48 HOURS: "Devil's Island" (10:00-11:00p) – a second updated rebroadcast on the disappearance and death of Yvonne Baldelli, a California woman who moved to Panama with her boyfriend Brian Brimager, an ex-Marine, who turned out not to be as perfect to her as he seemed. Baldelli routinely sent happy emails to family members, but they suddenly stopped. About a month after the last message, Yvonne's sister Michele Valenzuela got a text from Brimager saying he was back in the U.S., but without Baldelli. He had sent an email that he and Yvonne had broken up, which was somehow overlooked by her family. Police went to Panama and back to San Diego. The family learned that Baldelli and Brimager were not as happy as had been suggested. They learned Brimager was leading a second life and had gotten married to Kristin Werkoven. Even though Michele Valenzuela was sick with cancer, her hunch about the origins of an email allegedly from her sister Yvonne, set her on a mission to prove Brimager had murdered Yvonne. In Panama, police searched for a body. The FBI joined the investigation. Finally, forensic analysis yielded a positive result: Brimager was arrested by the FBI and is now in custody. Since the arrest, Yvonne Baldelli's remains have been found: she never left Panama. Original On-screen text graphic: Michele Valenzuela lost her brave battle to cancer last week. The United States is in talks with Panama to move the prosecution of Brian Brimager for Yvonne's murder to San Diego. 06/23/15 UPDATE: In April 2015, five months after the death of Michele Valenzuela, and following complex negotiations between Panama and the United States, it was announced that the United States will prosecute Brian Brimager for the murder of Yvonne Baldelli, as a foreign murder of a U.S. national. Now, the family is one step closer to justice for Yvonne and to bringing her remains back to the United States for burial. On-screen text graphic for the 06/23/15 updated rebroadcast: Brian Brimager is due in court next week. A federal judge is likely to set a trial date. 01/21/17 UPDATE: In 2016, the case was headed for trial when investigators made a dramatic discovery: Yvonne's blood and DNA were found under a machete handle that Brian owned. This was the tool used to dismember Yvonne. Within a week, Brimager pleaded guilty to second degree murder. On-screen text graphic: Kristin and Brian Brimager are still married. She continues to support and visit him in federal prison. Brimager's prison term ends in February 2037. 48 HOURS: "Murder in Beverly Hills" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on new details in the ongoing saga of millionaire Robert Durst. Featured in this episode is the first in-depth look at an unprecedented recent interview that infamous millionaire and alleged killer Robert Durst gave to a prosecutor looking to put him in prison. Also included is a review of the allegations about his missing wife; his alleged ties to the 2000 murder of his friend Susan Berman, who was shot dead in her home -- a case the police have spent years trying to solve. Durst wasn't considered a suspect in Berman's death until nine months later when he was involved with the death of Morris Black in Galveston, Texas. Durst maintained he accidentally killed Black in self-defense and he then cut up Black's body. A jury eventually acquitted him of murder. Next week, Durst is expected to agree to a plea deal on a gun charge in New Orleans so he can face trial in California for the murder of Susan Berman. Will that trial clear his name in a case that has dogged him for years -- as attorney Dick DeGuerin suggests -- or will he end up spending the rest of his life in jail, where investigators say he should have been all along? On-screen text graphic: Next week a secret witness in the Susan Berman murder case will reportedly offer new incriminating testimony about Robert Durst. Kathie Durst's family has filed a civil suit against Robert Durst. They're asking for one hundred million dollars. Included are previous interviews with: Jim McCormack; Stephen Silverman; Lisa DePaulo; Jeannine Pirro; Det. Cody Cazalas; Emily and Stewart Altman; Paul Coulter; Chip Lewis; Charles Bagli; Dr. Milton Altschuler; Andrew Jarecki; Steve Cooley; Jack Leonard. 48 HOURS: "Stalking: Out of the Shadows" (9:00-10:00p) and "Stalked" (10:00-11:00p) - a two-part investigation into stalking -- the victims, the stalkers, the dangers and long-term psychological damage this torment causes; and the efforts by actress Pauley Perrette to change ineffective laws that do not protect the victims. Also included: a report on the stalking death of singer Christina Grimmie, who was shot dead by an obsessed fan she didn't even know was stalking her online; and an interview with Justin Massler -- a serial stalker with a diagnosed mental illness, who was arrested for stalking Ivanka Trump.

(1) Stalking: Out of the Shadows (9:00-10:00p) - the death of Christina Grimmie is detailed. She was shot dead by an obsessed fan she did not know was stalking her who showed up at a concert armed with two handguns and pulled the trigger, killing Grimmie and himself. The case was similar to the 1989 death of actress Rebecca Schaeffer, in that the stalker fantasizes that he is in a relationship with his victim and wants a permanent bond. Stalking is a silent crime with many victims afraid to speak out, fearing they will enrage their stalker. Also included: actress Pauley Perrette, a stalking victim herself, talks about her efforts to change stalking laws and the bonds she has formed with other victims. Perrette does not think her stalker will ever leave her alone.

