Radio Program in alphabetical order for the SECOND QUARTER, APRIL 1 – JUNE 30, 2015:

CONVERSATIONS:

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Allergies and Cleanliness

Guest: Dr. Bill Miller

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 4/5/15

Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.

Summary: Up to 50 million Americans, including eight percent of children, have some type of allergy. For me it's cats... and spring. Allergies account for the loss of an estimated 2 million school days per year and over 4 million missed work days. And the answer to this apparent disconnect may lie in the emerging science of the hologenome and our contemporary fastidious cleanliness compared to prior generations.

Compliance issues covered: Health/Culture/Wellness

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Holistic Dentistry

Guest: Dr. David Villareal

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 4/5/15

Time Aired: 10:15 – 10:30 p.m.

Summary: I had no idea that dental fillings in my own teeth might not be compatible with my body and the consequences could be affecting my overall health. Dr Villareal, an internationally renowned leader in holistic dentistry, combines his knowledge of biology with a practice in dentistry to help us better understand that what begins in our mouths doesn't stop at the neck - the mouth is the gateway to our overall health and impacts nearly every aspect of our bodies.

Compliance issues covered: Health/Technology

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Understanding Islam

Guest: Mohammad Rehman

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 4/5/15

Time Aired: 10:30 – 10:45 p.m.

Summary: Following September 11, 2001, author Mohammad Rehman felt he needed to examine Islam to better understand what his religion really stood for. Rehman believed that violence and terrorism did fit with the teachings of the Quran, but it wasn't until he traveled to all fifty Islamic countries that he realized not a single country could truly call itself an Islamic state.

Compliance issues covered: Religion/Politics/Tolerance

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Where Will We Be In 50 Years?

Guest: Gil Hahn

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 4/5/15

Time Aired: 10:45 – 11:00 p.m.

Summary: Gil Hahn is an attorney, historian and author. A graduate of Dartmouth College, Vanderbilt University School of Law and Columbia University's Business School, he previously worked in law firms in Washington, D.C., Philadelphia and New York City. He has also worked in the financial services industry. Four Score and Four is his debut title. Hahn has worked part time demonstrating and explaining the operation of 19th century industrial equipment at the Hagley Museum, which preserves the original DuPont gunpowder factory.

Compliance issues covered: Discrimination/Human Rights

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: ISIS in United States?

Guest: Dr. William Forstchen

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 4/12/15

Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.

Summary: Dr. Forstchen is a New York Times bestselling author. His book Day of Wrath sheds a critical light on the ruthless offensive conducted by ISIS as well as its direct threat to bring their campaign of terror to the continental United States. Dr. Forstchen predicts that ISIS will finally launch a major blow within the United States hitting soft targets within our borders. With large military in WA, this could be an issue close to home.

Compliance issues covered: Government/Terrorism

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Secrets of Family Business

Guest: Henry Hutcheson

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 4/12/15

Guest: Dr. Mehrdad Ayati & Dr. Arezou Azarani

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 4/19/15

Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.

Summary: Washington's population is aging. We always hear that 'with age comes wisdom.' So if we combine wisdom with the right attitude, can it help slow down the aging process? 'Yes,' say husband and wife team, Dr. Ayati and Dr. Azarani. In their latest book, Paths to Healthy Aging, they provide a simple guide that shows us how to create alternative road maps to a happier, healthier and more productive life.

Compliance issues covered: Health/Family/Aging Issues/Gender Specific

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Role Models for Children

Guest: Yvette Araujo

Length: 12:29

Date Aired: 4/19/15

Time Aired: 10:15 – 10:30 p.m.

Summary: Yvette Araujo, a woman of Cuban background, grew up under the guidance of a mother that reminded her that no matter the task, regardless of skin color of store bought dolls, a woman of Cuban descent could be whatever she wanted. While we spent the winter cheering for Seattle football, Yvette took time to wonder if idolizing sports and movie stars is the best way to set realistic role models for youth.

Compliance issues covered: Minorities/Education/Communication/Youth

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: The Modern American Woman

Guest: James Wellington

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 4/19/15

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 4/19/15

Time Aired: 10:45 – 11:00 p.m.

