

PUBLIC AFFAIRS PROGRAMMING FOR 3RD QUARTER- 2012

WAAV-AM

JULY 1

Woody White, local attorney and current candidate for New Hanover county Commission

Discussed the latest issues with New Hanover County such as Economic development, the building of a baseball stadium, and the financial results of the Convention Center

JULY 8

John Tedesco candidate for State Superintendent

Discussed the educational system in NC with regards to charter schools

JULY 15

Steve Bilzi, New Hanover County School Board candidate

Discussed the purpose of seclusion rooms in school, the importance of technology in schools, and the role of vocational and gifted education or certain students

JULY 22

Rockingham Sheriff Sam Page

Talks about illegal immigration and its impact on North Carolina

JULY 29

Andy Pettigrew, managing editor of the Pender Post Voice

- Talks about the merging of the two papers in Pender County the Topsail Voice and Pender Post

AUGUST 5

Dr. Ray Cordato

Cordato talks about the tax situation possibly facing NC and the US in the coming year

AUGUST 12

Dr. Derrick Hickey, current school board member & candidate for NHC commission
Tuesday 8:30-9:22

Talked about the budget problems facing the school system as well the county as a whole and the Gvoernments job and role in society

AUGUST 19

Chris Millis House rep-elect

Discusses his plans for the next legislative session and how it could effect the local community

AUGUST 26

Jason Tyson Pender Post Staff Writer

on to discuss the upcoming school year as well as a congressional medal ceremony in Pender County

SEPT 2

Tracy Skrabal - coastal scientist

Discussing the environmental impact Titan would have the local area

SEPT 9

State Senator Thom Goolsby

Talks about the North Carolina Educational system needs some continual community support. Also, how the national election will effect Wilmington

SEPT 16

JENNIE MORGAN

Talked about the Poplar Grove haunted trail and other festivities that will kick off in October

SEPT 22

Scott Harry, President of the Vote No Stadium Tax Referendum Committee

Discussed the planned baseball stadium here in Wilmington and the effects it could have on the local community with regards to economic development and taxes