

Program	Description of Issue	Date	Time	Duration	Narration /Description of Program/Segment
Focus on the Family	Offering Grace to People Different from You	1/18/2021	8:30 A.M.	28-1/2 minute program	With an escalation of violence and riots, the subject of racism is back in the headlines and our everyday conversation. And the question of how to bring peace, hope, and justice lingers. On this one-day Focus on the Family broadcast, Dr. David A. Anderson offers some beautiful insights toward building bridges between races. He'll encourage you to become a Gracist, embracing and honoring others who may be different than you. By adding God's grace into the mix, we can build each other up and strengthen our relationships.
The Meeting House	Religious Freedom and MLK Day	1/19/2021	4:00-6:00 P.M.	14:46 of 2-hour program	Lathan Watts, Director of Public Affairs for First Liberty Institute, explored the connection between Religious Freedom Day and Martin Luther King, Jr. Day, centered around constitutional guarantees of religious freedom.
The Meeting House	Health Principles and Life Longevity	1/25/2021	4:00-6:00 P.M.	27:45 of 2-hour program	Daniel Kennedy, the researcher, creator and director of a documentary series available through home video, called, Healthy Long Life, provided some insight into his background and the components of healthy life expectancy, including the spiritual.
The Meeting House	Preserving Marriage	2/12/2021	4:00-6:00 P.M.	17:53 of 2-hour program	The CEO of Marriage Helper, Kimberly Holmes, discussed the overall purpose of the organization and responded to media articles that promoted divorce. She also commented on the relationship between COVID and marriage.
The Meeting House	Providing Food for Poor People	2/17/2021	4:00-6:00 P.M.	21:22 of 2-hour program	Former NFL player Jason Brown, Founder of First Fruits Farm in North Carolina and the ministry of Wisdom for Life, at the Christian Product Expo 2021 Winter Show in Charlotte, talked about elements of his story, as he relates in the book entitled, Centered: Trading Your Plans for a Life That Matters.
The Meeting House	Teens and the COVID Crisis	3/11/2021	4:00-6:00 P.M.	15:03 of 2-hour program	The Director of Family Formation Studies at Focus on the Family, Glenn Stanton, offered insight into research regarding the effect of the coronavirus pandemic on teens and their mental health, and how their family structures factor in. Glenn writes for the Daily Citizen website.
FamilyTalk Weekend	Fighting for Those Who Can't Fight for Themselves	3/13/2021	10:00 A.M.	26 minute program	Last year, 100,000 high school students with special needs were honored guests at a special prom called, "A Night to Shine." Today, we talk with the creative vision behind that special night: Heisman Trophy winner, former NFL Quarterback, and former New York Mets baseball player, Tim Lincecum. His new children's book, Bronco and Friends: A Party to Remember , illustrates that regardless of abilities or disabilities, all of God's children are special, wonderful, and perfectly made by our Creator. Host: Dr. Tim Clinton.
Focus on the Family	Survival Tips for New Dads	3/22/2021	8:30 A.M.	28-1/2 minute program	Pregnancy is an exciting and beautiful time in the life of a couple. But, let's be honest, it can also be a stressful and confusing time—especially for first-time dads! In this Focus on the Family Daily Broadcast, Aaron Sharp candidly shares about his experience as a "four-time pregnancy survivor," sharing how he learned that his wife's hormones were like fastballs; how he overcame intense bouts of "dad insecurity," and how he and his wife kept their marriage strong in the midst of bringing a new life into the world.
The Meeting House	Women's History Month	3/25/2021	4:00-6:00 P.M.	22:10 of 2-hour program	In an interview that aired during Women's History Month, the founder of the ministry of Hope for the Heart, June Hunt, radio host, author, and Biblical counseling, looked back on God's faithfulness in her life and shared about some of the moments in the 35-year history of the ministry.