The Frederick Rescue Mission has been a haven of hope for those having desperate needs. One of the most prominent ways the Mission helps these individuals and families is by providing food boxes during their most difficult times. Already this year, the Mission has distributed 469 food boxes. But currently they are experiencing a severe shortage of non-perishable foods and are forced to turn many families away because of a depleted food supply. Ways you can get involved and help is by holding non-perishable food drives at your church, office, or any other organization that you may be affiliated with. Please contact hkim@therescuemission.org for more information.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Frederick County Mentoring Plus Program is a volunteer mentoring program for children who have a parent currently serving time in prison. The mission of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Frederick County is to reconnect youth, ages 4-14, who are socially isolated from the community, help to build self-esteem, and help the youth to lead a full life. The Mentoring Plus program is currently looking for volunteers ages 18 and older who are willing to be a one-on-one mentor for a few hours a month. The mentor would do things such as playing sports, going to sporting events, going to the park, going to the mall shopping, going out to eat, going to the movies or just hanging out together. No previous experience is required to become a mentor and volunteer mentors can come from all walks of life. The volunteer mentors can also be a husband and wife team. The real purpose is to be a loving, positive role model in a child's life. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer mentor please call 301.694.0188

The Frederick Rescue Mission has been a haven of hope for those having desperate needs. One of the most prominent ways the Mission helps these individuals and families is by providing food boxes during their most difficult times. Already this year, the Mission has distributed 469 food boxes. But currently they are experiencing a severe shortage of non-perishable foods and are forced to turn many families away because of a depleted food supply. Ways you can get involved and help is by holding non-perishable food drives at your church, office, or any other organization that you may be affiliated with. Please contact hkim@therescuemission.org for more information.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Frederick County Mentoring Plus Program is a volunteer mentoring program for children who have a parent currently serving time in prison. The mission of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Frederick County is to reconnect youth, ages 4-14, who are socially isolated from the community, help to build self-esteem, and help the youth to lead a full life. The Mentoring Plus program is currently looking for volunteers ages 18 and older who are willing to be a one-on-one mentor for a few hours a month. The mentor would do things such as playing sports, going to sporting events, going to the park, going to the mall shopping, going out to eat, going to the movies or just hanging out together. No previous experience is required to become a mentor and volunteer mentors can come from all walks of life. The volunteer mentors can also be a husband and wife team. The real purpose is to be a loving, positive role model in a child's life. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer mentor please call 301.694.0188

The Monocacy National Battlefield presents “The 1862 Confederate Occupation of Frederick”, a living history camp from 9am till 5pm on Saturday, and from 9am till 3pm on Sunday. Firing demonstrations will take place at 10am, 1pm and 3pm on Saturday, and 10am and 1pm on Sunday. There will also be informal programs held throughout the day. In September of 1862, Confederate General Robert E. Lee led the first invasion of the north, which has been dubbed the “Maryland Campaign”. The Confederate Army, or more than 66 thousand troops, encamped around Monocacy Junction for three days. During this time Frederick City of occupied by the Confederates as they rested, re-supplied, recruited new troops, destroyed the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, and mapped out their invasion plan. Visitors will learn about these events as well as the Union response to the invasion. When the Confederate army resumed its march, an order known as Special Order 191 or Lee’s Lost Order, was inadvertently left behind. It outlined the Confederate movements over the next few days and was found by Union soldiers. Park Ranger Tracy Shives will discuss the mysteries surrounding this order at 11am on both days at the Gambrill Mill. For more information please call 301.662.3515

The Frederick Rescue Mission has been a haven of hope for those having desperate needs. One of the most prominent ways the Mission helps these individuals and families is by providing food boxes during their most difficult times. Already this year, the Mission has distributed 469 food boxes. But currently they are experiencing a severe shortage of non-perishable foods and are forced to turn many families away because of a depleted food supply. Ways you can get involved and help is by holding non-perishable food drives at your church, office, or any other organization that you may be affiliated with. Please contact hkim@therescuemission.org for more information.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Frederick County Mentoring Plus Program is a volunteer mentoring program for children who have a parent currently serving time in prison. The mission of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Frederick County is to reconnect youth, ages 4-14, who are socially isolated from the community, help to build self-esteem, and help the youth to lead a full life. The Mentoring Plus program is currently looking for volunteers ages 18 and older who are willing to be a one-on-one mentor for a few hours a month. The mentor would do things such as playing sports, going to sporting events, going to the park, going to the mall shopping, going out to eat, going to the movies or just hanging out together. No previous experience is required to become a mentor and volunteer mentors can come from all walks of life. The volunteer mentors can also be a husband and wife team. The real purpose is to be a loving, positive role model in a child's life. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer mentor please call 301.694.0188