(2) Stalked (10:00-11:00p) - some stalkers become obsessed with people they do not know. Leonora Claire has been stalked by a man she met only once, who read about her in a magazine and came to an art exhibit she curated. Serial stalker Justin Massler has been obsessed with her for nearly six years and she has lived in constant fear, believing he could harm her at any time. Massler, who has been diagnosed with a mental illness, will not leave her alone. In 2010, he was arrested for stalking Ivanka Trump, and previously targeted the Kardashian family. Now, the secret service is interested in him because of the Trump connection. Included is an interview with Massler, whom anchor Erin Moriarty tracked down and conducted an interview via the internet. His mother says he is living near her in Nevada and is getting medication. He has not contacted Leonora Claire in four months. On-screen text graphic: Christina Grimmie's new single "Invisible" was just released by her family, ZXL Music and Republic Records. Proceeds will endow a memorial fund in her name. Learn more about stalking, what you can do to prevent it and what you can do if you're being stalked. Go to 48Hours.com. 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: “Afraid of the Dark” - Jennifer Schuett was just 8 years old in 1990 when she was yanked through her bedroom window by an unknown man – and then strangled, slashed and left for dead in a field off a gravel road in Dickinson, Texas. She didn't die – and the kidnapper couldn't silence her. This is story of Schuett's will to live, her unwavering focus on pushing police to find her kidnapper, and how through the trauma she found a purpose in life by advocating for other crime victims. Schuett was alone in her bedroom, when she woke up in the arms of a man carrying her outside of the apartment building where she lived with her mom. He said he was an undercover police officer and that they would meet up with her mother. Both were lies. He took her to the field, tried to strangle her, and raped her and slashed her throat before driving away. When she came to, she couldn't scream, couldn't lift her head or even move. She was found by children playing in the field. Her assailant didn't count on Schuett living, let alone having an acute ability to recall critical details of the man. While in the hospital, Schuett, struggling with a fear of men and police because of the attack, began writing notes describing her kidnapper. His name was Dennis. She was also able to give a forensic sketch artist a detailed description of him. Despite the details, years went by with no suspects or closure. The case was passed between detectives, and each time it felt like she was starting over. Then, 18 years after the attack, Schuett got a call from Detective Tim Cromie from the Dickinson Police Department. He was now on her case. Cromie vowed to do everything he could until the end of his career to get the answers she so longed to find. Cromie partnered with FBI Special Agent Richard Rennison to work on the case. In September 2017, utilizing DNA technology that was not available before, Rennison got a call: the kidnapper's identity had been established. His name is Dennis Earl Bradford. On-screen text graphic: Jennifer has become a fierce advocate for other crime victims. Interviewed: Jennifer Schuett; Ralph Garcia (former detective); Dr. Cheryl L. Strunk; Sharon McBride (pediatric nurse); Lois Gibson (forensic artist), Tim Cromie (Dickinson Police Department); Richard Rennison (FBI Special Agent). (C: Michelle Miller - P: Stephen A. 48 HOURS: “What Happened in Apartment 1601?” (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report on the 2013 death of Mark Waugh, a 23-year-old man murdered in an apartment in Silver Spring, Maryland after a night of bar-hopping with two friends. Since neither of them could remember what had happened, police employed an unusual method of interrogation. Waugh was stabbed to death in the apartment where his friends Rahul Gupta and his girlfriend Taylor Gould lived. Both Gupta and Gould were bloody and drunk, according to police, and were immediately interrogated, with Gupta apparently confessing to the crime, saying he had caught Mark and Taylor together. Then after the alcohol wore off, everything changed, with both insisting they had no idea what had happened. Gupta and Waugh were longtime friends, with successful jobs. Police struggled to understand what had happened. Police initially believed Taylor Gould's version of events, but took the unusual step of putting Gupta and Gould together alone, and monitored their conversations. Gupta kept trying to blame Gould, yet police still believed Gould's version of events. Further investigation revealed Gupta had a temper and smoked marijuana. Investigation also discovered information from a phone call between father and son after Gupta was arrested in which he told his father what had happened. Gupta was arrested and charged with murder. At trial, Gupta's defense was to point the finger at Taylor Gould. She herself was not much help on the stand; but she never blamed Gupta; she just stated she did not kill Mark Waugh. The jury found Gupta guilty. Though Taylor Gould is legally not guilty, Detective Paula Hamill believes she may have played some role in what happened that night, and that she may have possibly been involved in a relationship with Waugh behind Gupta's back. Original on-screen text graphic: Rahul Gupta is appealing his conviction. On-screen text graphic for the 03/25/17 Rebroadcast: Just yesterday, Rahul Gupta's latest appeal was denied. Nancy and William Waugh have filed a wrongful death suit against Rahul Gupta. Interviewed: Officer Dean Skiba and Detective Paula Hamill (Montgomery County, Maryland Police); Phil Armstrong and Jennifer Page (Gupta's defense attorneys); Jason Peters (childhood friend of Mark Waugh); Sherene Gupta Rapoport (sister of Rahul Gupta); Dan Morse (Washington Post reporter); Timothy Hagan and Patrick Mays (Prosecutors).
