

Quarterly Issues and Program List

4Q 2020

Pursuant to the disclosure requirements in 47 C.F. R. 73.3526(11)(i), and during the quarter referenced above, this station provided information to its viewers regarding the following significant issues, including:

- | | | | |
|--------------------------------------|-----------------|---------------------|-----------------------|
| Education | Consumer Issues | Religion | Government (National) |
| Politics | Economy | Minority Issues | Government (Local) |
| Health/Healthcare | Housing | Women’s Issues | Immigration |
| Crime/Law Enforcement | Transportation | Employment | Cultural |
| Legal Matters (e.g. court decisions) | Community | Business & Industry | Elderly |
| Children/Youth | Technology | Business | National Security |

Programs

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Business & industry	7:34:42pm	10/01/2020	2:15	I-270 NEWS (PM)	Frederick-based Matan companies had -plans to turn a former Leidos site into an Amazon facility. Well, those plans came to a halt this week, when Amazon announced it would no longer be pursuing the property. Gaithersburg is already home to biotech giants like Astra-Zenca, and Novavax, and the city council was hoping to add another tech giant to the mix, but it seems to have fallen short.
25.1	Health/Healthcare	5:06:19pm	10/02/2020	1:45	WDVM NEWS @ 5	The West Virginia Department of Health and Human Resources and the Office of Emergency Medical Services filed an emergency amendment that impacts the ability for fire departments to respond to medical calls during the pandemic. Certified fire departments that provide rapid response services, will not need EMS licensure requirements while West Virginia is under a declared state of emergency due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Education	07:29:30 am	10/05/2020	1:31	I-270 NEWS (AM)	It's been nearly seven months since Montgomery County Public Schools students sat in school buildings for in-person instruction. School system leaders are actively discussing how to slowly bring students back. MCPS leaders say small groups of students may be able to return for in person learning and plans are underway to make that happen -- eventually. There's still no set date for a return.
25.1	National Security/Health	5:02:15pm	10/06/2020	1:34	WDVM NEWS @ 5	D-C's officials say they have been unable to get a response from the White House after the President, First Lady, Press Secretary and several other members have tested positive for COVID-19. D-C Health is responsible for residents who live in the District...The White House has their own protocols they follow. Mayor Muriel Bowser, said they have reached out to the White House on "different levels, a political level and a public health level."
25.1	Women's Issues	6:17:49pm	10/07/2020	1:28	WDVM NEWS @ 6	October is Breast Cancer Awareness Month and our Katie Rhee spoke with a local auto repair facility who is offering a free service to support the fight for a cure. Throughout the month of October, Brown's Tires is offering free brake pads or shoes as well as brake inspections to customers as part of their partnership with the brakes for breasts campaign.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Politics	10:03:15pm	10/08/2020	2:27	WDVM NEWS @ 10	In their first and only debate, Vice President Mike Pence and California Senator, Kamala Harris, took the stage in Salt Lake City, Utah. W-D-V-M's Katie Misuraca breaks down the highs and lows of the debate. Separated by six feet and plexiglass, Vice Presidential Candidates Kamala Harris and Mike Pence took the debate stage in a more civil exchange than the Presidential Debate earlier last week. The academy was closed down for distance learning until the summer. The students' classes, schedules, and services are individualized...And they're focusing on "functional academics," like reading, writing, and math.
25.1	Children/Youth/Education	7:09:20pm	10/09/2020	2:00	NOVA NEWS	The PosAbilities Academy is lifting a load off of some parents' and caregivers' shoulders in Loudoun County. The secondary vocational school is for students with disabilities and, while public schools are virtual this semester, PosAbilities is open for onsite learning.
25.1	Community	7:44:24pm	10/12/2020	2:16	I-270 NEWS	A mystery is unfolding at a historic cemetery in Brunswick. A collection of headstones has made their way back to the burial grounds...With the help of volunteers, the city began restoration efforts at the Old Berlin Cemetery after decades of neglect. The project was ending when a group of girls discovered four more headstones on site earlier this month. Volunteers have no idea why...or who...returned them.
25.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	6:02:45pm	10/13/2020	1:34	WDVM NEWS @ 6	A thorough investigation has led the Prince William County Police Department to charge 12 MS-13 gang members in connection to four murders last year in the area. The Prince William County Police Department in a joint investigation with the FBI and Northern Virginia Task Force conducted a narcotics operation charging multiple gang members.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Technology/Community	5:14:15pm	10/14/2020	1:52	WDVM NEWS @ 5	Nonprofit Montgomery is an alliance of leaders of nonprofit organizations serving Montgomery County and it they are taking the time to see what has and has not worked during this pandemic W-D-V-M's Janay Parrott explains how the digital divide is impacting residents and access to services.