The Frederick Rescue Mission has been a haven of hope for those having desperate needs. One of the most prominent ways the Mission helps these individuals and families is by providing food boxes during their most difficult times. Already this year, the Mission has distributed 469 food boxes. But currently they are experiencing a severe shortage of non-perishable foods and are forced to turn many families away because of a depleted food supply. Ways you can get involved and help is by holding non-perishable food drives at your church, office, or any other organization that you may be affiliated with. Please contact hkim@therescuemission.org for more information.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Frederick County Mentoring Plus Program is a volunteer mentoring program for children who have a parent currently serving time in prison. The mission of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Frederick County is to reconnect youth, ages 4-14, who are socially isolated from the community, help to build self-esteem, and help the youth to lead a full life. The Mentoring Plus program is currently looking for volunteers ages 18 and older who are willing to be a one-on-one mentor for a few hours a month. The mentor would do things such as playing sports, going to sporting events, going to the park, going to the mall shopping, going out to eat, going to the movies or just hanging out together. No previous experience is required to become a mentor and volunteer mentors can come from all walks of life. The volunteer mentors can also be a husband and wife team. The real purpose is to be a loving, positive role model in a child's life. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer mentor please call 301.694.0188

The Frederick Rescue Mission has been a haven of hope for those having desperate needs. One of the most prominent ways the Mission helps these individuals and families is by providing food boxes during their most difficult times. Already this year, the Mission has distributed 469 food boxes. But currently they are experiencing a severe shortage of non-perishable foods and are forced to turn many families away because of a depleted food supply. Ways you can get involved and help is by holding non-perishable food drives at your church, office, or any other organization that you may be affiliated with. Please contact hkim@therescuemission.org for more information.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Frederick County Mentoring Plus Program is a volunteer mentoring program for children who have a parent currently serving time in prison. The mission of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Frederick County is to reconnect youth, ages 4-14, who are socially isolated from the community, help to build self-esteem, and help the youth to lead a full life. The Mentoring Plus program is currently looking for volunteers ages 18 and older who are willing to be a one-on-one mentor for a few hours a month. The mentor would do things such as playing sports, going to sporting events, going to the park, going to the mall shopping, going out to eat, going to the movies or just hanging out together. No previous experience is required to become a mentor and volunteer mentors can come from all walks of life. The volunteer mentors can also be a husband and wife team. The real purpose is to be a loving, positive role model in a child's life. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer mentor please call 301.694.0188

The Frederick County Humane Society will be holding puppy and dog classes to be held at their large new training facility, located at 217 West Patrick Street in downtown Frederick. All trainers are APDT-certified and classes use positive-reinforcement training methods. Parking is available on the street and behind the facility. Classes begin in September for all training levels. Canine Etiquette is for dogs ages 5 months and up, designed to teach the basics as well as offer older dogs an opportunity to brush up on their training. Puppy Preschool is for puppies between 8 and 20 weeks of age, designed to give puppies time to socialize and learn some basic behaviors that they need to know while owners get advice/help with puppy issues. Rally O classes are now on the schedule for dogs ready to move on with their training. Introduction to Tricks/Agility, Coming When Called and Loose Leash Walking Workshops also will be offered. Most classes run for 7 weeks. In all beginner courses, dogs stay home for the first class so humans can concentrate. To register, or for more information, please visit www.rightstartmaryland.com or email trainer Michelle Mange at rightstartmaryland@verizon.net. The Frederick Rescue Mission has been a haven of hope for those having desperate needs. One of the most prominent ways the Mission helps these individuals and families is by providing food boxes during their most difficult times. Already this year, the Mission has distributed 469 food boxes. But currently they are experiencing a severe shortage of non-perishable foods and are forced to turn many families away because of a depleted food supply. Ways you can get involved and help is by holding non-perishable food drives at your church, office, or any other organization that you may be affiliated with. Please contact hkim@therescuemission.org for more information.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Frederick County Mentoring Plus Program is a volunteer mentoring program for children who have a parent currently serving time in prison. The mission of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Frederick County is to reconnect youth, ages 4-14, who are socially isolated from the community, help to build self-esteem, and help the youth to lead a full life. The Mentoring Plus program is currently looking for volunteers ages 18 and older who are willing to be a one-on-one mentor for a few hours a month. The mentor would do things such as playing sports, going to sporting events, going to the park, going to the mall shopping, going out to eat, going to the movies or just hanging out together. No previous experience is required to become a mentor and volunteer mentors can come from all walks of life. The volunteer mentors can also be a husband and wife team. The real purpose is to be a loving, positive role model in a child's life. If you are interested in becoming a volunteer mentor please call 301.694.0188

The Frederick County Humane Society will be holding puppy and dog classes to be held at their large new training facility, located at 217 West Patrick Street in downtown Frederick. All trainers are APDT-certified and classes use positive-reinforcement training methods. Parking is available on the street and behind the facility. Classes begin in September for all training levels. Canine Etiquette is for dogs ages 5 months and up, designed to teach the basics as well as offer older dogs an opportunity to brush up on their training. Puppy Preschool is for puppies between 8 and 20 weeks of age, designed to give puppies time to socialize and learn some basic behaviors that they need to know while owners get advice/help with puppy issues. Rally O classes are now on the schedule for dogs ready to move on with their training. Introduction to Tricks/Agility, Coming When Called and Loose Leash Walking Workshops also will be offered. Most classes run for 7 weeks. In all beginner courses, dogs stay home for the first class so humans can concentrate. To register, or for more information, please visit www.rightstartmaryland.com or email trainer Michelle Mange at rightstartmaryland@verizon.net.
