

- 5. Trump in Texas Thursday: (May 31, 2018, 8am-:30) – President Donald Trump was in Texas Thursday, meeting privately with families of some of the eight children and two teachers killed in the Santa Fe High School shooting massacre outside Houston on Friday, May 18th. Fourteen others were injured, including the perpetrator, a student who will not be named in this report. That 17-year-old student faces capital murder charges, and a lawsuit has been filed against his parents by a victim's family, claiming they didn't properly secure his weapons. Under Texas law guns, cannot be made accessible to minors unless hunting or under parental supervision.
