20/20

Friday, July 3, 2020 (9:01 -11:00PM ET)

The Hitman: From Pop to Prison

Lou Pearlman managed some of the most successful bands of the past 25 years including Backstreet Boys, *NSYNC and O-Town, but underneath Pearlman's successful and charismatic façade was a criminal. ABC News' "20/20" dives into his past including his role in running one of the biggest Ponzi schemes ever, swindling investors and banks out of hundreds of millions of dollars; and the lawsuits brought against him – by almost all musicians he managed – for fraud and misrepresentation. (OAD: 12/13/19)

Friday, July 10, 2020 (9:01 – 11:00PM ET)

Truth and Lies: Jeffrey Epstein

Truth and Lies, series that premiered in 2017, this series dives into Epstein's life and background, raising questions and uncovering details about how he made his money; his relationships with many notable individuals; his decades of sexually abusing young girls, including emotional accounts from two sisters about how he manipulated them; and the federal sex trafficking charges he faced before he died. (OAD: 1/09/20)

Friday, July 17, 2020 (9:01 – 11:00PM ET)

In The Cold Night

"20/20" and Lone Wolf Studios filmmakers present the story of Timothy Coggins' murder. Coggins, a young black man, was brutally murdered in 1983 in a small Georgia town due, in part, to his relationship with a white woman. When both state and local authorities stopped investigating and the Coggins family received threats to remain quiet, the case went cold for nearly 35 years. In 2017, the Spalding County Sheriff's Office and the Georgia Bureau of Investigation reopened the cold case and eventually charged Frankie Gebhardt and William Moore Sr. with Coggins' murder.

Friday, July 24, 2020 (9:01-11:00PM ET)

Diane Downs

A mother's infatuation with a married man who said he had no interest in being a father to anyone's children was the possible motive behind the crimes of Diane Downs, who shot her three young children in her car, seriously injuring two and killing one. Diane captured the nation's attention as the story made headlines and became a bestselling book and a two-part TV series starring Farrah Fawcett, both titled "Small Sacrifices." Now, 36 years after that tragic day, Diane's youngest child, Becky Babcock, who was born while Diane was incarcerated and adopted by another family, speaks to "20/20" in a new interview. (OAD: 3/22/19)

Friday, July 31, 2020 (9:01-11:00PM ET)

Sole Survivor

Lisa Stasi and her 4-month-old daughter, Tiffany, mysteriously vanished in Kansas City, Missouri in 1985. When police charged serial killer John Robinson in 2000 with murdering Stasi, discovered John took Tiffany, forged adoption papers and gave her to his brother and sister-in-law who, knowing nothing of the true circumstances, thought it was a legal adoption and renamed her Heather Tiffany Robinson. Now, almost 20 years since Heather learned her real identity, she is ready to tell her story to "20/20" co-anchor Amy Robach. (OAD: 10/04/19)

Convicted of murdering his business partner, Ed Shin is currently sitting in a prison cell, where he'll live out the rest of his days. Over a period of six months in 2010, posing as Chris Smith, Shin told the 31-year-old's loved ones, friends and colleague that he had sold his share of the ad company the two founded and was living out his dream traveling the world. Police say that for about year Shin managed to dupe almost everyone. Shin, now 42, later confessed to accidentally killing Smith, but he has denied he intentionally murdered him. (OAD: 1/24/20)

Friday, August 14, 2020 (9:01-11:00PM ET)

Texas Love Triangle

Despite two murder trials and two juries finding David guilty of Belinda's murder, he's once again awaiting sentencing, 20 years after her death. Belinda's family is also waiting for justice decades after the terrible tragedy changed their lives forever. "20/20" correspondent Deborah Roberts reports extensively following David's most recent trial and reports on a twist in the case. (OAD: 11/01/19)

Friday, August 21, 2020 (9:01-11:00PM ET)

One Night in Central Park

Trisha Meili was viciously beaten, raped and left to die inside New York City's Central Park. The series of events that followed, triggered a media frenzy and forever changed the lives of all involved, including the five African American and Hispanic teenagers – Raymond Santana, Antron McCray, Yusef Salaam, Kevin Richardson and Korey Wise – who were convicted in the attack due to their confessions, which they said were coerced by police. Their verdicts were later set aside after Matias Reyes confessed to and was convicted in the attack. Now, 30 years after the attack, a two-hour “20/20” documentary re-examines the brutal crime and its aftermath. (OAD: 5/24/19)

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

Tuesday, July 7, 2020 (Season Premiere)

- A white man enters a restaurant wearing a jacket with the Confederate flag on it. Nearby, a Black customer sees the jacket and politely asks the man to remove the jacket, saying he finds the symbol offensive. The white man refuses to remove the jacket, saying he has the right to wear what he wants. How will diners in Mississippi react when they overhear this? How will customers react in New York when the same scene is played out?
- A man experiencing homelessness is buying a cup of coffee in a coffee shop when the cashier offers to give him some free food. The manager overhears and berates the cashier for her actions. How will bystanders react as the tension increases?
- Two young men are viewing risqué photos of a woman. One of the men, the woman's jilted ex-boyfriend, talks to his friend about getting back at his ex for breaking up with him. He explains that he's going to post intimate photos – that she shared only with him – online for the world to see. How will those who overhear the conversation react to his planned actions, known as revenge porn which is considered a crime in many states?
- A mother and her young son are shopping in a clothing store; the boy is dressed in a full superhero costume and is trying to enlist other customers to help him in his quest to destroy evil. The mother becomes embarrassed and annoyed by what she claims is the child's overactive imagination. Will other shoppers say something to the mother trying to rein in her child's creativity?

