TOPIC OF THIS SHOW: Yuma AYF
Guest: KRIS DUKE AND RICHIE MARTIN

6:15am

ISSUE: 1,3,

Youth Sports is a huge deal here in Yuma. Richie has been in the Community for years and his kids were involved with Pop Warner Football but for the most part they noticed that that league Had a weight requirement instead of an age requirement. The AYF Is a football league that is an age group requirement. This is a new league and keeping the kids safe while playing sports. Some of the kids are missing out if they are not taken by a Pop Warner Team. This league give the kids who want to be involved with Playing football a better chance of being able to be on a team and Not be turned away for weight issues.

Show # 2016-14

Date aired: 4/2 & 4/3 Time Aired: 6:30AM

Marie Jameson, home and lifestyle columnist, author of "Downsizing The Family Home: What to Save, What to Let Go"

Nearly everyone eventually faces the difficult, emotional journey of downsizing an aging parents' home. She talked about the often unexpected emotions and challenges as people sort through a lifetime of possessions. She explained how to make wise decisions on what to keep, toss or sell, and why it is usually easiest if elder family members are involved, rather than leaving the task to their heirs after their death.

Issues covered:

Senior Citizens
Retirement Planning
Mental Health

Length: 8:56

Tracey Helton Mitchell, former heroin addict, author of "The Big Fix: Hope After Heroin"

Ms. Mitchell shared her story of addiction and recovery. She spent eight years on the streets of San Francisco as a heroin addict, then successfully quit and started life anew. She talked about the common misconceptions about heroin addiction, especially for women, and offered advice for those who are struggling with substance abuse.

Issues covered:

Substance Abuse
Women's Issues
Government Policies

Length: 8:23

Arielle O'Shea, investing staff writer at NerdWallet.com

It's no secret that Americans need to save more. Ms. O'Shea outlined a recent analysis by NerdWallet that found an alternative approach. She said a 25-year-old could accumulate nearly $1 million by simply saving and investing 50% of all raises and bonuses over the course of his or her career. She explained why saving for the future is more critical than ever and why this approach may be easier than more traditional plans.

Issues covered:

Personal Finance
Retirement Planning

Length: 4:54

Show # 2016-15

Date aired: 4/9 & 4/10 Time Aired: 6:30 AM

Michelle A. Riklan, employment and career expert, co-author of "101 Great Ways to Compete in Today's Job Market"

Mr. Riklan offered marketing ideas for people either looking for a job or hoping to move their careers forward. She explained the critical importance of social media in today's job market and offered tips to optimize a LinkedIn page. She said even people who are secure in their current jobs should be prepared to immediately take advantage of an opportunity at a better job.

Issues covered:

Length: 8:49

Employment Matters Career

Judy Foreman, nationally syndicated health columnist, author of "A Nation in Pain: Healing Our Biggest Health Problem"

According to government statistics, 100 million American adults live in chronic pain. Ms. Foreman discussed the connection between chronic pain and prescription drug addiction. She said exercise is one of the most effective ways to deal with chronic pain. She also discussed reforms in government policies that could allow the healthcare system to better deal with the epidemic of chronic pain.

Issues covered:

Length: 8:30

Personal Health
Drug Abuse
Government Policies

Ciji Ware, author of "Rightsizing Your Life"

Many Baby Boomers are beginning to think about the future and how many material possessions they really need. Ms. Ware believes that more isn't always better. She offered ideas on how to make wise decisions in downsizing, in particular through recycling and donating unneeded items.

Issues covered:

Length: 4:58

Charitable Contributions
Recycling
