Native Americans	25-Jan-17	7 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	He said his race should be erased. Then he quietly preserved it.	Wayne Williams struggles to tell the story, because of his health. He speaks in bursts, between coughing fits and gulps of orange juice. But Williams wants to tell the story of his grandfather, William Shelton.	Joshua McNichols
Diversity	Religion	26-Jan-17	15 mins. 12:00 Noon	Lessons in loving your neighbor from the Muslims and Mormons next door	A couple of weeks ago, a fire destroyed a Bellevue mosque . So their neighbors stepped up. Members of the Mormon Church next door offered to share...	Bill Radke
Diversity	Race & Equity	27-Jan-17	4 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Dear white people: Please, please talk about race	When Tyrone Beason called his father after Donald Trump was elected, the conversation didn't start in the turmoil of the present.	Jamala Henderson
Diversity	Race & Equity	28-Jan-17	4 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Seattle's African American churches face a test of diversity	Carl Livingston sees the troubles facing African American churches in Seattle as a test. Livingston said that as the city has grown more expensive, congregations are surviving in part by cutting costs and seeking innovative ways to find income.	Kim Malcolm
Health/Healthcare	Military	4-Jan-17	4 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	When it comes to substance abuse and soldiers, confidentiality helps	Heavy alcohol use and binge drinking are on the rise in the military. And many service members with a problem don't voluntarily seek treatment....	Patricia Murphy
Health/Healthcare		10-Jan-17	4 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Seattle nurses fight through long shifts and long commutes	The Seattle area is getting more expensive. People are finding new ways to adapt, like moving farther away for affordable housing. But what happens when you still need to work in the city — say, at a hospital in Seattle's core?	Carolyn Adolph

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Health/Healthcare		19-Jan-17	7 mins. 12:00 Noon	The voters who want Trumpcare	Bill Radke speaks with Seaview resident Nansen Malin about how health insurance motivated her vote for Donald Trump. Rising costs and falling quality of healthcare.	Bill Radke
Health/Healthcare		24-Jan-17	13 mins. 12:00 Noon	Debate: Should Seattle have safe consumption sites to battle the drug epidemic?	Bill Radke talks to state Senator Mark Miloscia and Kris Nyrop of the Public Defender Association.	Bill Radke
Health/Healthcare		24-Jan-17	3 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	King County says it will protect affordable health care if Obamacare repealed	King County Executive Dow Constantine said he'll fight to keep affordable health care for people currently covered under Obamacare.	Patricia Murphy
Health/Healthcare		24-Jan-17	5 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	1 million Washingtonians could lose health coverage if Obamacare goes	State Insurance Commissioner Mike Kreidler estimates one million people in Washington have received health care coverage under the Affordable Care Act.	Ross Reynolds
Immigration		10-Jan-17	6 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Before Seattle was a sanctuary city, a church hid this immigrant	Long before Seattle was a sanctuary city, churches here sheltered immigrants from Central America. Carlos Mejia and his wife Ercilia moved here in...	David Hyde
Immigration		12-Jan-17	9 mins. 12:00 Noon	Why universities are resisting the term 'sanctuary campus'	Since Donald Trump's election, a sanctuary movement has popped up at college campuses across the United States.	Bill Radke
Immigration		17-Jan-17	5 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	How the Supreme Court could derail Trump's plan to punish sanctuary cities like Seattle.	Kim Malcolm talks with University of Washington law professor Hugh Spitzer about previous U.S. Supreme Court decisions.	Kim Malcolm
Immigration		19-Jan-17	5 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	As Trump rises to power, an undocumented family braces for impact	We picked the school as our meeting place. Victor has worked as a custodian at this junior high for several years. It's in a suburb of Seattle.	Liz Jones
Immigration		19-Jan-17	5 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Why Seattle is giving free legal advice to immigrants on Inauguration Day	Kim Malcolm talks with Cuc Vu about why the city of Seattle is hosting an event on Inauguration Day to provide free legal advice to immigrants.	Kim Malcolm

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
National Election		4-Jan-17	7 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Why one side of Puget Sound became Trump country in 2016	When you first hit the road from Seattle on your way to Mason County there are lots of signs that the economy is buzzing, like construction cranes,...	Jeannie Yandel
National Election		19-Jan-17	7 mins. 12:00 Noon	Here's why Seattle Rep. Jayapal won't be at Trump's inauguration	Bill Radke talks with Seattle Congresswoman Pramila Jayapal about why she'll skip the inauguration of President Donald J. Trump.	Bill Radke
National election		25-Jan-17	17 mins. 12:00 Noon	'Not the end of the earth' says Jim McDermott of Trump's first 100 days	Bill Radke talks to former Congressman Jim McDermott about what President Donald Trump can and can't achieve in his first 100 days in office.	Bill Radke
National Election		25-Jan-17	7 mins. 12:00 Noon	Rep. Jayapal calls Trump's border wall a 'red herring'	Bill Radke talks with Congresswoman Pramila Jayapal about President Donald Trump's executive actions to build a wall on the U.S.-Mexico border and cut	Bill Radke
President Trump's Executive Orders on Immigration & Refugees	Refugees	26-Jan-17	2 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Seattle area refugees, Muslims on high alert for Trump policy changes	Every day, newly arrived refugees just show up at Marwa Sadik's office, at the Iraqi Community Center in Kent. Many are Iraqi, like her.	Liz Jones
President Trump's Executive Orders on Immigration & Refugees		26-Jan-17	8 mins. 12:00 Noon	Immigrant families face new reality in a Trump America	Bill Radke speaks with KUOW reporter Liz Jones about the potential fallout from President Trump's upcoming immigration executive order.	Bill Radke/Liz Jones
President Trump's Executive Orders on Immigration & Refugees		26-Jan-17	9 mins. 12:00 Noon	This 22-year-old activist college graduate could be deported under Trump	Bill Radke talks with Graciela Nunez Pargas about her experience as an enrollee in the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals program.	Bill Radke
President Trump's Executive Orders on Immigration & Refugees		28-Jan-17	4 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Roller coaster of heartbreak and fury at Sea-Tac in wake of Trump order	When officials at Sea-Tac International Airport got wind of President Donald Trump's latest order, it came like a slap in the face.	Liz Jones & Isolde Raftery

