Cumulus Radio Group Savannah provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community.

Among the local issues addressed during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Quarterly Issues/Programs List
 - Creative Coast/Girls Code Savannah
 - Susie King Taylor Square
 - Savannah Police School Zone Cameras
 - S2S Facts Inc, 4th Annual Trunk or Treat
 - Creative Coast She Hustles
 - Savannah Lighted Boat Parade
 - Feed the Hungry 15th Annual Thanksgiving Dinner
 - 33rd Annual Savannah Toy Run
 - Greenbriar Christmas Gift-wrapping Station
 - Savannah Feed the Hungry 15th Annual Christmas Dinner

*Quarterly Coastal Spotlight (Public Affairs Show) Content - Each show is between 25 and 30 minutes in length and airs at either 6AM or 6:30AM on each of our 4 Cumulus Savannah Radio Group Stations. Segments consist of a conversation with an organization/community leader, possibly two or even a citizen and our host/talent. The individual segments are also uploaded to social media for sharing.

Oct 1 - Creative Coast/Girls Code Savannah, Susie King Taylor Square, Savannah Police School Zone Cameras

- The Creative Coast is back with their signature Girls Code non-profit tech-camp for young ladies in 5th through 8th grade. The week long day came teaches young ladies to non-only build their own website, but also to advance that website. Registration is open now and program chair Leslie Ott joins us via Zoom with details.
- A Downtown Savannah square formerly named for an anti-abolitionist is now renamed for Susie King Taylor, a Black Civil War Nurse who started secret “bucket schools” for Black children in Savannah during time when it was illegal for Black people to read & write. Gullah Geechee Historian Sista Patt Gunn was the driving force behind the push to rename the square. She joined us via Zoom with details on how it happened.
- School is back in session and this year the Savannah Police Department is adding tools to its School Zone Safety efforts — New Speed Cameras! Traffic Cpl Rebecca Thomas joined us via Zoom with all the details.

Oct 8 - Creative Coast/Girls Code Savannah, Susie King Taylor Square, Savannah Police School Zone Cameras

- Registration continues for the fall session of Girls Code tech-camp. Last week’s interview was edited for content.
- Susie King Taylor Square is still a major local talking point. Last week’s interview was re-aired in its entirety.
- We’re still getting complaints about tickets from new speed cameras. So last week’s speed camera interview was re-aired.

Oct 15 - 4th Annual S2S Facts Inc Trunk or Treat, 4th Annual S2S Facts Inc Trunk or Treat

- Halloween is headed our way and Cumulus partner S2S Facts, Inc is back with the 4th Annual Community Trunk or Treat, but THIS YEAR in a brand new location.

November 12 - Savannah Lighted Boat Parade, Feed the Hungry 15th Annual Thanksgiving Dinner

- The Savannah Lighted Boat Parade is kicking off the Holiday Season along the Waterfront the Saturday after Thanksgiving. Dozens of local boats are already signed up to be draped in lights and paraded along the Savannah Waterfront for prizes and bragging rights with event proceeds to benefit Greenbriar Children's Center. Parade Chair Delylah Thompson joined us via Zoom with all the details.

Wednesday, January 10, 2024

- The 15th Annual Savannah Feed the Hungry Thanksgiving Dinner is gearing up for the biggest celebration yet. Giveaways include 1000 turkeys, thousands of pounds of Purdue chicken, the Signature Farmers Market, the empowerment zone, employers looking to hire, free vaccines with incentives, live music and, of course, the largest sit-down Thanksgiving Dinner in the Peach State. FTH Founder and Executive Director Rev. Representative Dr. Carl Gilliard joined us via Zoom with details.

November 12 - Feed the Hungry 15th Annual Thanksgiving Dinner, Savannah Lighted Boat Parade,

- The content from last week's interview is still timely & both events are happening NEXT week. The order of the two original interviews was switched up for fun.

November 19 - Feed the Hungry 15th Annual Thanksgiving Dinner, Savannah Lighted Boat Parade,

- The 15th Annual Savannah Feed the Hungry Thanksgiving Dinner is this Tuesday and the Savannah Lighted Boat Parade is Saturday. Both interviews were edited for time and content and re-aired.

November 26 - Savannah ABATE Toy Run, Greenbriar Children's Center Gift Wrapping Station

- The 33rd Annual ABATE Savannah Toy Run is headed our way, providing the vast majority of the toys for our Cumulus Savannah 12 Days of Christmas. Dozens of children and families get presents thanks to the generosity of our Cumulus Savannah listeners. ABATE of Georgia District Coordinator Billy Bob Galloway joined us via Zoom with details.
- Greenbriar Children's Center is getting ready for Christmas with its annual Gift Wrapping Station at Oglethorpe Mall. Dozens of volunteers will wrap Christmas presents in the Courtyard at Oglethorpe Mall until the close of business on Christmas Eve. Executive Director Gena Taylor once again joins us with details and why it matters.

December 3 - Greenbriar Children's Center Gift Wrapping Station, Savannah ABATE Toy Run
