City Government	WTOK TV covered the new city government officials and its leadership for this new administration. We are attending city council and community meetings, listening to issues that concern residents.
Mental Health	Mental Health issues and how it relates to crime. We continued stories that addressed the issues that our community faces.

ISSUE-RESPONSIVE PROGRAM

Education Issues

Program	Date/Time/Duration	Description
News @ 6	4/1/16 6pm/2:00 min	Members of the Rotary Club of meridian celebrated its 100 years of being established by handing over a check for $25,000 to Meridian Community College. Club President tommy Tabereaux says rotary is investing in the future of others by starting an endowment scholarship for full-time students. The scholarship is not designated to students with a particular major.
News @ 10p	4/8/16 10pm/2:00 min	It was a big night in Meridian for some students in the area. The second annual scholarship gala for the Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity is to help students who are in Sigma Beta and the Junior Club to further their education.
News @ 6p	4/14/16 6pm/2:00Min	As the legislative session winds down some democrats worry the current public school funding formula will get changed behind closed doors. "When you have legislation that's as open as this is, anything could happen." "If any changes are to be made, they should've been made via the committee process this legislative session at full disclosure to our legislature, our public, schools and educators." There's nothing written in stone for public education funding this session.
Live @ Five	5/6/16 5pm/2:00 min	Data from the Mississippi department of Education shows the state's graduation rate at 78.4% during the previous school year, but it was lower than the national average of 80.2%. However, the graduation rate is rising. Those numbers are dependent upon the performance of 167 school districts. Meridian High Schools graduation rate was at 68.1% principal Victor Hubbard says the school's graduation numbers aren't satisfactory. However they are getting better. Hubbard says a focus on literary and other services are in place to help students earn a diploma.
Live @ Five	5/11/16 5pm/2:00min	Mississippi troopers and other trained driving instructors have an important message to teen drivers. It's about the importance of taking all precautions for safety when behind the wheel. The use of electronic devices is one of the leading causes for distracted driving and the accidents that it causes. To combat the problem, the Mississippi Highway Patrol has joined other states in a "STOP THE KNOCK"

Live @ Five	5/23/16 5pm/1:00 min	initiative. Started almost six months ago in Mississippi, the program is designed to stop troopers from being forced to knock on parents' doors to tell them that their child has died in a car crash. As part of the program, troopers go into schools and stress the importance of safe driving to teens. However, Trooper West says even that is not enough to fix the problem. A new high school for Neshoba Central continues progressing. The dirt work was completed on April the 27th, which was a few days before the deadline. Now contractors are working on the foundation. Superintendent of Education Joe Killens says the new school is on track to be completed by this time next year.

Elections

Program	Date/Time/Duration	Description
News @ 6	4/9/16 6pm/2:00min	The fight for the white house is keeping most of the candidates busy this weekend while everyone else rallied potential voters, Republican Donald trump made a rare unannounced trip to New York City's 9/11 museum. The candidate skipped the outdoor memorial and ducked inside for just about 30 minutes. Trump has been largely absent from the trail for the last three days? His rivals- not so much. John Kasich stumping in Rochester. The Ohio Governor hoping to close in on Trump's lead in New York. But Ted Cruz- the man with the second most delegates- spent his Saturday more than a thousand miles away, picking up more support in Colorado.
Live @ Five	5/24/16 5pm/2:00min	The official results for ward 1 Alderman are in. That includes ballots cast today, absentees and affidavits. Tullos and McClain came out on top. There will be a runoff election. Joe Tullos led with 191 votes. Chuck McClain with 159. Sam Nowell came in with 33 votes and John Cook with 10. One candidate had to have a majority of the votes to win. A majority being 50 percent plus one vote or more. Tullos barely missed it leading with 48.8%. McClain not far behind with 40.4%. Tullos, a former alderman says he is looking forward to the runoff.
News @ 10	6/7/16 6pm/ 2:00 min	Tonight marks the end of the road for the big primary nights, with six states getting their say at the ballot box. Hilary Clinton clinched the nomination, but her Democratic rival Bernie Sanders says the fight isn't over yet. Kim Hutcherson reports. Hilary Clinton and Donald Trump started the night with big wins in New Jersey. Voters in six states headed to the polls Tuesday... Eager to have their voices heard despite presumptive nominees in place for both major political parties. Hilary Clinton made history Monday night... after a delegate count made her the first woman to clinch the nomination of a major political party. Clinton's response remained muted... likely fearing the news would impact voter turnout.
Live @ Five	6/8/16 5pm/2:00 min	The race for Alderman in ward one in Philadelphia has been decided. Last month the race came down to men: Joe Tullos and Chuck McClain. Voters in ward one were able to cast their ballots once again. Joe Tullos defeated Chuck McClain in a runoff.