Summary: Helps us journey deeper than bullet-point Christianity - teaches us how to unmask the shallowness and emptiness of cultural spirituality - shows us how to live connected to God. If you long to uncover the secret to cultivating "God-space" amidst the busyness of life, then prepare to experience the divine movement from information towards transformation. Discover how to free your soul, moment by moment, in the midst of a frantic, noisy world.

Compliance issues covered: Religion/Spirituality/Family/Marriage/Culture

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: How Free Is Our Free Thinking?

Guest: Zev Chafets

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 4/26/15

Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.

Summary: There's a strange juxtaposition where college campuses are the stronghold of wild thought - a playground for the mind, yet this same field of free expression also comes with touchy limits - we're often running into headlines where ideology, no matter how free in thought, touches a negative nerve and creates controversy - specifically somewhere like progressive Seattle.

Compliance issues covered: Government/Education/Communication/Culture

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Nursing

Guest: Alexandra Robbins

Length: 12:31

Date Aired: 4/26/15

Time Aired: 10:15 – 10:30 p.m.

Summary: Just as WA state received an injection of money to train nurses back in August of 2014, it's time to find out more about what goes on in the nursing industry. Author Alexandra Robbins, immersed herself in the nursing world and uncovered quite the findings. Everything including bullying, sisterhood, stereotypes, physical assault, gossip, hazing, depression, 'Murses', addiction...was Nurse Jackie really that far off from reality?

Compliance issues covered: Labor/Health/Wellness/Gender Issues

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Football Injuries

Guest: David Rutherford

Length: 12:31

Date Aired: 4/26/15

Time Aired: 10:30 – 10:45 p.m.

Summary: David Rutherford is the author of The Wright Stuff, chronicling the struggles of Victor J. Wright, a quadriplegic who was injured playing football. Rutherford discusses the pros and cons of youth athletics and the risks they can have for families.

Compliance issues covered: Family/Sports/Health

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Mental Toughness

Guest: Steve Siebold

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 4/26/15

Time Aired: 10:45 – 11:00 p.m.

Summary: Siebold tackles America's obesity crisis from a mental and physical perspective. His ideas on mental toughness to stick to a diet and exercise plan are influential to help with weight loss.

Compliance issues covered: Nutrition/Health/Education/Psychology

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: The Evolution of Racism

Guest: Jim Grimsley

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/3/15

Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.

Summary: This book, How I Shed My Skin comes just as 2015 welcomes the arrival of many landmark Civil Rights movement anniversaries: the 50th Anniversary of the Voting Rights Act, the 51st Anniversary of the Civil Rights Act and the 61st Anniversary of Brown vs. the Board of Education! We explore the racism of the south past and present and how far apart Seattle is from the culture that has so changed in the last 60 years.

Compliance issues covered: Culture/Aging/Education

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: The Theology and Science of Mortality

Guest: Ronald Walter

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/3/15

Time Aired: 10:15 – 10:30 p.m.

Summary: Death is one of those things that is experienced differently for all of us through the filters we live our lives. Often the experience we witness when one dies isn't properly prepared for us, or our predetermined notions get in the way. It's one thing to witness someone dying, but Colonel Walter explores another facet - how we prepare to face our own mortality. He's the author of "Theory of Everything: Franciscan Faith and Reason". Mr. Walter explores the journey through philosophy, theology and science with our own mortality.

Compliance issues covered: Spirituality/Aging/Health/Government/Culture

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Police Brutality

Guest: Dr. Jay Richards

Length: 12:31

Date Aired: 5/3/15

Time Aired: 10:30 – 10:45 p.m.

Summary: Dr. Richards works with Seattle University and University of Washington to identify dangerous offenders and risks to public safety. He discusses the current state of policing in America and if police brutality overshadows bigger safety risks in society.

Compliance issues covered: Community/Crime/Economy/Psychology

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: The Bad Breath Bible

Guest: Dr. Harold Katz

Length: 12:31

Date Aired: 5/3/15

Time Aired: 10:45 – 11:00 p.m.