25.1	Legal Matters/Crime	6:08:45pm	10/15/2020	2:15	WDVM NEWS @ 6	Some first-time, non-violent offenders are being given a "second-chance," and can stay out of jail. A Circuit Court Judge and the head Probation Officer in the Eastern Panhandle stated if you do the crime, you do the time. But a pair of judges in the Circuit Court which covers Jefferson, Berkeley and Morgan Counties with a great support team in their probation office think there's a better way than just locking them up and throwing away the key.
25.1	Education/Health	10:05:18pm	10/16/2020	2:10	WDVM NEWS @ 10	We are about three weeks away from some D-C Public Schools reopening but almost 25 hundred people are voicing their concerns over the safety of the plan. Teachers, parents and a councilmember says safety typically a main concern for parents and right now, it's a main concern for almost 2 thousand 500 community members, who have signed the Washington Teacher's Union's #OnlyWhenItsSafe Petition
25.1	Housing	7:39:06pm	10/19/2020	1:36	I-270 NEWS	The Frederick County Executive is pitching a new program to help one of the area's fastest growing populations be able to afford their rent. A group of residents has a new idea that aims to help: County Executive Jan Gardner says that's especially true for seniors. According to the 20-20 Alice Report, 47 percent of the county's seniors, ages 65 and older, have difficulty affording basic needs.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Politics	5:05:31p	10/20/2020	2:15	WDVM NEWS @ 5	With two weeks to go so much is at stake in the next month's election. In West Virginia, voters are paying attention to the political dynamics in the Eastern Panhandle. On the line for the Mountain State on November 3. The Eastern Panhandle could just be the home of West Virginia's next Senate President. But not if party control changes hands.
25.1	Community/Law Enforcement	10:08:31pm	10/21/2020	1:23	WDVM NEWS @ 10	Dozens of police cars entered a Rockville neighborhood Wednesday afternoon, not for a crime... But for a parade. 10-year-old Daija Martin stepped outside of her Rockville home to find a Montgomery County Police caravan driving by her house to say thank you. Martin had recently seen a video on social media of people giving food and goodie bags to police, and she decided she wanted to do the same thing in her area.
25.1	Health/Government (Local)	6:13:12pm	10/22/2020	1:55	WDVM NEWS @ 6	Frederick County officials are reporting what they say is a troubling rise in COVID-19 cases. County Executive Jan Gardner says the number of new cases has risen faster over the last week than in the past four months. 176 new cases were reported last week, averaging about 25 new cases per day.
25.1	Technology/Transportation	07:10:58am	10/23/2020	1:00	NOVA NEWS	Northern Virginia residents can now get a firsthand look at new vehicle technology. Officials are welcoming new self-driving electric shuttle buses. The electric shuttle buses will be in the Mosaic District of Fairfax County. The autonomous electric shuttle called "Relay" began carrying passengers this week. A ceremony was held to highlight the new addition to the community.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Politics	5:05:23pm	10/26/2020	2:10	WDVM NEWS @ 5	Voters across Maryland were able to cast their ballots in person for the first time this election season. As early as 5 a-m, voters in face coverings began forming lines outside of Governor Thomas Johnson High School--a full two hours before in person early voting opened throughout the state.
25.1	Women's Issues	10:20:57pm	10/27/2020	1:45	WDVM NEWS @ 10	When it comes to societal expectations, there's the constant stress to achieve the "perfect life". But according to the National Institute of Health, women are more likely to feel anxiety and pressure to have children. The physiological effects can cause so many to feel lost. Infertility is a frequently misunderstood condition, that impacts many people differently, however according to Womenshealth.Gov infertility can cause depression and belittle a woman's self-esteem.
25.1	Health/ Healthcare	6:03:53pm	10/28/2020	1:45	WDVM NEWS @ 6	A nursing home in Jefferson County, West Virginia has reported a major COVID-19 outbreak. Willow Tree Healthcare Center in Charles Town is the first skilled nursing facility in Jefferson County and the entire Eastern Panhandle to have a major outbreak of the Novel Coronavirus, infecting 38 residents and 17 staff members.
