

WAAV-AM

2014

3rd Quarter Issues Report

Airs Sundays at 6am

JULY

- 6th Atiba Johnson from the OOPS Foundation discussed the Expungement Clinic being offered by several lawyers and the State herein Wilmington July 10th.
- 13th Naturally Fly of Wilmington returns to discuss the Natural Fly event for Breast Cancer and how everyone can be apart of the pre Breast Cancer Walk (run for the Tas Tas).
- 20th Corey Branch (filmmaker) and Dan Brewington (Cucalorus Film Fest Dir) discuss the film incentives for the film industry in the area and how it will affect the City of Wilmington and surrounding areas.
- 27th Elder Lynn Williams speaks about the City Wide Women's Empowerment Conference for Women Entrepreneurs.

AUGUST

- 3rd Diedre Parker talks about her book "A Long Walk in the Grass" and the benefits of being a senior citizen in the city and how the older citizens enrich the city and programs for them.
- 10th Cape Fear Community College Admissions Team discusses and urges new students to register for classes early via North Campus and Downtown as well as its Pender campus.
- 17th James Eadmon talks about the Star Studded Teen Challenge Talent Showcase that is offered to all teens and a small rally for Back-2-School. Teens will be able to check out club opportunities for the fall as well as receive school supplies.
- 31st What If Mentoring discusses the second chance for students that have been in the Juvenile system and how What If can help them find after school employment as well as resources for post secondary education.

SEPTEMBER

- 7th Michelle Cooper from the WHAT center talks about the afterschool programs that the center offers and the young mother's program that meets in the evening for parenting classes and dinner every Thursday and Fathering classes on Wednesdays.

- 14th Miller Motte talk about the new barbering classed being held and signing up early before October classes begin. This is new to the area and the attendance will have a waiting list as well as the cosmetology program that has a new building.
- 21st Curtis Poole discusses the Watch Dog Program for students at Williston Middle School and how Fathers can be involved more by becoming a Watch Dog on campus for an hour a week to help students and teachers with behavior and academics.
- 28th Kemp Burdette discusses the Ash Coal inside the surrounding rivers and how that effects the environment. Additionally, how the citizens can help and what the areas need Duke Energy to do to clean up the dumping.