WKTU
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WKTU provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Arts: Opera Awareness, Marc Scorca, President of Opera Americas discusses the importance of opera as an art and what it has meant for our past, present and future in America.
  - Children's Health: Helping Children and Their Families With Pediatric Cancer, Monica Vermulen, Michelle Olton, of the Ashley Lauren Foundation, discuss the grassroots organization and pediatric cancer awareness.
  - Fostering Animals: Fostering Dogs, Sarah Brasky, Founder & Executive Director of Foster Dogs NYC discusses the subject of fostering dogs and details the overall benefit to the pet as well as the people who foster them.
  - Grief: Coping with the Loss of a Loved One, Debbie Savigliano, Founder of Bianca's Kids discusses how to cope and get through the tough times after losing a loved one or close family member. Part 2 of 2.
  - Health: Brain Balance, Dr, Joe Schneider talks about overall brain functionality and what causes possible behavioral issues. Neurological problems, Alzheimer's and concussions are also discussed.
  - Pet Adoption: Pet Adoption, Darrell Lerner & Kimberly Bouton, Co-Founders of All Paws discuss the importance of pet adoption and tell their story on how they work with animal shelters across the country to try to provide safe and healthy homes for pets.
  - Positive Messages: Good News Stories, Helaina Hovitz, Co-Founder of Headlines For The Hopeful, discusses feel good stories about charities, non-profits, homeless and other community oriented issues.
  - World Peace: Global Mission of Peace, Marina Bello, volunteer, discusses Love For All, Hatred for None Day and the importance of equality to help make a better life for humans