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
President Trump's Executive Orders on Immigration & Refugees	refugees	29-Jan-17	3 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Sea-Tac detainees watched the protests and felt grateful for the solidarity	Muwafag Gasim, a construction engineer in Seattle, touched down at Sea-Tac International Airport at 6:30 a.m. on Sunday. He lined up with his fellow	Kate Walters
President Trump's Executive Orders on Immigration & Refugees	immigration	29-Jan-17	3 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Seattle Christians face 'great dissonance' over Trump's refugee order	Father Tim Clark found this Sunday's Christian scripture particularly relevant to the turmoil over President Donald Trump's orders on refugees.	Amy Radil
President Trump's Executive Orders on Immigration & Refugees	Immigration	29-Jan-17	5 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Syrian refugee, 7 months pregnant. Flight to join Seattle family, cancelled	This week was meant to be a reunion for the Al Halabi family. They're Syrian refugees who live just south of Seattle. Two grown children.	Kara McDermott
President Trump's Executive Orders on Immigration & Refugees	Immigration	30-Jan-17	5 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	'The American dream was in their grasp': How Trump's refugee ban is affecting local families.	Kim Malcolm talks with Nicky Smith about how President Trump's refugee ban will impact refugee families living in the Puget Sound region.	Kim Malcolm
Region Of Boom	growth	4-Jan-17	7 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Tired of commuting, a bedroom community near Seattle takes a risk	Marysville is the fastest growing big city in western Washington because there's space to build housing. But there aren't many jobs in Marysville.	KUOW Staff
Region Of Boom	Growth	6-Jan-17	3 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Marysville is growing fast. Here's what residents think of that	In Cora Milholland's lifetime, Marysville has grown from under 2,000 residents to over 60,000. Since the time he arrived in the 1990s, Loren Cook...	Posey Gruener
Region Of Boom	Transportation	9-Jan-17	7 mins. 12:00 Noon	This awful commute had to be seen to be believed	Bill Radke speaks with Carolyn Adolph about "how and why" she ended up stuck in traffic with state Representative John Lovick .	Bill Radke, Carolyn Adolph, Posey Gruener
Region Of Boom		13-Jan-17	6 mins 12:00 Noon	Boomtown politics, with Marysville Mayor Jon Nehring	Bill Radke speaks with Marysville Mayor Jon Nehring about what it's like to lead a working-class town through an influx of wealth and population.	Patricia Murphy

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Region Of Boom		17-Jan-17	4 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Last stop for affordable housing north of Seattle isn't affordable for everyone	The farther people flee from the major metro areas, the cheaper the housing. But there's only so far they can run, because there's an imaginary wall that stops development from sprawling all over the landscape,...	Bill Radke
Region Of Boom	Housing	18-Jan-17	3 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Seattle renters: It's not better in Marysville	Marysville is the fastest growing big city in Western Washington. In part that's due to people leaving the Seattle housing market to find more affordable housing in a place a commutable distance away.	Bill Radke
Region Of Boom		25-Jan-17	4 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Marysville has an opera house: Bring your kayak	Seattle's growth is transforming the cities at its edges. Residents in these growing bedroom communities want things to do when they're home....	Carolyn Adolph
SPECIAL PROGRAMS
WA State Legislature		10-Jan-17	8 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Tough deadlines ahead for Washington lawmakers on education spending	Washington state lawmakers are back at the state Capitol for this year's legislative session with one of the biggest spending questions looming over their heads in recent years.	Kim Malcolm
WA State Legislature		17-Jan-17	11 mins. 12:00 Noon	Should Washington abolish the death penalty?	Bill Radke speaks with State Senator Steve O'Ban and Seattle attorney Jason Ritterer about the proposal by the attorney general's office to abolish the death penalty.	Bill Radke
Week In Review		6-Jan-17	52 mins. 12:00 Noon	This week, we're the target	The Washington State Legislature convenes on Monday and one of the issues on the table is a bill that would ban drivers from holding their phone while driving.	Today's panel: Bill Radke w/ Joni Balter, Knute Berger, Eli Sanders
Week In Review		13-Jan-17	52 mins. 12:00 Noon	This week we're thinking about legacy.	President Barack Obama gave his final address to the nation this week. We'll take a look back at his legacy as the first African-American president...	Today's panel: Bill Radkew/ Ijeoma Oluo, Chris Vance and Marcus Green

