Most Significant Issue-Responsive Programming
3rd Quarter, 2023

Issue: Foreclosed Upon Pets

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 1st and Sunday, July 2nd, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: "10 minutes of a 60-minute program"

Some pets come from loving families that have no choice but to relinquish their animals to animal control authorities due to home foreclosure. Some rescued pets come from owners who have passed away or due to severe illness can no longer care for their pet. Other animals come from less responsible pet owners who have neglected, abused and/or abandoned their pets.

Upon rescue, many of these animals are in need of medical attention, appropriate food, and socialization with people and other animals. The Foreclosed Upon Pets Inc (FUPI) approach to animal rescue is a proactive alternative to animal cruelty and abandonment. Holly Marquardt, Board Member for Foreclosed Upon Pets, discussed the organization's 15th Annual Fundraiser and LV Aviators Game fundraising initiative.

Issue: National Alzheimer's and Brain Awareness Month

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 1st and Sunday, July 2nd, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: "10 minutes of a 60-minute program"

June marks National Alzheimer's and Brain Awareness Month, an opportunity to reflect on the importance of brain health and help raise awareness for a disease that affects millions of Americans nationwide. In the U.S., an estimated 6.7 million adults aged 65 and older live with Alzheimer's dementia, and of that population, roughly half will develop agitation.

Dr. George Grossberg treats geriatric patients who suffer from a range of neurocognitive disorders, including Alzheimer's disease. His areas of expertise include late-life depression, delirium, psychiatry in the nursing home setting, and geriatric psychopharmacology. Dr. Grossberg discussed new treatment breakthrough options for agitation in Alzheimer's dementia for National Alzheimer's and Brain Awareness Month.

Issue: Online Impersonation Scams

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 1st and Sunday, July 2nd, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: "10 minutes of a 60-minute program"

"Impersonation" or "imposter" scams were reported as the most common tactic used to perpetrate scams, according to the Better Business Bureau (BBB). These happen when a scammer pretends to be a trusted company and reaches out to consumers to try to access sensitive information such as social security numbers, bank information, or account details. In 2022, fake order confirmations accounted for more than 50% of Amazon impersonation scams reported by Amazon customers.

Scott Knapp, Director of Worldwide Buyer Risk Prevention for Amazon, gave tips and advice about impersonation scams and other online fraud, especially prevalent around Amazon Prime Day.

Issue: Nevada Partnership for Homeless Youth (NPHY) Education Drive

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 8th and Sunday, July 9th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “20 minutes of a 60-minute program”

There are more than 14,000 students experiencing homelessness in Clark County schools. These young people do not have easy access to school supplies and miss out on the excitement of back-to-school shopping. Most do not have the opportunity to play sports or partake in extracurricular or graduation activities given their costs. To change this and provide the support these youth need to thrive in school and fund activities and education necessities throughout the school year, the nonprofit Nevada Partnership for Homeless Youth (NPHY) launched the 2023 NPHY Education Drive.

Arash Ghafoori, CEO of the Nevada Partnership for Homeless Youth (NPHY), talked about youth resources, services, and their annual back-to-school Education Drive.

Issue: Project Access Back-to-School Event

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 8th and Sunday, July 9th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “10 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Project Access is committed to providing vital on-site health, education, and employment services to families, children, and seniors living in affordable and workforce housing communities. This year, they hope to serve more than 27,000 people across 14 states. Their on-site resource centers become a one-stop-shop to give families the support, programs, and connections they need to thrive.

Katherine De La Cruz, Resident Services Coordinator, and Jose Cuevas, Regional Manager for Project Access, discussed their affordable housing initiatives and Back-to-School Event.

Issue: Glioblastoma (GBM) Awareness Day

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 15th and Sunday, July 16th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “10 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Glioblastoma (GBM) is the most aggressive form of brain cancer. About 15,000 cases of GBM are diagnosed in the U.S. each year. The median age of newly diagnosed GBM patients is 65. Unfortunately, early detection of GBM is nearly impossible and there is only a 5-10% five-year survival rate for newly diagnosed GBM patients.