25.1	Education/Minority Issues	7:12:40pm	10/29/2020	2:01	NOVA NEWS	Alexandria students were gifted desks on Thursday, as a way for them to have a workstation from home during the virtual school year. That's the sound of desks roughly seventy of them being built for students at Casa Chirilagua, a non-profit in Alexandria that serves more than eighty students. The students were surprised with new desks to bring home to use during virtual learning. The desks serve to break down educational barriers that many students in the Latino neighborhood near Casa Chirilagua experience.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Transportation/Housing	5:08:35pm	10/30/2020	1:45	WDVM NEWS @ 5	As Berkeley County grows in West Virginia's Eastern Panhandle, so do the challenges some homeowners face with so much rapid development. While the state has come through with transportation funding for Martinsburg's downtown railroad roundhouse earning the praise of County Council President Doug Copenhagen, Jr. And Mayor Harriet Johnson many are frustrated that in some residential subdivisions, county planners are not delivering on sidewalk construction, traffic controls, recreation areas, preventing potential fire hazards and more stringent building codes. Some activists want more control from state and county government.
25.1	Politics /Health	5:10:17pm	11/02/2020	1:53	WDVM NEWS @ 5	In less than 24-hours, Election Day will be upon the nation. For voters heading to the polls on Tuesday, W-D-V-M's Jasmine Pelaez fills us in on voting centers in Maryland and how the state is making it possible for those hit by the Coronavirus to cast their ballots.
25.1	Politics/Government	7:05:28pm	11/03/2020	1:24	NOVA NEWS	The U.S Presidential Election is finally here, and voters who did not do early voting are making their way to the polls in Fairfax, Virginia. The Fairfax County Government Center, officials say they don't expect this to be your normal Presidential Election, but voters can expect safety and quickness because of the 400,000 early voters the lines will be manageable.
25.1	Cultural/Immigration	6:09:25pm	11/04/2020	2:07	WDVM NEWS @ 6	One of D.C.'s own has been named one of the country's top influential Arab Americans under 40. Laila Mokhiber is the Director of Communications for Unrwa (un-wruh) Usa, a United Nations nonprofit organization that serves 5.6 million Palestine refugees. Unrwa shares Palestine refugees' stories to energize and galvanize Americans to support them. And to Mokhiber getting the job done right is personal.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Education/Health	10:06:27pm	11/05/2020	1:45	WDVM NEWS @ 10	With students in some local school districts headed back to school this week, many fears it could bring a spike in COVID-19 cases. W-D-V-M's Abigail Hillerich spoke with the American Cleaning Institute and has some tips and practices every household can follow to help stop the spread of the virus and keep your family safe when a child returns home from school.
25.1	Politics/ Government (Local)	5:12:47pm	11/06/2020	1:15	WDVM NEWS @ 5	Unlike the Presidential Election, the West Virginia results are final and settled. And in the Eastern Panhandle, Morgan Countians are hopeful one of their own will have an enhanced role in leading West Virginia as of next year. Senator Charles Trump no relation to the current President could be in line for a very significant leadership post when the legislature convenes in February.
25.1	Business/Housing	7:40:25pm	11/09/2020	1:58	I-270 NEWS	A historic building in Middletown, Maryland, dating back to the 19th century, is making a come-back. The rich past of the Valley Register Building which was constructed in 18-70 was the home to the local newspaper of the same name. The Valley Register was published by the Rhoderick Family for five generations until closing in 1989. Now, a Rockville-based real estate developer plans to re-open the renovated spaces for commercial businesses and apartment units mixing historic architecture with modern appliances.
25.1	Health/Healthcare	7:05:48pm	11/10/2020	1:45	NOVA NEWS	The Valley Health Corporation held their semi-annual meeting via Zoom to discuss recent developments and updates in the health system. The corporation focused on six key updates-The Community Benefit Report, the progress of the new Warren Memorial Hospital, COVID-19 response, anthem of Virginia contract negotiations, excellence in performance awards, and clinical programs and capabilities growth.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Elderly/Community	6:07:25pm	11/11/2020	1:38	WDVM NEWS @ 6	Towns and cities both big and small took time to remember and honor our Country's Veterans today in Poolesville, Maryland. A rainy Wednesday morning in Poolesville set the perfect scene to remember and honor Veterans of the United States military. Local Veterans reflect on their service to our nation.
25.1	Politics/Government (National)	10:06:37pm	11/12/2020	1:45	WDVM NEWS @ 10	Fun fact that most people know Vice President-Elect Kamala Harris is a graduate of Washington D.C.'s Howard University. While at the H-B-C-U she broke barriers becoming the second woman to be on Howard's Debate Team. W-D-V-M's Lex Juarez spoke to the woman who recruited her and shares how the team prepared Harris for her next job. Her recruiter says Harris's time on the debate team will help her to succeed as America's second in command. Her teammate also says Harris's combination of strength along with her personal point of view will be invaluable while conducting business for America.