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Week In Review		20-Jan-17	53 mins. 12:00 Noon	This week we're translating President Trump's inaugural address with you	Donald J. Trump was sworn in as the 45th President of the United States today. We're asking you, our listeners, to call in and tell us: What did you hear in his inauguration speech?	Today's panel: Bill Radke w/ Sherman Alexie, Phyllis Fletcher, Rob McKenna
Week In Review		27-Jan-17	52 mins. 12:00 Noon	This week we're rehashing the first days of Trump's presidency	In Donald Trump's first week as president he's signed executive orders on the Affordable Care Act, the Keystone XL and Dakota Access pipeline, Trans..	Today's panel: Bill Radke w/Hanna Brooks Olsen, Lorena Gonzalez and Randy Pepple
Women's March		21-Jan-17	2 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	Huge crowd for women's march buries route through Seattle	Here's how big Saturday's women's march in Seattle was: The front reached Seattle Center (the end) before the back had left Judkins Park (the start...	Paige Browning
Women's March		23-Jan-17	5 mins. 8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	#WomensMarchSeattle could help change the nation and here's how	In 1913, a lot of women were pissed at President Woodrow Wilson, so they marched on Washington. Wilson had just won the presidential election, but...	David Hyde
Women's March		28-Jan-17	31 mins. 10:00 PM	Miss one of the speeches from Seattle's Womxn's March? We have you covered	The largest march in Seattle history took place on Saturday, January 21. Listen here to the speeches you may have missed at the Seattle Womxns March.	John O'Brien

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Business		13-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 6 mins.	Gary Locke to Donald Trump: 'There are no winners in a trade war'	Gary Locke worries the Trump administration is lurching toward a twofold disaster in its China policy. But he's also hopeful that disaster can be avoided.	David Hyde
Business		14-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 8 mins.	Gates Foundation releases 'report card' for Warren Buffett's $30 billion gift	Deborah Wang talks with Geekwire co-founder Todd Bishop about how Bill Gates and the Gates Foundation are spending the $30 billion gift from billionaire Warren Buffet.	Deborah Wang
Diversity	LGBTQ	1-Feb-17	4:00 PM, 4 mins.	Mom looks for transgender role model for daughter	We all need someone to look up to. That's what motivated Marlo Mack to seek out a role model for her nine-year-old transgender daughter.	Marlo Mack
Diversity	Race & Equity	2-Feb-17	12:00 noon, 11 mins.	Remembering those who resisted Japanese internment	Bill Radke speaks with author Frank Abe about his 2000 documentary "Conscience and the Constitution," which looks at Japanese who resisted their internment in American camps during World War II.	Bill Radke
Diversity	Race & Equity	7-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 5 mins.	Four things an anti-racism trainer thinks white people should know	When Reverend David Billings started giving anti-racism trainings in the 1980s, he said many people "just didn't see it." But he said that's not the case today.	Patricia Murphy
Diversity	Race & Equity	13-Feb-17		Racial literacy gap hurts all Americans, black teacher says	Drego Little teaches literature at Rainier Scholars, a college prep program for low-income students of color, and humanities at Matteo Ricci College...	Ann Dornfeld
Diversity	Race & Equity	16-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 4 mins.	Seattle cop to young black men: Use the system to protect your rights	Perry Tarrant wants young African Americans to know their rights in interactions with police. But Tarrant, assistant chief at the Seattle Police, said it is just as important as knowing what to do if you think you've been wronged by the police.	Emily Fox

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Diversity	Race & Equity, Education	23-Feb-17	10:00 PM, 50 mins.	Progress and pushback: The history of equal rights in education	"Are you ready to go back in history?" Professor Joy Williamson-Lott asks that question early on in this talk. She's encouraging the audience, exciting us, but also challenging us.	John O'Brien
Diversity	Race & Equity	23-Feb-17	4:00 PM & 8:30 AM, 4 mins.	Rental discrimination is alive and well in oh-so liberal Seattle	When people of color try to rent housing in Seattle, they're treated differently from white people.	Patricia Murphy
Government		8-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 6 mins.	Where will Seattle put its $3 billion?	Bill Radke talks to Seattle Weekly reporter Sara Bernard about the Seattle City Council's decision to divest $3 billion from Wells Fargo Bank.	Bill Radke
Government		23-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 9 mins.	Why was there an empty chair for Dave Reichert in Cashmere?	Congressman Dave Reichert (R-8th Dist.) is not holding a Town Hall meeting, unless you count a Facebook Live event he's doing Thursday where he'll answer questions that you can submit online or by email.	Bill Radke
Health/Healthcare		8-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM	People of color will suffer the most with the end of health care	Emily Fox speaks with Dr. Jeff Duchin, public health officer for Public Health-Seattle and King County, about how ending the Affordable Care Act will impact people of color.	Emily Fox
Health/Healthcare		16-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 11 mins.	How an advocate got the NRA to collaborate on preventing gun suicides	Bill Radke speaks with Jennifer Stuber, an associate professor at the University of Washington and co-founder of Forefront: Innovations in Suicide Prevention.	Bill Radke
Health/Healthcare		22-Feb-17	12: Noon, 10 mins. 10 mins.	The cost of high volume surgeries at Swedish Cherry Hill	Bill Radke talks to Mike Baker, investigative reporter for The Seattle Times about his investigation into the high volume of surgeries in the neurosurgery department at Swedish's Cherry Hill facility.	Bill Radke
Healthcare/Health		20-Feb-17	10:00 PM, 51 mins.	Sweet siren. Covering up the dangers of sugar	A friend might try to talk you out of smoking cigarettes or your alcohol consumption, but would they criticize your sugar habit?	John O'Brien

