

KIYU Issues and Programs 1st quarter 2016 (January-March)

KIYU is committed to providing quality radio by producing local content in the form of news, public service announcements, locally based interviews, community events and news.

Each week, KIYU produces 2 hours of local news broadcasts, 8 hours of community service information programs, a minimum of an hour of PSAs among other programming.

Our doors and phone lines are open for local leaders to share information pertinent to the listening area, which through our various stations encompasses villages serving the Yukon and Koyukuk River region and 17 hours of shared programming to affiliate in Fairbanks.

The following are issues of importance that were covered for the period mentioned above.

1/1/16-11/11/2016 News Stories and Public Service announcements on Galena School Parent Advisory Committee to discuss Committee updates, Computer skills implemented in elementary curriculum, PAC Role in Close UP, and the upcoming town meeting.

1/11/2016 Story and announcement on Community needs on the recovery of Elder Andrew Henry's body and the continuing search effort.

1/26/2016 News Story on Galena students heading to Washington for Close-Up

2/2/2016-Report on ice thickness on the Yukon River with reports from national Weather Service

2/16/2016-3/23/2016 Reporting and PSAs on major hauling with heavy equipment on Galena roads and safety tips during this period.

2/23/2016 Coverage of The Koyukuk River Fish and Game Advisory Committee Tuesday, February 23, 2016 at 12:00 pm

2/25/2016 Coverage of City Council meeting to discuss elevating Galena City Hall above flood level.

Other issues KIYU covered during this period were.

-Galena Student Photo and Film Festival

-Riff@n*Hook Music Festival promotion February 1st-6th presented by the GILA Music and Arts Program

KIYU Issues and Programs 2nd quarter 2016 (April-June)

KIYU is committed to providing quality radio by producing local content in the form of news, public service announcements, locally based interviews, community events and news.

Each week, KIYU produces 2 hours of local news broadcasts, 8 hours of community service information programs, a minimum of an hour of PSAs among other programming.

Our doors and phone lines are open for local leaders to share information pertinent to the listening area, which through our various stations encompasses villages serving the Yukon and Koyukuk River region and 17 hours of shared programming to affiliate in Fairbanks.

The following are issues of importance that were covered for the period mentioned above.

4/1/2016 Interview with Violet Burnham, TCC's Native Connections Program Manager about the April 11th & 12th program to conduct adult & youth Community Readiness Assessments for Suicide prevention

4/15/2016-4/23/2016 Interview and News Stories on Alcohol and Sexuality panel discussion for high school students. Adult panel members, including a variety of professionals, answered questions texted from the audience.

5/23/2016 News story on theft of cash at Galena stores and subsequent announcements about reward.

6/6/2016-6/9/2017 Announcements for training for fishers interested in the King Salmon Subsistence Sampling Project in Galena, Kaltag, Nulato, Ruby and Tanana.

Other issues KIYU covered during this period were.

- City of Koyukuk City Administrator opening announcement

- Local student Romay Harris' National Letter of Intent signing for collegiate basketball on April 12 at 7 pm at the Galena Bible Church.

- Health Center giveaway of bandages and first aid kits

- Subsistence fishing schedules

KIYU Issues and Programs 3rd quarter 2016 (July-September)

KIYU is committed to providing quality radio by producing local content in the form of news, public service announcements, locally based interviews, community events and news.

Each week, KIYU produces 2 hours of local news broadcasts, 8 hours of community service information programs, a minimum of an hour of PSAs among other programming.

Our doors and phone lines are open for local leaders to share information pertinent to the listening area, which through our various stations encompasses villages serving the Yukon and Koyukuk River region and 17 hours of shared programming to affiliate in Fairbanks.

The following are issues of importance that were covered for the period mentioned above.

7/8/2016 Gathering of Alaska Natives Interview and continuing PSAs.

7/15/2016-7/30/2016 Tanana Chiefs Conference Employment announcements

8/4/2016-8/5/2016 Coverage of Tanana Chiefs Conference and the Interior Athabascan Tribal College 2016 Interior Education Summit

9/4/2016 Coverage of the USAF and AK. Department of Environmental Conservation public comment period for the revised Munitions Response Site at the former Galena Campion Air Station.

9/30/2016 KIYU begins broadcast of Yupik language show(s) for St. Mary's Alaska

Other issues KIYU covered during this period were.

- Community of Koyukuk Labor day fundraiser

- Community of Galena Moose meat distribution

KIYU Issues and Programs 4th quarter 2016 (October-December)

KIYU is committed to providing quality radio by producing local content in the form of news, public service announcements, locally based interviews, community events and news.

Each week, KIYU produces 2 hours of local news broadcasts, 8 hours of community service information programs, a minimum of an hour of PSAs among other programming.

Our doors and phone lines are open for local leaders to share information pertinent to the listening area, which though our various stations encompasses villages serving the Yukon and Koyukuk River region and 17 hours of shared programming to affiliate in Fairbanks.

The following are issues of importance that were covered for the period mentioned above.

10/1/16-10/4/2016 Coverage Major City and school board election for City of Galena/KIYU broadcasted numerous announcements informing public how and where to vote. Held and promoted on-line poll on election issues and aired new interviews with candidates.

10/9/2016-11/9/2016 Coverage of Special Recall Election of Galena School board President Kim Kopp. Programming included voting awareness announcements, newscasts and Q and A with Kopp and petitioners.

10/1/2016-10/23/2016 Promotion of Yukon Jamboree community event promoting Sober Living. KIYU aired numerous PSA announcements for event and also held a broadcast of the event.

10/1/2016-ongoing Regular daily announcements for employment needs with Regional tribal organization Tanana Chief Conference. At least 3 announcements per day.

