

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

WJOX-FM

QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS REPORT

October-December 2023

- 1. Interview with Brian Chricton President of Talladega Superspeedway discusses the upcoming Nascar Race and how important it is that Talladega and Nascar is important to the local economy.
- 2. Empowered to Conquer is a collection of programs created by ETC to guide students towards bettering themselves spiritually, mentally, and socially crafting each Limitless program to meet students at all levels with the essential skills they need to flourish.
- 3. Denise Gillespie of SECCO talks about "Unlocking the Mystery of Developmental Disorders" Conference.
- 4. Erika Perry Mental Wellness Coach and Founder of Youth Talk a Non-Profit that is dedicated to encouraging and equipping young people to manage their emotions, express themselves in positive ways, and take the lead in caring for our community.
- 5. Rodney Gordon morgan county NAACP President discusses blocking Hudson Memorial Bridge in Decatur to protest officer-involved shooting death of Steve Perkins.
- 6. Steve Ward of Steps Ministries discusses their uniquely focused on prevention of addiction. By offering training, content, and coaching to businesses, organizations, and individuals to help people improve their lives emotionally, personally, and spiritually.
- 7. Ruben Morris of Alabama Aerospace and Aviation High School talks about his free public charter high school in Bessemer, AL that is designed to prepare students for college and career success with a focus in aerospace.

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

- 8. Brittany Watson of Diamond in the Rough Foundation talking about identify educational, social, mental health and financial stigmas in minority communities and provide support and solutions through multiple avenues of community outreach.
- 9. Gary Bryant President of Pi Upsilon Sigma Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. Annual Barry Deed Coats for Kids.
- 10. Dr. David Hicks hired as new Health Officer for Jefferson County Department of Health as he's now the department's first African American health officer. Discussing his goal is to see a healthy Jefferson County for all, with plans to focus on legacy, health equity and collaborative partnerships.
- 12. Bro. Ted Debro of Pi Upsilon Sigma Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. Talks about the upcoming Founders Day weekend which is a weekend filled Community, Service and Brotherhood.
- 13. Clearnce Muhammad of the Birmingham Kwanzaa Committee talks about the free events that celebrate the principle of Kwanzaa partnering with organizations that impact our community.
- 14. Attorney Jay St. Clair talk about the Trump – Colorado ballot and how that could impact the 2024 election. Then and interview with Alabama Senator Tommy Tuberville as he discusses his hold out on military promotions.

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

The attached list describes programs aired on WJOX-FM that address the above issues.

Station: WJOX-FM
Issue Addressed: Sports
Date Aired 10/02/2023
Time Aired 5:00AM
Duration 25 Minutes

Interview with Brian Chricton President of Talladega Superspeedway discusses the upcoming Nascar Race and how important it is that Talladega and Nascar is important to the local economy.

Station: WJOX-FM
Issue Addressed: Mentoring
Date Aired 10/08/2023
Time Aired 5:00AM
Duration 25 Minutes

Empowered to Conquer is a collection of programs created by ETC to guide students towards bettering themselves spiritually, mentally, and socially crafting each Limitless program to meet students at all levels with the essential skills they need to flourish.

Station: WJOX-FM
Issue Addressed: Developmental Disorders
Date Aired 10/15/2023
Time Aired 5:00AM
Duration 25 Minutes

Denise Gillespie of SECCO talks about Unlocking the Mystery of Developmental Disorders" Conference.

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

Station: WJOX-FM

Issue Addressed: Mental Wellness

Date Aired 10/22/2023

Time Aired 5:00AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Erika Perry Mental Wellness Coach and Founder of Youth Talk a Non-Profit that is dedicated to encouraging and equipping young people to manage their emotions, express themselves in positive ways, and take the lead in caring for our community.

Station: WJOX-FM

Issue Addressed: Policing

Date Aired 10/29/2023

Time Aired 5:00AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Rodney Gordon morgan county NAACP President discusses blocking Hudson Memorial Bridge in Decatur to protest officer-involved shooting death of Steve Perkins.

Station: WJOX-FM

Issue Addressed: Addiction Prevention

Date Aired 11/05/2023

Time Aired 5:00AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Steve Ward of Steps Ministries discusses their uniquely focused on prevention of addiction. By offering training, content, and coaching to businesses, organizations, and individuals to help people improve their lives emotionally, personally, and spiritually.

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

Station: WJOX-FM

Issue Addressed: Aviation

Date Aired 11/12/2023

Time Aired 5:00AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Ruben Morris of Alabama Aerospace and Aviation High School talks about his free public charter high school in Bessemer, AL that is designed to prepare students for college and career success with a focus in aerospace.

Station: WJOX-FM

Issue Addressed: Community Services

Date Aired 11/25/2023

Time Aired 5:00AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Pi Upsilon Sigma Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. Annual Barry Deed Coats for Kids.

Station: WJOX-FM

Issue Addressed: Arts

Date Aired 12/10/2023

Time Aired 5:00AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Tena Payne of Earthborn Studio talks about the Blue Light Special Art Show an event that embraces the imperfect or flawed 'seconds' that never see the light of commerce, as well as the best each artist has to offer. Also supporting Empty Bowls fundraiser to raise money for First Light Women's Shelter

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

Station: WJOX-FM
Issue Addressed: Mental Health
Date Aired 11/19/2023
Time Aired 5:00AM
Duration 25 Minutes

Brittany Watson of Diamond in the Rough Foundation talking about identify educational, social, mental health and financial stigmas in minority communities and provide support and solutions through multiple avenues of community outreach.

Station: WJOX-FM
Issue Addressed: Health
Date Aired 12/03/2023
Time Aired 5:00AM
Duration 25 Minutes

Dr. David Hicks hired as new Health Officer for Jefferson County Department of Health as he's now the department's first African American health officer. Discussing his goal is to see a healthy Jefferson County for all, with plans to focus on legacy, health equity and collaborative partnerships.

Station: WJOX-FM
Issue Addressed: Politics
Date Aired 12/17/2023
Time Aired 5:00AM
Duration 25 Minutes

Bro. Ted Debro of Pi Upsilon Sigma Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. Talks about the upcoming Founders Day weekend which is a weekend filled Community, Service and Brotherhood.

Cumulus Birmingham Issues Programs

Station: WJOX-FM

Issue Addressed: Politics and Sports

Date Aired 12/24/2023

Time Aired 5:00AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Clearnce Muhammad of the Birmingham Kwanzaa Committee talks about the free events that celebrate the principle of Kwanzaa partnering with organizations that impact our community.

Station: WJOX-FM

Issue Addressed: Sports

Date Aired 12/31/2023

Time Aired 5:00AM

Duration 25 Minutes

Attorney Jay St. Clair talk about the Trump – Colorado ballot and how that could impact the 2024 election. Then and interview with Alabama Senator Tommy Tuberville as he discusses his hold out on military promotions.