

1st Quarter Issues Report

Jan-March 2014

WAAV

Every Sunday Morning

6:00am

2014

1st Quarter Report/Issues Show

Sunday Mornings at 6:00am

January

- Jan. 5th Frankie Pollock discussed the Historically Black College Expo that will happen on MLK Weekend and the importance of showing the city the historical significance in HBCU's being important in our community
- Jan. 12th Hollis Briggs, Director of the MLK Celebration Committee, discussed the legacy of Dr. King and the importance of the celebration moving to downtown Wilmington on the same route as the Azalea Festival and how people of every race can participate in all the activities offered for the weekend.
- Jan. 19 Brenda Carlton-Dixon discussed her 100 homes in 2014 in which she was creating 100 new home owners in 2014 by making sure their credit is correct/correctable, down payments and home owners information to help them own their first home.
- Jan. 26th Amy from Wilmington Health Access for Teens (WHAT Center) discussed Teen addiction and the number of programs that can help youth to come off of their addiction...from drugs to shop lifting.

February

- Feb. 2 Kate Santheff of Cape Fear Community College discusses the huge issues of sex trafficking and it hitting the Wilmington Area in a recent case that was scene in court in the last 30 days.
- Feb. 9 Chief Evangelist discusses the importance of the Wilmington Police Department being more in the community by starting their foot patrol and the After School Hoops Program in the inner-city recreation Centers.
- Feb. 16th Rhonda Bellamy discusses the importance of the Arts program in Wilmington with the Wilmington/New Hanover County Arts Council and how individual Artists can apply for grants to obtain their projects.
- Feb. 23rd Life the poet discusses the upcoming Fatherhood Conference in New Hanover County run by DSS, New Hanover County Court System and the Domestic Violence Center.

March

- Mar. 2nd Coastal Horizons guests speak on their services and their 20 year commitment to the Wilmington Area. Also discussed was how listeners can seek out their placement services as well as their daily mentoring program for sociably handicapped citizens.

- Mar. 9th Charlon Turner of the NC Black Film Fest discusses the upcoming Film Festival and how African-American Film Makers have influenced the Wilmington Movie scene and the upcoming Festival Events.
- Mar. 16th DSS Board of Director Jim Corpening discusses the new opportunities for citizens to obtain job training and assistance once a job has been lost or terminated. Also, discussed the new laws on Public Housing.
- Mar. 23rd Michelle Jano from the WHAT Center speaks about the new TEEN Center and how Teens can use the facilities until they turn 21 for any health reason from checkups to minor procedures fro youth.