

The following is paid for by the candidate for 30 years people talked about transit. We got it done. For decades, workforce housing was just a dream. Yet we got it done. For years industry passed us by yet in the last board we attracted 750 million in capital investment and added 1800. well paying jobs. Good things are happening in every corner of our city, but it stops without the forward thinking we've led with for the last four years. Time is running out early voting ends this Friday. Election day is November 7, keep Valdosta moving forward, reelect Scott James Matheson for Mayor