Youth Crime

Program	Date/Time/Duration	Description
News @ 6	4-13/16 6pm/2:00min	Children at the Boys and Girls Club had special visitors late yesterday for a wellness event. It was part of the fifth annual mind, body, and soul wellness event. The theme was, "MIND VERSUS ABUSE." As part of it, many people from the community showed up to promote positive activities for the children. Organizers say they're just happy to see that so many people care about the future of Meridian's youth.
News @6	4/15/16 6pm/2:00min	Dustin Markham put what he calls an open letter to the city of Meridian today on social media. It says in part that Meridian has lost its way, that our youth and adults need our help and prayer, and that we need to change things for the better. In the letter to the City of Meridian, Markham expresses concerns for how things have changed from the time he was a child. Markham grew up in Meridian and, in the letter, details the differences in his youth to the youth of Meridian today. "We have to recognize that Meridian is better than other cities. We have to take an effort to make sure that we are revitalizing the city from within." In the letter, Markham says the Meridian of today is not the Meridian it once was, and that he can barely recognize it. He takes a nostalgic look at a time when kids would play baseball and go on summer picnics. A different picture than what he says he sees today. Markham calls on the community to put down the guns and to stop getting upset over minor differences. Markham ends the letter by saying: "Neither violence nor negativity has a place in this city. They never have let's change for the better."
Live @ Five	4/19/16 5pm/1:00min	The safety of students was in question last Monday after a bomb threat. Meridian and Lauderdale County Schools were released early because of this as investigators scoured the campuses. However, a bomb was not found. Well, now a student has been arrested in the case.
News @ 6	5/19/16 5pm/2:00min	The state's alternative sentencing method for at-risk juveniles is being cut. A change in federal funding guidelines and a tight state budget are being blamed. Counseling, tutoring and substance abuse prevention are some of the services that will be lost. Adolescent opportunity programs stop the pipeline to prison in its tracks for many at-risk kids in Mississippi.

News @ 10	5/25/16 10pm/ 2:00 min	Counseling, tutoring and substance abuse prevention. AOP's, as they're called, are used as alternative sentencing for kids...ages 12-17. Each month we shine the spotlight on one person who goes above and beyond in our Eleven Who Care series. This month, that person is Janelle Kidd. She's always ready to lend an ear or a helping hand to local youth in need. Janelle Kidd has a passion for helping kids, and throughout her life, that's exactly what she's done, first as a school nurse and then through the Meridian Housing Authority. Kidd has served on the MHA Board for over 26 years. Day after day, she goes out of her way to meet the kids who live at the different housing complexes- specifically the teenagers. She says seeing them succeed means staying after them and truly listening to their problems.
News @ 6	5/26/16 6pm/ 2:00 min	As school ends for some, and others look to continue their education, this morning we have a story about a local man who's defied the odds. Tyrone Johnson is 31 years old. He says when he was kicked out of high school he had major problems with reading and writing. During his youth, the single father also overcame run-ins with local gangs, and went on to obtain two associate degrees. Most recently he earned a bachelor's from MSU Meridian. Tyrone Johnson says he's planning to go back to college to earn a masters' degree. His goal is to one day build a community center that serves people of all ages in Meridian.
Live @ Five	6/20/16 5pm/2:00 min	A Jackson woman believes she has found one of the answers for crime among youth in the city...she's putting them to work on the farm. She's teaching kids and young adults how farming can give them a healthy and prosperous future.

