

Before the
Federal Communications Commission
Washington, D.C. 20554

In the Matter of)
)
Complaints Against Various Television Licensees)	File Nos. EB-03-IH-0122 and
Concerning Their February 25, 2003,)	EB-03-IH-0353 Broadcast of the Program "NYPD Blue")

OPPOSITION TO NOTICE OF APPARENT LIABILITY FOR FORFEITURE OF 50 TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS AFFILIATED WITH THE ABC TELEVISION NETWORK AND OF THE ABC TELEVISION AFFILIATES ASSOCIATION

February 11, 2008

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: please consider
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000002

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:47 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KTUL channel 8
Tulsa, OK

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:17 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could > supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>

000003

Page52

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Be responsible
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000004

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 2:50 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

KTUL Ch. 8 in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
Broken Arrow, OK 74011
[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:34 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

000005

Page53

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Indecent Scenes
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

12
[REDACTED]
From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 12:52 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

KTUL - Tulsa, OK.

Thanks!
[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:06 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Do your Job!!!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

000008

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 9:38 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

The station is KTUL in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:18 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: KAQuinn
Subject: Raising My Voice With Others
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:12 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The ABC Affiliate in Tulsa, OK is KTUL-TV.

--- FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

- > The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning
- > the February 25th, 2003,
- > broadcast of the ABC Television Network program
- > "NYPD Blue" that was the
- > subject of a complaint you filed with the
- > Commission.
- >
- > As part of our investigation, we would like to
- > obtain information concerning
- > the station on which you saw this program.
- > Specifically, if you could supply
- > any of the following information, it would be very
- > helpful: (1) the call
- > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or
- > KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and
- > town in which the station you watched is located.
- >
- > If you are able to provide this information please
- > reply to this e-mail. We
- > would appreciate it if you could respond, either
- > with the information
- > requested or notice that you cannot provide it,
- > within one week from the date
- > of this e-mail.
- >
- > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
- >
- > William H. Davenport
- > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
- > Enforcement Bureau
- > Federal Communications Commission.
- >
- >

Yahoo! DSL - Something to write home about.
Just $16.99/mo. or less.
dsl.yahoo.com

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: indecent TV
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000012

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 9:15 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The local ABC channel is KATV Channel 7 in Little Rock, Arkansas.

----- Original Message -----
From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
Date: Thu, 29 Dec 2005 19:05:41 -0500

>The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
>2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that >was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

>
>As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information >concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if >you could supply any of the following information, it would be very >helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or >KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is >located.

>
>If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
>e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the >information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one >week from the date of this e-mail.

>
>Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

>
>William H. Davenport
>Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
>Enforcement Bureau
>Federal Communications Commission.

>
>

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Shame, shame on you!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 12:49 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

katv, channel 7, little rock, arkansas....

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:16 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call
> letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Let's work harder to maintain family values
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000016

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 2:05 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The ABC TV station here in Little Rock is 7/KATV.

--- FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

- > The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning
- > the February 25th, 2003,
- > broadcast of the ABC Television Network program
- > "NYPD Blue" that was the
- > subject of a complaint you filed with the
- > Commission.
- >
- > As part of our investigation, we would like to
- > obtain information concerning
- > the station on which you saw this program.
- > Specifically, if you could supply
- > any of the following information, it would be very
- > helpful: (1) the call
- > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or
- > KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and
- > town in which the station you watched is located.
- >
- > If you are able to provide this information please
- > reply to this e-mail. We
- > would appreciate it if you could respond, either
- > with the information
- > requested or notice that you cannot provide it,
- > within one week from the date
- > of this e-mail.
- >
- > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
- >
- > William H. Davenport
- > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
- > Enforcement Bureau
- > Federal Communications Commission.
- >
- >

Yahoo! DSL - Something to write home about.
Just $16.99/mo. or less.
dsl.yahoo.com

000017

Page28

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Family First
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, January 02, 2006 12:45 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The station was katv

FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Question
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, January 02, 2006 8:15 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Here is the information you requested. KATV in Little Rock, AR.

Thanks,
[REDACTED]

--- FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

- > The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning
- > the February 25th, 2003,
- > broadcast of the ABC Television Network program
- > "NYPD Blue" that was the
- > subject of a complaint you filed with the
- > Commission.
- >
- > As part of our investigation, we would like to
- > obtain information concerning
- > the station on which you saw this program.
- > Specifically, if you could supply
- > any of the following information, it would be very
- > helpful: (1) the call
- > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or
- > KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and
- > town in which the station you watched is located.
- >
- > If you are able to provide this information please
- > reply to this e-mail. We
- > would appreciate it if you could respond, either
- > with the information
- > requested or notice that you cannot provide it,
- > within one week from the date
- > of this e-mail.
- >
- > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
- >
- > William H. Davenport
- > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
- > Enforcement Bureau
- > Federal Communications Commission.
- >
- >

If Your Ship STILL Hasn't Come In, Take A Lesson From Noah and Build It YOURSELF!

Yahoo! DSL - Something to write home about.
Just $16.99/mo. or less.
dsl.yahoo.com

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: network programs
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameful that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:44 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

It aired on KATV in Little Rock, Arkansas.

Thank you for investigating this.

