WKTU
Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WKTU provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- American Cancer Society: Lizzette Dorado, Director of Community Development for the American Cancer Society talks about breast cancer awareness and their upcoming Making Strides Against Breast Cancer walks coming up within the next month.
- Colon Cancer: Michal Furmaniak of Walk Cancer Away discusses the diagnosis of colon cancer and the services of Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center as well as their annual walk held in the late summer every year.
- Comfort Zone Camp - Child Bereavement: Krista Collopy, Regional Program Manager of Comfort Zone Camp discusses this program that transforms the lives of children who have experienced the death of a parent, sibling, or primary caregiver. Comfort Zone empowers children experiencing grief to fully realize their capacity to heal, grow, and lead more fulfilling lives.
- Coping With 9/11: Lisa Lockett, Author of The Light in 9/11 Shocked By Kindness, Healed By Love discusses ways that she has coped with the shock of losing her husband on 9/11 and gives advice on how we can cope through the memories of 9/11.
- Inclusion Through Performing Arts: Lauren Bakst, Curator of The School For Temporary Liveness discusses the production and the diversity involved in the performing arts.
- Insurance Fraud: Frank Stoke, of the NY Alliance Against Insurance Fraud discusses the issues about insurance fraud and the penalties involved with committing fraud as well as overall insurance claims.
- Multiple Sclerosis: Daphne Mack of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society discusses the disease and ways that the organization is helping those with MS as well as their upcoming MS Bike event.
- Performing Arts in NYC: Jonathan Hollander, Founder of Battery Dance discusses the annual outdoor event that brings people and performers together through culture, dance and the performing arts.

- South Street Seaport Museum: Captain Jonathan Boulware discusses the cultural importance of museums and talks about upcoming events and features at the South Street Seaport Museum.
- Tall Order Designing Socks: Mike & Dan Friedman of Tall Order explain their concept of designing socks and donating some of the proceeds to charity in remembrance of their father passing away on 9/11.