Kemper County Lignite Plant

Program	Date/Time/Duration	Description
News @ 6	4/21/16 6pm/2:00min	Southern Company Power plant is catching attention all over the world with its new technology that powers generators using a low rank coal. This technology is the first of its kind. It takes lignite, a low quality coal, turns it to a gas, removes C-OH-2 and uses what's left to generate electricity to customers in a cleaner, more efficient way. Power companies from France and Norway toured the plant in Kemper County today to learn about carbon capture.
News @ 10	4/26/16 10pm/2:00min	Mississippi Power says it will spend another $61 million on its overrun-plagued Kemper County power plant, pushing its total cost above $6.7 billion, although Mississippi Power will absorb $35 million of the cost, customers could pay for $26 million in interest if the Mississippi Public Service Commission eventually approves. The utility is absorbing $2.7 Billion in overruns so far. After taxes, the write-off projected to cost $33 million. The plant and associated lignite coal mine were originally supposed to cost $2.9 billion at most. Customers could be asked to pay as much as $4.3 billion for the plant.
Live @ Five	5/5/16 5pm/ 2:00mins	The securities and exchange commission has now opened and investigation into Mississippi Power over the Kemper County Power Plant. The agency will be investigating the costs and schedule of the overrun-plagued 6.7 billion dollar plant. Mississippi Power Company spokesman Jeff Shepard says in a statement that the company does not expect the probe to "Have a material impact on the financial Statements" of either southern or Mississippi Power.

ISSUE-RESPONSIVE PROGRAM

City Government

Program	Date/Time/Duration	Description
Good Morning Meridian	4/5/16 6am/2:00min	Steps are being taken to ease traffic concerns in downtown Meridian. The first involves two red lights; both are located along 23 rd Avenue and 6 th and 7 th streets. During their meeting yesterday, Meridian City Council Member approved de-commissioning those lights because they say they are no longer needed due the street changes that have been made in the area. “Well, I’m asking the council to approve a study of the traffic. How are we going to move traffic in downtown Meridian?”
News @ 6	4/18/16 6pm/2:00min	Neshoba County’s Board of supervisors toured the newly renovated Neshoba General hospital yesterday, while also learning about ongoing work there. Each year the Board of Supervisors have to inspect all of the Governmental buildings throughout Neshoba County. As the hospital is moving into the new fiscal year, volumes are expected to increase with the track they’re on now. A medical office building and an outpatient rehab center are expected to open in May helping those volumes continue to rise.
Good Morning Meridian	4/19/16 5pm/:2:00min	An agreement to begin building the Velma Young Community Center was made at last night’s city council meeting. The council voted to authorize granger property management to go ahead and begin work. Mayor Percy bland says the community should see construction begin on this project by the end of this month or the beginning of next month. He says they are very excited to see this project in the works.
News @ 6	4/25/16 6pm/2:00min	The city has seen a lot of building over the last few months...and that’s apparently paying off... city officials today learned that tax revenues are up over the last year... a breakdown of the city of meridian’s budget was the talk today. City council took a look at its finances, while an auditor explained their findings.
News @ 6	5/16/16 6pm/2:00min	Neshoba County supervisors have approved a several thousand dollar improvement to the jail there. They hope this will help them better serve the public. Neshoba County jail is currently using a booking system that is outdated with limited technology. They’re still writing names by hand, taking mugshots on a camcorder, and assigning locations using a marker board. Jail administrator Jimmy Reid proposed a new electronic system to the board of supervisors

News @ 6	6/8/16 6pm/2:00min	who gave the go ahead. The city of meridian officially has a new logo. The city council has approved the design from meridian based leading edges advertising. It displays a large artistic font letter “M.” City officials and designers say the new image is easier to identify. Plus, they say it displays several symbols that highlight what makes Meridian special. The new logo will be used on promotional material for the City of Meridian.
Live @ Five	6/20/16 5pm/2:00min	Lauderdale County supervisors are getting closer to voting on how to spend money from a controversial bond. The previous board had voted to use money from the 14-million dollar bond for courthouse needs, a sportsplex in Highland Park, and to develop a new outdoor sports complex in both Collinsville and Clarkdale. Newly elected supervisor Johnathan Wells supports using the money to improve county roads.
News @ 6	6/21/16 6pm/2:00 min	New sidewalks will soon be built in one part of the city. The Meridian City council approved at last night’s meeting that sidewalks be built from Highway 80 at Western Gardens all the way to Highway 19. The mile and a half passes Oakland Heights School, and they hope this will make a safer journey for students. Councilman George Thomas says he thinks the sidewalks will be great, but wants attention to be on current dilapidated sidewalks as well.

