48 HOURS: "Buried Truth" - a report on the investigation into the case of Todd Kohlhepp, a South Carolina real estate broker, and now a suspected serial killer. His violent history was discovered after a missing woman named Kala Brown was found chained inside a shipping container on his property this month. This led to information that potentially solved a well-known 2003 South Carolina cold case, known as the Superbike Murders. The police investigation into Brown's missing person case led to Kohlhepp's property. Brown, who had once worked for Kohlhepp, told police that Kohlhepp had shot her boyfriend Charles David Carver dead, and that she had been a hostage for two months. Kohlhepp was arrested. While in custody, he asked for three things before starting to talk, then he told police more than they had ever suspected. He admitted to killing a young couple, later identified as Johnny Coxie and Meagan McCraw last December. In the most shocking twist of all, he revealed information known only to police in the well-known 2003 South Carolina cold case of four murders at a Spartanburg motorcycle shop. Also examined are : (1) the life of the self-confessed killer, who on the outside, seemed to be a model citizen, but who after a troubled childhood, moved to Arizona to be with his father. While there, he sexually assaulted a 14-year-old girl at gunpoint and had then served a 15 year sentence in prison. Includes an interview with his mother Regina Tague; (2) the Superbike case and the feelings of the victim's relatives upon hearing the news; and (3) the discovery of the bodies of Johnny Coxie and Meagan McCraw on Kohlhepp's property. On-screen text graphic: Todd Kohlhepp now has a public defender. His next court appearance is in January. Kala Brown continues her recovery and is staying with friends. Charlie Carver will be buried next Saturday on his birthday. He would have been thirty-three. Interviewed: Dan Herren (Kala Brown's friend); Chuck Wright (Spartanburg County Sheriff); Michael Burns (reporter, Greenville News); Joanne Shiflet and Chuck Carver (Charles Carver's parents); Regina Tague (mother of Todd Kohlhepp); Melissa Ponder (wife of Superbike victim Scott Ponder); Terry Guy (Scott Ponder's step-father); Tom and Lorraine Lucas (Superbike victim Brian Lucas's parents); Noel Lee (friend of Scott and Brian); Kris Mohandi (forensic psychologist/CBS Consultant); Betsy Cable (Tempe, AZ police officer); Robert and Mary McCraw (Meagan McCraw's parents). Smith, Claire St. Amant, Anthony Venditti)

11/19/16

8p-9pm

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Sophia's Secret" - the story of Sophia Putney-Wilson, a Michigan teenager, and her work to expose the growing dangers of dating and break-up violence, following her own years of mental and physical abuse at the hands of her ex-boyfriend Adam Shigwadja. After meeting in 2011, the relationship between 14-year-old Putney-Wilson and 16-year-old Shigwadja seemed to be a typical teenage romance, but it quickly evolved into something much darker. Shigwadja often threatened to hurt himself or her family as a way to control Sophia, and after one attack, where he held her at knife point, she broke up with him. Despite a court order of separation, they started secretly seeing each other again. In 2014, she broke up with him again. Days later, he broke into her bedroom, held her at knife point and set her room on fire. Putney-Wilson was badly injured: Adam had escaped and was on the loose, and the family was terrified. Shigwadja was arrested the next day. He said that he had gone there with a knife and that his only intent was to harm himself and not Sophia. He was charged with home invasion with the intent to commit assault, and with felonious assault because he attacked Sophia with a knife. Shigwadja opted for a bench trial. Sophia testified that she felt she would only be safe if Adam was locked up. The defense argued he never meant to harm her and that his purpose for the visit was to kill himself. The judge found him guilty on home invasion and arson counts, but did not find that the burden was met for the charges of assault with intent to murder. The community was outraged. At sentencing, the judge surprised everyone, when she sentenced Adam Shigwadja to a minimum of twenty-nine years in prison. When questioned, Judge Pamela Lightroet said the uproar over her verdict had no influence on her ruling. On-screen text graphic: Sophia continues to speak with high school students about teen dating violence. Caught in an abusive relationship -- call the National Domestic Violence hotline at 800-799-SAFE (7233). Interviewed: Sophia Putney-Wilcox; Kristin Putney (mother); Kiely Putney-Wilcox (brother); Jeff Williams (Assistant District Attorney, Kalamazoo County); Susan Thomas (Adam Shigwadja's mother); Detective Bill Moorian (Detective, Kalamazoo Public Safety) (C: Tracy Smith - P: Josh Gelman, Jonathan Leach, Chuck Stevenson)