[REDACTED]

----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:16 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call
> letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>
>

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:30 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

This program aired on KATV in Little Rock, AR.
Thank you for taking the time to investigate it.
Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:24 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

- > The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
- > 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that
- > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
- >
- > As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
- > concerning
- > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
- > supply
- > any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call
- > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
- > and
- > town in which the station you watched is located.
- >
- > If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
- > e-mail.
- > We
- > would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information
- > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
- > date
- > of this e-mail.
- >
- > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
- >
- > William H. Davenport
- > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
- > Enforcement Bureau
- > Federal Communications Commission.
- >
- >
- >

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Enforce Your Regulations Correctly and Thoroughly!!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameful that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 6:52 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The local affiliate was KATV-TV in Little Rock/Pine Bluff, Arkansas. Hope this helps.

[REDACTED]

----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 9:12 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call
> letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: ENFORCE LAWS
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 9:51 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

OUT LOCAL CHANNEL IS KATV OUT OF LITTLE ROCK, AR

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:18 PM

To: [REDACTED]

Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Looking back
Dear FCC Commissioner:

As an adult looking back at your childhood, when television was introduced and for many years afterwards, can you honestly say that you were harmed by not seeing adult nudity, violence, obscene language and the such? Were the programs you watched filled with kids insulting their parents and each other? Were the parents sneaking around or even openly cheating on their spouse? Were men dating men and women dating women? Of course NOT...Television was good clean fun. What's wrong with bringing that back to today...reset our standards?

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameles! s that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 4:27 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

WAPT Jackson, Mississippi
----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:04 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the > call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
> the city
and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from > the
date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: tv indecency
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 10:24 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The call letters of the ABC station in Jackson, MS are WAPT.

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: this is an outrage!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000033

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:15 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

here is requested information.

wapt tv jackson ms

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Programming
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 1:05 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

WISN-TV, Milwaukee, Wisconsin

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
Date: 2005/12/29 Thu PM 08:28:27 CST
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Betraying America
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

000037

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 12:35 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

WISN

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:32 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the > call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
> the city
and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information
> requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from
> the
date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Indecency in TV shows
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television? Do you not have families, with small children? Do you not care what is going on with the TV industry?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

I have a 6-1/2 year old boy and would be appalled if he was to witness this kind of adult female nudity. It is hard enough to find good programming on TV, it's another thing to try to not get sick to my stomach with the scenes in so many shows these days. I turn my TV off a lot more than I used to and it will be that way until the FCC starts screening and filtering the kind of shows that are being allowed to air.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Sunday, January 01, 2006 7:21 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

The station is WKOW-TV in Madison, Wisconsin.

Original Message:

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
Date: Thu, 29 Dec 2005 21:49:43 -0500
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

mail2web - Check your email from the web at <http://mail2web.com/> .

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: please mr. Powell
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Wednesday, January 04, 2006 12:49 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

I'm sorry but I don't have the information you are asking about. I believe it was on ABC which is WKOW tv in Madison Wisconsin.

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:23 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call
> letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Please do your job well
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

000043

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:33 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

Our ABC affiliate is WKOW-TV in Madison, WI

[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:22 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

avast! Antivirus: Outbound message clean.
Virus Database (VPS): 0552-2, 12/29/2005
Tested on: 12/29/2005 5:32:53 PM
avast! - copyright (c) 2000-2004 ALWIL Software. <http://www.avast.com>

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2005 11:20 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KOCO-TV carries the program.

Thank you.

[REDACTED]

----- Original Message -----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:56 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

000046

Page71

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Take Action
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 12:52 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The Call letters of the station are KOCO TV, Oklahoma City, OK

FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

Yahoo! Photos
Ring in the New Year with Photo Calendars. Add photos, events, holidays, whatever.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Do you have no morales??
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000049

[REDACTED]
From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 7:03 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

Thank you for your concern.

KOCO-TV, Oklahoma City, OK

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:44 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: NYPD Blue
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameful that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000051

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 12:28 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KOCO TV Channel 5
Oklahoma City, OK

----- Original Message -----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
Date: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:22 pm
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February > 25th, 2003,
> broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the > subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information > concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically,
> if you could supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1)
> the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
> the city and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e> mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the > information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one > week from the date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

000052

Page2

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Enforcement
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 10:25 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KOCO-5 Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:06 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the > call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
> the city
and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from
> the
date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Gutless and Shameful
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2005 10:00 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The station is WKRN at 441 Murfreesboro Road, Nashville, Tn.

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>

To: [REDACTED]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:15 PM

Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that
> was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the > call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
> the city
and
> town in which the station you watched is located.

> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.

We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from
> the
date
> of this e-mail.

> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.

000056

Page 111

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Start doing you job
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

000057

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2005 11:03 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: FW: NYPD Blue Investigation

Hello Mr. Davenport,

I would be glad to assist you. The call letters for my local station are WKRN located in Nashville, TN. Please remember that parents are fed up with all the filth that continuously invades the minds and souls of our children. We want immediate and swift action from the FCC. We want results. Aren't our children worth that?

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:54 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division Enforcement Bureau Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: WHERE'S THE ENTERTAINMENT GONE TO
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 12:17 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

I believe it was on WKRN TV - Nashville, TN
If I was not here at that time, I cannot tell you which station. The wheels of your division move slowly it seems.

[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:59 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Enforce broadcast decency laws
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameful that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

000061

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 2:59 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Mr. Davenport,

Our ABC affiliate is WKRN, Nashville TN.

[REDACTED]

FCCEnforcementBur
eau@fcc.gov
12/29/2005 06:47
PM

To: [REDACTED]
Cc:
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Concerns
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000063

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 9:38 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

I believe the call letters of the Station are WKRN.

[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:37 PM

To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: My Children
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2005 10:44 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

WSIL-TV, Carbondale, Illinois

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:32 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Indecency to minors
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 6:22 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The Local ABC affiliate is WSIL tv Harrisburg, Il.

