FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

July 2: Changing the World through a Lemonade Stand - If you've ever felt overwhelmed by poverty, suffering and hurting orphans in our world, welcome to the club! How can you and I really make a difference? We'll examine practical solutions — simple things your family can start doing today — to help someone in need.

July 11: Engaging Hearts and Minds in a Broken Culture - The Apostle Paul was brilliant in his presentation of scriptural truth in a secular setting. He set a perfect example from which to learn. Bible teacher Ray Vander Laan will help you to share Christ with others, while using Scripture, a healthy understanding of the culture, and even...your weakness.

July 12: Finding Fun Ways to Praise God as a Family - The best way to raise godly children who will love the Lord is to start early! We'll explore the importance of "imprinting" the gospel on young children, as soon as possible — and creative ways you can worship together as a family!

August 8: Cultivating Wise Tech Habits in Your Teen - Navigating your teen's digital world may seem overwhelming, but it doesn't have to be! Jonathan McKee offers great insight and practical ways you can help your teen better manage phone use and social media, while taking safety precautions. It's an eye-opening conversation you won't want to miss!

August 13: Raising Godly Children in Today's Culture - Parents, it's time to step up and be...a parent! Arlene Pellicane shares her fun stories and power-packed research to encourage you with nuts and bolts reminders of strong parenting—teaching respect, instilling character, and spending intentional time with your children.

August 23: Speaking Your Teen's Love Language – I - He used to love hugs as a child, but now your teenager doesn't want you hugging him in public. Or – maybe a candy bar used to pass as a gift, but your teen daughter wants more to feel loved. Dr. Gary Chapman explains how we need to adjust to our teen's love languages.

August 24: Speaking Your Teen's Love Language – II - They have to own their faith. Dr. Gary Chapman explains how teenagers often need to wrestle with their faith now, so they can make it through the storms of life later. The challenge for parents of teens is to love them through that process.

August 27: Avoiding the Chore War - Dishes, laundry, bathrooms, dusting. The list of household chores never seems to end. Dr. Greg and Erin Smalley offer some practical advice on how to share these responsibilities and put an end to the "chore wars."

September 4: Supporting Your Kids When Life is Tough – I - It's tough to be a kid these days...and that means, it's also difficult to be a parent. Dr. Kevin Leman offers antidotes for common fears that kids have, such as rejection and uncertainty, and advice on providing a stable, loving environment. Dr. Leman will help you to respond, rather than react, when your children are hurting.

Counselors David Thomas and Sissy Goff discuss childhood emotional milestones, like emotional vocabulary, perspective, resourcefulness, and empathy. You'll learn practical ways to cultivate these milestones in your child

REVIVE OUR HEARTS

July 11 — Why Are Children a Blessing? - Most people used to have small homes and big families. Now they have large homes and small families. Consider how changing attitudes toward children affects you.

July 23 — Why Kids Can't Be "Good" - One of the pitfalls when we're trying to pass on biblical truth to children is to reduce the message to simplistic rules. It's easy to tell kids, "Be good like this biblical character, and don't be bad like this biblical character." But that really misses the heart of the gospel that says we are all sinners in need of a Savior.

July 24 — Keeping the Good News in Our Children's Stories - Old Testament Bible tales offer something far better than "the moral of the story." Barbara Reaoch says you can find the gospel all through these stories and teach them to your children. Learn how to point your kids to the gospel.

August 31 — Passing Your Experience to the Next Generation - As you get older do you feel discouraged, like you have less and less to offer to the Lord? As she nears her 60th birthday, Nancy DeMoss Wolgemuth will show you how to lean on the Lord in your weakness and use His strength to encourage others.

September 12 — Free from Lies in Your Past - Words you hear as a child can hold you in bondage for years. You might be acting on lies you heard years ago. But you can be set free by the truth.

September 13 — Living as an Ambassador - What would it look like for every neighborhood around the world to have homes that functioned as an Embassy of the King of heaven? Barbara Rainey says your family can all be ambassadors for the Lord, making your home an embassy.

ISSUE THREE

July 3: A New Look at America's Christian Heritage – I - What makes America great? Pastor Andy Stanley explains the history of a 'national conscience' in the United States, and how Christian principles are essential to exercise the freedoms that we all enjoy.

July 4: A New Look at America's Christian Heritage – II - A godly nation gives people the freedom to NOT believe in God. Hear how our Christian faith is really the foundation for America's freedoms, and discover what this nation means to so many families who immigrate here.

July 24: God's Good News for Your Life – I - "You only go around once in life, so grab all the gusto you can!" You'll hear how grabbing all the "gusto" that the world has to offer can often lead to tragic consequences – while God offers a much more fulfilling version of an exciting life.

July 25: God's Good News for Your Life – II - Sometimes we work too hard, trying to impress the people around us. Ken Davis demonstrates the folly in trying to impress other people – with some unforgettable examples! Tune in to learn how to focus on pleasing God.

August 9: Being Faithful to Jesus in the World - Do you find it difficult to share your faith with others? Many of us do... hip-hop artist and church planter Trip Lee will inspire you to be 'salt and light' in the world, and will warn against being a "stealthy" Christian.

FAMILY LIFE

July 9 — Sharing the Love - Authors and professors Barbara Neumann and Dr. Sue Edwards encourage women to forget everything they thought they knew about mentoring in order to minister to a younger generation.

July 10 — Mentoring Over Coffee - Think you'd like to be a mentor? Then why don't you start with coffee. Seminary professors Barbara Neumann and Dr. Sue Edwards, encourage women to be attentive to the mentoring opportunities around them, and to forget the idea that mentoring has to be structured.

July 11 — What Is a Mentor? Who are you pouring into? - Authors and professors Barbara Neumann and Dr. Sue Edwards describe what organic mentoring is: a natural, less contrived relationship where one woman listens, encourages, and builds up the other.

July 31—A World without Orphans - God compelled a pastor in Ukraine, Gennadiy Mokhnenko, to give homeless kids food and share the gospel with them. What transpired was beyond his wildest expectations.

August 16 — Help! I Feel Like a Failure - Brooke McGlothlin, president of Raising Boys Ministries, grew up dreaming of having little boys of her own. McGlothlin tells how she learned that her giftedness alone wasn't enough to raise her boys, and how God showed her that He was enough, and He would help her.

August 17 — What about ME? - Brooke McGlothlin, author of "The Gospel Centered Mom," dispels the myths of the ME gospel: "God is all about meeting my needs, wants and desires."
