ISSUE-RESPONSIVE PROGRAM
Kemper County Lignite Plant
Program	Date/Time/Duration	Description
News @ 6	7/23/15 6pm/2:00 min	Most Mississippi Power customers wont have to pay their bills for several months starting later this year. The company has been ordered to give refunds to customers by the state supreme court, which blocked a rate increase to pay for the Kemper Coal Plant. The company says it prefers credits to be the default option for refunding that 350 million dollars which will be roughly 650 dollars per residential customer. The state public service commission will have to approve the plan.
Live @ five	7/24/15 5pm/ 2:00 min	A candidate running for the Mississippi public service commission made a stop in Meridian yesterday. Cecil Brown is running for the Central District Public service commission. Brown gave his opinion on how Mississippi Power is trying to fund the Kemper County Coal Plant project.
News @ 6	7/25/15 6pm/ 2:00min	For seven candidates contending in three primaries for seats on Mississippi's Public Service Commission, the issues really boil down to one topic: Kemper. Mississippi Power company's 6.2 billion dollar Kemper Plant dominates Republican primaries in the Southern and Central districts, as well as the Democratic primary in the Central district. After years of delays and more than 3 billion dollars of cost overruns, Mississippi Power says it plans to begin full operation of what it calls plant ratcliffe sometime next year. While the company has absorbed more than 2 billion dollars, who's paying for remaining amounts has yet to be determined.
Good Morning Meridian	8/7/15 6am/ 2:00 min	Mississippi Power customers will soon receive a refund, following a public service commission order. More than three hundred million dollars will be refunded back to current and former customers of Mississippi power for rates incurred from the Kemper Coal Plant.
News @ 6	8/13/15 5pm/ 2:00min	Just weeks after they were ordered to lower them, Mississippi Power is raising its rates again. The Mississippi Public Service Commission today voted to allow the utility to increase rates temporarily by 18 percent, to help pay for the Kemper County Coal Plant. The increase will go into effect in September. The increase could become permanent in December, or they commission could issue refunds if they decide

Live @ Five	8/18/15 5pm/ :30 sec	Mississippi Power is spending its money wisely. An emergency rate increase granted by regulators was not enough to keep a bond rating agency from downgrading Mississippi Powers debt. Moody's investors service Friday cut the debt rating by a notch, although the agency still rates company's bonds as investment grade. The state public service commission approved an 18 percent rate increase last week amid warnings that Mississippi Power could run out of cash by November.
News @ 6	9/2/15 6pm/ 2:00 min	Officials with Mississippi Power Company, say the company will spend at least another 25 million dollars to finish building its coal plant in Kemper county, and this will push the total cost for the project to nearly $6.3billion. The money will pay for further startup costs. Mississippi Power officials say the company will cover the additional money and not customers. This month Mississippi Power customers are resuming paying 18 percent higher rates for that facility, which is still under construction. Also, the Mississippi Public Service Commission has denied an attempt by Kemper opponent and southern district Democratic PSC candidate Thomas Blanton to dismiss Mississippi Power's effort to make the rate increase permanent.

CHILD OF INFAMOUS SERIAL KILLER

Melissa Moore grew up with an adoring dad. But behind the loving facade was a violent killer with a secret that would only be revealed years later – her dad, Keith Jespersen, was one of the nation's most infamous serial killers, known as the "Happy Face Killer," for the anonymous confession letters signed with a whimsical smiley face logo. Jespersen's notorious five year, five state murdering spree resulted in the deaths of eight women. Juju Chang reports.

STRANGER THAN FICTION

"20/20" goes inside the stranger than fiction story that prompted unkind comparisons to the movie "Gone Girl," a bizarre abduction plot. When Aaron Quinn reported that kidnappers broke into his home, abducted his girlfriend Denise Huskins, and demanded a ransom, their story garnered national attention. The couple was initially accused by some investigators of staging the whole thing and Vallejo, CA police eventually dismissed the case as an elaborate hoax. Just this week, in a shocking twist, police have arrested Matthew Mueller, a disbarred Harvard-educated lawyer and US marine veteran who is now being linked to a crime with similarities in Dublin, CA to that in Vallejo, CA. As more bizarre twists and turns emerge in the headlines every day, is there a widespread kidnapping ring? Are there more victims who have not come forward? Cecilia Vega reports.