Tuesday, July 14, 2020

- A high school student is out for a meal with his coach and after building up the courage, he finally tells his coach he's gay and says he wants to come out to his teammates, too. The coach advises him not to come out, saying it would ruin his chances of becoming a professional baseball player. Rippon watches with Quiñones behind the scenes and reflects on his own experiences as the first openly gay Winter Olympian to represent Team USA and win a medal for the United States.
- A veteran who suffered a traumatic brain injury (TBI) is struggling to order food in a restaurant. He apologizes to the staff and explains that he suffers from a brain injury which causes his hands to shake and limits his ability to make decisions. The rude waitress requests that the veteran moves faster and even questions whether he is drunk. Will other diners come to his aid? A veteran from the Disabled American Veterans organization helps inform the scenario behind the scenes by sharing his experiences with a TBI.
- A customer in a clothing store, claiming to be inspired by Marie Kondo's KonMari Method, deviates from Kondo's positive message as she begins to reorganize the store, removing items from the shelves and tossing them in piles on the floor. What will customers say when she tries to enlist their help?
- A father is out to lunch with his son and the father asks to borrow money so he can gamble. The conversation quickly turns into an intervention as the young man tells his dad that his gambling addiction is ruining the family. How will others who overhear react?
- As food and income inequality grows across the country, many families are forced to shop for the least expensive items at the supermarket. A mother is with her child in a Mississippi supermarket. As she purchases foods at reduced prices, another shopper begins to criticize her choices. What will shoppers do?

Tuesday, July 21, 2020

- A woman is at a restaurant by the United States-Mexico border in El Paso, Texas, with a young immigrant child, whom she is sponsoring in an effort to keep the child out of a detention center. Another diner objects, arguing that the woman's efforts should be focused on American children who need help. How will bystanders react?
- When a new mother meets her friend out for lunch, she reveals she's feeling extremely low and overwhelmed by motherhood – signs of postpartum depression and anxiety. Instead of empathizing, the friend minimizes the mother's feelings and suggests that all she needs is a glass of wine and a bubble bath. How will those who overhear the conversation react? Will bystanders' reactions vary if the friend is replaced with the new mother's husband? Haines joins this emotional scenario and steps in to play the role of the new mom.
- Two college sorority members are at a café when they run into their classmate, a young woman with Down syndrome, whom their sorority recently rejected. The young woman asks if she could try to join again next year, but the sorority sisters tell her that she can't be in their house because she's different. Will others come to the defense of this young woman?
- A grandfather wants to go zip lining with his granddaughter in Campton, Kentucky. As they start to sign waivers before participating, the granddaughter becomes nervous due to her grandfather's heart condition. The grandfather shakes off her worries, telling her that zip lining is on his bucket list. What will others do?

Tuesday, July 28, 2020

- When a young woman applies for a job at a café, the manager points out that she didn't fill out a home address on her application. She explains that she isn't sure where she'll be living as she is soon due to age out of foster care. The teenager emphasizes that she is responsible, but the manager tells her she can't take any chances and needs to hire someone that is reliable. How will people nearby react?
- A woman is out on a date with an Asian man. The date seems to be going well, but then the woman stereotypes her date as smart, asking him, "Can you just imagine if we had children? They would be so attractive and smart!" How will those who overhear the conversation respond? Will bystanders' reactions change if a Black actor plays the woman's date and she stereotypes him as athletic?
- At a bar, a wife pressures her husband to have a drink with her. The husband shares that he's decided to try a period of sobriety after becoming concerned he has issues with alcohol. His wife accuses him of not being any fun. Will others say something when they overhear the conversation? Actor Ben Curtis, famous for having been "The Dell Dude" and a veteran "What Would You Do?" actor, plays the part of the husband and shares his own story of sobriety.
- A bride-to-be asks one of her bridesmaids to meet her for lunch. However, their conversation sours when the woman tells her bridesmaid she's been kicked out of the wedding. The bride argues that her friend is not fulfilling her duties as a bridesmaid, so she would like her to step down and hand in her dress. Will people nearby side with the bride or bridesmaid?
- A mother and her 12-year-old son are setting up for the child's birthday party at a restaurant. After time passes, the mother realizes that none of her son's classmates are showing up to the party. The mother explains to the waitress about all the classmates she invited and the invitations she sent out.
