

WAAV-AM

Shaper Speaks Issues Show with Travis Corpening

Sunday Mornings at 6am and 7am 30 minutes show
2nd Quarter 2013

April

- April 7 Tregell Jackson discussed the Holocaust Remembrance Day service as well as the community awareness and museum ties to the Holocaust.
- April 14 Doug Davis from Shaw Speaks Temple discussed the influence of the Gullah/Geechi heritage in the Wilmington Area from South Carolina to Wilmington and that the corridor extends to Georgia (Savannah) as well.
- April 21 Susan Tremel discussed the upcoming Earth Day events in the Wilmington area and how Wilmington and surrounding areas can be more "green" in their everyday activities.
- April 28 Frankie Roberts form the LINK program discussed the upcoming gun buyback program that will be hitting the area and trying to decrease the number of gun violence incidents.

MAY

- May 5 Sandra McClammy (The Mid-Day Miss) discussed the working women statistics that surfaced the week before about the disproportionate earnings between women and men that still exist.
- May 12 Pastor Barnett and friends of Northside discussed the upcoming End of Grade Block Party for kids in the area to prepare for the EOG testing and how important it is to promote a healthy environment at home during the testing weeks for children.
- May 19 Andrea Swepson from Coast Horizons discussed the goals and mission of the newly structured Coastal Horizons with Margaret Weller-Stargell.
- May 26 Wilmington Police Chief Evangeles discussed the new U-Turn program for second chance offenders that have been arrested and now complete the program for probation requirements and resources to get back into society in a positive light.

JUNE

- June 2 Charlon Turner of Outside the Walls mentor program re-introduces the OTW campaign of 100 mentors in 100 days and the importance of mentors to children that don't have anyone in the home to take time with them academically and sociably.

- June 9 Erica Pope of New Heart Strings discussed the rate of single mothers that are teenagers as well as the event for young single mothers at the Jervay Homes in the city.
- June 16 Wayne Lofton Director of the Community Boys and Girls Club discussed how students can earn money through the Club with the summer job program and Junior Staff volunteer program.
- June 23 Young Moguls Male Mentoring group discusses the new Young Moguls series that will take place in August for young men that are interested in Entrepreneurship.
- June 30 Discussed the importance of the father/male in the home with Boys and Girls Club Board Member Carlos Braxton.