On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur takes a close look at some amazing details from the Easter story. You won’t want to miss hearing the perspective of the witnesses who saw the events unfold that day.

Series: An Uncompromising Life

Monday, April 10, 2023 – “An Uncompromising Life” (#1)

Have you ever been tempted to fudge some numbers on your tax return, or embellish the truth on a job application? No big deal ... everyone cuts corner now and then and it's pretty much standard practice, right? But the question is still ... what does God say about compromise? John MacArthur's going to help you answer that question on GRACE TO YOU as he kicks off a series titled, An Uncompromising Life. It's a compelling look at the life of Daniel.

Tuesday, April 11, 2023 - “An Uncompromising Life” (#2)

A. W. Tozer once said, “We are not diplomats but prophets, and our message is not a compromise but an ultimatum.” So, who are the prophets — who's Tozer talking about? He's talking about you if you're a Christian. And what is it you can't compromise? God's Truth. So, what tempts you to compromise on truth? And when you are tempted, how do you respond? John MacArthur answers those questions when he shows you the amazing blessing that comes from An Uncompromising Life—the title of his current study, here on GRACE TO YOU.

Wednesday, April 12, 2023 - “The Consequences of an Uncompromising Life, Part 1” (#1)

During the American Civil War one soldier wanted to improve his odds of survival, so he dressed in a blue coat, like the Northern army and gray pants, like the Southern troops. What happened? He got shot from both directions. Compromise can be deadly. Are you wearing a patchwork spiritual uniform—a blend of God's standards and your standards—and think that's a safe way to live? How committed are you to honoring God? Tune in for GRACE TO YOU, when John MacArthur helps you see what it means to live An Uncompromising Life.

Thursday, April 13, 2023 - “The Consequences of an Uncompromising Life, Part 1” (#2)

Have you seen the movie Chariots of Fire? It tells the story of Eric Liddell, a world-class sprinter—and devout Christian—who, in the 1924 Olympics, dropped out of his best event when he realized the race was scheduled for a Sunday. While some certainly criticized him, Liddell decided his convictions were more important than Olympic glory. On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur helps you cultivate that sort of conviction as he continues his study titled, An Uncompromising Life.

Friday, April 14, 2023 - “The Consequences of an Uncompromising Life, Part 2”

It's said that man is incurably religious, always worshipping something. If that's true, here's a question you need to consider. How do you know if you're worshipping the wrong god? On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur looks at the lives of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego and how they faced pressure to cave to society and worship a false god and how you can learn from their example.

We usually hear the term "flip-flopper" around election season. It's meant to disparage politicians willing to change their position on issues—in other words, to flip-flop—if it helped them politically. Of course, you don't have to be in politics to flip-flop on your beliefs. So how do you stand on convictions, under light pressure and heavy pressure? When consequences are minor or serious? Find out the answers on the next GRACE TO YOU with John MacArthur.

Friday, April 21, 2023 - "Daniel in the Lions' Den"

There's a phrase you've no doubt heard at some point or another. When someone must face a tough crowd, they're often said to be heading into . . . the lions' den. If you never knew where that phrase came from, you will understand as you study along on the next edition of GRACE TO YOU. John MacArthur will focus on the commitment Daniel had to the Lord and how even in the face of death he demonstrated qualities God wants you and I to have—qualities that bear witness to . . . An Uncompromising Life.

Tuesday, May 2, 2023 - “The How, When, and Why of Creation, Part 2” (#2)

It’s clear that science has answered a lot of questions about how this world works. But has science—particularly evolutionary theory—really figured out how the world got here in the first place? Find out on the next GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur continues his study called . . . The Battle for the Beginning.

Wednesday, May 3, 2023 – “Creation Day 2” (#1)

An article in The Washington Post once drew attention to activists who wanted parts of biblical creation taught in public schools. Scientists and teachers opposed the idea because they said that creation is based on theology, not science. As one educator put it “anyone who criticizes evolution is trying to undercut sound science education.” The question is what is sound science? On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur shows you biblical answers to those questions.

Tuesday, May 9, 2023 – “Creation Day 4” (#1)

A prominent biologist has said, “Evolution is doubted only by those who are ignorant of the evidence or [resist the evidence], because of emotional blocks or plain bigotry.” That’s a typical view today from scientists. Monday, May 22, 2023 – “Understanding the Sabbath” (#1)

When you hear the 4th commandment—honor the Sabbath and keep it holy—have you wondered how that command applies today? After all, the Sabbath is the seventh day, the church today worships on Sunday, the first day. Those questions are answered on then next GRACE TO YOU when John MacArthur begins his study titled The Sabbath and Why We Worship on Sunday.

Tuesday, May 23, 2023 – “Understanding the Sabbath” (#2)

For many Christians, Sunday is the new Sabbath. The day is reserved for worship at church and little else, no work, travel, or leisure. Others say Jesus overruled Old Testament law . . . which means Sabbath regulations don’t apply—Sunday is just like any other day. Then there are those who believe all the Old Testament Sabbath laws should still be kept on Saturday. So . . . how do you know what’s right? Perhaps you’ve seen the movie Chariots of Fire or heard Eric Liddell’s story. During the 1924 Olympics, Liddell dropped out of the 100-meter sprint—his best event—because the race was being held on a Sunday. The question is, was Liddell’s decision a personal conviction, or was it a matter of obedience to Scripture? Bottom line, is working, traveling, or enjoying leisure activities on Sundays forbidden in the Bible? John MacArthur helps answer that question on GRACE TO YOU as he continues his series, The Sabbath and Why We Worship on Sunday.

