Local Issue/Concern	Brief description of local issue or concern
Education Issues	It's important for students to have access to a quality education as we prepare them for college and the workforce. It's also important for cities and counties to have excellent school districts because we know outstanding education systems attract new industry, businesses and jobs. The quality of the education system is the first thing employers and families look for when relocating. WTOK continues to focus on education.
Economic Development	We've shown viewers how important economic development is for communities to thrive. There's a local push to strengthen economic development partnerships, including creating a regional, economic development authority.
Crime	Crime continues to be a problem in Meridian. The city and police department are addressing the issue, but is it enough? What's being done to lower the crime rate and to stop violent crimes? WTOK is holding local officials accountable. WTOK is also focusing on domestic violence/abuse awareness and prevention.
Downtown Meridian Development	Development in downtown Meridian and revitalizing the downtown area have been important goals for the city. We reported on new businesses opening in downtown, including new entertainment destinations and museums and talked to city leaders about what this means for Meridian and how they're managing the growth.
Drug Epidemic	Drug crimes and drug addiction are serious problems in Mississippi and Alabama. Prescription drug abuse (opioids) continues to reach crisis levels and some communities are now dealing with cocaine and heroin problems. We're tackling the problem by talking to drug and mental health experts and to law enforcement.
Tourism/Travel/Area Attractions/Recreation	Recreation is an important part of leading a balanced life and WTOK is committed to showcasing local tourist attractions, historic sites, and entertainment destinations available for both locals and visitors.

THE LAST DEFENSE

Tuesday, June 12 & 19, 2018

Darlie Routier: The Trial . Amid a media frenzy, Darlie Routier's trial begins in the small, conservative town of Kerrville, Texas. Prosecutors know they will be up against a formidable adversary when Darlie's family hires one of Dallas's top attorneys, Doug Mulder. For the first time in the series, we hear from Darlie on death row and her first-hand account of what happened that night, an account investigators say was 100% fabricated after Darlie staged the crime scene. The state's investigators will present its evidence pointing to Darlie as the killer, but 20 years later, defense experts examine their theories, one by one.

DARLIE ROUTIER: The Trial was directed by Jeremiah Crowell.

Tuesday, June 26, 2018

Darlie Routier: The Woman . The trial of Darlie Routier heats up. Facing one of Texas's top defense lawyers, the prosecution argues that Darlie's actions and demeanor are not that of a grieving mother but of a person capable of murdering her own children. The defense strikes back by questioning the state's theory of motive and the characterization of Darlie. However, when the prosecution presents a video of Darlie having a party at her children's gravesite in the now infamous "Billy string video," it seems her fate is sealed. Author Barbara Davis, who was at the original trial, gives a firsthand account.
