WFMD
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WFMD provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Education: Her campaign for re-election to the Board of Education. She discusses the issues she's concentrating on and her experience.
- Financial: Maryland Comptroller discusses supporting Downtown Frederick shops for Holiday shopping, the first day of school after Labor Day and tax time.
- Government: A discussion of the growth of Frederick County over the next decade and how these plans impact local residents.
- Health: Discussion of what goes on and the procedures used at Frederick Memorial Hospital's Emergency Room. Such as which patients are seen first, and which ones wait.
- Identity Theft/Dangerous Toys: How do avoid scams and identity theft when shopping online./Trouble In Toyland report discusses toys that were recalled but are still available online.
- Paranormal: A discussion of her experiences with the unexplained, and what places in the region are the most haunted.
- Political: Both are speaking about why they wanted to represent Maryland's 8th Congressional District that includes parts of Frederick County.
- Politics: Speeches from the Love Trumps Hate rally held in downtown Frederick.
- Public Awareness: Discussion centered around the Monocacy River Management Plan and how it protects the river. The public can still comment on the plan through January.
