

WJGV 1ST QUARTER REPORT FOR 2013

The following program list represents broadcast by WJGV which have provided significant treatment toward Putnam county Issues.

Aired County Commission Meetings of the quarter when not airing other local PA or Holiday Specials. The public was allowed form their homes the only broadcast viewing of the Putnam County Commission and Palatka City Commission Meetings of the Quarter . Although the commission meeting does air on the county's cable channel, it is not during a time convenient for public viewing in our opinion as does WJGV and whereas the cable channel only airs the meeting just 1 time, WJGV airs the meeting up to 10 times for viewer during a prime time period for viewership informational needs. During this quarter the public affairs segments was aired on weeknights beginning at 9PM. Normal segments are 2 hours in length. The Palatka City Commission had several major topics on its agenda including Waterfront Development of City Property and attempts to change the Alcohol Ordinance for downtown Palatka.

*Aired Palatka Black History Month Special of several years ago with the City of Palatka's Vice Mayor, Mary Lawson Brown. Brown's family has been a part of the history of Palatka for some 100 years. Her grandmother was the first licensed black funeral home director in Florida and was also a nurse under Dr. Long that resided in Palatka for many years serving both the black and white community. See program log for times it was aired pre-empting the PA above. Aired several times during the first week of February.

*Aired also as part of Black History Month the story of Azusa Street. A film of over an hour on how the small black Azusa Street mission was born and how it grew to the many different Pentecostal Denominations in America having with some 1.7 million followers. See program logs for airing.

*As a historical and cultural presentation WJGV played several Easter Specials. The silent film of 1927, which is a film classic, was aired several times during the Easter week. WJGV also aired the Classic "Davey and Goliath Easter Special" and WJGV's own presentation of the Easter Story supporting the Christian-Judeo Heritage in America.