Summary: How do the foods we eat affect our health and wellness? Your breath can say a lot about how your body processes the food you eat.

Compliance issues covered: Health/Nutrition

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Raising Toddlers

Guest: Bunmi Latidan

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/10/15

Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.

Summary: After becoming a sensation on Twitter, Bunmi Latidan decided to write a book on the experience of raising children at a difficult time in their lives: Toddlers. She provides a candid, fun look at what we need to expect after those first couple of years. Just in time for Mother's Day, Bunmi offers suggestions for what to get the mother in your life - and tulips from Skagit Valley isn't quite the right gift!

Compliance issues covered: Family/Youth/Health

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Marriage in Modern Life

Guest: Dr. Anne Malec

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/10/15

Time Aired: 10:15 – 10:30 p.m.

Summary: As our rules for marriage evolve, so does our conflict resolution. These tools have proven to help avoid emotional and physical disconnection. Things like poor communication, unmet or unreasonable expectations, feeling unheard, neglected, or resentful are focused on.

Compliance issues covered: Health/Family/Marriage

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Craft Beer in America

Guest: Melissa Heim

Length: 12:31

Date Aired: 5/10/15

Time Aired: 10:30 – 10:45 p.m.

Summary: Melissa is one of the few female brewers in the country. She brings perspective on craft beer in America, but also how gender roles are changing in the spirits industry.

Compliance issues covered: Business/Economics/Gender Roles

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Invasion of the Overworld

Guest: Mark Cheverton

Length: 12:31

Date Aired: 5/10/15

Time Aired: 10:45 – 11:00 p.m.

Summary: Cheverton uses real life experiences to show that cyber-bullying is a real problem that parents need to be aware of.

Compliance issues covered: Family/Technology

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Breast Cancer Research

Guest: David Richart

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/17/15

Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.

Summary: The Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure® Series is the world's largest and most successful education and fundraising event for breast cancer ever created. In 2015, they will have 16 international Races in 8 countries with more than 150 Races globally. International Komen Race for the Cure events are unique in each country, however they all share the common goal of a world without breast cancer. Just as we hope to be settling into summer, our very own race for the cure hits the Seattle Center on June 7th.

Compliance issues covered: Community/Health/Wellness

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Communicating About Death

Guest: Heather Lende

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/17/15

Time Aired: 10:15 – 10:30 p.m.

Summary: Many of us seem to spend too much of our lives worrying about how we're going to spend too much of our lives! What better place to look for answers on what may make a good measure of achievement than with someone who looks back at lives when they are over and tries to sum things up in a small statement. Heather is a writer from the PNW who makes her living talking about the dead.

Compliance issues covered: Aging/Family/Communication

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Finding Religious Middle Ground

Guest: Brian Kenneth Swain

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/17/15

Time Aired: 10:30 – 10:45 p.m.

Summary: Swain discusses religion and atheism and how to bridge the spiritual gap.

Compliance issues covered: Religion/Tolerance

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Cooking with Cannabis

Guest: Karin Lazarus

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/17/15

Time Aired: 10:45 – 11:00 p.m.

Summary: With marijuana legal in WA state, the many uses of cannabis are a hot topic. Lazarus owns a bakery in Colorado and discusses the benefits of cooking with cannabis.

Compliance issues covered: Food/Health/Law

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Cyber-bullying

Guest: Mark Cheverton

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/24/15

Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.

Summary: In the history of child development, the widespread participation in the use of video games is not only a relatively new phenomenon, but a widespread one, too. Ninety-seven percent of children and adolescents in the United States play at least one hour per day, according to the American Psychological Association. Naturally, many parents and educators worry that this game time is subtracting from healthy skills children should be developing, such as reading. We in the NW are the source of many of these games, and Mark has found a way to bridge the gap between gaming while tackling issues that are tough for kids like bullying.

Compliance issues covered: Family/Youth/Education/Communication/Technology

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Social Media

Guest: Gal Borenstein

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/24/15

Time Aired: 10:15 – 10:30 p.m.