Mental Health

Program	Date/Time/Duration	Description
Live @ Five	4/9/16 5pm/ 2:00min	Families in the Queen City now have a resource to help them connect with people who are affected by autism and Fragile X, which are both developmental disorders. Frankie Loyd and Winter Trussell have an autistic son who was born with Fragile X which is a genetic disorder. They noticed there wasn't a group that catered to their child's needs locally. They began to pull together resources and support by hosting the first annual walk for Autism and Fragile x in Meridian. People would always have questions and they were asking for resources, that's one thing that we put with the walk, not just to walk to raise funds. But also the resources for the people who may have just found out their kid has Autism or Fragile X.
News @10	4/27/16 10pm /2:00min	Scientists first developed LSD as a treatment for psychiatric disorders... Governments around much of the world later criminalized it. Now, thanks to new research. The drug could be returning to its roots. Director Terry Gilliam famously illustrated the effects of LSD in the film Fear and loathing in Las Vegas. Ow for the first time ever scientists can illustrate exactly what your brain looks when under the influence of the psychedelic. Researchers at Imperial College London used brain imaging technology to compare a normal brain to one on LSD. You can see the brain under a hallucinogenic state is almost entirely lit up with activity. Researchers say LSD improves communication and that more parts of the brain then normal contribute to visual processing.
News@ 6	5/18/16 6pm/2:00 min	Following budget cuts, the second in command for Mississippi's largest state agency is calling on legislators to visit state facilities to see firsthand the impact that they have. Attorney Rick Barry of Meridian is vice chairman of the board for the Mississippi Department of Mental Health. He says the more than eight million dollar cut to the agency this year will leave many people who cannot afford treatment, unable to get it. "I think some people in the legislature maybe think that the department of Mental Health is too big; it's not big enough! We probably could be double the size to deal with all of the issues that we have in the state." To adjust to budget constraints, alcohol and drug units at the

Live @ Five	5/19/16 5pm/2:00min	agency's two largest hospitals are set to close. The Mississippi department of Mental Health is the state's largest agency. This summer 220 million people are expected to travel through US airports- the most ever, and while government officials concede they are trying to handle passenger concerns about long TSA checkpoint lines. They admit things won't improve until at least mid-June. Mary Moloney has ways you can seek some mental relaxation when long lines have you stressing out. Across social media and elsewhere, many travelers are fed up with long, tedious security lines at US airports. Well here are some tips to reduce your mental stress when it's your turn with the TSA. Arrive early- so this one at this point is probably obvious. But showing up safely early will ease your concerns. And in the process ease your stress.
News @ 10	6/9/16 10pm/ 2:00min	Sadly that epic trip to the beach or to spend time with family for the holidays has to come to an end at some point! When it does, many report feeling depressed and sluggish in the office. Well experts say it's a thing... and have some suggestions on how to beat it. Doctors might not have a name for the condition, nor has it been specifically mentioned in the official manual of mental disorders. But on social media it's known as the back to work blues or a post vacation hangover. A psychology professor at Loyola University in Illinois says there could be a variety of reasons for it. During the holiday season for example it's several days of people having lots of fun and spending time with loved ones. That could very well set someone up for a crash. The drudgery of answering a zillion work emails after so much joy can be tough for one's emotional well-being. Plus, many times expectations during holidays aren't met, and that can bring about the blues as well. A Michigan State University Psychology professor says this is what you should do... Ease back into work. Don't think you're going to get completely caught up in 24 hours. Take advantage of the break in your routine to develop some new positive office habits and don't dwell on that vacation or holiday experience that has now come and gone.

ABC NEWS PROGRAMS – Second Quarter, 2016

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

Friday, June 17, 2016 (premiere)

Hidden-camera fan-favorite returns this summer with all-new scenarios capturing unsuspecting people's reactions to everyday situations. These scenarios elicit new and sometimes surprising reactions, but what does not change is the incredible response to anchor John Quiñones when he appears on camera to ask about each person's split-second and often surprising decision-making process.

- A customer is bullying a supermarket employee with Down syndrome. Will customers step up and defend him or go about their business?
- A mother and her two daughters enter a local donut shop. The mother refuses to let one of her daughters get a donut because the girl is "overweight." Will onlookers intervene or let this mother parent her children the way she chooses?
- A mother and her children are shopping in a supermarket when the children begin to misbehave. To discipline this behavior the mother begins spraying a bottle of water in the kids' faces. Will onlookers support this mother's decision or be outraged?
- A pharmacist is loudly disclosing potentially embarrassing information about one of the people waiting online at prescription pick-up. Will someone tell the pharmacist to quiet down or will everyone listen in?
- A young girl is testing out a demo video game in the store when two boys begin harassing her, telling her "girls can't play video games." Will any of the customers come to the young girl's defense?

