July 4, 2020	The Link Between Christianity, Healthcare and Hospitals  (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhiser Guest: Michael Austin, Christian Commentator & Communications Consultant, Christian History Institute (Worcester, PA). www.christianhistoryinstitute.org Description: Everyone at some point in their lifetime will likely visit a hospital and/or utilize healthcare. Healthcare and hospitals have played an important role in the history of the Christian Church. Michael Austin informed listeners that during Biblical times; Christians took care of others by providing lodging and hygiene for the sick. During that time, it was viewed as a radical concept because the Roman view of life saw sickness/illness as a sign of weakness. Michael also shared how Christians were of the entrepreneur spirit to serve others and that is why we are now able to enjoy restaurants, hotels and other means of serving others. Christianity has changed the world because of its value of the human life.
July 11, 2020	Having Patience in an Impatient World  (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhiser Guest: Dr. Linda Mintle, Author, Professor, Media Personality, and Licensed Therapist. (Nashville, TN). www.drindamintle.com Description: The Bible has many references about patience. It can be said that patience is virtue. However, the world around us is anything but patient. People in today's society can be found rushing from one place to another, only to wait at the next stoplight, in line at the supermarket, etc. Many people rush throughout their day, only to find themselves waiting. Dr. Linda Mintle shared the benefits of having patience and how impatience, in the spiritual sense, is really a lack of trusting God. She also talked about spiritual truths regarding patience and gave a touching testimony on how God helped her through a time she struggled with patience.
July 18, 2020	Hope for the Persecuted Church and Importance of Christians Gathering  (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhiser Guest: Dede Laugesen, Executive Director, Save the Persecuted Church (Skippack, PA). www.savethepersecutedchristians.org Description: Christians throughout the world are being persecuted and this persecution has reached a genocidal level. July 25, 2020	Thriving Financially to Live Generously Amidst the Pandemic  (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhiser Guest: Chuck Bentley, CEO, Crown Financial Ministries (Knoxville, TN) www.crown.org Description: Millions of people throughout the nation found themselves unemployed largely due to the recent pandemic. Chuck Bentley spoke about the ramifications of not having a source of income and how this affects the individual, the family, the church, and even the community. He shared practical tools on ways to become financially independent and how God's Word, in general, provides a foundation for making good decisions; not just spiritual decisions or decisions that impact our relationship with God, but decisions that impact our relationship with money. He also said it starts in Genesis and goes through Revelation – the Scripture talks about very practical beliefs, practices, and behaviors to manage our resources wisely.
August 1, 2020	Teaching Financial Management to American Youth  (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhiser Guest: Daniel Sanabria, Executive Director, Youth For Christ (New York City, NY). www.yfcnyc.org Description: Youth in today's society have been confronted with school closures, sudden loss of employment, and are financially strapped. Daniel Sanabria talked about Youth For Christ's mission to be a catalyst connecting the youth to local churches who can then help train, disciple, and develop them so they have a better future instead of letting the streets define them. He also shared how believers can look at their community as a mission and not a burden, and how to help the youth learn skills and talents so they can have their own business while having a heart for Jesus Christ.

Schools and businesses were suddenly closed. Parents started working from home. Trying to balance work and homeschool for their children became daily challenges. Sam Sorbo talked about homeschooling being an opportunity for parents to come alongside their child and form a bond with him/her as they help them learn from curriculum rooted in biblical principles. She shared how each child is unique and homeschooling enables parents to focus on the unique qualities of each child and allows your child to explore with the innate curiosity he/she was born. She explained where parents can find free biblically based school curriculum resources during this time of pandemic.
August 15, 2020	How Americans can Find Hope and Encouragement during Unhappiness  (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhiser Guest: Gary Thomas, Bestselling Author and International Speaker (Houston TX). www.garythomas.com Description: A recent poll showed Americans are the unhappiest they have been in 50 years. Gary Thomas talked about materialism is only a part of unhappiness and how happiness is largely based on what an individual thinks. He shared Scripture that can help believers find a “spiritual vaccine” for despair. Gary said the reason believers are not anxious about anything is because the Lord is near and is the reason we can rejoice. When God enters the picture, it’s not what is happening to us, it is ‘Who’ is in control. When we feel His presence near us, that is where we have joy, a sense of peace, and experience happiness.