Dr. Rimas Lukas, Associate Professor of Neurology at Northwestern Medicine and Jason Tharp, award-winning author and patient living with GBM, discussed symptoms and warning signs of the disease for GBM Awareness Day.

Issue: Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) in First Responders

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 15th and Sunday, July 16th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “10 minutes of a 60-minute program”

First responders face challenging and dangerous situations on a daily basis, with more than 80 percent of them reporting that they experience traumatic events on the job. The public safety industry faces the highest incidence of mental health issues as a result of their profession, with roughly 1 in 3 first responders developing post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), compared to the general population incidence of 1 in 5 people. While their commitment to public safety is commendable, the toll on their mental health cannot be ignored.

Kristen Ziman, Former Police Chief of the Aurora IL Police Department and a speaker, author, leader and change agent in the law enforcement profession, and Isabella Giannini, Director of Customer Loyalty and Head of Axon Aid, spoke about PTSD and resources for first responders.

Issue: Monsoon Season Contractor Scams

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 22nd and Sunday, July 23rd, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “15 minutes of a 60-minute program”

When monsoon season arrives, so does potentially dangerous weather that can cause damage to homes. Oftentimes after a natural disaster, illegal contractors take advantage of residents who have damage to their homes. The Nevada State Contractors Board wants the public, especially vulnerable senior residents, to be aware of the warning signs of unscrupulous contractors, like door-to-door solicitors with high-pressure sales tactics who try to put consumers on the spot to sign a contract.

The Nevada State Contractors Board encourages residents to hire licensed contractors for any home repair work. Jennifer Lewis, spokesperson for the Nevada State Contractors Board, talked about monsoon season and how to avoid related scams from non-licensed contractors.

Issue: National Hire a Veteran Day

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 22nd and Sunday, July 23rd, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “5 minutes of a 60-minute program”

July 25 is National Hire a Veteran Day, and this year, DAV (Disabled American Veterans) urges employers to take notice of veterans and the unique qualities they offer the workplace. Nearly 4 million veterans have a service-connected disability and are among the most resilient members of society. DAV is committed to connecting veterans, as well as transitioning active-duty service members and spouses, to meaningful employment opportunities. In return, employers are connected to a valuable workforce.

Ryan Burgos, National Employment Director for Disabled American Veterans (DAV), talked about the importance of considering veteran employees for National Hire a Veteran Day.

Issue: Driverless EV Car Delivery

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 29th and Sunday, July 30th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “25 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Halo.Car, the leading provider of on-demand electric vehicles (EVs), announced the removal of safety drivers from its remote-piloted vehicles in a world-first launch. The driverless launch comes following four years of testing where safety drivers were present inside Halo.Car’s vehicles during remote piloting.

Anand Nandakumar, Founder & CEO of Halo.Car, walked us through their new driverless car delivery services and innovative headquarters in Downtown Las Vegas.

Issue: American Stroke Association Awareness on Stroke

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, July 29th and Sunday, July 30th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “10 minutes of a 60-minute program”

The signs of stroke can sometimes be subtle and hard to recognize, so educating yourself and others is key to noticing and responding quickly. A good first step is familiarizing yourself with the acronym BE FAST, which stands for Balance, Eyes, Face, Arm, Speech and Time. The sudden onset of any of these signs could mean that someone is having a stroke, so it’s important to BE FAST and call 911 right away when you suspect a stroke.

Dr. Sheryl Martin-Schild, Stroke Medical Director at Touro Infirmary, and stroke survivor Meghan McKee talked about signs of stroke and what to do if you witness them.

Issue: Boys & Girls Clubs of Southern Nevada School Programming

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, August 5th and Sunday, August 6th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “20 minutes of a 60-minute program”

The Boys & Girls clubs of Southern Nevada boasts 13 clubhouses throughout Las Vegas, Henderson and North Las Vegas. Their mission is to enable young people, especially those who need us most, to reach their full potential as productive, caring, responsible citizens. Focused on three main impact areas – Academic Success, Healthy Lifestyles and Good Character & Leadership – Clubhouses provide a safe, supportive place to go (both physically and mentally), life-changing opportunities, and the chance for youth to learn, grow, and become who they want to be.