They were taught by the same teacher, lived for three years with the same small group of friends, yet they turned down two vastly different paths. One became a pillar of the early church, the other, history’s most notorious villain. On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur shows you why one stayed loyal to Christ while the other betrayed him. Tune in to hear more of John’s study on Lessons for a Modern-Day Disciple.

Friday, June 9, 2023 – “Restoring Worship of the Holy Spirit” (#1)

Perhaps you’ve wished you could have been one of the apostles. For three years, they spent nearly all their waking hours with Christ. They talked with Him, ate meals beside Him, saw Him calm a storm. Considering all that, it might surprise you to know that it’s possible for you—living more than 2 millennia after the cross—to have a closer relationship with Jesus than the apostles had when Christ walked on earth. Find out when John continues his study called Lessons for a Modern-Day Disciple.

Series: Salvation Survey

Monday, June 19, 2023 – “Empty Words” (#1)

Matthew Henry said, “it ought to be our chief and constant care to make our calling and election sure, to secure a title to heaven’s happiness, and then get the evidence of it.” Sadly, there are many today who are certain they’ve received salvation when, the fact is, they’re deceived. Listen to GRACE TO YOU this week when John MacArthur walks you through his study titled, Salvation Survey and what the Bible says is the difference between true and false Christians.

Tuesday, June 20, 2023 – “Empty Words” (#2)

In baseball, even the best hitters can be tricked by a good pitcher. And you know, even a sharp person can be fooled about salvation—convinced he’s a Christian when, really, he’s not. So how can you make sure that’s not you—how can you be certain you’re going to heaven? What are the marks of a true Christian? On the next GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur looks at all those crucial issues in his series titled Salvation Survey.

Wednesday, June 21, 2023 – “Empty Hearts” (#1)

You hear the gospel and pray the sinner’s prayer. You faithfully serve your church. And you tell others about Christ. Yet one day, you stand before the God you claim to know and find out, to your horror, that He doesn’t know you! How could that possibly happen? Tune in for GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur walks you through a self-examination that will help you know whether you’re saved—or self-deceived.

Thursday, June 22, 2023 – “Empty Hearts” (#2)

It has been said the easiest person to deceive is yourself. And there is no deception with greater consequences than to think you’re a Christian when, truth is, you’re not. That’s a deception that not only affects your life today, but it also determines your eternity. John MacArthur is helping you be certain about your relationship with Christ in his current study on GRACE TO YOU. He calls it . . . Salvation Survey.

UPDATED PROGRAM FOR JUNE 23

Series: The Rapture and the Day of the Lord

Monday, June 26, 2023 – “What Happens to Christians Who Die, Part 1” (#1)

It’s not just Christians who want to talk about the end of the world and life after death. Yet, even with all the talk, it’s clear the vast number of voices have only caused more confusion. On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur begins a series that will help clear up confusion you may have about the afterlife, prophecy, and end-times events. Tune in for this series on The Rapture and the Day of the Lord.

Tuesday, June 27, 2023 – “What Happens to Christians Who Die, Part 1” (#2)

You’ve probably felt the pain of a loved one’s death. You might also know the sadness of losing someone who never put his faith in Jesus Christ. But can you imagine being a Christian who’s taken up in the rapture and, once you’re in heaven, not seeing the Christians you once knew? That may sound like a foolish question, but the early church struggled with similar doubts. Be listening to GRACE TO YOU when John MacArthur helps you understand the truth about The Rapture and the Day of the Lord.

Wednesday, June 28, 2023 – “What Happens to Christians Who Die, Part 2” (#1)

Anticipation has been referred to as “the electricity of life.” . . . it empowers . . . it serves as a compelling motivator. You’ve no doubt seen this in your own life as you looked forward to your first date . . . an important meeting . . . your wedding day. Anticipation changes how you live like few things do . . . you plan, make decisions, alter your normal routines when big events loom on the horizon. So, how should your life change as you anticipate death . . . and what comes after it? John MacArthur answers that question today on GRACE TO YOU, as he continues his powerful study . . . The Rapture and the Day of the Lord.

Thursday, June 29, 2023 – “What Happens to Christians Who Die, Part 2” (#2)

It makes a lot of sense to plan for your future by having enough life insurance, setting up a retirement plan, or by saving for your kids’ college education. But imagine if you had to plan for the next hundred years or—incredibly—for all eternity! What would those plans look like? On GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur shows you how to be sure those plans are already taken care of. It’s part of his compelling study from 1 Thessalonians 4, The Rapture and the Day of the Lord.

Friday, June 30, 2023 – “The Day of the Lord, Part 1” (#1)

The Bible speaks clearly about Christ’s gathering up His church—known as the rapture—and, as clearly as it speaks of this event, it also spells out the future, final judgment of the ungodly. For some, judgment is a fearful idea but for others, there’s nothing to worry about. John MacArthur looks at First Thessalonians 4