Friday, June 24, 2016

- Surrogate Mom: A surrogate mom excitedly tells the parents-to-be she is carrying twins, but they want only one baby and refuse to take the second one. How will bystanders react when the parents tell the surrogate to get rid of one of the babies?
- Drunk Cab Driver: A cab driver gets drunk on his lunch break and tries getting behind the wheel to continue his shift. How will bystanders react?
- Overwhelmed Caregiver: Our actors are a woman and her elderly mother, who needs help doing everything. Traci is at her wit's end – all of the emotion she's bottled up about having to care for her mom boils up and overflows. She complains to her mother about being overwhelmed, and her mother reacts nastily, saying things like, "I'm the one who should be overwhelmed. You're stupid and forgetful." What will people do?
- Teacher/Student: A teacher is out with her student helping him "study" when some inappropriate PDA between them starts up. They begin to discuss their relationship, and there seems to be something more going on between them than just tutoring. Do others speak up to protect the boy or stay quiet?
- Eating Disorder: Three teen girls are eating lunch together. One of the girls is curious how the other two stay so skinny despite the bad food they eat. They admit to her that they binge and purge, and they encourage her to do the same. How will other diners react to the two "skinny" girls pressuring their friend to take up their unhealthy habit?

TOM FALLIS MURDER TRIAL

"20/20" reports on the explosive Tom Fallis murder trial in Colorado. Fallis was accused of murdering his wife Ashley after it was originally ruled a suicide in 2012. Ashley's mother never believed her daughter would have killed herself and argued that the police did not investigate properly, because Fallis worked for the county sheriff's department. She doggedly got a local news reporter to investigate, who, two and a half years later, found people who came forward to say they had heard incriminating statements that night –leading to a new investigation and an indictment. ABC News correspondent Ryan Smith reports.

Friday, April 8, 2016

VANISHED

Did a bitter divorce and custody battle drive two teenage sisters to disappear for two and a half years so that they would not end up living with their father, whom their mother alleged was abusive? Elizabeth Vargas' reports.

Friday, April 15, 2016

SINISTER PLOT

What would drive a church-going Springfield, Missouri, woman and her daughter to fatally poison two family members with anti-freeze, and attempt to kill a third over a 14-month period? Diane Staudte and daughter Rachel both confessed to the murders of Diane's husband, Mark, and her son, Shaun, and attempting to kill her daughter Sarah, and are both serving life terms in prison. "20/20" reports.

Friday, April 22, 2016

PRINCE: DEATH OF A LEGEND

20/20" will report on the incredible life and untimely death of music legend Prince. The hour will be anchored by Elizabeth Vargas and will feature reporting from Vargas, Dan Harris from Prince's home in Minneapolis, Chris Connelly in Los Angeles, and Deborah Roberts in New York.

SINCE I WAS BORN

Could someone ever forgive a mom who would abandon not one but three newborn babies within blocks of each other over a five-year period? It is an incredible mystery that is solved right before viewers' eyes, as "20/20" teams up with renowned DNA detective and genetic genealogist CeCe Moore. Janet Barnicoat, one of those three baby foundlings, started her search as many do, with a Facebook post begging for clues about her biological family. The post went viral. After hearing about her story, Moore volunteered to help her on her search. What followed is a bewildering and shocking story, as Barnicoat discovers she is one of three siblings abandoned by the same mother.

A MOTHER'S CRUSADE

Kelsie Schelling mysteriously vanished into thin air in Pueblo, Colorado, over three years ago. The family says surveillance video, text messages and other evidence point to her boyfriend's involvement, yet, to their outrage, police have not yet classified the case as a homicide and have not charged him with a crime. But then a series of Facebook messages to Kelsie's mother raise new theories – is the missing girl's disappearance prompting someone to attempt extortion? "20/20" Ryan Smith's reports.