25.1	Consumer Issues	5:08:38pm	11/13/2020	1:38	WDVM NEWS @ 5	The U.S. Department of Agriculture is expanding its food assistance programs during the Pandemic not just to consumers, but to farmers. Because of market disruptions and commodity costs to keep a stable supply of product in the marketplace, the U-S-D-A is making grants to farmers and ranchers who can assure a stable supply of beef, poultry, grains, crops and foodstuffs to underserved communities. It makes perfect sense to growers and ranchers in Washington County.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Health/Healthcare	6:07:33pm	11/16/2020	1:41	WDVM NEWS @ 6	D-C Health has released new health metrics as Coronavirus cases continue to rise around the country. Within the last week in Washington DC half of all reported cases were among people between the ages of 24-44. Among those cases, 53 percent were women and 47 percent were men. Through contact tracing, DC Health has been able to find the source of where these cases start: Through social events including gatherings among friends followed by bars and restaurants.
25.1	Community/Cultural	10:14:22pm	11/17/2020	1:45	WDVM NEWS @ 10	November 13th through November 19th is Transgender Awareness Week. The goal of this week is for the Transgender community and their allies to take action to bring attention to the community. Trans Awareness Week leads up to Transgender Day of Remembrance, which is November 20th that honors the memory of trans lives lost.
25.1	Business & Industry/ Economy	7:05:49pm	11/18/2020	1:45	NOVA NEWS	Virginia Governor Ralph Northam announced his support for legalizing marijuana in the state. Northam says "our commonwealth has an opportunity to be the first state in the South to take this step, and we will lead with a focus on equity, public health, protection against youth, upholding the Virginia Indoor Clean Air Act, and Data Collection Safety."
25.1	Housing/Community	5:14:20pm	11/19/2020	1:23	WDVM NEWS @ 5	Now for something to brighten your day: A neighborhood built on hope. The first home in a new Habitat for Humanity development. In a collaboration with family-owned business Corey's Construction, Habitat for Humanity was able to install a modular home as the first house in their new project.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Employment/ Business & Industry	7:09:19pm	11/20/2020	1:18	NOVA NEWS	About 75 new jobs have arrived in Manassas with the opening of a new, international grocery store on Friday. Market sells products from 60 different countries. Meat and fresh fish are cut and prepared in store in virtually any way you'd like. Take your pick at fish and shellfish fresh from the sea. And once the pandemic is said and done, the food court will have in-store dining with three options original to the store including Korean food, tacos and sushi.
25.1	Minority Issues/Education	7:05:30pm	11/23/2020	1:49	NOVA NEWS	Marymount University is the first higher education institution in the Commonwealth of Virginia to be designated as a Hispanic serving institution a Hispanic population of over 25 percent. University President Irma Becerra has encouraged Hispanic students to enroll in STEM, or Science Technology Engineering and Math classes... As she found they were enrolling at lower rates than their Non-Hispanic peers.
25.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:07:45pm	11/24/2020	2:15	WDVM NEWS @ 10	During this time of year, even as many of us embrace the spirit of giving, that's not true for everyone, as Hagerstown has seen a rise in thefts. This past week, three individuals used stolen credit cards to buy over three thousand dollars' worth of electronics and jewelry at both Hagerstown Wal-marts. And they got these credit cards from an unlocked vehicle. The Police Department warns that people need to stay mindful.
25.1	Elderly/Community	7:39:50pm	11/25/2020	1:54	I-270 NEWS	The parking lot at Spring Arbor Senior Living in Frederick was turned into an assembly line for Operation Thanksgiving. Just in time for the holidays, the organization SOAR also known as Supporting Older Adults through Resources partnered with Spring Arbor of Frederick to provide 120 Thanksgiving meals to seniors with limited resources.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Health/Healthcare	5:20:15pm	11/26/2020	1:42	WDVM NEWS @ 5	Even without the Coronavirus disrupting our usual holiday routines, some find the weeks from Thanksgiving to the New Year stressful some residents say. It can especially be the case for those who have battled addiction and find the "down time" from their usual routines as a temptation to revert to drug or alcohol abuse. To prevent a relapse, seek the support of family and friends. One Hagerstown resident says bonding with those close to you can be enormously comforting
25.1	Business/ Economy	7:09:23am	11/27/2020	2:01	NOVA NEWS	Alexandria is hosting their first ever Shop Small Week, and they kicked it off with a "Plaid Friday" event. The week consists of deals, promotions and Instagram giveaways to encourage locals to shop small this holiday season. Friday marked the beginning of the new initiative, having "Plaid Friday" instead of Black Friday. The idea stems from the concept of single threads, representing small businesses, woven together to create a strong fabric that celebrates the diversity of independent businesses in the community.
