ISSUE-RESPONSIVE PROGRAM
Education Issues
Program	Date/Time/Duration	Description
News @ 6	7/1/16 6pm/1:00min	East Mississippi Community College is in the process of signing several transfer agreements with various universities. Two year institution in Mississippi continue to be at the top of many students' list. With cost being a big factor as to why students choose to go to two-year colleges and then transferring to a four year university, that is why East Mississippi Community College kept tuition rates the same as last year. To make it easier for students to make the transfer, community colleges like East Mississippi continue to sign articulation agreements with four year institutions.
Good Morning Meridian	7/15/16 6am/1:00min	A new partnership was formed between MSU Meridian and two local community colleges today. East Mississippi Community College and meridian Community College signed an agreement that will represent a new comprehensive approach between the institutions. This will allow students to have a course specific path when it comes to higher education. Officials say it makes it easier for students to transfer between MSU and EMCC or MCC in one of nine academic programs.
Live @ Five	7/27/16 5pm/ 2:00 min	With tablets and laptops increasingly popular in the classroom, students are using pen and paper less often. Many of them now say they don't know how to write in cursive. Alabama lawmakers passed a law earlier this year requiring it be taught by third grade, and requiring local school boards to certify each year that students meet handwriting requirements.
Live @ Five	8/10/16 5pm/2:00 min	The Meridian Public School District is asking for the communities help in showcasing their Wildcat pride. Car tags can be a form of personal expression, showcasing where you are from, your county or your favorite sports team. If the Meridian Public School District has its way, you too at home can showcase wildcat pride no matter where you travel. The car tag would cost $31 on top of the Mississippi tag renewal fee. Out of that money for the tag, $24 will go back to the school district.
News @ 10	8/23/16 10pm/2:00 min	The state of Mississippi is shelling out millions of dollars for students to play catch up after high school. More than half of last year's college freshmen in Mississippi weren't ready. Remediation courses

		aren't for credit. Because of that they don't count towards graduation. It costs the state 35 million dollars a year to offer the remedial courses. 25 million of that is at the community college level. The state's community colleges are considering a co-requisite system. It would provide some credit while catching the students up in their weak subjects.