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Housing/Homelessness		22-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 16 mins.	Looking to mercy and justice to end homelessness in Seattle	Bill Radke speaks with Jeff Lilley, president of the Union Gospel Mission, and Britt Olson, the vicar of St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Ballard about how their faith motivates the work they do with the homeless population in Seattle and how to help the city end the homeless crisis.	Bill Radke
Immigration in the Northwest	Refugees	2-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 12 mins.	How Trump's refugee ban is affecting Iranians in the Northwest	Bill Radke talks with Arshiya Chime, Omid Bagheri, and Hossein Khorram about President Trump's executive order that limits immigration and refugee resettlement.	Bill Radke
Immigration in the Northwest	Refugees	6-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 5 mins.	Ukrainian refugees arrive at Sea-Tac during tenuous legal window	Cordelia Revells anxiously peers down the arrival gate at Sea-Tac Airport. "We are looking for a family of six," Revells says. "You'll know it's them because refugees typically carry a white and blue bag from the International Organization for Migration, which helps coordinate refugee travel from overseas.	Liz Jones
Immigration in the Northwest	Refugees	6-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 5 mins.	WA's Attorney General Ferguson: 'A president cannot have unchecked powers'	Liz Jones talks with Washington's Attorney General Bob Ferguson about the state's lawsuit against President Donald Trump.	Liz Jones
Immigration in the Northwest		7-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 7 mins.	Why Tacoma will not be a sanctuary city	Bill Radke talks with Tacoma Mayor Marilyn Strickland about why she does not want Tacoma to be termed a sanctuary city.	Bill Radke
Immigration in the Northwest	Refugees	7-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 9 mins.	Why the legal battle over Trump's travel ban is likely to reach the U.S. Supreme Court	Bill Radke talks with Emily Bazelon, staff writer for the New York Times Magazine and a senior research scholar at Yale Law School, about the ongoing court battle over President Trump's immigration and refugee travel ban.	Bill Radke

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Immigration in the Northwest	Refugees	8-Feb-17	4:00 PM, 8:30 AM, 5 mins.	How a simple website could help refugees caught up in Trump's travel ban	Kim Malcolm talks with Seattle attorney Takao Yamada about airportlawyer.org , a website he co-founded to provide legal assistance to refugees and immigrants affected by President Trump's travel ban.	Kim Malcolm
Immigration in the Northwest		9-Feb-17	4:00 PM, 4 mins.	He was 'okay' with Trump winning, but now this U.S. citizen is afraid to leave the country	Our Immigration Team has been talking with people from local communities who are affected by President Trump's travel ban.	Kim Malcolm
Immigration in the Northwest	refugees	9-Feb-17	4:00 PM, 8:30 AM, 5 mins.	Blind Iraqi refugee, halted by travel ban: 'They tell me Seattle is beautiful'	They were ready. They had even packed gifts for relatives who would greet them in Seattle. Then a snowstorm delayed the flight. And the very next day, President Trump signed his temporary immigration ban.	Liz Jones
Immigration in the Northwest		10-Feb-17	4:00 PM & 8:30 AM, 5 mins.	As Trump cracks down on immigration, Canada hopes to poach tech talent	Kim Malcolm talks with Michael Tippet, co-founder of True North . The company's goal is to help foreign tech workers living in the U.S. relocate to Canada.	Kim Malcolm
Immigration in the Northwest		10-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 5 mins.	Trump's travel ban misses the point, says former U.S. Attorney in Seattle	Making a list of banned countries just doesn't make sense, said John McKay, a former U.S. attorney for Western Washington who was appointed by President George W. Bush. He now teaches law at Seattle University.	Amy Radil
Immigration in the Northwest		13-Feb-17	4:00 PM & 8:30 AM, 5 mins.	In case of a Muslim registry, this GOP lawmaker wants to protect religious privacy	Kim Malcolm talks with Washington state Senator Joe Fain (R-Auburn) about why he's co-sponsoring a bill that would prohibit the state from sharing information about someone's religious affiliation with the federal government.	Kim Malcolm
Immigration in the Northwest		14-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 3 mins.	Immigrant with DACA or 'dreamer' status detained in Tacoma	An immigrant in Seattle with temporary legal status through the DACA or "dreamers" program is currently being held at the Northwest Detention Center in Tacoma since Friday.	Liz Jones