25.1	Government/(Local)	7:35:43pm	11/30/2020	1:31	I-270 NEWS	Maryland's General Assembly starts its legislative session just after the New Year begins, and lawmakers at the local level are gearing up to support or oppose new bills. With the legislative session approaching, the pandemic mounting and the needs of residents changing day by day, local and state lawmakers from Montgomery County have their work cut out for them heading into 20-21." And it comes at a time when money matters more than ever -- with significant financial shortfalls projected for the upcoming year. County level lawmakers say the financial situation could impact what support and what they oppose.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	5:17:06pm	12/01/2020	1:30	WDVM NEWS @ 5	With a continued focus on recognizing the City's history, heritage, and story, The City of Frederick and the African American Resources-Cultural Heritage Society (AARCH) signed a lease agreement for use of a City-owned property located at 125 East All Saints Street (the East All Saints Parking Garage) beginning on December 1, 2020.
25.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	10:13:01pm	12/02/2020	2:05	WDVM NEWS @ 10	The Arlington County Police Department's Cold Case Unit is announcing the arrest of a suspect in a cold case rape series from January 17, 1991. Michael F. Thomson, 63, of Montross, VA, was arrested and charged with two counts of the following charges: Rape, Abduction with the Intent to Defile, Forcible Sodomy and Use/Display of a Firearm during the Commission of a Felony. Additional charges are anticipated. He is being held in the Arlington County Detention Facility without bond.
25.1	Community/ Business	7:08:25pm	12/03/2020	1:30	NOVA NEWS	Alexandria, Virginia Colony Grill partners with Wreaths Across America and Dames for Soldiers to remember, honor and celebrate veterans who made the ultimate sacrifice fighting for our freedom. From November 27 through December 31, 2020, the restaurant invites guests to sponsor a veteran's wreath to be placed at Arlington National Cemetery, and more than 1,600 additional locations across the US.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Religion/Community	6:14:50pm	12/04/2020	1:45	WDVM NEWS @ 6	Bishop Michael F. Burbidge, Catholic Diocese of Arlington, called on Catholics throughout the Diocese to join in offering #JustOneYes (JOY) during the Advent and Christmas seasons. Through the campaign, individuals commit to one or more "yesses," such as an act of service (e.g., donating food), praying the Rosary or another prayer, participating in daily Mass, and/or write in a personal commitment. The effort reached more than 76,000 "yesses" during its inaugural year in 2019 and hopes to generate 100,000 new "yesses" by January 10, 2021
25.1	Children/Youth	6:07:25pm	12/05/2020	00:45	WDVM NEWS @ 6	With increasing COVID-19 restrictions around the holidays, the Raymond A. Wood Foundation, a nonprofit organization providing quality of life support to child and adult brain tumor survivors, joins forces with Santa Claus to provide one-on-one Zoom sessions. Now children have an opportunity to let Santa know what they are hoping to find under their trees this year virtually!
25.1	Crime/Law Enforcement	7:44:24pm	12/07/2020	2:17	I-270 NEWS	Cybercrime has been on the rise. W-D-V-M's Janay Parrott explains how Frederick County officials are raising the bar and making sure these predators are held accountable. The Frederick County Cyber Crime Task Force reports that the National Center for Missing Children recorded a 106 percent increase in Cybertipline reports. From January 1 of 2020 to October 31 Maryland saw 4,711 tips and 163 of those were from Frederick County.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Channel	Issue	Time	Date	Duration (Seconds)	Title of Program	Brief Narrative Description
25.1	Government (Local)	5:05:18pm	12/08/2020	2:01	WDVM NEWS @ 5	With the November election in the books -- in West Virginia, any way -- the state legislature is about to make some impactful decisions for the next decade. From the Eastern Panhandle. After the November elections there's a new balance of power in the West Virginia Legislature. Well, "balance" doesn't accurately describe it. The Republican gains were so impressive they now hold a "super-majority" in both the House and Senate.
25.1	Children/Law Enforcement	10:19:51pm	12/09/2020	1:17	WDVM NEWS @ 10	Montgomery County saw some Christmas cheer this Wednesday as Santa Claus rolled through the towns to raise money for children. The visit is part of Santa's annual police ride to benefit the Children's Inn, although it had to look a bit different this year. Santa and the motor officers made their way south on 355 to bring holiday cheer, but in order to stay socially distant, they couldn't make the usual stops. However, Santa on the back of a police truck was able to greet the patients at the inn and share some encouraging words for the holiday season.
25.1	Religion	6:07:56pm	12/10/2020	1:45	WDVM NEWS @ 6	We are at the time of year when those of the Jewish faith celebrate their Festival of Lights – Hanukah, the holiday celebrated all over the world has deep roots in Hagerstown. Alice Haber has loving memories of her family heritage, dating back a full century in Hagerstown. And as a member of the Jewish faith, Hanukah is a time to reflect on just how special family is. And this year, with a Pandemic, things are not much different at this Hanukah Celebration than they were those many generations ago.

