

WJGV 1ST QUARTER REPORT FOR 2012

The following program list represents broadcast by WJGV which have provided significant treatment toward Putnam county Issues.

Aired County Commission Meetings of the quarter when not airing other local PA or Holiday Specials. The public was allowed form their homes the only broadcast viewing of the Putnam County Commission Meeting. Although the commission meeting does air on the county's cable channel, it is not during a time convenient for public viewing in our opinion as does WJGV and whereas the cable channel only airs the meeting just 4 times, WJGV airs the meeting up to 10 times for viewer during a prime time period for viewership informational needs. During this quarter the public affairs segments was aired on weeknights beginning at 10PM. Normal segments are 2 hours in length.

* Aired Tea Party Political Debates and Town Meetings held for March 12th, County Commission Debate and the Sheriff's Debate of Feb. 13th periodically during Public Segment 10pm – 12 Pm weeknights. Most were not even covered by local newspaper. There were 10 candidates in the Sheriff race.

*Aired Primary Election Results of County on Jan. 31th and replayed several nights. WJGV had many local interviews with people running for local offices.

*Aired Palatka Black History Month Special of several years ago with the City of Palatka's Vice Mayor, Mary Lawson Brown. Brown's family has been a part of the history of Palatka for some 100 years. Her grandmother was the first licensed black funeral home director in Florida and was also a nurse under Dr. Long that resided in Palatka for many years serving both the black and white community. The program was aired Feb. 1st-4th at 7 PM.

*Aired also as part of Black History Month the story of Azusa Street. A film of over an hour on how the small black Azusa Street mission was born and how it grew to the many different denominations that it has today having with some 1.7 million followers. Aired Feb. 7th at 7 PM, and also on Feb. 9th – 11th at 10 PM.