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Immigration in the Northwest		15-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 16 mins.	Iraqi in Seattle: 'This is not a country that I want to give up on'	A few days before President Donald Trump signed the executive order halting the arrival of immigrants and refugees from seven majority-Muslim countries, Murtadha Al-Tameemi was in Vancouver, B.C., about to watch his brother perform in a play.	Deborah Wang
Immigration in the Northwest		15-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 6 mins.	Immigrant 'dreamer' detained in Tacoma files federal lawsuit	Bill Radke talks with KUOW immigration reporter Liz Jones about the arrest and detention of Daniel Ramirez Medina, who's been held at the Northwest	Liz Jones, Bill Radke
Immigration in the Northwest		16-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 5 mins.	Skagit farmers and Trump: 'Heartache over his immigration stand'	Mike Youngquist has just about had it with Donald Trump on immigration. And with Democrats too. "Neither one of them want to get in and solve the problem," said Youngquist, a Republican who has been farming much of his life in the Skagit Valley. "They just want to argue about it."	David Hyde
Immigration in the Northwest	Refugees	17-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 5 mins.	Refugee advocates scramble to help while they still can	The effects of President Trump's travel ban have not been limited to immigrants entering the U.S. Nonprofit groups that resettle refugees are also facing uncertainty.	Ruby de Luna
Immigration in the Northwest		21-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 4 mins.	Mayor Ed Murray may sue Donald Trump, and more from his State of the City address	Seattle officials are threatening to sue the Trump Administration if they don't get detailed information about the president's immigration policies....	Bill Radke
Immigration in the Northwest		24-Feb-17	4:00 PM & 8:30 AM, 4 mins.	Under Trump, will Seattle tech firms be targeted for immigration raids?	Kim Malcolm talks with Puget Sound Business Journal reporter Ashley Stewart about Tuesday's immigration inspection of the Redmond cloud company, Sysgain.	Kim Malcolm
Immigration in the Northwest		27-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 5 mins.	School days go from stressful to fearful for students of undocumented families	Kim Malcolm talks with Lincoln High School teacher Nathan Gibbs-Bowling about the struggles of students who are affected by President Trump's immigration policies.	Kim Malcolm

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
President Donald Trump & the Northwest		21-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 21 mins.	How the Trump administration is doing one month in	Bill Radke talks to former Congressman Jim McDermott and former chairman of the Washington State Republican Party Chris Vance about the first 100 days of Donald Trump's presidency. They discuss immigration, Russia and the future of the Republican Party.	Bill Radke
President Donald Trump and the Northwest	Travel Ban	1-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 3 mins.	Police shut down light rail to keep protesters from Sea-Tac airport	Hundreds of protesters of President Donald Trump's executive order on immigration were stymied in their efforts to get to Seattle-Tacoma International Airport.	John Ryan
President Donald Trump and the Northwest		3-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 10 mins.	Trump wants to end political limits on tax-exempt churches â€™ should we?	Joe Fuiten likes President Donald Trump's proposal to eliminate tax restrictions on churches' participation in politics.	Kim Malcolm
President Donald Trump and the Northwest		16-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 14 mins.	Three non-traditional Trump voters give the president high marks	Bill Radke speaks with three Trump voters "Marcy Ann Ritchie, Forrest Taylor and Lori Theis" who don't quite fit the stereotype of those who voted...	Bill Radke
President Donald Trump and the Northwest	Environment	22-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 5 mins.	Trump's billionaire pick for commerce, oceans chief is keeping his oil tankers	If one thing is clear from Wilbur Ross's financial disclosure forms, it's that the billionaire nominee for Secretary of Commerce lives in a world most Americans can only fantasize about.	John Ryan
President Donald Trump and the Northwest		23-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 11 mins.	Lessons from getting out of the Seattle bubble to meet Trump supporters	Bill Radke speaks with filmmaker James Allen Smith about his latest project to meet Trump supporters. Smith recently drove his Prius from Seattle to Lynden to talk with people who voted for Trump.	Bill Radke
Region Of Boom	Black Diamond	10-Feb-17		KUOW is going to Black Diamond. Here's why	Emily Fox speaks with Joshua McNichols and Carolyn Adolph about their team reporting project, Region of Boom, which explores the growth of our region...	Emily Fox, Joshua McNichols, Carolyn Adolph
Region Of Boom	Black Diamond	14-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 7 mins.	'It's like city council meets Jerry Springer' in a divided Black Diamond	Mary Ann and Bill McDermant moved to Black Diamond 23 years ago for the peace, tranquility and the strong sense of community.	Joshua McNichols

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Region Of Boom	Black Diamond	21-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 5 mins.	Black Diamond, a town frozen in time, is poised to boom	Black Diamond is a city of 4,000 people southeast of Seattle. It's a haven for cyclists headed for Mount Rainier, and a historic coal mining town....	Carolyn Adolph
Region Of Boom	Black Diamond	22-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 3 mins.	The dream of Black Diamond's big development is an alternative to suburban sprawl	So how did King County's largest development in recent history end up way out in Black Diamond? It happened in part because of Black Diamond's history as a company town.	Joshua McNicols
Region Of Boom	Black Diamond	23-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 12 mins.	This woman is fighting to save her hometown from developers. Some townsfolk wish she wouldn't	Bill Radke speaks with Kristen Bryant, member of the development watchdog group Save Black Diamond , about why she continues to fight a near--inevitable development and what she thinks of those in town who criticize her efforts.	Bill Radke
Region Of Boom		27-Feb-17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 5 mins.	"The hill is on fire" and other reminders of coal in Black Diamond	The hill at Palmer Coking Coal Company in Black Diamond is smoldering.	Joshua McNicols
Schools and Education	Race & Equity	2-Feb-17	10:00 PM, 52 mins.	Equity and deeper learning in public education. What works?	Every three years the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD), made up of the world's richest countries, publishes an international student assessment. They test 15-year-olds for comprehension in reading, math and science.	John O'Brien
Schools and Education	Race & Equity	23-Feb-17	4:00 PM & 8:30 AM, 5 mins.	Mayor Ed Murray promises a lot to young black men in Seattle, but can he deliver?	During his "State of the City" address, Seattle mayor Ed Murray announced a new initiative called Our Best. It focuses on improving the lives of young black men in the city.	Kim Malcolm
Special Series
Week In Review		3-Feb-17	12 Noon, 52 mins.	This week: Who isn't speaking up enough? And who could speak less?	Protesters take to Sea-Tac and airports around the country and Washington state goes to court over President Trump's executive order restricting...	Bill Radke

