WFMD
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WFMD provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Anti-bullying: Miss Frederick, Shea Sullivan, and Miss Jefferson CO, Lexi Openshaw, discuss cyberbullying and how to combat it. Plus they discuss preparing for their state titles.
- Education: An update on what's happening at local public libraries, including the new library in Walkersville that's under construction.
- Environment/Public Awareness: The Executive Producer of MPT talks about Chesapeake Bay Week and efforts to clean up the Bay./Senator talks about bill to offer incentives to passengers if they have to be removed from an airline flight due to overbooking.
- Government: A discussion of how Frederick County fared during the 2017 Maryland General Assembly session. She encourages citizens to offer their ideas for the 2018 Legislative session.
- Health: A discussion of Frederick County's ranking as number 3 in Maryland when it comes to health factors, what that means, and other seasonal health concerns.
- Health/Road Safety: A discussion of the new state of the art cancer center that will be soon opening at Frederick Memorial Hospital./The State Highway Administration discusses hot potholes are formed, how they deal with them, and how to report them.
- Homelessness: The Executive Director of SHIP discusses the expansion of New Horizons Frederick and how they can help high school students get past homelessness.
- Local Development: Opponents to the Downtown Hotel and Conference Center express their issues with the design plans and the project.
- Public Awareness: The Executive Director of the Western Maryland Red Cross discusses what the Red Cross does during disasters, the services they provide to military personnel and their families, and the need for volunteers and donations.
- Religion/Road Safety: The new Executive Director of the Religious Coalition discusses his appointment and the challenges the Coalition faces./The State Highway Administration discusses improvements to I-270 to help reduce congestion.
