ISSUE ONE

Moral Issues: Abortion, pornography, drug abuse, euthanasia, homosexuality, etc.

The preceding issues were determined through phone calls from listeners, letters from listeners, and a "verbal" sampling of community leaders, and monitoring of other media sources (i.e. television, newspapers, etc.) As well as issues that have come to the attention of the American Family Association.

FAMILY LIFE TODAY

July 9 — Facing the Enemy - Authors and bloggers, Aaron and Jennifer Smith, tell how intimacy issues made it impossible to consummate their marriage and in Aaron's frustration, he chose the destructive path of pornography. Hear how Aaron found freedom from that sin and how Jennifer learned to be his ally.

July 22 — Divorce Care for Kids - Parenting is difficult, but when you add divorce, the challenge multiplies. Navigating even the most routine parental responsibilities can become difficult. Linda Ranson Jacobs talks to Ron Deal, offering help and hope to parents who may be struggling.

July 23 — An Inside Look at Chick-fil-A - Steve Robinson reflects on his long-time history with Chick-fil-A, and the core values of the Cathy family that have kept their business thriving. Steve shares with Dave and Ann Wilson what distinguishes Chick-fil-A from all the other fast food restaurants.

July 24 — The Secret Sauce to Any Good Restaurant - Steve Robinson, author of “Covert Cows,” talks about his 30+ year career working as the chief marketing officer for Chick-fil-A and reveals the “secret sauce” of the company’s success. Robinson also explains how that foundation for the company’s success taught him how to be a good husband and father.

August 1 — Our Adoption Journey - Matt and Glenna Bevin had a heart for adoption, but with five children in the home, the State of Kentucky said "no" on a sixth child. We'll hear how the Bevins' passionate quest to adopt their daughter eventually landed them in the governor's mansion of Kentucky. Meet the Bevins, that is, Governor and First Lady of Kentucky, on the next FAMILYLIFE TODAY.

August 2 — Alienation from Children, Post-Divorce - For some step-couples, no matter how much they try, the venom and vitriol of the former spouse drowns out all reason and compromise. Rodney and Lisa Webb share their difficult blended journey, as counselor and therapist Helen Wheeler and blended family expert Ron Deal speak wisdom.

August 27 — Tackling the Tough Issues - Jonathan Holmes tackles common problems couples face today, like infidelity and pornography. He also talks about the importance of forgiveness and the necessity of rebuilding trust.

August 28 — Counseling for the Difficult Times - Christian counselor Jonathan Holmes talks about the challenges of counseling a spouse experiencing emotional or physical abuse. He also shares how he would counsel a couple experiencing spiritual differences.

September 16 — Thoughts on Purity - Ryan and Selena Frederick reflect on meeting in 8th grade and the romance that unfolded in their high school and college years. Desiring to keep their relationship pure, they decided to marry at 20 and 21 years old. They explain that waiting until marriage didn't ensure them the fireworks they expected.

FAMILY TALK

July 17 - Guest: David Horowitz - Christianity has been unfairly targeted by the progressive culture. Fortunately, more and more non-religious groups are coming to the defense of religious liberty. On this edition, Dr. Dobson welcomes popular conservative author and speaker, David Horowitz, to the Family Talk studios. The two discuss the origins of the hostility towards religion, while David explains his decision to walk away from a liberal mindset.

Jul 18 - Dark Agenda: The War to Destroy Christian America 2 - Guest: David Horowitz

America's Founders purposefully constructed defenses in the Constitution to protect religious people and institutions from inevitable hostility. On this broadcast, Dr. Dobson continues his conversation with best-selling conservative author, David Horowitz. They analyze the liberal agenda to suppress Christianity and highlight the importance of our God-centered heritage.

Aug 8 - Homosexuality and the 21st Century Church 1 - Guest: Anne Paulk - Many churches and Christian groups are purposefully choosing to support the LGBT movement. On this edition, Dr. Dobson addresses this disturbing trend with Anne Paulk, Executive Director of Restored Hope Network. They examine the hostility towards the Biblical truth about homosexuality, while Anne shares her own story of being liberated from lesbianism.