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Week In Review		10-Feb-17	12 Noon, 52 mins.	This week we're doing our best to remain civil	Washington state wins another round in court against President Trump's temporary immigration order when a federal appeals court refuses to reinstate...	Bill Radke
Week In Review		17-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 53 mins.	This week we feel for you, unless you live on Mercer Island	The U.S. Supreme Court might be the next stop for a Richland florist who refused to arrange flowers for a same-sex wedding. An undocumented "dreamer"	Bill Radke
Week In Review		24-Feb-17	12:00 Noon, 53 mins.	This week was faster than baseball and funnier than constitutional law	Is it a big deal for a member of Congress to skip a town hall with angry voters? Will the Trump Administration go after Washington state's legal...	Bill Radke

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Affordable Housing	Homelessness	3/20/17	12:00 Noon, 8 mins.	What if doctors could prescribe housing for the homeless?	Bill Radke speaks with Hawaii State Senator Josh Green. Senator Green is also an ER doctor, and is trying to both house the homeless and reduce their....	Bill Radke
Affordable Housing	Homelessness	3/22/17	12:00 Noon, 12 mins.	4 things to know about Mayor Ed Murray's homeless levy	Seattle voters may have to decid: Should the city should double what it spends combating homelessness? The $275 million levy, would suppport programs fighting homelessness over a five-year period.	Bill Radke, Amy Rolph
Affordable Housing	Homelessness	3/23/17	12:00 Noon, 11 mins.	I lived in my car in Ballard for three years	Robert Loomis had a good job and had just signed a mortgage on a new home then he started having chest pains. This is his story.	Bill Radke
Diversity	Race & Equity	3/15/17	12:00 Noon, 12 mins.	Landlords sue Seattle over first-come, first-served rule	The first-come, first-served law passed last summer means Seattle landlords can't thumb through a stack of applications and choose the tenant they like the most; they have to rent to the first qualified applicant.	Bill Radke
Diversity	Religion	3/16/17	12:00 Noon, 12 mins.	Seattle rabbi didn't cover anti-Semitic graffiti so we could see the bigger picture	When Temple De Hirsch Sinai in Seattle was vandalized a neighbor covered the hateful message with a sheet with the words, "Love wins." Rabbi Daniel Weiner took down the sheet. He didn't want to hide the ugliness.	Bill Radke
Diversity	Native Americans	3/18/17	4:00 PM, 5 mins.	When is cultural appropriation OK? Never, say some Native Americans	The Indian Arts and Crafts Act of 1990 makes it illegal to knowingly sell non-Native made goods as authentic Native American art or craft.	Marcie Sillman
Diversity	Native Americans	3/18/17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 4 mins.	Disenrollments could cost Nooksack tribe sovereignty.	The sovereignty of the Nooksack tribe is in jeopardy. This comes after the tribe kicked out about 15% of its members - members the tribe says don't belong.	Emily Fox
Diversity	Native Americans	3/18/17	8:30 AM, 4 mins.	The million-dollar market for Seattle's Native American legacy	Traces of Seattle's Native American heritage are everywhere, from the Seahawks logo to totem poles at the Pike Place Market. After all, Seattle is...	Marcie Sillman
Diversity	Native Americans	3/21/17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 10 mins.	Pregnant mom calls for help, ends up killed by police. Her tribe wants answers	The young mom texted her boyfriend: "Come and get the girls or call 911. I'm about to shoot myself".	Amy Radil

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Diversity	Gender/Womens Rights	3/23/17	11:00 PM, 50 mins.	Bold women tell stories of global struggles for equal rights	What difference can a day make? For half of the world's population who struggle with social, economic, and political inequity, a day honoring women.	John O'Brien
Economy		3/13/17	12:00 Noon, 24 mins.	Ask the Mayor: Homeless levy, soda tax and suing Trump	Bill Radke talks with Seattle Mayor Ed Murray about his plans for a five-year, $275 million property tax levy to pay for additional homeless services...	Bill Radke
Economy	Taxes	3/20/17	12 Noon, 13 mins.	Seattle's proposed soda tax is bittersweet	Bill Radke spoke with Dr. Jim Krieger and law professor Baylen Linnekin about the proposed tax on sugary beverages in Seattle.	Bill Radke
Economy	Health/Biotech	3/27/17	12:00 Noon, 6 mins.	Federal biotech funding is a 'backbone' of Washington's economy	Bill Radke talks to Jon Talton, Seattle Times economics columnist, about what it would mean for the Northwest if the proposed cuts to the National	Bill Radke
Environment	Environment	3/3/17	4:00 PM & 8:30 AM, 4 mins.	Trump wants to cut EPA funding for Puget Sound by 93 percent	The Trump administration has proposed cutting federal funding for restoring Puget Sound by 93%. Ending this June, the EPA has spent $28 million on Puget Sound restoration. Next year, it would drop to $2 million.	John Ryan
Environment		3/24/17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 5 mins.	Volkswagen settlement fuels a fight to phase out dirty old diesel engines	The decision by Volkswagen to cheat on diesel emissions tests means Oregon and Washington are in line for a big payday. The states plan to turn...	Cassandra Profita/EarthFix
GOP American Health Care Act	immigration	3/10/17	4:00 PM, 8:30 AM, 4 mins.	Here's what the Obamacare repeal could mean for Washington immigrants	Kim Malcolm talks with Kaiser Health News reporter Julie Rovner about how immigrants and refugees may be affected by the Republicans' replacement plan for the Affordable Care Act.	Kim Malcolm
GOP American Health Care Act	government	3/14/17	12:00 Noon, 20 mins.	Understanding Paul Ryan's plan for health care reform	Bill Radke talks to Mary Agnes Carey , senior correspondent for Kaiser Health News, about the American Health Care Act and how it will affect the way people are insured.	Amina Al-Sadi
GOP American Health Care Act	Patty Murray	3/14/17	12:00 Noon, 6 mins.	Sen. Patty Murray to Republicans: 'Stop talking about repealing, work with us'	Bill Radke talks to Senator Patty Murray about the House Republican's American Health Care Act that would repeal and replace the Affordable Care Act.	Amina Al-Sadi