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>

To: [REDACTED]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:56 PM

Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Please listen to your viewers...
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 9:14 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

Mr. Davenport,
The call letters are WSIL-TV in Carbondale, IL.
Thank you.

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:21 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Perform your appointed duty to protect America from this filth
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 10:54 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

WSIL-TV

On Thu, 29 Dec 2005 19:28:12 -0500, FCCEnforcementBureau wrote
> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, > 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue"
> that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
concerning > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you > could supply any of the following information, it would be very > helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV > or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you > watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e> mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information
> requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from > the date of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Please fulfill your obligations to the Public
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 11:38 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

WSIL is the station

Mailing Address [REDACTED]
Carterville, IL 62918
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Fax [REDACTED]
Office Fax [REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:15 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Please Read
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

000075

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 12:21 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Cc: [REDACTED]
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

WSIL TV 3, Carterville, Illinois
----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:57 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: TV programming
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 8:45 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

I believe the call letters of the station that the NYPD Blue episode was on is WSIL-TV. Thank you for your response in this matter.

[REDACTED]

FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

Yahoo! Photos
Ring in the New Year with Photo Calendars. Add photos, events, holidays, whatever.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Indecency on TV
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC. The barrage of homosexual programming is downright disgusting!

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000079

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:58 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The station was WBBJ-TV in Jackson, Tennessee.

Thank you
----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:06 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Take responsibility!!!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 11:07 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

WBBJ-TV, Jackson, TN
----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:34 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: WHY?
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Shonnetta Ennis

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 9:38 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

I live in Savannah, TN, so the station that I would have watched it on would have been WBBJ-TV 7, Jackson, TN. It came on ABC, and this is our ABC channel.

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:55 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: This is unacceptable!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2005 12:09 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

NYPD Blue was aired on WBBJ-TV from Jackson, Tennessee in our area. Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Please Stop This!
Dear FCC Commissioner,

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our citizenry from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionyouth.com, I respectfully implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000087

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 12:09 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Dear Sir,

The episode of "NYPD Blue" which you are investigating was seen locally on KVIA-7 television in El Paso, Texas. It airs in my hometown of Las Cruces, New Mexico.

Thank you for your time in investigating this matter.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Responsible for Deterioration
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 11:19 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

WABG-TV, Greenville, Mississippi
----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:59 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the > call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
> the city
and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from
> the
date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Trashy Programming
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameful that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 10:09 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

Mr. Davenport,

Thanks for taking the time to investigate. I do not recall specifically, from two years ago, regarding the channel I saw it on. The local ABC affiliate is KATC in Lafayette, LA. The only other ABC station that covers this market is WBRZ out of Baton Rouge, LA. It would have to be one of the two stations.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
Lafayette, LA 70503
[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:12 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William R. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Elections, Politions and Other Used-To-Be

Dear FCC Commissioner:

It is time to say good-by!

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2005 12:04 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation REPLY

William H. Davenport,

Well whoop-dee-doo, The FCC is chasing dead horses. After nearly 3 years you are asking for information that if needed now should have also been needed in March, 2003.

To the best of my knowledge ABC was the broadcaster, and local stations WBRZ, Baton Rouge, LA and KATC, Lafayette, LA are ABC's affiliates

With laws concerning garbage and trashy broadcast, why does it take nearly three years to do something? Or is it that you require a few thousand complaints before FCC starts anything? Also does not the FCC require information from broadcasters, that would list such things as your requested information, before they are issued a license?

It would sure be an improvement if you could watch TV with your Children and Grand Children without all the filthy trash on TV today. Just maybe all the Children and Grand Children would turn out to be the best next generation! Possibly greatly lowering the unwed Teenage Mothers, Hoodlums and Gangs, Rapes, Murders and Robberies.

Simply put, start doing Your Job.

Have a Happy New Year,

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:50 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
 > 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
 >
 > As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
 > concerning
 > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
 > supply
 > any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
 > and
 > town in which the station you watched is located.
 >
 > If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
 > e-mail.
 > We
 > would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
 > date
 > of this e-mail.
 >
 > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
 >
 > William H. Davenport
 > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
 > Enforcement Bureau
 > Federal Communications Commission.
 >
 >

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: INDECENCY
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:08 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

I'm sorry but I cannot rembert the call station, I think possibly wxow tv?

-----Original Message-----

>From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
>Sent: Dec 29, 2005 6:27 PM
>To: [REDACTED]
>Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

>
>The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
>2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that >was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

>
>As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information >concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if >you could supply any of the following information, it would be very >helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or >KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is >located.

>
>If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
>e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the >information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one >week from the date of this e-mail.

>
>Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

>
>William H. Davenport
>Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
>Enforcement Bureau
>Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: one dad's opinion
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 9:34 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KTBS 3, Shreveport, LA

FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Indecent T.V.
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameful that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 12:26 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KTBS-TV, Shreveport, Louisiana
----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:47 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the > call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
> the city
and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from
> the
date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>

000100

Page42

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Disregard of Responsibility Regarding Vulgarly and Indecency on TV
Dear FCC Commissioner,

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our citizenry from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionyouth.com, I respectfully implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 4:11 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

I think that it was aired on KTBS Channel 3 in Shreveport, Louisiana; [REDACTED] is in Center, TX, so Shreveport is the only city with stations that we can regularly pick up. Thanks so much for your work.