		what they are putting in front of their children is biblically accurate. The curriculum they offer helps individuals know how to observe, interpret and make application of the Bible text. Additionally, it shows them the efficiency, authority and clarity of the Bible and the necessity of the Bible so they have in their minds where to go for Truth.
August 29, 2020	Equipping the Church to Use the Unique Gifts of Every Member  (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhisier Guest: Joni Eareckson Tada, Founder and CEO, Joni & Friends (Agoura Hills, CA). www.joniandfriends.org Description: Joni Eareckson Tada spoke about how the church should be a healing place for families, especially for those with special needs. All of us have disability conditions, limitations, and weaknesses that come in all shapes, sizes, etc. and we can (and should) learn from each other. She also shared how even in the confines of her own disability, she is able to utilize the gifts God has given her to minister to and pray for others.
September 5, 2020	Getting through Financial Turmoil and Investing in Godly Principles  (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhisier Guest: Arthur Ally, Founder and President, Timothy Plan (Maitland, FL). www.timothyplan.com Description: Just this year, the pandemic, rising unemployment and other disruptions have caught many Americans off-guard. People have found themselves unemployed with no income coming in and little to no savings to fall back on to pay the mortgage, bills, groceries, etc. Arthur Ally talked about how the vast majority of Christians live basically paycheck to paycheck (day-to-day) and over their heads financially. He explained the formula to financial security and how listeners could access a copy of the Biblical Stewardship Study Guide Program to help learn how to handle money from a biblical standpoint.
September 12, 2020	Choosing the best Healthcare Coverage/Facility for Your Family  (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhisier Guest: Anthony Hopp, Vice President of External Relations, Samaritan Ministries (Peoria, IL). www.samaritanministries.org Description: New studies are showing a trend of Americans moving away from going to hospitals and choosing urgent care over hospitals. Some experts even say urgent care clinics are changing how health care is delivered. Anthony Hopp explained how healthcare sharing is a way for Christians to connect with other participants in their plan and experience community.

September 19, 2020	Encouragement for those Struggling with Isolation, Self-Destructive Thoughts, and Coping with Loss  (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhiser  Guest: Dr. Bill Dymont, Christian Psychologist and CEO, Dymont&amp; Associates (Huntington Beach, CA).  www.drbillspeaks.com  Description: Feeling rejected by others, not believing you are good enough, wrestling with unanswered questions and trying to make sense of loss? These are some of the many thoughts that consume the minds of those impacted by isolation and loneliness, trapped in negative thoughts and dealing with heartbreaking loss. Dr. Dymont explained that the lack of connection and support with others are key factors in declining mental health. He shared warning signs to be aware of, related Scripture, and practical steps to help those who are struggling to overcome difficult situations as we are several months into the pandemic.
September 26, 2020	The Importance of Christians Voting; How Christians Restore Hope to the American Dream  (25-minute program)	Host: Jenny Burkhiser  Guest: Dr. Carol Swain, Award-Winning Political Scientist, Author, Speaker, TV Commentator (Brentwood, TN).  www.carolmswain.com  Description: Throughout history, people throughout the world have traveled to America in pursuit of the “American dream,” a dream of religious freedom, hope for a better future and a more prosperous life. The Constitution was written and rooted in Judeo-Christian values and is a document set up to give power to the people. Sadly, the fabric of what America has long-stood for throughout the years is being eroded with judges, politicians, policies, etc. that fail to support Godly principles and truths. Dr. Carol Swain shared her personal testimony growing up in poverty and how – through the power of God – she was able to excel to great accomplishments. She emphasized the importance of Christians voting in the upcoming election and that we vote for individuals in government who believe in absolute truths, that there is a God, and for people who will protect and preserve our way of life, including religious freedom.