BAD BLOOD

Michele Harris, a mother of four young children, disappeared without a trace from her luxurious home in upstate New York. Many believed the 35-year-old had run away. Police believed evidence found inside the home she shared with her estranged husband, Cal, suggested they look no further than him. The couple had been going through a contentious divorce while still living under the same roof. Cal Harris has been tried four times for Michele's murder, two convictions were overturned on appeal, and one resulted in a mistrial. Just last Tuesday Harris was acquitted of all charges after the fourth trial. Now, he speaks to ABC News' Matt Gutman.

LOOKING FOR LAUREN

It's been five years since the disappearance of Indiana college student Lauren Spierer. The 20-year-old coed from Westchester, New York, was last seen on June 3, 2011 at 4:30 a.m. on a Bloomington street corner. Her disappearance, which made national headlines, was never solved and Lauren's heartbroken parents Rob and Charlene Spierer have led a five-year search to find out what happened to their daughter. A "20/20" investigation by ABC News Chief Investigative Correspondent Brian Ross and former FBI agent and ABC News Consultant Brad Garrett finds new hope in a cold case.

FORBIDDEN LOVE

Mary Kay Letournea was a second grade teacher at Shorewood Elementary School in Burien. She was a great teacher and her students loved her, but at home she was having marriage problems. Mary Kay taught Vili in the fall of 1990 when he was in second grade and once again when he 12 years old. Vili and his teacher became really close and he was considered as the "Teacher's pet" she focused specifically on Vili. Mary Kay and Vili had sex in the summer of 1996; Mary Kay told a friend she was in love and how Vili was her soul mate and they had not had sex (lied). A few weeks later she was pregnant by her 13-year-old student and could not hide her pregnancy because the baby would be "brown and have black hair." Her husband found out and someone had called child Protective Services and the School District to report that Mary Kay had had sex with a 13-year-old. She had their daughter, faced a trial, served time in prison and released, never to have contact with Vili nor their daughter again.

THE MYSTERY OF SHELBY WILKIE MURDER

At 38, Shelby Wilkie, from Asheville, North Carolina, seemed to have it all. She was a manager at a local radio group and married to her husband Michael Wilkie, with whom she had a 3-month-old daughter named Sydney. She was excited to start a family and have a baby; however, just months into their marriage, the two began having issues, and eventually, Shelby's parents said, she made plans to leave Michael, taking baby Sydney with her. But on New Year's Day 2012, the new mother vanished, leaving her baby behind. It was the last time Shelby's family heard from her. 20/20 reports.

20/20: IN AN INSTANT

Saturday, June 18, 2016 (premiere)

"In an Instant" does more than just re-tell heart-pounding first-person accounts of the world's most harrowing tales of survival; it brings them to life with breathtaking dramatizations of the moments before and after life was forever changed. The powerful series features trials and triumphs from every angle and includes gripping first-person interviews with the people who lived to tell their stories, and those who were instrumental in helping them survive.

Tragedy in Tornado Alley

- On May 20, 2013 the Storm Prediction Center issued a tornado watch for Eastern Oklahoma; two hours later storm spotters confirmed that an EF5 tornado had touched down and was ripping across the state towards the city of Moore, where school was in session. Teachers at Plaza Towers Elementary donned brave faces while bracing the students for impact. Talking for the first time ever on television, teacher Jennifer Doan, whose Plaza Towers class was the hardest hit, shares her very personal story of tragedy and triumph left in the tornado's wake.

Murder in the Maternity Ward

- Jae Lowder checked into Alta View Hospital expecting to have a baby, but soon she was caught in a violent hostage crisis.
- Rick Worthington, himself a father of eight, had burst into the hospital demanding to find the doctor who performed a tubal ligation surgery on his wife two years earlier. Worthington erroneously claimed the doctor performed the procedure without his wife's knowledge or consent while she was sleeping.
- New mom Cindy Tovey could only listen to the scene outside her room unfold in terror since she could not move, temporarily paralyzed from the waist down after a C-section. Like Jae Lowder, she spent agonizing hours wondering if her newborn was safe.
- Glade Curtis was the doctor Worthington came to kill. He was at Alta View that night and called 911 after doing what he could to get babies out safely. But no one did more to keep moms and babies alive than the nurses, including Margie Wyler, who helped a mom deliver her baby during the crisis, and Karla Roth, who sacrificed her own life in a brave attempt to wrestle a gun away from Worthington.