----- Original Message -----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
Date: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:54 pm
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation
To: [REDACTED]

- > The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February
- > 25th, 2003,
- > broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that
- > was the
- > subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
- >
- > As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
- > concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically,
- > if you could supply
- > any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1)
- > the call
- > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
- > the city and
- > town in which the station you watched is located.
- >
- > If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-
- > mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the
- > information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one
- > week from the date
- > of this e-mail.
- >
- > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
- >
- > William H. Davenport
- > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
- > Enforcement Bureau
- > Federal Communications Commission.
- >
- >

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: FCC AND NETWORK BROADCASTING
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000103

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 8:10 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

KTBS

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:48 PM

To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division Enforcement Bureau Federal Communications Commission.

[* Internet Mail *]

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Indecency on Television
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:48 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

To the best of my knowledge it was KMBZ-ABC.

-----Original Message-----
From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:19 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Please take action...
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

Another example is all the JUNK on Fox lately. I can't even allow my 5 year old to watch the COMMERCIALS for these during the packer game!!! That is totally ridiculous! Why do we want to sacrifice our childrens moral upbringing for a few advertising bucks!?!

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]
From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, January 02, 2006 7:08 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

WBAY-TV in Green Bay, WI.

Thank you for investigating this. Our tv today is absolutely horrible with bad content. I rarely allow my kids to watch anything during primetime.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

"Providing highly personal online and onsite computer solutions. Ask about our amazing web solution for small to medium sized businesses and the non-technical among us"

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:18 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division Enforcement Bureau Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: network programming
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 10:26 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

We do not generally watch this program, so I am not quite sure of the actual station it was on. Our local ABC station is KHOG.

Thank you for taking time to help make television somewhat appropriate for families again.

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:07 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: tv-moral filth
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameful that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 2:13 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

thank you for your continued investigation, which I hope results in penalties to the parent companies or affiliates that agree to air offense material on the airwaves. The station call letter are KETV in Omaha, Ne.

[REDACTED]

000112

Page36

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: indecency on television
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:58 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

NYPD Blue is televised on KETV here in Omaha, Nebraska.

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:56 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: KAQuinn
Subject: Decency Laws
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television? Do you have small children who watch TV with you? Do you want them to grow up thinking all this stuff is normal, natural, and good for them? I hope not. I don't think it is good for my grandchildren and you are responsible for making sure it doesn't happen.

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, homosexuality and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves. It has gotten so bad that even though we pay good money to have dish reception of TV and we have hundreds of channels to pick from, it is almost impossible to find a program that is both entertaining and suitable for a couple to watch together.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC. And what was the purpose? I don't watch NYPD - never have willingly, but my husband enjoyed it and he is becoming more and more disgusted with the trash portrayed there. You can make a difference.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Thank you for 'listening' to my complaints.

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 9:14 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The station was KOTA/TV, Rapid City, SD.

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>

To: [REDACTED]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:51 PM

Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

- > The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
- >
- > As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.
- >
- > If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail.
- > We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.
- >
- > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
- >
- > William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
- >
- >

From: [REDACTED]
To: KAQuinn
Subject: Decency Laws
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television? Do you have small children who watch TV with you? Do you want them to grow up thinking all this stuff is normal, natural, and good for them? I hope not. I don't think it is good for my grandchildren and you are responsible for making sure it doesn't happen.

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, homosexuality and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves. It has gotten so bad that even though we pay good money to have dish reception of TV and we have hundreds of channels to pick from, it is almost impossible to find a program that is both entertaining and suitable for a couple to watch together.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC. And what was the purpose? I don't watch NYPD - never have willingly, but my husband enjoyed it and he is becoming more and more disgusted with the trash portrayed there. You can make a difference.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Thank you for 'listening' to my complaints.

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 9:14 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The station was KOTA/TV, Rapid City, SD.
----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:51 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: enforcement or dereliction?
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:15 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

Glad to help. The NYPD Blue program about which we wrote was broadcast from Lincoln, Nebraska. The ABC affiliate in Lincoln is KLKN-TV, broadcasting on the airwaves on channel 8.

Thank you for taking the time to follow up on this. It's good to know that there is an effort being made to enforce the law and protect the fading standard of decency that we still enjoy. If I can be of further assistance, please feel free to call, email, or stop by anytime.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
Beatrice, NE 68310
[REDACTED]

> -----Original Message-----

> From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
> [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
> Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:10 PM
> To: [REDACTED]
> Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

>
> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the > February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network > program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you > filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain > information concerning the station on which you saw this > program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the > following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or > (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to > this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, > either with the information requested or notice that you > cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: moral values
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000121

Page 1 of 1

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:01 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KATC-TV 3 Lafayette,La

1/9/2006

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: DO something
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 3:40 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The call letters of the ABC station are KATC - i live in Lafayette, La.

On Thu, 29 Dec 2005 20:47:53 -0500 FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov writes:

- > The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
- >
- > As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.
- >
- > If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.
- >
- > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
- >
- > William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
- >
- >
- >

From: [REDACTED]
To: KAQuinn
Subject: tv programs
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:27 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

My ABC station is KATC Lafayette, La

--- FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning
> the February 25th, 2003,
> broadcast of the ABC Television Network program
> "NYPD Blue" that was the > subject of a complaint you filed with the > Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to > obtain information concerning
> the station on which you saw this program.
> Specifically, if you could supply
> any of the following information, it would be very > helpful: (1) the call
> letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or > KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please
> reply to this e-mail. We > would appreciate it if you could respond, either
> with the information
> requested or notice that you cannot provide it,
> within one week from the date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>

03-1H-0122

ID FromAddress FromName ToName source Subject Body

8126 [REDACTED] Mike Email

Vulgar nudity on TV

Text item: Message Text

Dear Commissioners of the FCC,

I am writing to protest the gross vulgarity on the ABC TV program NYPD Blue. On February 25, 2003, there was a full nude display of a woman being viewed by a 6 year-old boy. The program was very distasteful, and I am surprised that the FCC would allow such a blatant disrespect of decency rules to go unchecked. Surely, there must be some rules against exhibiting such pornographic displays on public television.

