

Master

09/27/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	Laura J. Hintz, a former nurse practitioner who admitted forging prescriptions as an employee of accused “pill-mill” operator Dr. Joseph E. Oesterling, testified Tuesday she was “overwhelmed” by the number of prescriptions for the painkiller Norco written by Oesterling.
09/20/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Literacy	In September 2016, Michigan Gov. Rick Snyder signed a law commonly referred to as the “Third Grade Reading Law,” which deals with reading levels for third graders across the state.
09/13/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	Sometime earlier this year, staff from the Michigan Department of Natural Resources at Sanilac Petroglyphs Historic State Park near Cass City discovered that vandals had broken in and carved three images on the rock that holds carvings made hundreds of years ago, according to a press release from Michigan Department of Natural Resources.
09/06/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Safety	Firefighters in Fairgrove will now benefit from 12 new self-contained breathing apparatuses that have been added to their department.
08/30/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Health	Patients who choose Hills & Dales General Hospital as their destination for family medical care will soon have less of a drive to appointments.
08/23/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	Two Tuscola County men originally facing a life sentence after being charged following a woman’s fatal overdose pleaded in connection with the incident last week in Tuscola County Circuit Court.
08/16/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Marijuana	Come Sept. 18 at 7 p.m., though, at a public hearing before the Juniata Township Planning Commission in the Juniata Township Hall in Tuscola County, residents can weigh in on whether they want the township to enact an ordinance allowing regulation of such businesses, and collection of fees from them.
08/09/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Government	Tuscola County’s 40,439 registered voters will be asked to approve a property-tax increase to finance senior citizen programs at Tuesday’s election, while voters in the Millington and Vassar school districts, and Koylton Township, also weigh in on proposed tax hikes that day.
08/02/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Charity	Locals may have noticed a little more purple as they cruised down M-81 in downtown Caro Tuesday.

Master

07/26/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	A 16-year-old Fairgrove Township girl was taken into custody after police say she falsely reported that she had been abducted and sexually assaulted Friday.
07/19/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Crime	Tuscola County Sheriff's Department will now have a bird's-eye view thanks to the recent donation of a new drone.
07/12/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Marijuana	Tuscola County farm country could become home to marijuana growers licensed and regulated by officials in Juniata Township, who are studying a proposal permitting three types of medical-marijuana facilities defined under a 2016 state law. Board of Trustees members in the township, population 1,719 and located between Vassar and Caro, are considering a draft ordinance that — if approved — would allow three types of medical-marijuana facilities, including up to 15 growers permitted to raise from 500 to 1,500 marijuana plants each.
07/05/17 7am / 8am / 9am	Information	A four-month-long, $2.6 million project improving M-15 in western Tuscola County started in the town of Richville on Wednesday, and state officials advise motorists to expect traffic delays during the road construction.