Andy Bischel, president and CEO of Boys & Girls Clubs of Southern Nevada, discussed how they help kids cultivate success and announced back-to-school programming for the new year.

Issue: PACT Act Veteran Scams

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, August 5th and Sunday, August 6th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “10 minutes of a 60-minute program”

The new PACT Act law is expanding access to VA health care benefits for more than five million veterans – and their survivors – exposed to burn pits, Agent Orange, and other toxic substances. Unfortunately, nearly two-thirds of service members are unaware that they can receive free assistance with these benefits through the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), according to a new AARP report. And 1 in 10 veterans contacted with an offer to assist in enrolling in these benefits say the offer guaranteed a lucrative benefit, which is a telltale sign of a scam and could leave our nation's injured heroes susceptible to fraud. □

Troy Broussard, Senior Advisor of AARP Veterans and Military Families Initiative and U.S. Army Desert Storm Veteran, spoke about how to avoid potential scams targeting veterans in the wake of the PACT Act.

Issue: Shade Tree Once Upon a Gala and Luggage Drive

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, August 12th and Sunday, August 13th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “20 minutes of a 60-minute program”

The Shade Tree, a 24-hour accessible emergency shelter and resource center designed to specifically meet the needs of domestic violence and human trafficking survivors and their children, was seeking donations of new and gently used luggage for its clients, who often arrive at the shelter with little or nothing, including a reliable bag in which to carry their belongings. Many of their clients arrive carrying everything they have in trash bags. Restoring dignity and self-reliance is a vital part of the shelter's mission that begins when clients enter, is built upon through programming and services while they are in shelter and is equally important when clients are ready to leave and start anew.

Gina Marie Strong, Director of Development for The Shade Tree of Las Vegas, spoke about the organization's work with domestic violence and human trafficking survivors, their luggage drive, and upcoming Once Upon a Gala annual fundraising event.

Issue: Prostate Cancer Care Teams

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, August 12th and Sunday, August 13th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “10 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Prostate cancer is the most commonly diagnosed cancer in men in the U.S. In 2020, an estimated 1.4 million men were diagnosed with prostate cancer, and about 375,000 died from the disease worldwide. Rates of advanced prostate cancer diagnoses have risen 4.5% annually since 2011. While prostate cancer affects men of all races, Black men bear a disproportionate burden of cases and deaths with approximately two to four times as likely to die from prostate cancer than white men.

Dr. David Morris, President of Urology Associates and Dr. Benjamin Garmezzy, Assistant Director of Genitourinary Research for the Sarah Cannon Research Institute at Tennessee Oncology, discussed the benefits of having a well-rounded care team for prostate cancer, including a urologist and an oncologist.

Issue: National Minority Donor Awareness Month

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, August 19th and Sunday, August 20th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “15 minutes of a 60-minute program”

August is National Minority Donor Awareness month and there is a critical need for more diverse donor registrations. In the US, there are over 100,000 Americans waiting for a lifesaving organ transplant; 60% of them are from multicultural communities. In Nevada, there are currently 640 people total waiting for a lifesaving transplant.

Adriana Connelly, Multicultural Outreach Liaison for Nevada Donor Network and Ramon Del Campo, City of Henderson police officer and living kidney donor, spoke about the importance of organ donation among multi-cultural communities. Ramon donated a kidney to his mom, indirectly through a donor chain.

Issue: Aid for AIDS of Nevada (AFAN) Black & White Party

Show: Audacy Radio Public Affairs Program

Date: Saturday, August 19th and Sunday, August 20th, 2023

Time: 5:00 am, 6:00 am, 6:30 am, 7:30am

Duration: “15 minutes of a 60-minute program”

Aid for AIDS of Nevada’s (AFAN) 37th annual Black & White Party, in partnership with Las Vegas Transitional Grant Area’s (LVTGA) Love Live Campaign, is one of the city’s most anticipated fundraising event each year. As one of AFAN’s biggest fundraising events of the year, proceeds provide support and advocacy for adults and children living with and affected.