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
GOP American Health Care Act		3/15/17	12:00 Noon, 11 mins.	What does the GOP health care bill mean for Washington?	Bill Radke speaks with Aaron Katz about the most dire predictions for how the Republican health care proposal will affect Washingtonians. Katz is a lecturer in health services at the University of Washington.	Bill Radke
GOP American Health Care Act	Healthcare	3/16/17	4:00 PM, 8:30 AM, 4 mins.	Rural Washington will be hit hard by Republican health care plan	Information was released this week about how the Republican health plan would affect people in Washington. UW associate law professor Sallie Sanford spoke with Kim Malcolm about who loses the most.	Kim Malcolm
GOP American Health Care Act	Healthcare	3/23/17	12:00 Noon, 12 mins.	This is one way Medicaid cuts could affect people with disabilities	Bill Radke talks with AtWork! CEO Christina Brandt about how Medicaid cuts could affect people with disabilities. AtWork! is a non-profit...	Bill Radke
Immigration in the Northwest	immigration	3/2/17	4:00 PM & 8:30 AM, 5 mins.	Trump calls for a 'merit-based' system, which could mean fewer immigrants	Kim Malcolm talks with Vox staff writer Dara Lind about President Trump's call for a 'merit-based' system for immigration, and how it could impact immigrants living in Washington state.	Kim Malcolm
Immigration in the Northwest	deportation	3/21/17	12:00 Noon, 10 mins.	He helped deport thousands. Now he shelters immigrants in his church	Bill Radke talks with Father Antonio Illas of Auburn's Saint Matthew-San Mateo Episcopal Church. Before entering the priesthood, he worked for 25 years as a Federal Immigration Agent.	Bill Radke
Immigration in the Northwest		3/29/17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 4 mins.	Seattle sues Trump administration over threat to 'sanctuary cities'	Seattle will not be bullied into helping with federal immigration enforcement, Mayor Murray said on Wednesday. The city is taking the Trump...	Liz Jones
Immigration in the Northwest	immigration	3/30/17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 5 mins.	This Seattle lawmaker wants $1 million legal fund for immigrants	Seattle officials are taking their support for immigrants and refugees a step further: They want to create a $1 million legal defense fund to help...	Emily Fox
Race & Equity	race	3/1/17	4:00 PM & 8:30 AM, 2 mins.	See racial harassment? Say something, on this Seattle hotline	Patricia Lally was on the bus going downtown from her West Seattle home when a man began uttering racially offensive statements.	Patricia Murphy
Race & Equity		3/1/17	4:00 PM & 8:30 AM, 4 mins.	For parents raising infants of color, this support group aims to uplift	Support groups for new parents are popular in Seattle. Parents swap tips about when to introduce the bottle and empathize about new family dynamics....	Ann Dornfeld

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Race & Equity		3/7/17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 4 mins.	Hate crimes in the Northwest: We've been here before	Recent hate crimes prompted President Trump to condemn such acts in a speech to Congress. Some of those incidents have been in the Pacific Northwest.	Kim Malcolm
Race & Equity	Schools & Education	3/9/17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 4 mins.	Seattle Schools may make ethnic studies mandatory	The Seattle School Board is considering a proposal from the Seattle-King County NAACP to require ethnic studies at every school and possibly make the subject a graduation requirement.	Ann Dornfeld
Race & Equity	Healthcare	3/29/17	4 mins	As Central District gets whiter, new barriers to health care	Last week while lawmakers in Washington, D.C., were gnashing their teeth over what health insurance in the U.S. should look like, patients and...	Patricia Murphy
Refugees	Immigration/Travel Ban	3/6/17	12:00 Noon, 7 mins.	How Trump's new travel ban could impact the Seattle area	Bill Radke talks with KUOW immigration reporter Liz Jones about the potential impact of President Trump's new executive order on immigration.	Bill Radke
Refugees	Immigration in the Northwest	3/6/17	4 mins./4 mins. Parts 1 & 2	Dreams of Seattle from the world's largest refugee camp	More than 265,000 people live at this sweltering desert crossroads, where hope is the only thing in abundance. That's why President Trump's immigration policies have landed like a gut punch, deflating dreams. Many have relatives or friends in Seattle.	Kate Walters
Refugees	Immigration	3/8/17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 4 mins.	This refugee baby needs to be vetted before his family can move to Seattle	In the world's largest refugee camp in Kenya, there's a baby waiting to be vetted by the U.S. government. He's just over a year old. And he's the reason that his family is still living in limbo, instead of in Seattle.	Kate Walters
Refugees	Immigration	3/8/17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 4 mins.	Having family in the U.S. means a lot to refugees	Seattle has a large Somali population. And some of those families have relatives in refugee camps who are affected by the Trump administration's travel ban.	Kate Walters
Region Of Boom	Black Diamond	3/2/17	12:00 Noon, 9 mins.	Black Diamond's development story tells us 'everything about ourselves'	Dennis Box, editor of the Enumclaw Courier-Herald, talks about what he's learned in his years covering the struggle in Black Diamond, and why he thinks the story of this small town "goes to the very core of who we are."	Bill Radke

