KABC-TV's internship program has launched the careers of hundreds of students with aspirations to work in broadcasting. Currently there are twenty-four former KABC-TV interns working at the Station, including three on-air talent, all of which are minorities.

Every semester KABC-TV hosts an Intern Networking Mixer. Interns are invited to dinner and networking with the Station's President and General Manager; Vice President, News Director; Vice President, Creative Services and Programming; and Vice President, Diversity Programs and Community Relations. Interns have an opportunity to meet Station executives in an intimate setting for an informative discussion on the business of television, and a question and answer session. The primary focus is on career opportunities and strategies for success:

Recruitment outreach for interns is accomplished using a variety of methods with attention to resources that provide a diverse candidate pool. Job fairs and career fairs at colleges with diverse student populations are a major source of candidates. Notices are posted at local colleges, universities and minority organizations. The KABC-TV internship program brochure and application are featured on the ABC7 website.

Internship opportunities are promoted and applications are distributed at all job fairs, workshops, conferences, community meetings and student tours.

Emma Bowen Foundation Internship - KABC-TV also participates with the Emma Bowen Foundation for Minority Interests in Media. Working with the Emma Bowen Foundation, the Station makes a long-term commitment to a high school or college student by providing paid employment through the duration of their college education. The student works part-time during the school year and full-time during the summer break. The salary the intern earns is matched dollar for dollar and deposited in an education account. The account is available to the student to assist with expenses for tuition, books and supplies. Our Emma Bowen intern is a senior at the University of California, Los Angeles.

High School Student Summer Internship

KABC-TV offers two paid summer internships for high school students with an interest in broadcast media. The students work for six to eight weeks during the summer and are assigned a schedule that rotates them through various departments within the station.