MANHUNT

It was a scene out of a blockbuster movie – two men sentenced to life in prison for murder escaping through a hole in a pipe, emerging to freedom from a manhole. Yet, there were no cameras rolling, and no director to yell "cut." Instead, this real life prison break captivated the nation last month and kept a small upstate New York town on edge until convicted murderers Richard Matt was shot and killed and David Sweat was shot and captured. With exclusive and unprecedented access to the hunt for Sweat and Matt, "20/20" details the most complete picture of how the felons successfully executed the brazen prison break and how the manhunt played out. Gio Benitez and Linzie Janis report.

OJ SIMPSON TAPES

Football legend OJ Simpson was found not guilty of murdering his ex-wife Nicole Brown Simpson and her friend Ron Goldman in his criminal trial 20 years ago next week. In that famous televised trial, Simpson evoked his right against self-incrimination by not taking the stand. Yet, in the civil trial brought against him, Simpson was forced to testify under oath for the first time on tape. Those tapes, part of a treasure trove of almost 150 boxes, have been stored under lock and key for almost 20 years. One hundred and fifty million people watched the criminal trial verdict – hardly anyone has seen these tapes...until now. Elizabeth Vargas reports.

BOSTON EMS

Viewers will ride along with the proud men and women of the Boston Emergency Services, one of America's most seasoned team of first responders: the first step in the chain of trauma care. It was this same group that answered the desperate calls of runners and spectators two years ago when the bombs went off at the Boston Marathon. Treating the injured and ferrying the wounded to hospitals, the Boston EMS earned the gratitude of a shell-shocked and grief-stricken city with their cool-headed professionalism. Meet some of the heroes of that terrible day as they answer new calls and respond to a daily dose of trauma and mayhem.

Saturday, July 25, 2015 (Premiere – 9:00PM ET)

- Cameras arrive at a harrowing scene of a car accident that has left a bicyclist dead and a driver having fled the scene. Paramedics remove from the wreckage a critically injured passenger. The young man pleads with them to tell him whether the bicyclist on the street survived or not – an answer they know but can't reveal.
- A man pulls himself out of a crashed car before it erupts into flames; a pair of accommodating EMTs surprise a barefoot homeless man with an unexpected gift; a tearful woman confides to an EMT about the devastating loss of her boyfriend whom it turns out he has a connection to; and it's all hands on deck as first responders scour the pitch-dark train tracks for a possible patient hit by the Acela express.

Saturday, August 1, 2015

- An eleven-year-old boy sprints for the school bus and becomes a casualty of a hit-and-run driver. An EMT – who is a mother of five -- arrives at the scene to comfort the boy's crying mom who needs as much attention as her injured son.
- A cyclist is pinned under an SUV and is lucky not to pay the ultimate price for not wearing a helmet -- and the gloves are on as EMTs transport a woman in labor and debate who gets to deliver the baby if they don't reach a hospital in time. Paramedics wrestle with how to break the news to an accident victim that his friend is worse off than he is, and EMTs race through rush hour traffic only to get blown off by a patient who declines treatment so he can search for his missing phone.

Saturday, August 8, 2015

- A driver going through a personal crisis deliberately crashes into a highway railing. A paramedic at the scene says this is more common than one might think.
- Also in this episode, a man avoids a spray of bullets and escapes with a single gunshot wound. When EMTs discover an old wound, they are less impressed by his luck and more concerned about his future. And a homeless man, hoping to spend the night in a warm hospital bed, decides to sit naked in a crowded Boston street. Elsewhere, EMTs responding to a young woman in the midst of a seizure discover that her service dog has answers to some of their questions. Finally, a woman suddenly falls ill and crashes her car into a house and a paramedic ends up in the middle of a parking lot fight.

Saturday, August 15, 2015

- A driver who gets rear-ended reveals he was at Ground Zero during the 9/11 attacks. Through his stories as a photographer and volunteer on that fateful day, EMTs find a renewed pride in their roles as first responders.
- An EMT arrives at the scene of a motorcycle accident that hits close to home, and she must suppress her own harrowing flashbacks in order to care for the victim.

Saturday, August 22, 2015

- EMT Janell Jimenez is working crowd control at the 4th of July celebration on the Boston waterfront. While handling a patient who is drunk and combative, she makes a misstep that lands her on a stretcher herself in an unexpected reversal of roles.
- An EMT is powerfully moved by the strength of a three year old with sickle-cell anemia, a painful blood disorder. As he carries her to the ambulance, thoughts of his own three year old daughter come to mind.
- A man jogging to the gym gets struck by a car that badly injures his leg, but he seems more upset about missing his workout; a drug addict gets a harsh scolding from an EMT concerned about the neighborhood children who could find one of his dirty needles in the grass. Finally, an old school EMS supervisor makes new friends at Boston's gay pride parade.

