When Congresswoman Linda Smith traveled into the brothel district of Mumbai, India on a fact-finding mission, she was horrified by the brutal reality she encountered there. On this edition of Family Talk, Linda shares that she quit her political career to found Shared Hope International. Her goal? To help and heal those who have been exploited or are enslaved, and to assist people in identifying individuals in their communities who are trapped in the dark web of trafficking.

Family Talk Feb 23&24,2022, 6:00 am

In 1994, Dr. David Jeremiah, founder of Turning Point Ministries, was diagnosed with cancer. While he wasn't afraid of dying, he was afraid for his family and their future. On this edition of Family Talk, the author of When Your World Falls Apart, recounts his health journey with Dr. Dobson and the role that faith played in his recovery. During times of pain and disillusionment, Dr. Jeremiah believes the church needs a theology of adversity. The Christian life does not guarantee smooth sailing, but King David reassures us in Psalm 46, that "God is our refuge and strength."

Family Talk Mar 3&4,2022 6:00 am

According to the Alzheimer's Association, half of all Alzheimer's cases could be prevented. On this edition of Family Talk, Dr. James Dobson and his guest, Dr. Richard Furman, highlighted the different stages of Alzheimer's, and explained why we must take care of our bodies by eating the right foods, exercising, and sustaining a healthy weight. Follow God's prescription found in 1 Corinthians 6 to honor Him with your body.

In the midst of the racial tension and trauma over the last few years, and the uprising of the secular Black Lives Matter movement, Kevin McGary knew there needed to be a righteous and biblical alternative to reflect that black lives do indeed matter. After much prayer, his organization, Every Black Life Matters, was born. On this edition of Family Talk, Dr. Tim Clinton and McGary affirm God's creation of the family and the right of every black baby to be born.
