

On The Record

30 minute weekly program

Thursdays at 7:00pm on KLRN

Hosted by veteran journalist Jim Forsyth of WOAI radio, On the Record features interviews with San Antonio's key players in politics, business and community activism. Each week, Jim also hosts a roundtable discussion with local journalists who keep a pulse on important issues impacting our city.

Program number: 124

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: October 4, 2018 7:00pm

The Alamo Master Plan is closer to reality this week as the Mayor and Texas Land Commissioner George P. Bush signed the land lease for Alamo Plaza, and it's our topic on the Conversation. Express News Reporter Scott Huddleston and the Director of Communications for the Texas General Land Office Bryan Preston discuss what the Plan will mean for the plaza and for the citizens of San Antonio. Our One-on-One segment features Jeff Coyle, the city's lobbyist and spokesman, talking about what San Antonio officials want to see from the 2019 Texas Legislature next year.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Jim Forsyth, Host

Jeff Coyle, Director of Government and Public Affairs, City of San Antonio

Scott Huddleston, Staff Writer, San Antonio Express News

Bryan Preston, Director of Communications, Texas General Land Office

Program number: 125

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: October 11, 2018 7:00pm

This week, On The Record presents both sides of the controversial charter amendment propositions. Speaking in support of the amendments is Reinette King, Spokesperson for the group ApprovedByCitizens.com. Speaking against the amendments is San Antonio Mayor Ron Nirenberg. Both explain to host Jim Forsyth why they feel their position is the one voters need to hear.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Jim Forsyth, Host

Ron Nirenberg, Mayor of San Antonio

Reinette King, Spokesperson, approvedbycitizens.com

Program number: 126

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: October 18, 2018 7:00pm

A special presentation of "On The Record" this week as we host a candidates debate for Senate District 21. All 3 candidates, Chip Roy (R), Joseph Kopser (D), and Lee Santos (L) will discuss the issues with moderator Jim Forsyth. The debate is presented by the League of Women Voters.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Program number: 127

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: October 25, 2018 7:00pm

This week, host Jim Forsyth talks with Councilman Greg Brockhouse about his image as the "agent of change" on city council, as well as his status as the lone member of city council supporting the controversial charter amendments. On the Conversation, Jim is joined by SA Current columnist Sanford Nowlin, who talks about purging the voter rolls, and Bexar County Elections Administrator Jacque Callanen, who discusses the incredible turnout for early voting in Bexar County.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Jim Forsyth, Host

Greg Brockhouse, City Councilman, District 6

Sanford Nowlin, Reporter, SA Current

Jacque Callanen, Bexar County Elections Administrator

Program number: 128

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: November 1, 2018 7:00pm

This week On The Record, host Jim Forsyth is joined by former Mayor Henry Cisneros to talk about the controversial charter amendments on next weeks ballots, and why Cisneros is opposed to them. On the Conversation, KSAT 12 Reporter Jessie Degollado and Express News Reporter Josh Baugh chat with Jim about how the media is covering the border, and the latest tape recordings of fire union President Chris Steele and what they could mean for the outcome of the amendment in Tuesdays election.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Jim Forsyth, Host
Henry Cisneros, former Mayor of San Antonio
Jessie Degollado, Reporter, KSAT 12
Josh Baugh, Reporter, SA Express News

Program number: 129
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: November 8, 2018 7:00pm

A special edition of On The Record this week as we recap this week's election and what it means to San Antonio. Two of the three proposed charter amendments were passed, and reporter Josh Baugh from the San Antonio Express News weighs in on what that will mean for the city, and the Mayor, going forward. SA Current Editor Greg Jefferson discusses both the local election and the Senate races between Cruz and O'Rourke. We also talk with San Antonio Express News Reporter/Columnist Elaine Ayala about how the immigration issue was used to craft the candidates message.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):
Jim Forsyth, Host
Josh Baugh, Reporter, San Antonio Express News
Elaine Ayala, Reporter/Columnist, San Antonio Express News
Greg Jefferson, Editor, San Antonio Current

Program number: 130
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: November 15, 2018 7:00pm

This week On The Record, newly elected Bexar County District Attorney Joe Gonzales talks with Jim Forsyth about several initiatives he plans when he gets into office, including cite-and-release and a new domestic violence unit. On The Conversation, Jim is joined by "El Conservador" George Rodriguez and Gilbert Garcia, Columnist with the San Antonio Express News about the recent election, its impact on the city, and their views (both conservative and liberal) on the upcoming 2019 Texas Legislative session.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):
Jim Forsyth, Host
Joe Gonzales, Bexar County District Attorney- elect
George Rodriguez, Columnist "El Conservador"
Gilbert Garcia, Columnist, San Antonio Express News

Program number: 131
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: November 29, 2018 7:00pm

In a surprise move, City Manager Sheryl Sculley has announced her resignation. Jim talks about what this means to the city with San Antonio Mayor Ron Nirenberg and Richard Perez, Chair/CEO of the San Antonio Chamber of Commerce.

On the Conversation, Jim is joined by Sanford Nowlin, Editor-In-Chief of the San Antonio Current to talk about the upcoming 2019 Texas legislature and what issues may be at the forefront. Express-News Criminal Justice reporter Emilie Eaton is also on the set to talk about the city's effort to create a Cite-and-Release program for non-violent offenders.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Ron Nirenberg, Mayor of San Antonio
Richard Perez, President/CEO, San Antonio Chamber of Commerce
Sanford Nowlin, Editor-In-Chief, San Antonio Current
Emilie Eaton, Criminal Justice Reporter, Express-News

Program number: 132

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: December 13, 2018 7:00pm

Bexar County Judge Nelson Wolff joins host Jim Forsyth to talk about his new book, "The Changing Face of San Antonio". On the Conversation, Texas Public Radio City Hall reporter Joey Palacios talks about city manager Sheryl Sculley, her resignation, and her decision to not accept a 100k bonus from the city this year. Also on the show, Express News Metro Columnist Brian Chasnoff discusses Fire Union President Chris Steele, and why he won't come forward and negotiate with the city as promised.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Jim Forsyth, Host
Nelson Wolff, Bexar County Judge
Joey Palacios, Texas Public Radio City Hall Reporter
Brian Chasnoff, Metro Columnist, San Antonio Express News

Program number: 133

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: December 20, 2018 7:00pm

This week, On The Record takes a look back at 2018 with local journalists Greg Jefferson, Josh Baugh, and Sanford Nowlin discussing the top stories of the past year, the most under-reported and over-reported local stories, and what they expect will headline the news in the coming year.

Participants and their affiliations, titles (if applicable):

Jim Forsyth, Host
Greg Jefferson, Business Editor, SA Express News
Josh Baugh, Metro Columnist, SA Express News
Sanford Nowlin, Editor-In-Chief, SA Current

Note: The delay in uploading this document was due to the shutdown of the government and document was filed as soon as possible after the government reopened.