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
Region Of Boom	Black Diamond/Development	3/3/17	4:00 PM & 8:30 AM, 4 mins.	Several Seattle suburbs sit on coal mines. What's the risk?	Ours is a region of hazards, including earthquakes and slides. It's also a region where the rising cost of housing has pushed people to the edges and as people go farther out, they encounter a new hazard: abandoned coal mines.	Carolyn Adolph
Region Of Boom	Black Diamond/Development	3/6/17	4:00 PM & 8:30 AM, 7 mins.	Searching for the mysterious 'weir master' of Black Diamond	Our region's rapid growth is straining our lakes, especially little lakes on the fringes of urban areas. When growth occurs, communities around them aren't always prepared to protect them from pollution.	Joshua McNichols
Region Of Boom	Black Diamond	3/9/17	12:00 Noon, 6 mins.	Facing inevitable development, this woman chooses to accept it	Bill Radke speaks with Black Diamond resident Johna Thomson about a planned development that will quadruple the size of her town and why she thinks Black Diamond should start focusing on getting the most out of it.	Bill Radke
Region Of Boom	Black Diamond	3/9/17	8:30 AM & 4 PM, 4 mins.	Traffic is killing us. Could we fix it together?	As we all know from living here, our region's roads haven't been keeping up with population growth. It's a long standing problem coming soon to Black Diamond, which is embarking on one of the largest developments in King County.	Carolyn Adolph
Region Of Boom	Immigration/Race & Equity	3/14/17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 8 mins.	Racism is baked into the history of this small Seattle suburb.	Our region was built with immigrant labor. It's part of the story of growth and development here. There are many ways to tell that history. How we tell it signals who belongs, and who is a foreigner.	Joshua McNichols
Region Of Boom	Development/Growth	3/16/17	8:30 AM & 4:00 PM, 7 mins.	This story begins with a cougar eating a tiny dog in Snoqualmie	A woman, a new resident of the huge Snoqualmie Ridge development, had called in for pizza. It was the first pie order for one of those new shiny...	Joshua McNichols
Region Of Boom	Black Diamond/Development	3/24/17	12:00 Noon, 12 mins.	How should communities respond to development?	Bill Radke speaks with Kristen Bryant, Dennis Box and Johna Thomson about the controversy surrounding a planned development in Black Diamond.	Bill Radke
Region Of Boom	Black Diamond/Development	3/27/17	12:00 Noon, 8 mins.	Reporter's notebook: Black Diamond, big developments, and sticking out your tongue	Bill Radke speaks with KUOW reporters Joshua McNichols and Carolyn Adolph about what they learned from their time reporting in Black Diamond for KUOW's Region of Boom Team.	Bill Radke

Issue	Specific Issue	Date	Time, Duration	Story	Content	Reporter
WA State Legislature	Healthcare	3/22/17	12:00 Noon, 8 mins.	One Washington state senator's fight to keep paid family leave alive	Bill Radke talks to state Senator Joe Fain (R-Auburn) about the bipartisan Senate bill he is working on with Sen. Karen Keiser (D-Burien) to require paid family and sick leave in Washington state.	Bill Radke
WA State Legislature	Schools & Education	3/28/17	12:00 Noon, 9 mins.	How is Washington state going to pay for education?	Bill Radke talks to KUOW's Olympia correspondent Austin Jenkins about the budget proposals of the House Democrats and Senate Republicans.	Amina Al-Sadi
SPECIAL SERIES
KUOW 65th Anniversary	Diversity-Japanese Internment	3/28/17	18 mins. ?	1992: Defying internment, Gordon Hirabayashi went to the Supreme Court instead	In 1942 when Japanese-American citizens were sent to internment camps, University of Washington student Gordon Hirabayashi (1918 - 2012) openly defied the order.	Ross Reynolds
Week In Review		3/3/17	12:00 Noon, 53 mins.	Week in Review: City tax, taco trucks, President Oprah?	Who should pay for solving Seattle's homelessness emergency? Can a new income tax make Seattle "Trump-proof"? Are taco trucks the answer to our traffic problems?	Bill Radke
Week In Review		3/10/17	12:00 Noon, 40 mins.	This week we're brushing up on our whack-a-mole game	Washington's attorney general says the injunction he won against President Trump's travel ban still applies to the president's new executive order ...and more stories.	Bill Radke
Week In Review		3/17/17	12:00 Noon, 52 mins.	This week's news is reviewed on a first-come, first served basis	President Trump proposes deep cuts to federal spending. How would they be felt in Washington state? Seattle landlords sue the city over a law that...	Bill Radke
Week In Review		3/24/17	12:00 Noon, 53 mins.	This week we're figuring it out as it happens	The fate of President Trump's health care plan comes down to the wire. We get into the pros and cons of Seattle's proposed soda tax and homeless levy...	Bill Radke