I intend to complain to the Congressmen from Colorado and our 2 Senators about this intrusion of indecency into the living rooms of America, apparently under the approval of the present Commissioners of the FCC.

I hope you will try to prevent such gross violations of common decency in the future.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
 Denver, CO 80219-4609
 [REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Stop the indecency, or we will stop the support!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 10:46 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Thank you for the work you do regarding what is broadcast over public airways.

In regard to your question about which station we watched the NYPD Blue incident, I'll have to admit I am having a difficult time with which channel it was. I believe it could have been on channel 7, in Denver. Call letters for that station would be KMGH-TV the ABC affiliate.

I really wish I could be more certain in order to support your work.

Thank you again,

[REDACTED]
Broomfield, CO. 80020
[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Clean Air
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYFD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 9:58 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

WMBB-TV Panama City, FL

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:40 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

>

> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

>

> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail.

> We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

>

> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

>

> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.

>

>

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Concerned Mom.
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

1

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 10:11 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

The Station was WQAD-TV in Moline, IL.

Thanks for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:04 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Programming
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

Simply bleeping bad language is not good enough. Children aren't stupid, they know how to fill-in-the-bleep! The vile garbage that is allowed to be broadcast in public is totally irresponsible.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again. Sir, be a real man and just say NO to bad language. Not just the f word, but all the language that is considered indecent.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 3:28 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Dear Sir:

The episode aired on KXXV-TV25 in Waco, TX.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

[REDACTED]
Kempner, TX

On Dec 29, 2005, at 9:08 PM, FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, > 2003, > broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was
> the > subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the > call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the > city and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this > e-mail. We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information
> requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from > the date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Start Doing Your Job!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 12:39 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The local ABC affiliate is: KXXV-TV

--- FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

- > The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
- >
- > As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.
- >
- > If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.
- >
- > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
- >
- > William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
- >
- >

Yahoo! for Good - Make a difference this year.
<http://brand.yahoo.com/cybergivingweek2005/>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: filthy network television
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2005 12:52 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

I think it was kxxv channel 25, waco texas

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Why Are You Allowing Such Degredation
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves. I should not have to stand guard over what my children watch. The laws governing such indecency are very clear. Why does the FCC continue to turn their head away from these violations of the decency rules?

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 8:25 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Thank you for taking action on this programming.

The local ABC affiliate is KXXV-TV and it is located at 1909 South New Road, Waco, Texas. Tel No. is 254-754-2525.

----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 9:11 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
 > 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
 >
 > As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
 concerning
 > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
 supply
 > any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the > call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
 > the city
 and
 > town in which the station you watched is located.
 >
 > If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
 > e-mail.
 We
 > would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from
 > the
 date
 > of this e-mail.
 >
 > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
 >
 > William H. Davenport
 > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
 > Enforcement Bureau
 > Federal Communications Commission.
 >
 >

From: [REDACTED]
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Television
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 3:31 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KXXV TV 25, Waco, TX is an affiliate of the ABC television network.

From: [REDACTED]
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Enforce Broadcast Indecency Laws
Dear FCC Commissioner,

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our citizenry from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionyouth.com, I respectfully implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 9:55 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

The call letters of the station are KXXV - Channel 25 in Waco Texas.

I hope this information helps.

Thank you

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 9:07 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
 Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
 Enforcement Bureau
 Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Unbelievable
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 5:30 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

The call letter of the station here is KSWO out of Lawton OK.

[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:19 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: FCC
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Sunday, January 01, 2006 10:31 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Dear Mr. Davenport,

Please find the information you requested. Thank you for contacting me in this regard.

- 1) WFAA
- 2) Dallas

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]
Ft Worth, TX

- > The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
- >
- > As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.
- >
- > If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.
- >
- > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
- >
- > William H. Davenport
- > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
- > Enforcement Bureau
- > Federal Communications Commission.
- >
- >

000149

Page14

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Please enforce broadcast indecency laws!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 11:05 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Hi Mr. Davenport,

Here is the info you requested

Channel 8 WFAA in Fort Worth TX

Thank You,

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:44 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

- > The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
- > 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that
- > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
- >
- > As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
- > concerning
- > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
- > supply
- > any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call
- > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
- > and
- > town in which the station you watched is located.
- >
- > If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
- > e-mail.
- > We
- > would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information
- > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
- > date
- > of this e-mail.
- >
- > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
- >
- > William H. Davenport
- > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
- > Enforcement Bureau
- > Federal Communications Commission.
- >

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Shonnetta Ennis

From: [REDACTED]
 Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2005 3:10 PM
 To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
 Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

WFAA- TV, Dallas TX

----- Original Message -----
 From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
 To: [REDACTED]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:30 PM
 Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
 > 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
 >
 > As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
 > concerning
 > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
 > supply
 > any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
 > and
 > town in which the station you watched is located.
 >
 > If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
 > e-mail.
 > We
 > would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
 > date
 > of this e-mail.
 >
 > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
 >
 > William H. Davenport
 > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
 > Enforcement Bureau
 > Federal Communications Commission.
 >

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Action please!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 4:22 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Channel 8, WFAA-TV in Dallas Texas.

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>

To: [REDACTED]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:29 PM

Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Do your appointed job!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:59 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The program was aired on the local ABC affiliate in Dallas, Texas, WFAA TV.