SAVE MY LIFE: BOSTON TRAUMA

Viewers will get unparalleled access to top tier trauma teams inside the ERs and ORS of the nation's most prestigious hospitals including the Boston Medical Center, Massachusetts General, and Brigham and Women's. Lives that could be lost in lesser hands at less renowned medical centers are saved through feats of miraculous skill. The only certainty is that those who need care will receive the very best that medicine has to offer. This remarkable series tells many stories of heroism, poignancy, and unexpected humor.

Sunday, July 19, 2015 (Premiere – 10:00PM ET)

- Cameras follow two young men who are gunned down on Main Street in the close knit Charlestown neighborhood of Boston. EMS evacuates the two victims to Massachusetts General Hospital where top surgeons wage a heroic battle to save the life of a 17-year old boy. The case takes an unexpected twist that even doctors can't anticipate.
- A nursing student discovers that the driver of the vehicle that hit her is also a nurse, a young mother with two broken legs is concerned about the meatballs she left cooking in the oven, and an injured motorcyclist can't resist spouting rap lyrics for a captive audience of doctors and nurses, and a police officer compliments a doctor-in-training who fixes his dislocated knee cap.

Sunday, July 26, 2015

- A buddy's Go-Pro helmet camera captures the moment when an off duty firefighter is involved in a horrific motorcycle accident. Waiting for his patient to be medevaced to the helipad on the roof of Massachusetts General Hospital is Dr. David Fink, one of the nation's top trauma surgeons. Fink knows that time equals life and this patient is running out of both. The man's family is counting on Fink to work his magic.
- A teenager at a church gathering decides to hide in the bell tower during a game of hide and seek. What she couldn't know was that the floorboards would give way dropping her 25 feet on to a church pew; elsewhere, a man puts his arm through a glass window following an argument with his girlfriend and gets both stitches and relationship advice from a young doctor; outside the Boston Garden EMS personnel demonstrate tact and restraint when confronted by a spitting Bruins fan; and it takes the muscle of three orthopedic docs to get a volleyball player's dislocated ankle back into place.

Sunday, August 2, 2015

- A teenage boy's hand is severed in a shocking car accident on a rural Vermont road. Despite the trauma, he summons help from a neighbor while a police officer locates the missing hand. Even if he can reach Massachusetts General Hospital, a successful reattachment surgery is a long shot. But, beating the odds is why hand surgeon Dr. Johnathan Winograd comes to work each day.
- Also in this episode, a Boston firefighter slips from the roof of a burning building and finds that what hurts most is his wounded pride. And a bad day gets worse when the local news reports that his wife is pregnant with the couple's third child – and they haven't told her parents yet! Two more tales round out the hour -- a bullet to the chest causes a young man to see the silver lining--a second chance to be a dad to four adorable kids who need him to stick around, and finally a man who just won't believe his car hit a tree, "it's just a branch, it's just a branch," he swears.

Sunday, August 9, 2015

- A medical student rides thirty feet on the hood of the car that struck her while she was biking. If her boyfriend's daughter hadn't lent her a helmet, the outcome would have been very different. Elsewhere, a woman allergic to latex begins to suffocate after eating food prepared by kitchen workers wearing rubber gloves. The standard antidote is epinephrine, a drug sold at pharmacies that is easy to self-inject from an EpiPen. Those who suffer from anaphylaxis are often advised by doctors to never leave home without their "pens," but in this case, the patient forgot.
- An ER doctor keeps his cool when a patient becomes physically aggressive and has to be restrained. And two overdose cases highlight the incidence of heroin addiction among a group of veterans who served in America's wars in Afghanistan and Iraq.

Sunday, August 16, 2015

- A young woman stumbles onto the tracks just as a commuter train pulls in to the station. Rescuers extricate her only to discover that this isn't the first time they've met. Also, a man who has been stabbed begs his doctors not to operate when they seek to repair internal injuries. He calls mom to tell her his news, but she thinks he's playing a prank.
- A man is visiting his daughter in the hospital is wracked by escalating chest pain that he has been dismissing as just an extreme case of heartburn. Luckily, world-class interventional cardiologists are stationed in the building and in minutes they are able to clear a blockage from his coronary arteries that would have proved fatal.

- A young man who was lacerated by a knife-wielding assailant baffles doctors with his calm, Zen-like demeanor.
- A man tries to save his wife from falling down a flight of stairs, but ends up tumbling down with her. They reunite in the ER.