11/19/16
9p-10pm

48 HOURS: "Hunted" - an investigation into the case of a serial rapist, who preyed on women young and old, in multiple states and over a period of years -- and the search to stop him. The rapist worked with military precision, tracking the women's schedules, photographing them during the attacks and then forcing the women to shower or bathe as a way to clear out any evidence. Investigators from two Colorado police departments (Golden and Westminister) and the FBI pieced together the assailant's trail through smart policing, collaboration and luck. In 2011, a Golden, Colorado case, led to a similar case in nearby Westminister, Colorado. In comparing details of the attacks, detectives realized they were on the trail of a serial rapist. That information and another nearby case led them to Marc O'Leary, a 32-year-old Army veteran, who was eventually arrested. O'Leary ultimately pled guilty to sexual assault charges and then agreed to talk about the crimes. This led to a rare glimpse into the mind of a serial rapist, something detectives could never have imagined. Also featured is the story of a young Washington woman who the detectives discovered had been raped by O'Leary. Initially, the Lynnwood, Washington police did not believe her story. After the truth came out, the police force received training regarding this mistake. On-screen text graphic: Stacy Galbraith is now an agent for the Colorado Bureau of Investigation. Edna Hendershot was promoted to the rank of sergeant with the Westminister Police Department. Galbraith and Hendershot both stay in contact with the women Marc O'Leary attacked. Interviewed: Mary (rape victim, not her real name); Stacy Galbraith (Golden CO police detective); Edna Hendershot (Westminister, CO police detective); Jonny Grusing (FBI Special Agent); Bob Weiner (Deputy Jefferson County District Attorney); Amy Wozny (O'Leary's former girlfriend); Julie Pech (potential victim); Rodney Cohnheim (Lynnwood, WA Police Department Commander). 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "The Long Road Home" - a report on the recovery of Sebastien Bellin, an international basketball star-turned tech entrepreneur, who was nearly killed in the March 2015 Brussels airport terror attack. His recovery is detailed over the course of eight months as he recovered from the bomb attack that caused him to lose over fifty-percent of his blood and left him with shattered bones and torn muscles. Following his basketball career, Bellin moved to Battle Creek, Michigan with his family and began a new career as a tech entrepreneur. The job involved regular travel to Brussels, including during the tense time in Europe. On March 22, 2015, he arrived at the Brussels airport to fly home and that day ISIS terrorists set off bombs at the airport and at a nearby train station. Bellin was severely wounded. This report takes a look at what it takes to survive an attack and put a life back together -- including Bellin's first-person account of the attack, his refusal to let the terrorists win, how his 15 years as a basketball player in Europe prepared him for the moment his life would change forever, his three months in the hospital, the quest to get back home to his family, hours of intense physical therapy and an inspirational return to the basketball court. On-screen text graphic: Sebastian is back flying to and from Europe. He even flies into Brussels airport. Sebastian is writing a book about his story of survival. Interviewed: Sebastian Belli, Sara Belli (wife); Cecilia and Vanessa Belli (daughters); Ketevan Kardava (foreign correspondent); Dr. Dimitrios Koulalis (surgeon); Dr. Sean Smith (rehab doctor). (C: Vladimir Duthiers - C: Chris Young Ritzen, Ruth Chenetz)
