Health	FOX Illinois Sunrise	8/7/2023	15 seconds	The CDC is recommending a new immunization for all infants 8 months and younger. The shot is to prevent severe RSV, which is the leading cause of hospitalization for infants. According to the CDC, the immunization has shown an 80-percent reduction for healthcare visits for RSV in infants.
Health	FOX Illinois Sunrise	8/15/2023	1 minute	Monday was Senior Day at the Illinois State Fair and members of Blue Cross Blue Shield were available to educate seniors on things like colon health, kidney screenings and Medicaid re-determination process. Blue Cross Blue Shield is offering a variety of services to residents who are unsure on how the process works, including assisting online, on the phone, or in person at the Illinois Department of Healthcare and Family Services office. Blue Cross Blue Shield will be assisting with the re-determination process for the rest of the year and will be holding events across the state.

Health	FOX Illinois Sunrise	8/22/2023	20 seconds	Residents ages 14 to 25 can now apply to be part of a council that tries to improve the mental health of younger people across the state. Officials announced the first student mental health council will be accepting applications for the next month. Officials say the council will inform state policy on how to best improve youth mental health in Illinois.
Health	FOX Illinois Sunrise	8/29/2023	40 seconds	A life-science company is hosting a press conference in Decatur to launch a campaign that addresses food-insecurity. Bayer's "Take Care Now" campaign will raise awareness to food-insecurity and increase access to healthcare in rural areas. Officials say one-third of Americans live in a county with limited access to pharmacies and hospitals and ninety percent of the counties with high food insecurity rates are rural areas.

Health	FOX Illinois Sunrise	9/4/2023	25 seconds	There is a system outage at HSHS St. John's Hospital. The CEO of the hospital is confirming that the cause of the outage was a cybersecurity incident. The outage is affecting the phones, internet, and mychart; a program that lets patients view tests results. The hospitals says patients are receiving emails, calls, and texts claiming to be hospital officials looking for payments. HSHS is looking into the scam, and the hospital is not collecting payments during this time.
Health	FOX Illinois Sunrise	9/15/2023	1 minute	A West Central Illinois Health Department announced Wednesday a batch of mosquitos have tested positive for West Nile Virus. Officials say there are no positive cases currently, but people should be wary of where mosquitos could be present and how to take precautions. Officials say the virus has flu-like symptoms and if you begin to feel these, see your healthcare provider. Practice the 3 R's: Repel, reduce, and report.

Health	FOX Illinois Sunrise	9/22/2023	1 minute 15 seconds	A new bill will look to change the way DCFS pays for hospital stays. If a child stays in-patient for 3 or more days after they can be discharged, DCFS would take over the payments. As of now, DCFS does not have to pay until the 11 th day beyond medical necessity. The proposed law would only go into effect if the parent or caregiver has denied the child access to the home or if the child's release from the hospital is delayed because of an investigation. The bill was filed in August.
Health	FOX Illinois Sunrise	9/27/2023	50 seconds	The CDC is recommending a new vaccine for expecting mothers to prevent babies from getting RSV, a severe respiratory virus. The updated vaccine is not available in Illinois yet but officials hope to have it by the winter months.