Thank you for your investigation.

On 12/29/2005 6:58 PM, "FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov" <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov> wrote:

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
 > 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that
 > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information > concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if > you could supply any of the following information, it would be very > helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or > KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is > located.

> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
 > e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the > information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one > week from the date of this e-mail.

> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

> William H. Davenport
 > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
 > Enforcement Bureau
 > Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: FCC negligence enforcing laws
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 8:21 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

WFAA-TV

[REDACTED]

Dallas, TX

[REDACTED]

FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: disappointed
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 10:53 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

WFAA-TV Fort Worth, TX

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>

To: [REDACTED]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:01 PM

Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>
> --
> No virus found in this incoming message.
> Checked by AVG Free Edition.
> Version: 7.1.371 / Virus Database: 267.14.9/216 - Release Date: 12/29/2005
>
>

000161

Page 11

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Indecent TV Programming
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 11:29 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The station was KVUE in Austin, Texas.

>>> <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov> 12/29/2005 6:40:38 PM >>>
The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Do your job or resign!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 11:44 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Austin Texas
Believe it's KVUE.

--- FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

- > The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning
- > the February 25th, 2003,
- > broadcast of the ABC Television Network program
- > "NYPD Blue" that was the
- > subject of a complaint you filed with the
- > Commission.
- >
- > As part of our investigation, we would like to
- > obtain information concerning
- > the station on which you saw this program.
- > Specifically, if you could supply
- > any of the following information, it would be very
- > helpful: (1) the call
- > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or
- > KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and
- > town in which the station you watched is located.
- >
- > If you are able to provide this information please
- > reply to this e-mail. We
- > would appreciate it if you could respond, either
- > with the information
- > requested or notice that you cannot provide it,
- > within one week from the date
- > of this e-mail.
- >
- > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
- >
- > William H. Davenport
- > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
- > Enforcement Bureau
- > Federal Communications Commission.
- >
- >

Yahoo! DSL - Something to write home about.
Just $16.99/mo. or less.
dsl.yahoo.com

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: NYPD Blue - Boy exposed to Nudity
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 7:01 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Wow, it's been so long I can hardly remember the complaint. But to answer your question, it would have been KVUE-TV Channel 24 in Austin, Texas

FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

>The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

>
>As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

>
>If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

>Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

>
>William H. Davenport
>Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
>Enforcement Bureau
>Federal Communications Commission.

>
>
>
>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: FCC Responsibility
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 9:44 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KVUE-TV, Austin, Texas.

FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov said:

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information > concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if > you could supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.

>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the > information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one > week from the date
> of this e-mail.

>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.

>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: programming
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 9:40 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

The call letters of the station are KVUE

Thanks

[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:44 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Protect Our Children!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, January 02, 2006 12:00 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Here is the information you requested:

KVUE Austin, TX

FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Tired of poor programming
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 8:55 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Mr. Davenport,

This was quite some time ago and if I was watching the show it would have been on:

WDAY-TV Fargo, ND

Happy New Year!

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:10 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

- > The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
- > 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that
- > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
- >
- > As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
- > concerning
- > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
- > supply
- > any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call
- > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
- > and
- > town in which the station you watched is located.
- >
- > If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
- > e-mail.
- > We
- > would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information
- > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
- > date
- > of this e-mail.
- >
- > Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
- >
- > William H. Davenport
- > Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
- > Enforcement Bureau
- > Federal Communications Commission.
- >

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Appalling
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 10:03 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

It was KCRG-TV9 in Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Thanks

FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov on Thursday, December 29, 2005 at 6:46 PM -0600 wrote:
>The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
>2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that >was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
>As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information >concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if >you could supply
>any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call >letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
>and
>town in which the station you watched is located.
>
>If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
>e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the >information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one >week from the date
>of this e-mail.
>
>Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
>William R. Davenport
>Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
>Enforcement Bureau
>Federal Communications Commission.
>

[REDACTED]
Hampton, IA 50441
[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Please Read
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 12:10 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

I believe it was KCRG - TV 9, our ABC affiliate.

FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

Have a Great Day!

[REDACTED]

If you haven't read this, you need to!
<http://federalistpatriot.us/>

"The office of government is not to confer happiness, but to give men opportunity to work out happiness for themselves." --William Channing

"To those who cite the First Amendment as reason for excluding God from more and more of our institutions every day, I say: The First Amendment of the Constitution was not written to protect the people of this country from religious values; it was written to protect religious values from government tyranny." --Ronald Reagan

Yahoo! Photos

Ring in the New Year with Photo Calendars. Add photos, events, holidays, whatever.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: protect families
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000181

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 10:55 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The station that NYPD was broadcast was KLTW in Tyler, Tx.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]

000182

Page 8

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Indecency
Dear FCC Commissioner,

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our citizenry from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionyouth.com, I respectfully implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 6:29 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Dear FCC,
The call letters of the local ABC is KAKE TV and is located in Wichita, KS
You can find them at <http://www.kake.com/>
[REDACTED]

----- Original Message -----
From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thu, 29 Dec 2005 20:00:43 -0500
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue"
> that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
concerning > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you > could supply any of the following information, it would be very > helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV > or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you > watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e> mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information
> requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from > the date of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
----- End of Original Message -----

Help protect your family and your marriage!
Take a look at PROTECTED internet service from American Family Online - <http://www.afo.net>

000184

Page 15

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Indecency Laws
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again. Since you have the power to stop such programming, you are responsible for the damage that it causes if you allow it to take place.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2005 10:44 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KAKE-TV in Wichita, KS

----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:35 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the > call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
> the city
and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from > the
date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: 'Commissioner Adelstein'; 'Kathleen Abernathy'; 'KM KJMWEBB'; 'Michael Copps'; 'Mike Powell'
Subject: indecent programming
Text item: Message Text

Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 9:01 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Our local ABC station is KAKE-TV in Wichita, KS.