10/26/2016-11/15/2016-Assisted Nulato Tribal Council with announcements of Transportation and Safety plan.

12/23/2016-12/31/2016-Broadcasted information concerning fuel rationing in village of Ruby.

Other issues KIYU covered during this period were.

- Alternative Energy Projects
- emergency moose hunt
- Clinic announcements (vaccinations, Diabetes, behavioral health, depression)

KIYU Issues and Programs 1st quarter 2017 (January-March)

KIYU is committed to providing quality radio by producing local content in the form of news, public service announcements, locally based interviews, community events and news.

Each week, KIYU produces 2 hours of local news broadcasts, 8 hours of community service information programs, a minimum of an hour of PSAs among other programming.

Our doors and phone lines are open for local leaders to share information pertinent to the listening area, which through our various stations encompasses villages serving the Yukon and Koyukuk River region and 17 hours of shared programming to affiliate in Fairbanks.

The following are issues of importance that were covered for the period mentioned above.

1/1/2017-2/1/2017 At the request of local and regional tribal organizations, KIYU provided information for Extreme Weather Safety due to Winter Storms and extreme low temperatures. Our coverage included a minimum of 3 full announcements per day with short reminders throughout the day.

2/27/2017-3/27/2017 Announcements from the Galena City Police Department concerning stray and dangerous dogs. This issue has been a recurring subject in the community and KIYU assisted in broadcasting this information.

3/16/2017-3/23/2017 KIYU announced, participated in and interviewed officials about the Choose Respect march. This is to create awareness of Domestic and Sexual Abuse in the state.

3/31/2017 Announcement about our regions Native Youth Olympics team and their needs for travel to event.

Other issues KIYU covered during this period were.

- various early outs and schedule changes at schools due to weather issues

- Area village Spring Carnival events benefitting charities

KIYU Issues and Programs 2nd quarter 2017 (April-June)

KIYU is committed to providing quality radio by producing local content in the form of news, public service announcements, locally based interviews, community events and news.

Each week, KIYU produces 2 hours of local news broadcasts, 8 hours of community service information programs, a minimum of an hour of PSAs among other programming.

Our doors and phone lines are open for local leaders to share information pertinent to the listening area, which through our various stations encompasses villages serving the Yukon and Koyukuk River region and 17 hours of shared programming to affiliate in Fairbanks.

The following are issues of importance that were covered for the period mentioned above.

4/1/2017-4/15/2017 PSAs and interviews concerning village visits of Alaska Business Development Centers FREE TAX PREPARATION.

4/1/2017-4/19/2017 Announcements of Louden Tribal Counsel annual meeting and vacant Council seats.

4/5/2017-5/1/2017 Health warning announcements of recall of Epi-Pen as requested by the Tanana Chiefs Conference's health organization.

5/1/2017-ongoing Production of Public Service Announcements written and recorded by local students on the subjects of Suicide, drugs, abuse, etc. These were distributed statewide for broadcast.

5/21/2017 News story on the local fire that killed Elder Franklin "Ironman" Pitka.

6/2/2017 News Interview with Tanana Chiefs Conference about new Dental Health Aide job training and jobs in Galena

Other issues/announcements KIYU covered during this period were.

- Beginning of Subsistence fishing season
- Galena Community Wide Easter Egg Hunt
- Broadcast of HAZWOPER Safety classes
- Annual Community Flea Market

KIYU Issues and Programs 3rd quarter 2017 (July-September)

KIYU is committed to providing quality radio by producing local content in the form of news, public service announcements, locally based interviews, community events and news.

Each week, KIYU produces 2 hours of local news broadcasts, 8 hours of community service information programs, a minimum of an hour of PSAs among other programming.

Our doors and phone lines are open for local leaders to share information pertinent to the listening area, which through our various stations encompasses villages serving the Yukon and Koyukuk River region and 17 hours of shared programming to affiliate in Fairbanks.

The following are issues of importance that were covered for the period mentioned above.

7/1/2017-8/1/2017 Dust abatement program for City of Galena including announcements, news stories.

8/31/2017 Promotion of meetings concerning September events for Traditional Activities & Suicide Prevention Month.

8/15/2017 Coverage of Special Galena Town Meeting concerning a "drifter" who is starting fires and stealing from area homes and cabins.

Other issues/announcements KIYU covered during this period were.

- Yukon Koyukuk Elders Facility employment needs
- Tanana Chiefs Conference job posting
- Kaltag Fisheries needs

KIYU Issues and Programs 4th quarter 2017 (October-December)

KIYU is committed to providing quality radio by producing local content in the form of news, public service announcements, locally based interviews, community events and news.

Each week, KIYU produces 2 hours of local news broadcasts, 8 hours of community service information programs, a minimum of an hour of PSAs among other programming.

Our doors and phone lines are open for local leaders to share information pertinent to the listening area, which through our various stations encompasses villages serving the Yukon and Koyukuk River region and 17 hours of shared programming to affiliate in Fairbanks.

The following are issues of importance that were covered for the period mentioned above.

10/15/2017 Coverage of Special Galena Town Meeting concerning a "drifter" who is starting fires and stealing from area homes and cabins.

10/1/2017-10/14/2017 Announcements for The GCSD Natural Resource and Sustainable Energy classes trip to the Alaska Tribal Conference on Environmental Management.

10/1/2017-10/15/2017 Airing of announcements concerning hazardous waste material at City Transfer station site.

10/3/2017 Coverage of City and School Board elections

11/15/2017-12/23/2017 Promotion of Toys for Tots for children in area villages.

Other issues/announcements KIYU covered during this period were.

-Yukon Jamboree Sober Living event coverage

-Galena School Community Halloween Event

-Elder Center Annual Community Thanksgiving