WKTU
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WKTU provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Cancer: Kathleen Ruddy, CEO, St. Baldricks Foundation discusses the foundation's commitment to conquering childhood cancers by funding the most promising research.
  - Charity: Will Weiss, Executive Director, Big Apple Circus discusses how the circus entertains kids and their families. The Big Apple Circus is non-profit and reaches out to the community with various programs for children with diseases and sicknesses.
  - Health: Tara Buonocore Rutt, Executive Director, Age Well NY, discusses the importance of choosing the right options regarding Medicare.
  - Helping the Disabled: Yannick Benjamin, Co-Founder, Wheeling Forward, discusses the importance of getting people with disabilities back into everyday life, fully functional.
  - Helping the Homeless: David Wolf, James Winans, James Maclin of The Bowery Mission discuss the different programs offered at The Bowery Mission aimed to help people get back on their feet after being homeless.
  - Military: Chris Wilson and Gerard Ilaria, The Headstrong Project, discuss the mission of the Headstrong Project to provide mental health care to post 911 combat veterans.
  - Music Education: Damon Marks, Founder of The Traveling Guitar Foundation which promotes music curriculum in schools and provides free concerts to students across the country to gain a better understanding of the music industry.
  - Pet Adoption: Darrell Lerner & Kimberly Bouton, Co-Founders of All Paws discuss the importance of pet adoption and tell their story on how they work with animal shelters across the country to try to provide safe and healthy homes for pets.