000188

Page 17

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Deterioration of Network Programming
Dear FCC Commissioner,

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our citizenry from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionyouth.com, I respectfully implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000189

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 2:15 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

To whom it may concern:

This episode of NYPD Blue was on February 25, 2005 on the ABC network. The call letters of my local ABC affiliate are: KAKE-TV, Wichita, Kansas. Thank you for looking into this matter.

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]

Express yourself instantly with MSN Messenger! Download today - it's FREE!
<http://messenger.msn.click-url.com/go/onm00200471ave/direct/01/>

000190

Page18

From: [REDACTED]
To: KAQuinn
Subject: FCC NYPD Blue Female Nude
Dear FCC Commissioner,

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our citizenry from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionyouth.com, I respectfully implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 8:46 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

>The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
>2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that >was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

>
>As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information >concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if >you could supply any of the following information, it would be very >helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or >KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is >located.

>
>If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
>e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the >information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one >week from the date of this e-mail.

>
>Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

>
>William H. Davenport
>Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
>Enforcement Bureau
>Federal Communications Commission.

>
>
>
>
>
>

Dear Mr. Davenport,

I believe this episode was broadcasted on KAKE-TV. The city in which it is located is Wichita, Kansas.

000192

Page19

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Very Upset Vocal Citizen
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

000193

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Saturday, December 31, 2005 1:10 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

The station's call letters are KAKE-TV Channel 10 based out of Wichita, Kansas.

KAKE TV Mailing Address
1500 N. West Street
Wichita, KS 67203-1323

KAKE TV: (316) 943-4221

Thank you for looking into this for me.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----
From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:18 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Programming
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 3:35 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Thank you. Although I don't remember the particular program. My ABC affiliate is KAKE-TV in Wichita, KS.

Thank you,
[REDACTED]

----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:58 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th;
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>
>
> --
> No virus found in this incoming message.
> Checked by AVG Free Edition.
> Version: 7.1.371 / Virus Database: 267.14.8/215 - Release Date: 12/27/2005
>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Indecency on television.
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, January 02, 2006 2:40 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

Wichita, Kansas ABC station: KAKE-TV

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:09 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

The information in this email may be confidential or privileged. This email is intended to be reviewed by only the individual or organization named above. If you are not the intended recipient or an authorized representative of the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that any review, dissemination or copying of this email and its attachments, if any, or the information contained herein is prohibited. If you have received this email in error, please immediately notify the sender by return email and delete this email from your system.

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Enforce the laws
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

This great country was founded on Christian principles and you are throwing them in our faces. Please, let's make television family friendly again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Wednesday, January 04, 2006 2:14 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KLBY, Colby, Kansas -

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
Date: 12/29/05 18:43:47
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: Your oversight of TV programming
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 9:28 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KSAT-TV in San Antonio, Texas

Thanks

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:41 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Indecency on TV
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 11:09 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KSAT in San Antonio, Texas
----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:37 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.

From [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Please do your job and HELP US!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 10:57 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

- 1) KSAT
- 2) San Antonio

Thank you for investigating this matter!

[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: December 29, 2005 5:31 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: clean up our airways please
Dear FCC Commissioner:

I have contacted you in the past and helped spread the word that removing touched by an angel and more are not being removed. When I contacted your company you urged me to please help keep you from getting all of these notices and bogging down your system. I did so... Now please help America become a better place for our children.

You have the ability to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves. My family refuses to watch these types of things but we think it ridiculous that we even have to make this choice.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

I have just become a member of OneMillionMoms.c! om and I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: LETS DO WHAT IS RIGHT!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, January 02, 2006 4:31 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

Thank-you for following up on this. The station in Phoenix Arizona is KNXV -TV, ABC Channel 15.

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:02 PM
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From [REDACTED]
To: KAQuinn
Subject: Its time to do your job
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 7:50 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

Station: KNXV-TV
City: Phoenix, AZ

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov [mailto:FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:44 PM

To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: indecent
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 9:00 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

FCC

NYPD Blue was aired on channel 15 KNXV-TV in Phoenix, Arizona.

[REDACTED]

On Dec 29, 2005, at 5:47 PM, FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

1/9/2006

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From [REDACTED]
To: KAQuinn
Subject: Do your job!!
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 1:27 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

In 2003, NYPD Blue was regularly aired on ABC15 KNXV-TV in Phoenix, Arizona. I don't know what channel the reruns are currently aired on.

Sincerely,
[REDACTED]

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>

To: [REDACTED]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 7:36 PM

Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, > broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the > subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply > any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and > town in which the station you watched is located.

>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We > would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date > of this e-mail.

>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.

>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Please Take Action
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 12:41 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Mr. Davenport,

This complaint must have been so long ago & so much has happened in this world since this apparently that i have really forgot even making the complaint though i do often try to use my voice to make a differance in this world & to be helpful when & where i can.

Was this done thru your website or an email ? I am wondering if i see a copy of the complaint, it will jog my memory. I do believe the call letters for the station this show plays on here is "KNXV-TV" which would be Channel 15/ABC

I sure hope this helps. Have a wonderful new year & thank you for your time & help.