Quarterly Issues and Program List

The station also aired the following public service announcements during the instant quarter:

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title or Narrative
Children/Youth	:30	Children in Need, Inc., raises awareness to the organization that supports the Washington County's community of children with food, clothing, school supplies, etc.
Community	:30	Manna Food Center, promotes ending hunger in Montgomery County
Health/Healthcare	:30	American Cancer Society, promoting Breast Cancer Awareness Month and Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Pink Road Rally of the Tri-State Area event
Community	:30	Frederick County Animal Shelter, raising awareness on what the shelter provides and how you can help support them
Education	:30	Dollar General Literacy Foundation, promotes resources for adults to finish their high school diploma
Community	:30	Love Has No Labels is a movement to promote diversity, equity and inclusion of all people across race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age and ability.
Employment	:30	A Farm Less Ordinary, provides employment and a welcoming community to people with developmental and intellectual disabilities, while sustainably growing organic food for the metropolitan DC area.
Community	:30	17 Strong, promotes how the organization grants victory trips for young adults that have battled life-threatening diseases and how you can help
Housing	:30	Homes for Our Troops, promotes how the organization builds specially adapted homes for post-9/11 wounded/disabled veterans that

Quarterly Issues and Program List

Type of Issue	Duration (Seconds)	Title or Narrative
		allows them to focus on recovery and their family
Health/Healthcare	:30	Hidden Heroes brings vital attention to the untold stories of military caregivers and seeks solutions for the tremendous challenges and long-term needs they face.
Children/Youth	:30	Ad Council partnership with NHTSA, promotes the importance of wearing a seatbelt for kids and understanding the potentially fatal consequences of not wearing a seat belt and learn what you can do to make sure you and your family are properly buckled up every time.
Children/Youth	:30	Girl Scouts of the Nation's Capital, promotes empowerment and skills for young girls and women