

West Virginia Radio Corporation – Martinsburg
Quarterly Community Issues and Programs Report

for Second Quarter 2023 – WEPM 93.7 FM/1340 AM

Please note: This station also features a weekday live local talk show for sports at 8 a.m. (Panhandle Sports Live!), a live, local talk show (Panhandle Live!) with a variety of local guests at 9 a.m. After these, we broadcast Talkline with Hopyy Kercheval, a talk show focused on state and national events.

This station has daily newscasts that highlight local, regional, and national news

This station also runs local sporting events and church services, as well as a second half hour of Panhandle Spotlight twice each weekend.

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Environment; Wildlife; Education; History; Aviation; Local Events

Date/Time/Duration April 02, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: -- National Conservation Training Center/Fish and Wildlife's Randy Robinson on Eagle Cam -- Eastern WV Regional Airport Nic Diehl on 100 year celebration

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Local Sports; City Government; Faith; Parks and Recreation

Date/Time/Duration: April 09, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: Hagerstown City Administrator Nicewarner on stadium project and new mayor - Hope Community Church Pastor Chris Jones on Easter - MBC Parks and Rec Director Bob Williams on park expansion, spring break plans, Summer Concert Series

Issue: City Issues; Economic Development; Growth; Housing; Recreation; Taxes; Juneteenth; Broadband Employment Equity

Date/Time/Duration:, April 16, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: -- Martinsburg Econ Development Dir Shane Farthing on Interwoven Project, Housing Availability, Frog Hollow Project - IRS Lauren Winebrenner on Upcoming Tax Deadline - HHOMA Jill Upson on Broadband Jobs for Underserved Communities and Juneteenth.

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: History; Local Events; Recycling; Municipal Issues

West Virginia Radio Corporation – Martinsburg
Quarterly Community Issues and Programs Report

for Second Quarter 2023 – WEPM 93.7 FM/1340 AM

Date/Time/Duration: April 23, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: - Director, Office of Strategic Planning & Communications for the Berkeley County Council Matthew Umstead -- County just approved a reduced levy rate. Heritage Day

Berkeley County Solid Waste Authority Chair Clint Hogbin with spring recycling events and an Entsorga update

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Agriculture; Housing Issues; Public Safety

Date/Time/Duration April 30, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: Master Gardeners - UWAYEP Penny Porter on Housing Summit - Jefferson Sheriff Tom Hansen

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Public Schools; Law Enforcement; Social Work; Homelessness

Date/Time/Duration: May 07, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: - Berkeley County Schools Superintendent Ron Stephens - Martinsburg Initiative Social Worker Noel Canellas - Pastor Tim MURM

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Faith, Philanthropy; Public Schools

Date/Time/Duration: : May 14, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: Rebecha Catlett Berkeley County Teacher of Year - Vanville Church of Christ Pastor Dan Nicksich - Awards Recap

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Economic Development; Healthcare; Trauma

Date/Time/Duration: : May 21, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

West Virginia Radio Corporation – Martinsburg
Quarterly Community Issues and Programs Report

for Second Quarter 2023 – WEPM 93.7 FM/1340 AM

Explanation: Martinsburg Economic Developer Shane Farthing - WVU Medicine Trauma Mgr Donnie Grubb

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Small Business Concerns, Growth; Public Safety

Date/Time/Duration: May 28, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: Stop DG Cascade – Hagerstown-Eastern Panhandle Planning Organization's Matt Mullenax - Morgan Sheriff KC Bohrer

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Military History; Veterans Issues; Local Musician

Date/Time/Duration: June 04, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: Phil Fravel American Military Heritage Museum's Veterans Reunion - Martinsburg Native and National Recording Artist Musician Christian Lopez

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Community Service; County/State Government; Homelessness

Date/Time/Duration: June 11, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: -- Miss West Virginia - Senator Charles Trump - Pastor Tim of the Martinsburg Union Rescue Mission

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

Issue: Public Safety; Officer Recruitment; Small Business; Supply Chain; Philanthropy; Youth Issues

Date/Time/Duration: June 18, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: Ham Radio Mark Kraham Aaron Crawford - WV Musician Philip Bowen - New MPD Chief Erin Gibbon

Program Name: Panhandle Spotlight

West Virginia Radio Corporation – Martinsburg
Quarterly Community Issues and Programs Report
for Second Quarter 2023 – WEPM 93.7 FM/1340 AM

Issue: Regional Sports; Environmental Concerns; Hazard Mitigation

Date/Time/Duration: June 25, 2023 (8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. - various segments)

Explanation: Hagerstown Baseball Press Conference - BCSolid Waste Authority Clint Hogbin with Entsorga Update - Steve Allen with Hazard Mitigation Plan