May is Mental Health Awareness and Trauma Informed Care Month and Purple Martinmonth in PBC. The role of PBC Parks in Mental Health is, " : Parks and recreation agencies are an underutilized health care resource. They create healthy communities and play a fundamental role in enhancing thephysical environments in which we live. Through facilities, outdoor settings and services provided, they support good healthfor people of all abilities, ages, socio- economic backgrounds and ethnicities. Parks provide a connection to nature, which studies demonstrate relieves stress levels, tightens interpersonal relationships and improves mental health. In addition, they foster overall wellness and healthful habits, such as engaging in enrichment opportunities that add balance to life. The program is free and one of the ways theysupport it is by doing events. Damian is working on their upcoming Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Palm Beach & Martin Counties Bowl for Kids' Sake fundraiser. It's going to be at Greenacres bowl on June 3rd. Listeners can create teams to fundraise by collecting donations. They have lots of funsgames/prizes planned for the day. Then in October on Tuesday 10/10/23, listeners can enjoy a "Foodie" fundraiser, Big Taste of Martin County. That takes place at Atlantic Aviation. For details on the events, to volunteer, sign up, join the board or make a donation, listeners can go to www.mentorbig.org or follow them on FB/Instagram. Talked with Bert Moreschi, Herb Price, Tom Giblin and John Wright from the Jupter Tequesta Repeater Group (JTRG). They are an ARRL (American Radio Relay League) affiliated special service club. They promote Amateur Radio (Ham radio) and provide community assistance. They recently met with Emergency Operations Center about offering assistance during emergencies such as hurricanes/tornadoes and did a "HurricaneAlice simulation" to make sure everything isset up for this upcoming hurrican season. Listeners can find out more about the club by attending their upcoming "Field Day" event June 24th/25th at the Carlin Park Civic Center in Jupiter.