Aug 9 - Homosexuality and the 21st Century Church 2 - Guest: Anne Paulk - Over the last 20 years, more and more Christians are adopting a 'gay-friendly' worldview. On this edition, Dr. Dobson wraps up his discussion on this topic with author and speaker, Anne Paulk. They walk through 4 doctrinal views on the LGBT lifestyle and address the false ideas concerning counseling and therapy.

Aug 23 - Overcomer: An Exclusive Sit Down with Priscilla Shirer - Guest: Priscilla Shirer - On this special edition, Dr. Tim Clinton talks about the newly released movie Overcomer, with author and teacher, Priscilla Shirer. She will explain her role and partnership with the Kendrick brothers on this film and the godly message woven into it. Priscilla also shares her heart for ministry and the upcoming projects she is working on.

Sept 12 - Girls: The Fair Sex 1 - Hosted by: Dr. Dobson and co-host LuAnne Crane - It has been said that little girls are made of 'sugar, spice and everything nice.' Despite the snippet of truth in that nursery rhyme, girls are much more complex. Dr. Dobson unpacks this delicate topic through this classic broadcast. He describes how women are innately designed to be tender and affectionate, and advises fathers how to better understand their daughters.

Sept 13 - Girls: The Fair Sex 2 - Hosted by: Dr. Dobson and co-host LuAnne Crane - Girls growing up in this society receive so many mixed messages about their purpose and identity. On this classic broadcast, Dr. Dobson talks about this shadow of low self-esteem that hangs over so many women. He also challenges parents, especially dads, to encourage their daughters' femininity, and continually build their confidence and value as a woman.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

July 25-26: Rising to the Challenge of Parenting - I & II - While parenting is one of the most rewarding experiences, it can also be a challenge. Dr. David Clarke lays out his time-tested battle plan for raising kids. Through his humor and stories, Dr. Clarke will encourage you and help you be creative in reaching your goal of launching successful adults.

July 29: Offering God's Hope to Families with Prodigals – I - It's easy to categorize those who leave their faith as prodigals. But how many prodigals are still active in church? Two pastors share their experience with prodigals and the valuable spiritual lessons God taught them about unconditional love and accountability.

August 7: Redeeming a Marriage and Childhood Wounds - The story of Grammy award-winner Russ Taff and his wife Tori. Away from the spotlight, Russ was tormented by childhood abuse and family dysfunction that led him to alcoholism, just like his dad. The Taffs will describe the painful journey through this hidden addiction that nearly destroyed their marriage, and the healing they found in Christ.

August 19: Equipping Christians to Understand Sexuality - Tragically, many Christians today do not have a godly perspective about their sexuality! Dr. Juli Slattery explains why a list of do's and don'ts is no longer effective; instead, we need to be sexually disciple to embrace God's plan.

August 20: Navigating Beauty and Body Image with Teen Daughters – I - Teen girls and young women face an onslaught of media and advertising that sells a certain beauty standard — but it's all fake! Jessie Minassian encourages women to “unplug” from advertising and accept God's definition of true beauty.

August 21: Navigating Beauty and Body Image with Teen Daughters – II - When does trying to look pretty become an idol? We'll examine the unhealthy comparison game and obsession that many girls and women have about being beautiful — and how God wants you to aim for something better instead. Discover God's standard for your beauty.

September 3: Help Your Young Adult Be Brave - For Sadie Robertson of Duck Dynasty, fear and anxiety felt like a disease with no cure. Worry consumed her life and affected her relationships with God and others. Sadie tells how she learned to embrace her identity in Christ and step out in faith, even while she was afraid.

September 13: Hope for Teen Moms - Tricia Goyer had a baby boy—just a few weeks after graduating high school. Hear how Tricia found God in the midst of one of the toughest seasons of her life—and how He answered her prayers and turned her life around.

REVIVE OUR HEARTS

July 22 — Where We Come From - Karen Loritts had just gotten married. And she was scared. She looked in the mirror and said, “What in the world have I gotten myself into?” Karen knew how imperfect she was. But she’ll explain how God can use imperfect people to give Him glory in marriage.

July 23 — What Every Wife Needs - According to Dr. Crawford Loritts, your closeness to God affects how you relate to your spouse. He and his wife Karen will join Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth to show you how to stay close to the Lord and let that relationship spill over into marriage.

