

Commission's response to criticism regarding the omission of education in the annual list of priorities.

*Politics 4/18
*Downtown Revitalization
*Public Health

Fayetteville Mayor Mitch Colvin on the cost overruns for Segra Stadium, the acrimonious discourse between City Council members regarding the work of the Appointment Committee and the proposal to sell or lease the Public Works Commission. Chris Tart, Cape Fear Valley Health System's Vaccine Clinic Coordinator, on the puzzling turnaround from more people than COVID vaccine doses to fewer people wanting the vaccine and the latest on the controversy around the Johnson & Johnson vaccine.

*Community 4/25
*Public Safety
*Crime

Fayetteville Observer Opinion Editor Myron Pitts offers his thoughts on the conviction of Derek Chauvin in the murder of George Floyd in Minneapolis. Jimmy Buxton, president of the local chapter of the NAACP, offers his thoughts on the Derek Chauvin trial and conviction for the murder of George Floyd.

*Community 5/2
*Economy
*Education
*Politics
*Military

The General Manager of the local AMC Theaters, Allen McWhorter, on how the theaters have fared during the COVID pandemic and his thoughts as Governor Roy Cooper's restrictions are relaxed and more attendees are allowed. North Carolina's reigning Teacher Of The Year, Maureen Stover of Cumberland International Early College High School, on the efforts of teachers throughout the COVID pandemic, the one-year mark of the pandemic is passed. North Carolina Representative Billy Richardson on House Bill 370, a bill he sponsored to aid North Carolina veterans, what he sees as a new spirit of cooperation in the state legislature and the latest on election regulations.

*Economy 5/9
*Community
*Crime
*Downtown Revitalization

Robert Van Geons, President and CEO of the Fayetteville Cumberland Economic Development Corporation, announces that Amazon will be building and operating a large delivery station in Fayetteville. North Carolina Representative John Szoka on the potential infusion to the county and cities of millions of dollars in federal grant money through the America Rescue Plan, and some legislation being debated including a bill that would strengthen regulations governing police use of force. Shari Fiveash, the new President and CEO of the Greater Fayetteville Chamber of Commerce makes her first appearance on Good Morning Fayetteville the day after being introduced to the community.

*Crime
*Public Safety
*Politics
*Downtown Revitalization

5/16

Fayetteville Police Chief Gina Hawkins on the celebration of National Police Week and the recent spate of shooting deaths across the country. Fayetteville City Manager Doug Hewett on his recommended city budget presented to City Council this week and the possible uses of expected revenue from the American Rescue Plan. John Manuel, Minnesota Twins scout and former editor of Baseball America magazine, on the hot topics of this baseball season including the defensive shift and the change of status of the Fayetteville Woodpeckers.

*Crime
*Public Safety
*Politics
*Downtown Revitalization

5/23

REPLAY: Fayetteville Police Chief Gina Hawkins on the celebration of National Police Week and the recent spate of shooting deaths across the country. Fayetteville City Manager Doug Hewett on his recommended city budget presented to City Council this week and the possible uses of expected revenue from the American Rescue Plan. John Manuel, Minnesota Twins scout and former editor of Baseball America magazine, on the hot topics of this baseball season including the defensive shift and the change of status of the Fayetteville Woodpeckers.

*Public Safety
*Community
*Public Health
*Downtown Revitalization

5/30

Fayetteville Police Department Major Rob Spatorico on his and the department's commitment to helping the Special Olympics, and the upcoming Olympic Torch Run that will take place despite the fact that the State Games have been cancelled due to the COVID pandemic. May is Skin Cancer Awareness Month, and Dr. David Klumpar of Carolina Skin Care makes his annual appearance to educate people about the dangers of skin cancer. Ashley Owen of the Cape Fear Regional Theater on the start of the new season - outside due to the extensive renovation for CFRT's 60th season.

*Public Safety 6/6
*Community
*Public Health
*Downtown Revitalization

REPLAY: Fayetteville Police Department Major Rob Spatorico on his and the department's commitment to helping the Special Olympics, and the upcoming Olympic Torch Run that is taking take place despite the fact that the State Games have been cancelled due to the COVID pandemic. May is Skin Cancer Awareness Month, and Dr. David Klumpar of Carolina Skin Care makes his annual appearance to educate people about the dangers of skin cancer. Ashley Owen of the Cape Fear Regional Theater on the start of the new season - outside due to the extensive renovation for CFRT's 60th season.

*Community 6/13
*Downtown Revitalization
*Public Health
*Public Safety

John Manuel, Minnesota Twins scout and former editor of Baseball America magazine, on the hot topics of this baseball season including the defensive shift and the change of status of the Fayetteville Woodpeckers. Chris Tart, Vice President of Professional Services at Cape Fear Valley Health System, on the true benefits of the COVID vaccine, short and long term, and the latest directives of the CDC. Tommy Rains, a biologist who works with Cape Fear Wildlife Control, on ridding your home of animal invaders, like the squirrel he found in Goldy's attic.

*Community 6/20
*Downtown Revitalization
*Public Health
*Public Safety

REPLAY: John Manuel, Minnesota Twins scout and former editor of Baseball America magazine, on the hot topics of this baseball season including the defensive shift and the change of status of the Fayetteville Woodpeckers. Chris Tart, Vice President of Professional Services at Cape Fear Valley Health System, on the true benefits of the COVID vaccine, short and long term, and the latest directives of the CDC. Tommy Rains, a biologist who works with Cape Fear Wildlife Control, on ridding your home of animal invaders, like the squirrel he found in Goldy's attic.

*Community
*Economy
*Downtown Revitalization

6/27

Fayetteville Mayor Mitch Colvin on the new homeless day center, downtown construction and things getting back to normal. Meghan Reed, the owner of new downtown business Reverie Goods & Gifts, on the negative reaction she received from displaying a Pride flag. Jenny Bell, the Marketing Manager for Cool Spring Downtown District, on the new farmer's market in Festival Park and the new trolleys that offer free downtown transportation.