Summary: Social media is here to stay, it's our new go-to way to communicate, not just directly with one another, but as mouthpiece to broadcast your thoughts, feelings, and insecurities to a public forum - one that often times is permanent! Even when posts are impermanent, it can take only seconds for an overshare to become the hot topic. That's only on a private level where the shame can be damaging. What happens when we take it to a much larger level?

Compliance issues covered: Communication/Business/Technology/Economy

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Outdoor Adventures

Guest: Luke Talbot

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/24/15

Time Aired: 10:30 – 10:45 p.m.

Summary: Talbot, owner of Seattle's Compass Outdoor Adventures, talks about how important it is to use summer as a time for kids to explore and get outside. There are many benefits to turning off the TV and getting outside.

Compliance issues covered: Health/Family/Fitness/Tourism

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Coffee Lovers

Guest: Shelly Sekki

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/24/15

Time Aired: 10:45 – 11:00 p.m.

Summary: In a city like Seattle, coffee is king. Turns out, that's the way most American cities are powered now – by caffeine. What are the positives and negatives to our caffeine addiction?

Compliance issues covered: Health/Nutrition/Culture

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Meditation

Guest: James Connor

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/31/15

Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.

Summary: James Connor left a super successful advertising agency that he started to find serenity in meditation practice. James has a fascinating book, The Superyogi Scenario, seems appropriate for culture's current infatuation with the super hero - usually super is the key, it's someone who has a power beyond the limits of what we think humans are capable. Outside of Buddhist writings, I can't think of another example of the story where a man or woman uses the power of practice to transcend our mortal capabilities and become a superhero. Now as fun as this all sounds, the practice I speak of is rooted traditionally in ideas like yoga and meditation.

Compliance issues covered: Business/Health/Wellness/Spirituality

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Wild Felids

Guest: Mark Mathews

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/31/15

Time Aired: 10:15 – 10:30 p.m.

Summary: Mark and his wife Shelleen are responsible for a wild cat sanctuary on Harstine Island in the southern Puget Sound. There 53 cats have a home and range from Tiger to bobcat. The organization is non-paid, and everyone is a volunteer including the Mathews. They're looking for donations for activity such as expansion of Canadian Eurasian Lynx exhibit and are holding a fundraiser this summer.

Compliance issues covered: Community/Environment

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Hempapalooza

Guest: Karen Paul & Wendy Robbins

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/31/15

Time Aired: 10:30 – 10:45 p.m.

Summary: Paul & Rollins produce a web-based television show specifically about different marijuana products focusing on the business of legal marijuana.

Compliance issues covered: Economics/Health/Gender Issues

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Unfaithfulness

Guest: Dr. Freida Birnbaum

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 5/31/15

Time Aired: 10:45 – 11:00 p.m.

Summary: Why are financially dependent men cheating? A look at how gender roles have changed in America in the past 3 decades and what it means for men and women in relationships.

Compliance issues covered: Family/Marriage/Economics/Technology

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Cyber-Bullying and Stalking

Guest: Blair London

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 6/7/15

Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.

Summary: With now more than a decade of social media under our cultural belts, we're starting to understand the significant consequences of using the internet as a tool to abuse and hurt one another. Previously bullying could be difficult enough to identify among children, but the avenues have only increased. Blair London tells us about what signs to look out for online to prevent bullying and stalking.

Compliance issues covered: Technology/Family/Health/Culture

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: WWII

Guest: Robert Lundgren

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 6/7/15

Time Aired: 10:15 – 10:30 p.m.

Summary: Robert Lundgren is a former merchant marine and current military historian who spent the last 10 years researching both sides of a battle from WWII - the Battle of Samar. His attention to detail went as far as learning Japanese Kanji so he could better understand both side of the battle.

Compliance issues covered: Government/Education/Culture/Youth

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Intuition

Guest: Linda Lauren

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 6/7/15

Time Aired: 10:30 – 10:45 p.m.

Summary: Psychic Medium Linda Lauren uses her powers of intuition to help people establish the positivity in their lives, finding their spirituality.