[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
Date: 12/29/05 19:45:59
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

000219

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport

Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division

Enforcement Bureau

Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Let's Control Indecency
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 12:44 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

WGNO is our local ABC station in the New Orleans area.
Thanks!

>
> From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
> Date: 2005/12/29 Thu PM 06:53:45 EST
> To: [REDACTED]
> Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation
>
> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information > concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if > you could supply any of the following information, it would be very > helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or > KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is > located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the > information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one > week from the date of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>

000222

Page 4

From: [REDACTED]
To: M Powell
Subject: NYPD Blue
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 8:45 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

NYPD Blue was aired on the Minneapolis/St. Paul affiliate of ABC (KSTP-TV).
Thank you.

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:49 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: no f-word ever
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Shonnetta Ennis

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 7:01 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KSTP TV, channel 5, St Paul, MN

from [REDACTED]

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>

To: [REDACTED]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:12 PM

Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Protect our families
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant , violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full female . It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, January 02, 2006 5:47 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Minneapolis /St. Paul MN - I believe it was KSTP

[REDACTED]

Apple Valley MN 55124

[REDACTED]

<><

-----Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 5:58 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
concerning > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the > call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
> the city
and
> town in which the station you watched is located.

>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.

We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from > the
date
> of this e-mail.

>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.

> --
> No virus found in this incoming message.
> Checked by AVG Free Edition.
> Version: 7.1.371 / Virus Database: 267.14.9/216 - Release Date: 12/29/2005

>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: Hello
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:49 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The Station this program was WDIO out of Duluth, Minnesota.

----- Original Message -----

From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>

To: [REDACTED]

Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:57 PM

Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
> concerning
> the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
> supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call > letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city
> and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
> We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the
> date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>
>
> --
> No virus found in this incoming message.
> Checked by AVG Free Edition.
> Version: 7.1.371 / Virus Database: 267.14.8/215 - Release Date: 12/27/2005
>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: FCC indecency laws.
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Monday, January 02, 2006 9:18 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The ABC affiliate in my area is KLAX 31 in Alexandria, LA. Thank you for looking into this matter.

--- FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning
> the February 25th, 2003,
> broadcast of the ABC Television Network program
> "NYPD Blue" that was the > subject of a complaint you filed with the > Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to > obtain information concerning
> the station on which you saw this program.
> Specifically, if you could supply
> any of the following information, it would be very > helpful: (1) the call
> letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or > KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please
> reply to this e-mail. We > would appreciate it if you could respond, either
> with the information
> requested or notice that you cannot provide it,
> within one week from the date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>

[REDACTED]

(SM)2
Stress Makes Stronger Muscles

Yahoo! DSL - Something to write home about.
Just $16.99/mo. or less.
dsl.yahoo.com

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: protection of families
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Friday, December 30, 2005 10:20 AM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

The call letters are KBMT out of Beaumont, TX.

----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:34 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
concerning > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the > call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
> the city
and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from > the
date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Stand for moral character
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionMoms.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tuesday, January 03, 2006 8:38 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

Our local ABC affiliate is KBMT - TV 12.

----- Original Message -----
From: <FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov>
To: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 6:43 PM
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

> The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th,
> 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that > was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.
>
> As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information
concerning > the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could
supply
> any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the > call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2)
> the city
and
> town in which the station you watched is located.
>
> If you are able to provide this information please reply to this
> e-mail.
We
> would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information > requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from > the
date
> of this e-mail.
>
> Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
>
> William H. Davenport
> Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
> Enforcement Bureau
> Federal Communications Commission.
>
>
>

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: Please Help American Families
Dear Commissioner Powell:

Please take seriously your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television!

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Sunday, January 01, 2006 1:43 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: RE: NYPD Blue Investigation

Thank you for following up with the complaint. Though it has been some time ago, the station would have been the ABC affiliate in Pensacola, FL. I believe the call letters are WEAR-TV.

Thank you again,
[REDACTED]

-----Original Message-----

From: FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:16 pm
To: [REDACTED]
Subject: NYPD Blue Investigation

The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

From: [REDACTED]
To: Michael Powell
Subject: FCC enforce decency laws please.....
Dear FCC Commissioner:

Why do you continue to disregard your obligation to protect our families from the constant barrage of indecency on television?

Like many families, we are tired of the constant sex, violence, and profanity coming into our homes through the public airwaves.

On February 25, ABC affiliate stations aired NYPD BLUE. In the program, a young boy was exposed to full adult female nudity. It is shameless that this kind of broadcast is going unchallenged by the FCC.

As a member of OneMillionDads.com, I implore you to vigorously enforce broadcast indecency laws to insure this type of incident does not occur again.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Thursday, December 29, 2005 8:07 PM
To: FCC Enforcement Bureau
Subject: Re: NYPD Blue Investigation

KDNL TV in St. Louis MO

Life Is To Short, To Drive an Ugly Truck!

[REDACTED]

-- FCCEnforcementBureau@fcc.gov wrote:
The FCC has conducted an investigation concerning the February 25th, 2003, broadcast of the ABC Television Network program "NYPD Blue" that was the subject of a complaint you filed with the Commission.

As part of our investigation, we would like to obtain information concerning the station on which you saw this program. Specifically, if you could supply any of the following information, it would be very helpful: (1) the call letters of the station (for example, WXXX-TV or KXXX-TV); or (2) the city and town in which the station you watched is located.

If you are able to provide this information please reply to this e-mail. We would appreciate it if you could respond, either with the information requested or notice that you cannot provide it, within one week from the date of this e-mail.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

William H. Davenport
Chief, Investigations and Hearings Division
Enforcement Bureau
Federal Communications Commission.

1/9/2006