Jul 3, 2020	Tax Filing Deadline	Description: And no more delaying – it’s time to do your taxes! The federal government postponed the original April 15 deadline to July 15th due to the coronavirus, and the date is approaching quick! You’ll have to file or seek an extension by the new deadline or face a penalty. The IRS is expecting about 150 million returns from individuals.
Jul 6, 2020	Suicide Prevention	Description: The federal government launched a broad national campaign yesterday aimed at reducing high suicide rates, urging the public to reach out to others especially during the coronavirus pandemic and acknowledge daily stresses in people’s lives. Known as REACH, the government campaign is hitting the internet with the key message that “suicide is preventable” and that collective action not only by government but also by businesses, schools, and churches can overcome the stigma of discussing mental health and empower people to understand risk factors, stay connected with others, and talk openly about problems.
July 8, 2020	Child Safety in Vehicles	Description: When “Lydia” learned about small children losing their lives in hot cars because they are accidentally left behind, she decided to find a solution. The 12-year-old from North Carolina won a $20,000 prize for her invention; a car seat device that measures the temperature of a car and alerts parents and emergency officials when the temperature inside the car reaches 102 degrees. Lydia's invention, called The Beat the Heat Car Seat is portable, so it can be transferred to other car seats and would cost minimally.
Jul 9, 2020	School Supplies for Underprivileged Children	Description: Two students at Centennial High School in the Dallas-Fort Worth area have launched a campaign to share kindness with students who are in need. “Project Kind Packs” puts together school supplies, storybooks, hygiene items, and letters of encouragement for more than 300 teachers and elementary school students. 		who are hungry, cook up small meals and mow the grass for disabled marine veterans – all for free. Grayson lives by former President John F. Kenney’s words, “Ask not what your country can do for you. Ask what you can do for your country.”
August 7, 2020	Summer Tutoring during COVID-19	Description: With many parents stressing over the upcoming school year, a group of college graduates are alleviating some of that burden by offering a free summer tutoring service to high school students in Arizona! They go by the name, “Cov Tutors,” and they offer one-on-one zoom sessions 1-3 times a week. And with so many students expected to stay home this year, demand has been growing rapidly -- they already have a wait list for fall.
August 11, 2020	The Movies at a Safe Distance	Description: If you’ve always wanted to catch a classic film on the big screen, you can now even while socially distancing! This Friday, Walmart is beginning a drive-in movie tour at 160 of its stores throughout the country... and it’s all free! Over the next few months, there’ll be 320 movies playing from coast to coast, from Houston, Texas, up to Sedalia, Montana.
August 12, 2020	Inspiring Veterans	Description: A former Marine with two prosthetic legs skydived out of an airplane to carry a huge American flag down to the 80th Sturgis Motorcycle Rally in South Dakota. Sgt. 1st Class Dana Bowman has 4,000 jumps under his belt, many of them after losing his legs. He does the jumps to inspire other veterans... he says it’s hope for despondent, courage to the timid, and strength to the weak.
August 14, 2020	Tribute to Fallen Heroes	Description: In a stunning tribute to mark the end of World War II 75 years ago, a team of aviators flying in vintage airplanes dropped rose petals over a cemetery in New York to honor our fallen heroes. The roses symbolized the peace that followed after Japan surrendered to the Allies on Aug. 15, 1945.
August 25, 2020	Cutting Lawns Across America	Description: His goal is simple: 50 lawns in 50 states. Since May 17, 2020, Rodney Smith has driven nearly 19,000 miles across the US, mowing a lawn in each state for someone who needs help - a veteran, a single mother, the elderly or someone who is disabled. Rodney believes the idea to spread kindness came from the Lord. "I think it's God's plan," he said, "I'm just doing what He's telling me to do." Rodney uses social media to update where he is and connect with people who need their yards mowed. Next summer, he plans to mow a lawn on each continent.