Compliance issues covered: Health/Religion/Spirituality

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Open Your Own Business

Guest: Greg Stebben

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 6/7/15

Time Aired: 10:45 – 11:00 p.m.

Summary: Greg Stebben gives people a three step process to opening their own business

Compliance issues covered: Economics/Employment

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Online Head Shops

Guest: Ryan Ward

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 6/14/15

Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.

Summary: Ryan doesn't just own a store for selling homemade scarves or vinyl laptop stickers, he's behind an online movement for head shops. Washington is a state where marijuana is legal locally though it's still a crime in the eyes of the federal government, thus, despite the name of his shop - weedstore.com, it's still illegal to sell marijuana. If the nation moves the way of a few early states, this illegality may only be short term.

Compliance issues covered: Business/Drug Abuse/Health

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Protest Songs

Guest: Alvin Harrison

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 6/14/15

Time Aired: 10:15 – 10:30 p.m.

Summary: Alvin Harrison writes, performs and records music on socially relevant topics with his band, The 99. His lyrics are part of an attempt to raise awareness of the problems and issues facing

Americans, and the rest of the world community. He has taken the unusual position for an artist to offer his music royalty-free to charitable, church and political organizations promoting change and providing aid to Americans in need. Harrison hopes his music will help spark a grassroots effort that spreads his message to a wider base of socially conscientious fans.

Compliance issues covered: Culture/Communication/Government

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Pacific Northwest Hiking Trails

Guest: John Horvat

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 6/14/15

Time Aired: 10:30 – 10:45 p.m.

Summary: As more drugs are legalized, we should ask more about why people take drugs in the first place. Horvat discusses the bigger picture with drug use and abuse and why legalization may not be the only answer.

Compliance issues covered: Drug Abuse/Spirituality/Family

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Education

Guest: Neil Flanzraich

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 6/14/15

Time Aired: 10:45 – 11:00 p.m.

Summary: How can we educate our kids based on morality as a superpower?

Compliance issues covered: Education/Family

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1

Subject: Economics

Guest: Stephen J. Dubner

Length: 12:30

Date Aired: 6/21/15

Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.

Summary: Learning about something as complicated and at times dry as Economics is typically no fun - adding in the fun quirks of humans and our behavior make for a clever different take on a tough subject - that's the specialty of Steven D Levitt and Stephen J Dubner, two #1 New York Times bestselling authors of Freakonomics, SuperFreakonomics, and Think Like a Freak back this time with "When to Rob a Bank".

Compliance issues covered: Business/Economy/Communication/Culture

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2

Subject: Sexual Revolution for Women

Guest: Dr. Susan Edelman

Length: 12:29

Date Aired: 6/21/15

Time Aired: 10:15 – 10:30 p.m.

Summary: Dr. Edelman is a practicing psychiatrist and Adjunct Clinical Associate Professor at Stanford University's Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences. She's listened to the deepest darkest secrets of patients for almost 30 years and believes there is a new Sexual Revolution for Women on the horizon!

Compliance issues covered: Gender Issues/Psychology/Culture

Subject: Animal Clairvoyance
Guest: Lisa Caza
Length: 12:30
Date Aired: 6/21/15
Time Aired: 10:30 – 10:45 p.m.
Summary: How we can use our intuition to communicate with the world around us.
Compliance issues covered: Spirituality

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 2
Subject: Presidential Candidates
Guest: Ryan McCormick
Length: 12:30
Date Aired: 6/21/15
Time Aired: 10:45 – 11:00 p.m.
Summary: How political agendas shape our presidential campaigns and the policies elected officials champion.
Compliance issues covered: Government

Program: 'Conversations' Part: 1
Subject: Big Day of Play
Guest: Marc Hoffman
Length: 12:30
Date Aired: 6/28/15
Time Aired: 10:00 – 10:15 p.m.
Summary: The Big Day of Play encouraging Seattle citizens and families to get out to the park and learn about fun summer activities is today (6/28)! It also happens to be Bicycle Sunday - a day where certain Seattle streets are closed along Lake Washington to allow 2-wheels (and more) to hit the asphalt and score you some exercise!