August 7 — Engage Your Emotions - Do you ever feel driven by your emotions? Mary Kassian says emotions weren’t designed to be the driver of your life. Instead, they’re more like a dashboard to help you drive your life. She’ll talk about it with Dannah Gresh and Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth.

August 8 — Walk the Talk - No one likes hypocrisy in others. Yet it’s easy to let hypocrisy run unchecked in ourselves. Mary Kassian will help you examine your life and bring your actions in line with your beliefs.

August 15 — Embracing Truth When Your Children Are Shaken - Our daughters are constantly hearing conflicting ideas about gender. We need to pass along the truth of God’s Word in a way they can understand. You’ll hear about ways you can invest in your daughter and help her know who she is in Christ.

August 16 — Lies Our Daughters Believe about Beauty - Our daughters are pulled in so many directions, facing so many distractions and fighting so many temptations. But there’s one thing that’s likely to cut through all those voices and get her attention - undistracted time with you!

September 9 — In Spite of a Difficult Family Background - Erin Davis grew up feeling hopeless because of her broken family situation. But at some point, her view of this story flipped. She started seeing that pain as an opportunity for God to tell a good story.

September 10 — God is Good, and God is Sovereign - It was her first pregnancy, and Erin Davis had just undergone an ultrasound. The doctor abruptly burst in the door, announced a problem with the baby and advised an abortion. Hear about the truths Erin clung to in that moment.

September 24 — When a Parent Needs Your Care - You were raised and protected by parents or another caregiver. You’re used to them caring for you. So it can be jarring when you have to start caring for them. Discover how to trust God when your story includes a chapter of caring for your parents.

September 25 — When You Watch Others Suffer - There’s nothing quite like caring for a parent who’s descending into the darkness of dementia. Holly Elliff has experienced this on an intensely personal level. Both her mother-in-law and her mother slipped into that sad and confusing state. She’ll tell the story and help you prepare for dark seasons you may go through.

ISSUE TWO

Problems and needs of families, youth and children, etc.

The preceding issues were determined through phone calls from listeners, letters from listeners, and a "verbal" sampling of community leaders, and monitoring of other media sources (i.e. television, newspapers, etc.) as well as issues that have come to the attention of the American Family Association.

FAMILY LIFE TODAY

July 1 — Stepdad Challenges - Ronnie Tyler may have been in love with her husband, Lamar, but as a strong, self-confident woman, she wasn't that interested in his help with raising her two children from a previous relationship. Ron Deal explores the complex nuances of blended relationships.

July 8 — Facing Difficulties - Aaron and Jennifer Smith, authors of “Marriage After God” share with Dave and Ann Wilson their journey through the early years of marriage and the struggles they had with intimacy. It’s their story of perseverance to do it God’s way.

August 6 — Wise Decisions Brave Men Make - If you could be a teen again, what would you do differently? Gary Chapman and Clarence Shuler talk about teaching young men to seek knowledge through education, learning from adults, and discovering the truth about God. They discuss some of the biggest challenges teens face.

August 7 — So What's Wrong With... - Would you like your son to have the same junior high or high school experience you had? Inevitably our kids will step in pot holes along the way to maturity, but Gary Chapman and Clarence Shuler want to help teens avoid them. Together these authors talk honestly to young teens about the challenges they'll face in adolescence.

August 19 — What Your Boy Needs Most - Monica Swanson, a mother to four sons, remembers how overwhelmed she felt when her boys were young. Swanson gives her best tips for raising boys while keeping your sanity.

September 4 — Why Are We Doing This? - Shelly Wildman talks about the guiding parenting principles she used to help her focus on the most important things. Wildman and her husband wanted to know why they were doing what they were doing. For Wildman, that meant living lives on purpose and for God.

September 25 — Staying Connected, Letting Go - What's the best way to nurture a healthy relationship with your grown children? Jim Burns encourages parents to continue to show their love and support to their grown children even if there have been years of distance between you. Hear how to manage the dynamics of relationships with your adult children.