August 31, 2020	A COVID Reunion	Description: After being separated for 5 months due to COVID-19, a mother and her 2-year-old daughter have finally been reunited! On March 1st, 2020, two-year-old “Grace” flew to Panama with her grandmother for a month-long trip to visit extended family but as COVID spread here in the US, Grace’s flight home was cancelled indefinitely. After months of praying and pleading with Panama authorities to bring her daughter home, finally on Aug 12th, 2020, Grace was reunited with her mother who called the reunion a ‘miracle’ and ‘a dream come true!’
September 2, 2020	Generous Giving Improves Health	Description: We all know being generous leads to greater happiness but who knew it could help you live longer! A new paper published yesterday in the National Academy of Science shows that giving money to your children or aging parents is likely to increase the life span... results show that there’s a direct relationship between the number of wealth transfers and the length of your life! Researchers agreed that now more than ever, we must ‘broaden our capacity to help one another.’
September 3, 2020	Cutting Lawns for the Elderly	Description: After New Jersey native Brian Shwartz was laid off from his job in mid-June due to the COVID pandemic, he determined to make the best of it by helping those who were fighting greater battles. Schwartz decided that a lawn mowing was a socially distanced service he could provide -- at no cost -- to those over 65 years of age. Two neighbors who also lost their jobs during the pandemic have even joined Brian on his mission. He encourages others who are facing unemployment to continue networking and never give up.
September 4, 2020	Cleanup Effort After Hurricane Laura	Description: As Louisiana homeowners continue cleaning up in the aftermath of Hurricane Laura, response teams are getting help from a group offering hope. Joey Stoltzfus is with Hope Force, a faith-based response team hits the road when disaster strikes. Hope Force volunteers traveled to Lake Charles to patch up damage after Laura hit, helping put the town back on track. Christi Austin lives is one of the homes Hope Force repaired – she rode out the storm, praying and reciting Psalm 29. Austin said she’s just thankful for a little light in a year burdened by darkness.
September 7, 2020	Lifting Spirits During COVID-19	Description: How do you lift spirits during a pandemic? Well according to Gail Brokema and Kolleen Bruinooge, all it takes is a smile and a wave! The two cousins from Michigan have spent every single morning since the beginning of the coronavirus sitting along a

And the response has been overwhelming... strangers have brought food and gifts for the women... one couple even offered them flowers and homemade raspberry jam. And if the weather cooperates, these ladies will be giving their daily hellos until the shutdown ends.
September 21, 2020	Giving Hope through God's Word	Description: Last week, Washington D.C. held its annual Bible Reading marathon. The 5-day reading marathon at the Faith & Liberty headquarters features 90 hour of continuous Bible reading. The event's director said the Bible is at the heart of America's founding principles and our nation's hope lies in the Word of God!
September 22, 2020	Voter Registration	Description: If you've been meaning to register to vote, today would be a good day to do it! Tuesday is National Voter Registration Day, a massive effort by volunteers urging thousands of Americans to get ready for the upcoming November elections. Facebook, which pledged to register 4 million voters ahead of election day, says it's more than halfway to its goal, logging 2 and a half million registrations from Facebook, Instagram, and Messenger users. Christian organizations like My Faith Votes are also encouraging the 25 million Christians who are registered to vote to act on their faith and make their voice heard!
September 23, 2020	Serving Mobile Meals during COVID-19	Description: At 85-years-old nothing is going to slow down Mobile Meals volunteer Sandra Bischel – not even a pandemic! She's been serving up meals to the elderly in Dover, Ohio, since 1973 and she's determined to help others during the COVID crisis. While many of the other elderly have stopped being out in public, she and younger members of the Mobile Meals teams serve around 90 people every day, two meals a day. Bischel says the pandemic has been an opportunity for her to pass down her volunteer spirit to the younger generation.
September 24, 2020	Veteran Suicide Awareness	Description: In an effort to bring awareness to veteran suicides and offer support to struggling veterans, a Midwest organization has launched an event designed to make an impact. In the Trail to Zero, Ride to End Veteran Suicide event, 20 veterans will ride 20 horses for 20 miles to raise awareness about the 20 veterans who commit suicide in the U.S. each day. The first ride begins tomorrow in Lexington, Kentucky.