FAMILY TALK

Jul 8 - How the Church Can Reach the Millennial Generation I - Guest: Jonathan Teague

For years, the millennial generation has been characterized as being lazy, liberal, and non-religious. But are these attributes true? On this broadcast, Dr. Dobson discusses some misconceptions about young people with Minister Jonathan Teague, from Prestonwood Baptist Church. He explains a millennial's distorted worldview and why they struggle to connect with the older generations.

Jul 9 - How the Church Can Reach the Millennial Generation 2 - Guest: Jonathan Teague

What are the best ways for the church to engage the millennial generation? On this broadcast, Dr. Dobson continues talking to Minister Jonathan Teague from Prestonwood Baptist Church. They examine young people's disconnect with the concept of absolute truth and emphasize why mature believers must disciple and minister to millennials.

Jul 11 - A Changed Life I - Guest: Greg Laurie

Jesus often taught in parables because powerful stories are memorable and meaningful. On this edition, Pastor Greg Laurie from Harvest Christian Fellowship shares his powerful testimony involving a troubled upbringing. He explains how his mother's wild lifestyle led him down a similar destructive path as a young adult. Hear how Pastor Laurie's deep longing for purpose led him to a meaningful relationship with Jesus.

Jul 12 - A Changed Life II - Guest: Greg Laurie

With a party girl mother who was married 7 different times while he was young, Pastor Greg Laurie's home life was understandably chaotic. Hear how a group of 'Jesus Freaks' helped him find the freedom that completely transformed his life forever.

Aug 21 - Children and Stress I - Guest: Dr. Arch Hart

Many people associate stress with the struggles of adult life, but often forget that children also deal with stress. On this classic broadcast, Dr. Dobson talks about this subject with renowned author and psychologist, Dr. Arch Hart. They examine the pressure on our kids and identify the various physical, emotional, and mental indicators of anxiety.

Aug 22 - Children and Stress II - Guest: Dr. Arch Hart

In this fast-paced society, many children struggle to keep up and can develop severe anxiety problems. On this broadcast, Dr. Dobson continues to talk about our kids and stress with best-selling author and psychologist, Dr. Arch Hart. They discuss how trauma, hostility, overstimulation, and drastic change can intensify a child's stress level.

Aug 26 - Bring Drake Home: Defending the Rights of Homeschoolers I - Guest: Tim Lambert

Since the homeschool movement began in the 1980s, families who self-educate their kids have been unfairly targeted. On this edition, Dr. Dobson welcomes Tim Lambert, President of the Texas Homeschool Coalition to the Family Talk studios. They identify the various roadblocks families have encountered and why so many parents choose to homeschool their children.

Sept 4 - Taking My Life Back I - Guest: Rebekah Gregory

On April 15, 2013, terrorists set off bombs at the Boston Marathon, which killed 3 people and brutally injured over 260 more. On this special broadcast, Dr. Dobson sits down with one of the survivors, author and speaker, Rebekah Gregory. She shares her horrifying account of that day and the gruesome injuries she sustained, which led to the amputation of her leg. Hear how God dramatically protected Rebekah and her then 4-year old son, Noah.

Sept 5 - Taking My Life Back II - Guest: Rebekah Gregory

When devastating circumstances rock our world, we often blame God for allowing them. On this edition, Rebekah Gregory, a survivor of the Boston Marathon bombing, shares why she doesn't harbor anger over that traumatic event. She explains to Dr. Dobson how her strong faith allowed her to endure the bombing, along with an abusive childhood, and an unhealthy marriage. Listen to what she is doing now to help others with PTSD.

Sept 17 - Mass Shootings: Dr. Dobson on Why We Aren't Safe - Host: Dr. Dobson

Deadly mass shootings are, unfortunately, becoming all too common in today's society. Why do these merciless killings happen? On this exclusive broadcast, Dr. Dobson reads from his September newsletter, which directly addresses the origin of these appalling acts. He unpacks how the family breakdown, not failed gun laws or mental health protocols, is the root cause of these disturbed murderers.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

July 1: Fun Ways to Instill Virtues in Your Children – I - Virtues are instilled in your children with laughter—not lectures. Courtney DeFeo will share how you can increase gratitude, generosity and joy in your children.
